THE GREAT CONTEST.

Next came the sensational contest between Allerton and Delmarch, and the betting, which the night before had been $1,000 to $650 on Allerton, now became even. An immense amount of money went into the pool boxes, and many were unable to get their bets. The appearance of Williams and Allerton was greeted with loud cheers. Allerton appeared to be in splendid condition. Doble soon came on the track with Delmarch, and he was almost as vociferously greeted. Walker sent them away on even terms, Delmarch leading half a length at the quarter and a length at the half, and a length and a half at the three-quarter. An Exceeding Rich Find Reported From Northern Wisconsin. DETAILS OF THE DISCOVERY.

Ore That Assays Three Hundred Ounces on

White Metal to the Ton.

A GREAT STAMPEDE FOR THE HILDS

WEST SUPERIOR, WIS., Oct. 15 .- Silver, apparently in great quantities, has been found within 20 miles of this city, and already the mining craze has affected the whole town. Ore has been brought into town which assays over 300 ounces of silver to the ton, and the deposits are said to be very extensive. The find was made by W. C. Tonken, a practical miner from Nevada.

Surrounding this city at a distance of 7 to 15 miles is a rough range of hills, semicircular in form, rugged and almost precipitous. It is heavily wooded and indented by deep gullies that render driving almost impossible and which have prevented a thorough exploration of the range. The lower portion of the elevation is fairly approachable, and more than 20 years ago copper was found in such quantities as to give the range of hills the title by which they are now known, "Copper" Range. The mineral was found in its native state, but the top formation convinced miners that the cost of taking the metal out would not warrant the putting in of a prospect plant on a large scale. The increased value of the timber on the range has recently caused settlers and lum-bermen to push further up the slopes, and a large vein of copper on the surface, which was discovered by the hunters, attracted the attention of miners to the locality, and a very little prospecting showed the presence silver and sulphurets in such of native quantities that an attache of the smelting orks undertook a thorough investigation. W. C. Tonken, of Nevada, was commis-sioned to undertake the investigation, and a month ago he disappeared in the foot hills of the range with orders to settle the question.

WHAT LED TO THE FIND.

A few miles from the city he met a woodman who had in a gully picked up a piece of silver weighing over a pound and nearly 85 per cent line. The man was pressed into service and a thorough prospect of the place of his find followed. A few days' work convinced Tonken that the silver found was a part of the washings from the almost in accessible heights above the ravine, and proof of the rich minerals in the ledges was found in paving quantities. Tonken packed up a hundred pounds of the washings and brought it into town. An assay showed results fittle less than marvelous, several specimens of the ore running from 300 to 500 ounces to the ton. The "strike" was kept very dark, and when Tonken went back he was equipped for a thorough prospect, though his party was necessarily small. On September 28 prospecting was begun on the hillside above where the first silver had been found. The indications were fairly good, but the Ne-vada miner was confronted with a new geological order and he could not account for the croppings of the white metal which he found in trap formation. When he forced his way to the lower ledge on the side of the gully the signs changed and the trap disappeared to give place to silics and on the first ledge which gave him a foothold the prospector turned out a rich silicate with free silver and salphurcts in sufficient quantity to thrill him. with the prospect of wealth. He left his assistants at work on the prospect and came to the city under cover, found the owner of the land on which he had made the strike, and within 24 hours was the owner of an option for the purchase of a half interest in a section of land on the mountain side, which, unless it is rich in ores, is worth exactly the price of the timber growing on it.

LOCAL BASEBALL GOSSIP.
President O'Neil and Pitcher King Say a Few Words About Salaries. President O'Neil, of the local club, and Charley King passed a few pleasantries yes- serday afternoon. The former said: "Well, Charley, what are your terms now for next year?" "I have raised $1,500, and that makes my my figure $6,500," replied King. "You must wait and see what those who are going to run the club will give you," was Mr. O'Neil's rejoinder.
Subsequently King stated that he was not in a signing humor at present, and does not	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •

Work on the State Line Begun.

CANONSBURG, Oct. 15 .- [Special.]-The people who have so often received assurance that the Canonsburg and State Line Railroad was a fact now have the first and only necessary evidence. To-day actual work was begun on the line but a short distance from this place, and it is said by the pro-jectors that people from this territory will soon be going to Pittsburg by the State Line. This road opens up a great country, underlaid with coal, and will make a rich feeder for Pittsburg. The people all along the line have finally voted $3,000 a mile to nid the project.

A Wife Murder at Scranton,

SCRANTON, Oct. 15 .- Stephen De Ayala shot and instantly killed his wife in the May House this evening. He was jcalous of her and they were quarreling. Finally he fired two shots at her. Both entered her breast, one passing through her heart. The murderer started to flee, but was pursued by a crowd and captured in the cellar of a hotel. He was so terrified by the howling mob that he was glad to surrender to an officer.

A Causeless Panic at East Livernool.

EAST LIVERPOOL, Oct. 15 .- [Special.]-At the public school house this afternoon a small boy fainted in the primary department, and the children, becoming frightened, fied the room. A colored man passing, saw the rush and tore down street velling "fire" at the top of his voice. The uproar raised a great crowd in a moment, and the pressure became so great that the heavy front gates were closed. Then trouble be-gan with the many mothers of the children within the school, who began calling for their infants, and pleading and weeping. Notwithstanding the assurance that there was no fire, they refused to be comforted until the gates were opened, and the air cleared enough to make out the forms of a dozen delighted mothers carrying in their arms their precious children unharmed.

Tried to Wreck a Train.

FINDLAY, Oct. 15 .- [Special.]-A bold attempt to wreck a train was made this morning on the Nickel Plate Railroad between Stewartsville and Arcadia, in this county, Two pieces of iron had been placed between the rails in such a manner as to throw the engine off the track. If the obstruction had not been discovered by Peter Williams, a farmer, a terrible accident would have have pened, as it was in a dangerous place. He notified the agent at Stewartsville, who held the trains until the iron could be removed. It is supposed that someone had a grievance against the company and took this plan of getting even. An investigation will follow.

Tramps Rob a Train of Shoes

PARKERSBURG, Oct. 15 .- [Special.]-To day the police discovered that a large consignment of shoes for Gats & Thomas, of Clarington, O., had been stolen from an Ohio River freight train by tramps, who boarded the train, overawed the crew and threw off the shoes. They then paid a woman in shoes to ferry them to Ohio, and disappeared with the larger part of their stealings, though many shoes of inferior kind were found scattered all along the creek and road. No clew.

woman who has been wandering about Lincoln township, near McKeesport, for several days, and who was brought to this city last night, was found to be Mrs. John Connelly, a very respected resident and a prop-erty owner. Her mind appears to be af fected, and the death of her child a few weeks since is supposed to be the cause. She had been wandering around for two days before she was taken in charge. She will be taken to a Pittsburg hospital.

Tri-State Brevities

A rLUM at Leechburg is blooming for the econd time this season. MRS. JANE SCHOOLCRAFT, a Kanawha county, W. Va., widow, has just married her eighth husband. Her first wedding took place 20 years ago.

NOAH ADAIR, one of the most notorious moonshiners of West Virginia, the suver of five men, is now in juil at Charleston, W. Va. He was captured in Virginia.

A BIG FOUR passener train crushed into ome freight cars on the main track at White sulphur Springs, O., Wednesday evening, wrecking the locomotives and five cars, but seriously injuring no one.

D. W. Youxa came to Leechburg all th way from Bucyrus to see the old flag of the One Hundred and Thirty-ninth Pennsyl-vania Regiment. He was its bearer through many a battle and had not seen it since the war. He carried back with him a piece of the tattered relic.

SAMUEL LOUGHNER, a miner at Claridge, Westmoreland county, was badly injured yesterday morning by being run over by a trip. One of his lezs was crushed to a pulp, and he sustained internal injuries. Samuel Parsons, another miner, who was with him, was also badly hurt.

THE gan whose forging for the Govern ment was witnessed several days ago by ment was witnessed several days ago by Secretary Tracy and Commodore Folger, at the Bethlehem Iron Works, is to be a 13-inch tube 42 feet long, and is destined for use on one of the new battle ships. It will be the greatest steel gun ever made in America.

DEVELOPING THE PROSPECT.

With the option in his pocket Mr. Tonken became a little more communicative and began to talk. He was laughed at and went back to his prespect to develop it further. His men had got out a considerable quantity of dirt, but the direction of the practi-cal miner had been lacking. His only bagcal miner had been making. His only dag gage in tramping back by the range was a quantity of blasting powder and he put the men to work drilling. All day Sunday, October 4, the drilling and blasting went en, and the last blast after dark Sunday evening dislodged an immense pile of the soft formation, sending tons of dirt and rock into the gulch below, and very nearly cost of the soft the adventurers their lives.

At dawn Tonken went down himself, and says that when he saw what the blast had laid bare he did not call down the men, though it cost him an effort to contain him About 30 yards of the ledge had self. crashed into the ravine through the effects of the blast, and everywhere along the newly exposed surface the free metal glistened in its bed of silica. He called to the men to throw down ropes and sacks and as much dirt and rocks as they could carry he picked out in handfuls at random, along the whole race of exposed surface, and the party came in loaded with wealth and presenting an appearance of having received some hard knocks. Climbing up and down hill-sides had reduced their clothing to tatters and bruised them badly.

THE ORE RICH IN METAL.

The result of 13 assays made to-day at the West Superior Smelter Company's works show that the ore ranges from 30 the lowest, to 312 ounces of pure silver to the ton, with an average of over 50 ounces. says there is enough in sight to pay for building a railroad and le range. The peculiar nature of the forma-tion made experienced men hesitate to secept as true the reports of the silver find. but the men brought in the metal, and that settled it.

Settled It. When the story was verified there was a stampede for the hills, and to-day the woods are full of prospectors, and capitalists are cultivating Tonkon. Land on the copper range is worth a good deal more to-night than it was this morning, and hundreds of dollars per acre are contemptuously refused for hilly tracts that would not bring as many cents ten days ago. Tonken's strike is in town 48, range 13, but the section is not known.

A DEADLOCK IN SUGAR

The New Bounty Law Causes a Serious Lot of Trouble for Planters.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 15 .- [Special.]-The new sugar bounty law has been found to work very badly here so far and to interfere seriously with the marketing of the crop. The sugar is already arriving in considerable quantities, for as there are no importers or weighers yet in the country the planters have shipped their sugar to New Orleans to be weighed and inspected here. The local officials are not ready for work and the officials are not ready for work and tedious that under present regulations it will take until next summer to arrange the bous In the meanwhile the planters are unable to sell their goods until the matter of bounty is settled and the hitch has caused a com-plete deadlock in the sugar trade and threatens to cause a great deal of injury. A meeting of the Sugar Exchange was held to day to consider the matter, and a conferto-day to consider the matter, and a conference with the officials of the Internal Revenue Bureau was determined on, at which a change will be made in the bounty regulations, so as to expedite the work of inspec tion
