GAMBLERS AT OUTS.

One Has Himself Arrested and Fined, Then Starts a Crusade.

EVERY FINDLAY HOUSE PULLED.

It Is Left for the Law-Breakers Themselves to Enforce the Law.

MINOR NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. FINDLAY, Oct. 18 .- A bitter war has sprung up among the gambling fraternity of Findlay. Where the strife originated, or what were the causes from which it sprung, is a mystery, but the war has taken such an active form that the courts have been appealed to, and the gamblers are all rushing around swearing out warrants against each other and determined to break up each other's establishments.

Last night Warren D. Bakeman, an oldtime sport, had himself arrested and fined as a common gambler, and then he started in on a crusade against a number of institutions. He swore warrants for the houses of Joseph Ingersoll, George W. Shoemaker and Rox Altman, and had them arrested. had all their rooms raided and their appliwarrants and had the house of James Nye pulled and their apparatus secured.

The bondsmen of the ten men arrested for gambling on the fair grounds then surrendered them, and new bondsmen had to be secured. The proceedings kept two Justices of the Peace up almost all night. The city has been overrun with the green goods gen-try who have been unmolested by the muni-cipal authorities, but now that the gamblers hemselves have started to fight one another the prospect of eradicating this evil is

LADIES OCCUPY BRADFORD PULPITS. The Ill Effects of the Copper Polsoning

Have Almost Passed Away. BRADFORD, Oct. 18 .- [Special.] -- According to the usages and belief of the W. C. T. U. now in State session here, no meetings were held to-day. The citizens, however, are enjoying to-night something unique in the ory of the churches here, in listening to history of the churches here, in listening to lady preschers, many of the pulpits being occupied by prominent visiting delegates. The ladies most severely affected by the poisoning affair of the other day are all well recovered, though the ill effect of the copper caten with food at that fateful dinner has hardly passed away. The several churches to night were crowded, and excellent sermons were delivered by the ladies occupying the pulpits with the regular ministers. To-morrow the regular sessions will be resumed.

A Braddock Church Dedicated.

BRADDOCK, Oct. 18 .- [Special.]-The dedicaon of the German Evangelical Protestant Church here to-day marked another importit event in church circles in this vicinity. The dedicatory services were held at 3 o'clock this afternon, and the interior of the o clock this afternon, and the interior of the ciegant little church on Fourth street was incomed almost to suffocation. Rev. G. E. Barig, of Manchester, made the festival speech and the dedicatory address was delivered by Rev. Mr. Schnorr, of Mt. Washington. The singing was by a united chorus from the German Evangelican Protestant churches of Pittsburg, Allegheny, Homestend, McKeesport and Braddock, and numbered 60 voices. The German Evangelical Protestant Church was established here in March, 1899. Six months ago the present edifice was put under course of construction, and has been completed at a cost of $1,360. One-half this debt has already been liquidated, and a goodly portion of the balance was raised to-day.

Attacked by a Snake. BRAVER FALLS. Oct. 18 .- [Special.]-Last night, about midnight, a gentleman, accomnamied by two young ladies, one of whom on a visit to friends, paid a visit to the Co-Operative Glass Works to see the plant in operation. While they were watching the workmen they were horrifled to see wriggling toward them over the brick floor a huge snake. Miss Duncan's lady com-panion screamed and fled, while her male companion began to back away from the roptile. Miss Duncan stood her ground, and when the snake approached close enough she struck it with her umbrella and killed it. The snake was of the black racer species, and measured 3 feet 9 inches. The Iowa delegate reported Cline at once, and he was stripped of all ministerial prerogative by the Conference. Cline then turned his attention to raising money on forged paper, secured a large amount and moved over into another State. Cline leaves a wife and two children here, and is said to have a wife

WHAT ENGLAND PROPOSES TO DO TO STRENGTHEN CANADA.

She May Send a Fleet of Gunboats to the Lakes if the United States Abrogates the Naval Agreement-Frightened at the Annexation Sentiment.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18 .- Following close upon the announcement that the United States Government intended to abrogate the agreement entered into with Great Britain in 1817 and place a fleet of gunboats on the Great Lakes, comes the report to-day that at the request of the British Government Lord Stanley has demanded an immediate report upon the defenses of the Dominion.

The request of Lord Salisbury was communicated through Lord Stanley and Premier Abbott last week, and the Minister of Militia promised to have the report ready to be forwarded to the British Government to-day. For several years next the British to-day. For several years past the British Government has been hammering at Sir John Macdonald to strengthen the defenses of Canada, that in the event of trouble the Dominion might not be solely dependent upon Great Britain for protection. This re-quest has not been carried out to the satis-faction of the British Government. It is stated on the highest authority that the officer commanding the Dominion forces, General Herbert, was sent out to Canada to investigate the actual state of affairs, which He then swore out a search warrant and his predecessors appear to have sorely ances captured by the officers. Later Will-iam Shenkle, another gambler, swore out eral Herbert and the Minister of Militia, Sir Adolph Caron, are somewhat strained as a result, is an open secret. There appears to be little doubt that it is the intention of the British Government to send several regiments to Canada shortly. This has been in contemplation for some time. Again, the fortifications at Hallfax, still under the control of the imperial authori-

Government abrogated the agreement of 1817, which restricted the naval forces of both Canada and the United States on the Great Lakes to four vessels each, Great Britain will run up a fleet of her iron clads to keep them company.

It has been suggested that England has become alarmed at the strong annexation movement which appears to have seized her ubjects in Canada, and is going to take preautionary measures, if necessary at the oint of the bayonet, to prevent its further

A COLLEGE FOR MISSIONARIES.

The Lucy Webb Hayes Denconesses' Bible School at Washington Dedicated.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 .- The Lucy Webb Hayes Denconesses' Bible College for Home and Foreign Missionaries was dedicated here yesterday afternoon in the presence of an audience as distinguished as it was large, there being present some of the well-known bishops of the Methodist Church on this side of the water and some of the eminent divines from the other side. Dr. Street, Chairman of the Building Committee, made a brief address, stating what had been done in the way of improvements, and concluding by turning the Home over to Mrs. Rust, of Cincinnati. as a representative of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. The work of the Home is national in character and erected under the auspices of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The work was put under the supervision of a Confer-ence Board of nine appointed by the Balti-more Conference. The course of study will be systematic and complete and will cover

GARZA STILL AT LARGE.

The Revolutionist Is Difficult Game Though a Big Price Is on His Head.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., Oct. 18 .- The capture of Catinero E. Garza, the leader of the revolution now in progress in the Northern States of Mexico, has not yet been effected, although President Diaz has offered a reward of $30,000 to anyone who will take him, dead or alive. It has been a difficult matter ro get authentic information of the bold invader during the past week, but the report reached here late last night that he was in the immediate vicinity of Piedras Negras, Mex., with an army of several hundred men well armed.

The Mexican Government is hurrying troops to that section by the hundred, and will make every effort to bring the upris-ing to an end. Great alarm is felt among citizens on both sides of the Rio Grand-That Garza has not yet given up his wild undertaking is shown by a stirring manifesto which he has just issued.

ANOTHER WORLD'S FAIR STRIKE.

When a Foreman Is Reduced to the Ranks His Men Quit Work.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18 .- One hundred and twenty men, employed on the Electricity building at the World's Fair grounds, quit work yesterday because their foreman, Wm. Irving, had been given the alternative to accept a subordinate position at 40 cents an hour or quit. He has been a great favorite with the men, and when one of the employers last week discharged 32 men with-out consulting him, on the ground that they this morning. The new church is two stories lists, of brick, and cost $35,099. A number of Pittsburg priests were in actendance. This was the third Catholic church instituted in this city, with the late Bishop Tuigg as its subordinate position.

The men assert he was reduced because he strictly enforced all of the State laws regarding the wages and hours of labor. He was the only foreman at the grounds, it is said, who insisted upon the weekly payday.

FIGHT PRISONERS BREAK JAIL.

One of Them Returns, Hunts Up the Sheriff and Surrenders.

TEXARKANA, ARK., Oct. 18 .- Some time last night eight prisoners confined in the Bowie county (Texas) jail at Ball, the county seat, succeeded in breaking through the wooden wall and escaping. Among them are Robert Scott and Spencer Miles, both self-confessed murderers.

The other prisoners who escaped were in for minor offenses, with the exception of Bud Gibson, colored, recently sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, who walked to this point, a distance of 20 miles, hunted up the sheriff, surrendered himself and notified him of the escape of the others. Officers are out, and little doubt is enter-tained that all the parties will be recap-

MRS. PARNELL'S PLAN

She Intends to Write a Book Vindicating Her Husband's Actions.

PROOF HE WAS TOO PROUD TO USE,

As He Thought the Irish Should Believe in Rim Without Question.

LONDON, Oct. 18 .- The Herald correspondent, over the signature of "A Mem-ber of Parliament," cables his paper as fol-

Mrs. Parnell remains in a precarious condition, though during the last two days she has slightly rallied. It has been with the greatest difficulty that the doctors and her friends have prevailed upon her to take any food. Neither she nor Mr. Parnell anticipated any danger till toward the last ment. Mr. Parnell had been almost as ill before and always rallied, but this time the tall tower was undermined, and it fell with a crash. The immense gap occasioned by its disappearance is only just beginning to be realized. The truth is the entire Irish party is more hopelessly adrift than

The Parnellites are loud in their cries for evenge, and there has been a wonderful ra'ly to them of the masses in Ireland, who begin to take up the cry that Parnell was first sacrificed for the English party and then worried into the grave. He is the John Brown of Irish politics. His name exercises a magic influence over the Irish people. The secessionists cannot but see that the crisis is becoming very serious. They hoped for a reconciliation all around, but their overtures have been flung back in ties, are being strengthened to make that naval station impregnable. The same policy is to be carried out in British Columbia.

Speaking on the question of defenses today, a prominent official of the Government said that the moment the United States Government and the moment the United States of Government of the moment of deemed it prudent to keep out o sight, leaving William O'Brien to endeavor to justify his action. McCarthy and O'Con-nor are presenting their side of the case with great industry, the Parnellites are endeavoring to secure organs in the press and the whole field resounds with the clash of MONEY AND LEADER WANTED. There is some hope that Michael Davitt will be able to act as peacemaker, but the true Parnellites don't want peace and will not have it on any terms at present. Presently they will look around for two things—money and a leader. No one can see where they are to come from. For leader they speak of Pierce Mahony, who is almost unknown in the House of Commons. He could not arouse any enthysiasm. If he He could not arouse any enthusiasm. If h is to be Parnell's successor the party will soon die out and a fusion will become in-

I hear that Mrs. Parnell intends, if she recovers her health, to write a memoir of the great leader, and to relieve him from much of the blame cast upon him on her ac-count. There are, I am assured, two sides to the O'Shea divorce, of which the public has heard only one. Parnell would never condescend to defend himself, especially after he was assailed by Mr. Gladstone. He held that the Irish people ought to have seen that a dead set was made at him because he was England's most formidable antagor ist, but Mrs. Parnell is determined that the whole truth shall come out. It will then be seen, as I am informed, that though Parnell was not free from guilt, he was nothing like so guilty as the world has been led to be-

Rumors of this kind were afloat before the trial, and I believe some of Parnell's friends, who afterward deserted him, put implicit faith in them.

MRS. PARNELL'S STRONG PERSONALITY. Mrs. Parnell will never play into the hands of her husband's enemies. She is a woman of great ability and determination. She is not handsome, but she is very winin appearance and manner and pa ately devoted to her late husband. She did her utmost to provide him with a happy home during the last few harassed months of his life. He fled to it as a refuge from the storm, but nothing could restrain his eagerness to set himself right with the Irish people.

His wife's name was never mentioned, but his thoughts were never long away from her. His only defense of his conduct was that he had not acted treacherously or broken up a home. If Mrs. Parnell carries out her present purpose this position will be established by facts and documents which do not admit of challenge or disproof.
