TALKING FOR VOTES.

Gregg, Morrison and Dalzell Go to West Newton and Address a Big Crowd in a Snow Storm.

LOCAL AFFAIRS GETTING LIVELY.

Democrats Angry About a Straightout Circular, Which They Declare Is Simply Villainous.

OUIET CONVENTIONS OF YESTERDAY.

An Ovation to Be Tendered Chairman Kerr To-Day in Pittsburg.

The political olls podrida was more varied yesterday than on Monday. The Democrats were excited over the circulation of a German-English circular which they called "villainous" and "libelous." It was issued by the Straightout Republicans, and consisted of an attack on the bench in Common Pleas No. 3.

Democratic quarters were visited by Al. Itend, of Pipe Creek, and he distributed about a dozen of hickory capes.

The Straightout Republicans have arranged a meeting to be held this evening in the Eleventh Street Opera House, Bradslock. They say that they know from reports received from scouts and skirmishers that it will be a big one. The speakers will be J. S. Robb, C. A. O'Brien, William Walls and L. K. Porter.

a meeting in McKeesport, but whether it will be on the 27th or 28th has not yet been determined. The speakers assigned are Congressman Dalzell and Clarence Bur-

AN OVATION FOR CHAIRMAN KERR.

The Democracy have decided to give State Chairman Kerr an ovation at the Monongabela House this evening. He is touring the State for points. Commissioner Boyle, who is invited to the conference says be does not know its specific purpose. The Democracy are somewhat divided in opinion as to whether they should hold mass meetings or work on the quiet.

The Democracy yesterday made nomina tions for delegates to the Constitutional Convention. The convention for the Fortythird Senatorial district was held in Common Council chamber, Alderman McKenna presiding, R. Coll, Secretary. There were bree candidates, Thomas Herriott, J. R. P. Duff and S. A. Dunean. Herriott and Duncan were elected on the first ballot. Captain W. J. Dick presided at the Fortyearth Senatorial District Convention. The proceedings were brief and to the point and James II. Hopkins and Lewis Holtz-man were nominated delegates.

A BIG RALLY AT WEST NEWTON.

The Republican esmpaign was opened at West Newton last night, but amid a slight snow storm, which did not chill the enthusiasm of over 1,000 people who gathered to participate in the only large mass meeting in the county this year. Several bands headed the parade, which was reviewed by Congressman Dalzell and Generals Morriso and Gregg, from the veranda of the Yough House. The meeting was presided over by Dr. Sutton, who introduced General Morrison in a elever speech outlining the policy of his party. General Morrison spoke briefly, as also did General Gregg, and gave way to the Congressman from the Twenty-second distriet. He outlined the gallant army record of the two candidates, tollowing with a scathing rebuke to the Democratic party for charging the Republicans with being responsible for Bardsley's defalcation, showig that over $2,000,000 had been embezzled v Democratic State Treasurers during the past five years, closing his address with a execul analysis of the McKinley bill, showing the benefits of a protective tariff, and a earnest plea for the support of "the party that guarantees an bonest dollar."

Ex-Judge Hunter closed the meeting with a short, witty speech. This was the largest Republican gathering in the history of Westmereland county.

CONDOLING WITH THURMAN.

The Thurman Club Meets and Passes a Resolution of Sympathy.

The Thurman Club, of this city, held a meeting last night at the club rooms. An oddress was delivered by W. McCullough, a Chicago newspaper man. A telegram of condolence was sent to Hon. Allen G. Thurman in the loss of his wife. The following resolution was adopted:

Workness, it has pleased all-Divine Providence to enter into the home of our beloved leader and statesman, and take therefrom his most estimable wife.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be engrossed on the minutes, and a copy sent to our beceived statesman.

LOOKING FOR LIVSEY.

Mis Wife Tells an Officer She Doesn't Know Where He Is. George Hutchinson, Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, was here yesterday looking for Cashier Livsey, of the State Treasury. He went out to his home, and found Mrs. Livsey in a distracted state of mind and preparing to have for Milwankee, where she will live with a son. Mrs. Livsey said she did not know where her husband is.

When Mr Hutchinson returned to Harrishurg he thought he would be empowered to go out of the State to make a hunt for the missing eashier, who is supposed to be some where in Causda.

Packing Fassett Against Flower,

Walter P. Boyer, an ex-politician of New York City, is in the city. Referring vesterday, to the campaign in the Empire State he thought that Fassett will beat Flaver for Gavernor by 10,000 votes. In New York city, said he, Flower, of course, will have Tanmany at his back, but in the outlying districts the "Tiger" can not place its paws to any material detriment to the Republican party and that is where the big vote comes from.

Faith in the Democrats.

John O'Neill, a Philadelphia Democrat and a relative of Congressman O'Neill, was at the St James yesterday. He thinks the Democratic State Committee will be elected. the claims a number of prominent Republicans do not intend to vote for the city ticket in Polisidelphia, and this is why he believes the Democratic candidate for City Treasurer will win. The Democrats were never so

A Welcome to Their Candidates. The Gregg and Morrison clubs have made arrangements to tender a reception this afternoon to General Gregg, Captain Morrison and Colonel Thomas J. Stewart. The reception will take place in the parlors of the Hotel Duquesne, beginning at 3 o'clock and continuing until 5 o'clock. All old soldiers and the public generally will be

County Democracy Meeting. The county Democracy held a large and enthusiastic meeting last night. D. J. Me-Carthy, of Luzerne county, was present and made an address on the issues in the State campaign. His remarks were backed up by speeches from 'Squire Herman Handel, Chairman W. J. Brennen, and others. The Democracy will meet again next Tuesday wield. Chief Bigelow Will Replace the Old day night.

TAMMANY BADLY RATTLED.

Colonel Culyer Thinks Fassett's Chance

Good to Win in New York. Colonel Culver while busily engaged beautifying Schen'ey park, still finds plenty of time to devote to New York politics. The Colonel says the Tammany leaders are badly rattled, and he thinks Fassett has a good show to win.

"You have no idea," he remarked yesterday at the Duquesne, "how much interest the New York people are taking in the campaign. They are deeply stirred up, and for once Tammany is on the ragged edge. It is plain they are scared when they are constantly changing their plans. They haven't been able to execute any of their original intentions. First the people in the northern part of the State rebelled, and warned them not to send out on the stump their chosen 100 speakers. Tanmany acquiesced, and these men remained at home. The Democratic press is not united, and only the other day a leading organ of the Democracy in New York City showed up in several col-umus where outside Democrats were being colonized. The Republicans are on the alert, and taking advantage of all these moves. It is a fight for blood."

GREGG IN THE CITY.

The General Feels Confident the Republican Ticket Will Be Elected, General Gregg, the Republican candidate for Auditor General, reached Pittsburg yesterday morning. He held an informal reception in City Hall. A number of old soldiers called on him and were introduced by Mayor Gourley. The General says he been among the veterans who are enthusiastic, and he The regular Republicans have appointed thinks he will be elected. In the eastern part of the State be heard of no dissatisfaction in the Republican ranks. He added that the Republican party wants full investigation by the Senate.

In the evening he went to West Newton with Captain John W. Morrison and Congressman Dalzell where a meeting was held. This afternoon the General will meet the old soldiers at the Duquesne, and in the evening will address a veterans' mass meeting in Lafavette Hall.

FOR CHARITY'S SAKE.

Elaborate Preparations for the Bazaar of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Southside Hospital-A Magnificently Attired Doll-Memorial to Thomas Armstrong.

The bazaar to be given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Southside Hospital during the week of November 16 was the principal topic at the meeting of the society yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Dr. Saddler, Chairman of the Building Committee, reported having visited a large number of influential people who had promised to lend the ladies of the society assistance. Mrs. Saddler also reported that it had been decided to start a Thomas A. Armstrong memorial fund to establish a ward in the hospital to be named the Armstrong ward. Contributions have already been received and promises of large amounts have been made

Some members of the society suggested that stock certificates, styled after those of the Garfield memorial fund, be issued to contributors to the hospital. This idea was first brought out by a number of persons who said they would be willing to contribute much more were they given some-thing to show for the work done. This sug-gestion was neted upon yesterd y, and at the next regular meeting 200 of these cerwho contribute $5 or over. The society was informed that the Young Women's Christian Temperance Union had promised to give all the assistance they could at the bazaar. tificates will be ordered and given out to all

Since the last meeting the society has been presented with a large doll, christened "Flora McFlimsey." At the bazaar she will be one of the principal attractions. The eading dressmakers of Pittsburg, Allgheny New York, Philadelphia, Boston and two or three European cities have promised to donate apparel for this doll. The clothes will all be made in the latest styles, and will be made in the latest styles, and will be worth seeing, as they will even in-clude sealskin sacques. A large booth will be prepared for Miss McFlimsey. There will be 29 meals given at the bazaar during the week, and meal tickets will be issued for all at $2. The committe on fancy work will meet at Mrs. Theodore Schlickers, on Wharton street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The following committees for the regular hospital work were appointed yes-erday: Visiting Committee, Mrs. N. J. Lowe, T. G. Jones: Fruit Committee, Miss Olive Col-well and Miss Nellie Whitmere; Jelly Committee, Mrs. Emma Haberman and Miss Annie Davis, and Flower Committee, Mrs.

William McGeary and Mrs. Fullert.
The floral decorations of the auditorium during the bazaar will be something wonderful. The week before the bazaar opens the annual chrysanthemum exhibition takes place, and nearly all of the exhibitors at this show have promised to leave their ex-hibits for the hospital bazaar.

NOTES FROM THE SURGEONS.

Mishaps That Have Darkened Homes in Several Cities.

There were five accidents vesterday, but none of them are considered very serious. This is the list:

Sent Alone to New York.

John George was a four-year-old who was sent to his parents in New York, last evening. The little fellow had been left here by his mother with relatives living in the city, but after she arrived home she be-came lomesick to see the boy. Young John was placed in a Pullman car and properly labeled, but he commenced to cry when his aunt left him at the depot. A processe of candy soon put him to sleep, and he will no doubt reach his home safely.

Chief Bigelow Will Replace the Old Southside Structure

WITH ONE ON THE LATEST STYLE.

The Exposition Clears About Fifty Thousand Dollars.

SNAP SHOTS AT SISTER CITY MATTERS

Unless the plans of Chief Bigelow, of the Department of Public Works, are materially altered, the Southside will have a fine new market house next summer. The partial destruction of the old building by fire rendered some move necessary to provide for a standing necessity on that side of the river. Southsiders wanted a new building at once, but this was not feasible, chiefly owing to a lack of money and the builders' strikes. Chief Bigelow decided to make a temporary arrangement, and had a good roof put over the half-demolished structure. This made suitable quarters for a time, but something better is needed, and the Chief proposes to have it before another year passes "My first idea," said he yesterday, "was to repair the old building in good shape. I had plans prepared for this, but have now concluded not to use them.

NUMEROUS NEW PEATURES.

"I have visited at my own expense several market houses in New York, Philadelphia, Washington and other places, and have secured some better ideas on the subject than I had before. These cannot be carried out in a remodeling of the old building, and I believe a new one is the best. At present, having made no extensive estimates, I am not prepared to say exactly what such a building will cost. But at a rough guess it will be about $20,000. Of course it may be something more or less than that amount. But whatever the cost will be I will ask for it in the next appropriation ordinance, and will then start the work. My idea is to have the entire building for market purposes. A large hall, such as the one above the Diamond Market is not necessary. In fact it would be a poorly paying affair. On the Southside several nalls are rented for small sums like $10 or $15 a night. The city cannot charge any more than others, and the space if applied to market purposes would yield a much greater rever

'Many valuable improvements have been made in market houses during recent years, all of which can be brought into use in this new building.

WHERE THE EAST IS AREAD.

"For instance, in the East I noticed sevral places where the refrigerators or ice chests for meat are built above the butchers stall instead of back of them, as in the Diamond market. This saves a great amount of space, and consequently increases the market revenue by allowing for addi-tional stalls. Aside from the advantage to citizens of the Southside, the city could no where invest $20,000 to better advantage than in a new market house over there. It will yield 100 per cent annually. The Diamond market is an example of this, though the ground there did not cost the city anything. The Southside will have the best market facilities in either Pittsburg or Allegheny if I have my way."

Speaking of the Diamond market, the chief said if he had been allowed to use the hall above it for market purposes he could have secured $20,000 a year rent from it in-stend of about $1,000 received from it now

HE HAS SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.

Delinquent Tax Collector Ford Will Still Send Out Postal Cards.

Delinquent Tax Collector Ford will still send out his final notices to those who are in arrears for city taxes on postal cards. He has this to say about the stand intendent Palmer took on the matter in yesterday's DISPATCH: "When Mr. Palmer said I had no right to send these notices through the mails he was not aware that I had previously secured a decision from the department allowing me to do this. In 1888 several individuals made information against me on the same thing, but the United States Attorney did not proceed with it. I will continue to send the notices this way."

Superintendent Palmer, when told of the foregoing, had this to say: "I did not know Mr. Ford had received the privilege from the department until yesterday morning. Under ordinary circumstances I would stop the notices, but as this is a city matter it is given this privilege. I do not think, how-ever, be has any right to send the cards out undiscovered, and I will stop any of the kind I find."

MEN SEEKING FOR LODGING.

Plenty to Eat in Pittsburg, but Not Enough Rooms at the Hotels.

It grieves the hotel men to turn away dollars every day, but that is what they have been doing for the last month. In most of the houses yesterday guests were asked to double up, and many last evening had to sleep on cots. At the Duquesne it was impossible to get a room alone. It is funny to hear a man pleading for a place where he can wash himself, but this is what a number of street railway men are

With the present supply of hotels there is no remedy. At the Anderson they had several pages of names yesterday afternoon and not rooms enough to go around. Every man must take his turn, and there is a rush for rooms as soon as they are vacated. Fortunately, Pittsburg is never without an abundance to eat, and there is some satisfaction in that. Nobody is going hungry. There is enough for all.

OVER A THOUSAND A DAY.

The Recent Exposition Netted in the Neighborhood of $50,000.

The Board of Managers of the Exposition Society met yesterday to close up the business of the exhibition that has just closed. Many of the bills were paid, and figuring up all the others that will come in the society will still clear from $45,000 to $50,000. The amount cleared last year was $62,000. The net earnings f r 1889 were $59,000. A large majority of the exhibits in the main hall of the Exposition have been removed, and the place has a descrted air. Very few of the art exhibits have been taken away, but will be soon. There is no clew to the missing tapestry pictures of A. G. Roegnik & Co.

Trying to Sell a Fine Cane.

Detective McFighe last night arrested Thomas Rafferty and Hugh Bagnall as suspicious characters. He found them on Smithfield street trying to sell a fine gold-headed cane. It bore the inscription: "Presented by O. C. Geunther to Major H. Hoffstadl, May 13, 1889." The men will be held until their case is investigated. Sleepers in the Station Houses.

The advent of cold weather has been the means of driving the homeless to seek the shelter of the police stations. The officers at the Fourteenth and Nineteenth ward stations state that they are fairly over run with tramps and others seeking lodgings for a night. Capuchin Monks in Session.

The annual conference of German Catholic Capuchin Monks of the United States began yesterday in St. Augustine Church, Lawrenceville. The church was beautifully decorated, and every conceivable arrangement was made by the ladies of the congregation for the entertainment of the guests. About 50 delegates arrived, but by this morning it is expected that a larger number will be in attendance. The entire time of yesterday was taken up in the enrollment of delegates and in the transaction of private business against the government. of private business pertaining to the gov-ernment of the order. The session this morning will be devoted to more important business. The sessions of the conference are closed and the proceedings conducted in

OPENING OF THE U. P. SYNOD.

Rev. Dr. Reid's Case to Be the Special The Western Pennsylvania Synod of the United Presbyterian Church met in the Sixth United Presbyterian Church, Collins avenue, last night. The district was well represented. But little business was transacted, the greater part of the evening being taken up with devotional exercises and the assigning of delegates. The most interesting feature of this Synod will be the hearing feature of this Synod will be the hearing of Rev. Dr. Reid, who married Rev. Dr. Ewing, who was charged with marrying the sister of his deceased wife, thus violating a rule of the Church. It is not known just when this case will be brought up, but it may possibly be to-morrow. Clerk John S. Speer, of the Synod, has this to say about the case: "The matter was first brought up in Presbytery, and it was there decided Dr. Ewing should be reproved and Dr. Reid admonished. An approved and Dr. Reid admonished. An appeal was taken to the Synod, and the appeal was sustained. Then the matter was appealed to the General Assembly, but the case was afterward withdrawn from this body. This leaves it with the Synod. When it comes up it will probably be referred back to the Assembly and it will inflict the punishment first agreed upon. More interest would be attached to case had not Rev. Dr. Ewing transferred his services to the Presbyterian Church while the case was pending.

Spap Shots at City News. Louis Rogaliner; who has been confined to his bed for three weeks with malarial fever, is convalescent. THE Coroner's jury, in the case of Mary Cox, 2 months old, of Wrights alley, Southside, rendered a verdict yesterday of death due to exhaustion from summer complaint. STREET COMMISSIONER PAISLEY YEsterday sued Jacob Mockley, of Ella street, before Alderman Hyndman for moving a house without a permit and leaving it stand over Sunday in the street.

It is expected that the new Fourteenth ward station will be ready for occupancy by Monday next. All that remains to be done now is the putting in of the furniture and making the telephonic connections.

Louis Young, the Southside politician who fied on Monday, will be burried to-morrow afternoon. The funeral services will be held in the Presbyterian Church, South Twentieth and Sarah streets, at 2r. m. The police of the Southside will attend the funeral in a body.

THE Jr. O. U. A. M., of this section, will hold a union meeting to-night in U. V. L. Hall, Sixth avenue, under the auspices of the Advisory Council of Western Peansylvania.
Addresses will be made by Congressman
John Dalzell, W. T. Kerr, President of the Advisory Council, A. D. Wilkin, Secretary of the same, Congressman W. A. Stone,
Prof. P. A. Shanor and O. P. Cochrau.

MAIL MEN IN CONFERENCE.

Provision Made for Handling the Increase in Eastern Postal Matter.

Superintendents of the Railway Mail Scr vice R. C. Jackson, of New York; Burt, of Cincinnati, and several of the chief clerks held a conference at the postoffice yesterday relative to the loading and unloading of the mails in Philadelphia and New York. Mr. Burt said they met here, because Pittsburg is common ground, and much of the mail in bulk to Western points is split up in this city and sent out over the various roads. Some details had to be arranged to provide for the increase in business, which is from 10 to 15 per cent No radical changes were made Within the last month a new mail train has been put on to run along the Ohio river leaving here at 5:30 in the morning. The additional service is much appreciated by the people living in East Liverpool, Wellsville and other river towns. The first train out was at 7:15 A. M., which is still run. The new facilities enable the people in these places to get their mails and papers several hours earlier.

"I like the arrangement of the new office very much," said Mr. Burt. "It is like the Louisville postoffice, which will soon be ready for occupancy. The finest Government building in the United States is in Cincinnati, the next one is in Philadelphia, and I think the Pittsburg office is think. One thing I notice about the new office is the abundance of clocks. You can't look up without seeing a timepiece hanging on the wall, I suppose Uncle Sam provided some new clocks, and the old ones were also put up. Mr. Jackson said things were moving smoothly in New York, and there was nothing particularly new there in the service. Both men complimented Postmaster McKean for his energy and the interest he takes in the office. Mr. Burt is inclined to think with many others that McKinley will have a walkover in Ohio.

REUNION OF A CLASS.

Members of the Kentucky University Greet

Each Other in Pittsburg. Twenty-seven members of one of the classes of the Kentucky University, Lexington, held a reunion at the Seventh Avenue Hotel yesterday afternoon. They came from Malne to Utah. In the list were R. T. Matthews, Lexington; F. M. Rains, Utah; J. J. Irvine, Birmingham, Ala.; C. W. Dick, Louisville, and J. C. B. Stevens and wife, of Uniontown.

The meeting was held very quietly and was short. When it was over they had a banquet and dispersed. Last evening not one of them could be located, and if they had been swallowed up by an earthquake they could not have disappeared more completely. The hotel clerks knew nothing of what had been done, and no information could be gathered.

REVENUE AGENTS HERE.

Culbertson and Eastman Working a Clue, but They Won't Talk.

Samuel T. Culbertson, of Maryland, and Alrah Eastman, of Minnesota, are registered at the St. Charles. They are United States revenue agents, Mr. Culbertson being chief of the bureau. They don't come to the city for fun, and the 1 st time Culbertson was here he caught the olemarzarine sellers napping. Neither of them would say yesterday what they were doing in the city, but something will likely drop in a short

A card was sent to their rooms, but they sent back word with the boy that they were not at home to reporters. Culbertson is the man who had much to do in breaking up the Chicago whisky trust.

J. B. Thomas, W. A. Belding, Jabez Hall. Secretary A. McLean reported progress of work in China, Japan, India, Turkey, Denmark, Sweden, Norway and England. The report closed with an appeal for funds. The meeting concluded with a talk from Tozo Ohno. FELT THE TIGHT MONEY MARKET.

Reading of reports took up the afternoon. The first was that of the General Board and was read by Secretary Moffatt. It stated the missions during the year had shared the effects of a general depression in commer-cial circles until the harvest was over. Some of the missions had to contend with unreasonable men whose concep-tion of church work and church growth was a hindrance. This was particularly the case in some parts of the West and it took time and gentleness to reduce such men to the ranks. Generally speaking the condition and outlook of the mission fields were hopeful. New missions had been es-tablished during the year in many of the towns in the West and South. The result of the missionary work was tabulated as tollows: Number of missionaries and agents 61; number of days' labor 15,796; number of sermons and addresses, 7,800; number of conversions, 1,287; number of accessions by letter, 911; number of other accessions, 548; number of churches visited and assisted, 181; number of churches organized, 26.

The amount of money collected during the year was: For the missionary fund, $21,-459 25; from the mission fields, $15,661 21; for ministerial relief fund, $1; from interest on missionary fund loan, $70 60. Total, $37,413 43. The disbursements were as follows: For support of missionaries, $33,373 16; salary of Corresponding Secretary, $2,000; incidental expenses, $587 59; Missionary Intelligencer, $432 82; Foreign Christian Missionary Society, $202 68; Southern Christian Institute, $100; for ministerial relief, $160; total $37,356 25, leaving a balance of $57,18 ance of $57 18.

WORK DONE BY MISSIONARIES, The report showed the number of pastors and evangelists employed in the church to be 300; number of conversions, 8,997; num-ber of places where meetings were held, 1,130; number of new and unorganized places visited, 283; number of churches organized 143, number of Sunday organized 143, number of Sunday schools organized 206; amount raised by State boards, $77,816; amount raised by district boards, $54,714; amount contributed by mission stations, $44,512.50; pledges for local and future work, $140,193.

The report concluded with the suggestion The report concluded with the suggestion that missionaries and pastors should be sent to New Mexico, where none now exist. The year is closed with a debt of $1,300 and the board asks for $50,000 for the next fiscal year. It was also suggested that name be changed from General Christain Missionary Convention to American Christain Missionary Society. This suggestion was met with applause.

Secretary Muckle read the report of the Church Extension Fund Committee. The report showed the receipts during the year to have been $18,289 55; and the total resources at present are $105,413 73. The amount derived from loans during the year was $27,300. This fund was started in 1883, under the auspices of the General Convention. It grew in value and importance until three years ago, when a separate board was organized and located in Kansas City. Secretary Louis read the report of the Committee on Negro Evangelization. This committee has only been organized for a year, and their record for the year has practically been a failure, owing to the fact that a competent man to do the work could not be secured. The first great need in this work was education, as the trouble with a great many colored preachers is their ignor-ance. What must be done is to provide means for the education of young colored men for the ministry. NEED A COLLEGE FOR COLORED MEN. There should be at least one first-class well equipped college, and then there should be a general work carried on. There is no educational field where the expenses would be less than among the negroes.

The evening session opened with an address by Robert Graham, President of the College of the Bible, of Lexington, Ky. His subject was the "Sources of Missionary Enthusiasm." Mr. Graham began his missionary labors in Allegheny City 53 years ago. He said there was not enough money given to the cause, and if there was tha given in proportion to what was spent for other purposes there would be greater prose-cution of the work. He cited some statistics to show the enormous differences and said the countries of Europe spent $2,600,000,000 annually to maintain standing armies. Ten millions were spent in drink, millions more for jewelry and other luxuries, while in all Europe and the United States but $12,000,000 were given to missions.

At the close of the address the annual

At the close of the address the annual committee of conference was appointed. The committee is composed of A. M. Atkinson, of Indiana; J. H. Garrison, of Missouri; John S. House, of Ken ucky; F. M. Rains, of Kansas, and W. F. Richardson, of Allegheny City, minister of the church where the conference is being held. The where the conference is being held. The meeting then adjourned. This moraing is praise service will begin the day and continue for two hours. At 11 o'clock Dr. F. E. Miegs, a returned missionary, will speak on China missions. At 4 o'clock Dr. F. E. Clark, President of the Christian Endeavor Societies, will deliver an address. Dr. Clark is called "Father Endeavor," and is the founder of the Christian Endeavor movement.

The Fates Were Against Him.

C. F. Nieman, an Allegheny butcher, was arrested on East street, Allegheny, last night under peculiar circumstances. Mr. Nieman was driving a number of cattle along the street, and just as an electric car passed by, one of the animals became stubborn and refused to move. Mr. Nieman struck the beast with a stick he carried, but the stick flew from his hand and in its but the stick flew from his hand and in its flight passed through one of the car windows. The conductor of the car called an officer and insisted upon Nieman's arrest, notwithstanding his offer to pay for the damage resulting from the accident. At the Mayor's office Mr. Nieman left a deposit for his appearance this morning.

MONEY SLOW IN THE WEST.

Mr. Barclay Says the People Are Recovering From the Recent Panic.

Among the arrivals of street railway men vesterday was J. L. Barelay, the Western agent of the Westinghouse Company. Mr. Berclay says the affairs of the local concern are now on a good footing, and all the em-ployes are feeling better. The company has money and men to carry on the business and turn out material.

Speaking of street railway affairs he said: "The business has been dull in the West for some time. Money is scarce. Strange to say the financial panic you had in the East last fall did not strike the Western people until this summer. They are not hard up; that is, they have enough to see them through nicely, but the railway men haven't funds enough to engage in new enterprises or make extensions. Real estate transactions, of course, have also been a little slow. At present the Western bankers are holding the money or keeping it to buy grain. What wonder-ful crops we have had this year, and the good harvest ought to do much to restore confidence. This is not so easily done after capitalists have had a scare, and they are very cautious now. The other day I met a prominent Western man in New York who was there to raise money. He said he had had a very difficult time, and the moneyed men are chary of even the best of bonds. There is plenty of money, but those who have it are holding on for further developments. Many buyers of street railway supplies have been holding of for this way supplies have been holding off for this convention. Here they will have an opportunity to see all the new things and make comparisons. It has been my experience that a good many orders are taken during and immediately after one of these meetings. I expect to see the hysiness en meetings. I expect to see the business en-joy a short boom in consequence."

A PREACHER-BANKER.

He Fills a Responsible Position Outside of His Pulpit.

Rev. John S. Speer, of Canonsburg, Washington county, who is attending the Western Pennsylvania Synod of the United Presbyterian Church, now in session in the East End, is a "prencher-banker." Last spring the citizens of Canons-burg formed a bank, and looked around for a responsible cashier. About this time, for some reason, Rev. John S. Speer gave up his regular charge, and prepared to lead a retired life. His hopes in this direction were short-lived, as the benk officials asked him to accept the cashiership. He did so and has since held the position very credit

It is not an uncommon thing for him, however, to relieve his brother divines, and nearly every Sunday his familiar form is seen in one of the Canonsburg pulpits.

DIED IN THE HARNESS. A Horse of No. 12 Company Expires Upon

Returning From a Fire. The members of No. 12 Engine Company are mourning the loss of a favorite horse. The animal was known as Frank and was very intelligent, having been in the department for nearly six years. About 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, while the truck was being backed into the house after answering an alarm from box 146, the horse slipped to the pavement and fell, bursting a blood vessel. It staggered to its feet, but fell again and expired almost instantly.

When the fallmaster arrived to remove the carcass there was another animal in the vehicle, so that it was impossible to get it into the wagon without breaking its legs, which was done with an ax from the truck it had so often responded with to scenes of danger, while the members stood around with tears in their eyes watching the mutilation of their old comrade.

Sandbagged and Robbed. James Melrose, foreman of the erecting lepartment at the Keystone Bridge Works, was sandbagged and robbed at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning. He was on his way to the works, and was passing through the grounds at St. Francis Hospital, when two men jumped out and knocked him down. When found at 7 o'clock he was still unconscious and minus his watch and
