

ALL VERY THANKFUL

That's the Spirit That Permeates the Association Magnates at Their Meeting.

MR. PHELPS READS HIS REPORT.

The Organization Reported to Be in Good Financial Condition and the League Scored.

CHICAGO'S NEW CLUB ORGANIZED.

Fred Pfeiffer to Be Its Manager—Baseball News of General Interest.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Baseball men filled the corridors of the Wellington Hotel to-day. Chris Von der Ahe, of St. Louis; Zach Phelps, of Louisville, President of the American Association, and half a hundred other managers and players were present to attend the annual meeting of the American Association. At noon the Board of Directors went into executive session. The delegates present were as follows: Philadelphia, J. E. Wagner and William Barnie; Washington, Mike Scanlan and Ed. Sutherland; St. Louis, C. Von der Ahe; Columbus, Gus Schmelz, C. Bora and Ralph Lazarus; Boston, Harry Stevens and Julius H. Hart; Milwaukee, H. E. Gillette and Charles Cushman; Baltimore, H. Von der Horst; Louisville, T. J. Battman and John Chapman. They found the Association in good financial condition, with a considerable balance in the treasury. It was voted to recommend that the new Chicago club be admitted to membership.

Protests against the fine of $50 inflicted on Empire Kevins for indecent language at Washington when his decision giving the Washingtons the game against 9 to 0 was protested, and Empire McLaughlin's decision giving the Boston-St. Louis game to Boston, 12 to 8, were also protested. Both decisions were sustained.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

President Phelps presented his annual report, during the course of which he annunciated his policy on the suspension attached to the closing game in the League contest and congratulated the Association for its freedom from such suspensions. He said that the branch between the League and Association had baffled all efforts to bridge it over and expressed a conviction that the League will agree to no settlement unless assured of the benefit of a formal talk among the magnates regarding peace. They all want a settlement, and it is the opinion of well informed people here that efforts are now being made to have a settlement as soon as possible. Nobody seems to know definitely yet what the make-up of the Association for next year will be. Columbus wants to remain in the organization, but it is thought that Milwaukee will leave. It is thought that the new club at Chicago will take Milwaukee's place and Columbus will remain in the list.

CAUSED A GENERAL LAUGH.

The Association magnates could not today conceal the fact that all is not pleasant among them, and that their talk about their club being in good financial condition is false. Milwaukee, Louisville, Washington and Columbus are complaining strongly. There was a considerable formal talk among the magnates regarding peace. They all want a settlement, and it is the opinion of well informed people here that efforts are now being made to have a settlement as soon as possible. Nobody seems to know definitely yet what the make-up of the Association for next year will be. Columbus wants to remain in the organization, but it is thought that Milwaukee will leave. It is thought that the new club at Chicago will take Milwaukee's place and Columbus will remain in the list.

THE GENERAL MEETING.

At the general meeting of the Association the business transacted was the admission of Chicago, the adoption of President Phelps' report, the election of officers, and the dropping of Columbus or Milwaukee will come up to-morrow.

The main result of the meeting thus far is that Chicago is at last represented in the American Association. Chris Von der Ahe, as it were, acted as sponsor at the ceremony of the christening, in that it was he who made the motion for the admission of the infant giant into the Association. The other clubs who opposed the development when the question came up from behind the scenes of the Association, but from what leaked out unawares it seems that there was some, not a strange thing when it is considered that Columbus and Milwaukee could see in it an element of danger to themselves. After the meeting the Chicago men showed their elation over their recognition into the Association by treating the delegates with champagne. The grounds will be within 15 minutes' ride from the Park street depot, just where will not be told before next Tuesday. The club has the usual three grounds, and it is trying to develop an association with the management of Eastern Park as to gate receipts will hold this year.

AMONG WATER AND MUD.

Princeton's Football Kickers Play Well Under Very Great Difficulties. Princeton, Oct. 22.—[Special.]—The Varsity grounds were almost flooded to-day when the football men appeared at 1 o'clock for the usual practice game. Notwithstanding this the two teams lined up and a regular game was played. The greater part of the afternoon was spent in swimming in the water and mud. Tracy Harris, '84, an old football player, was on hand and coached the players. Although the field was completely a bed of mud both teams played the strongest game that has been seen here this year. The practice was sharp and the entire Varsity team played with snap and vigor. Johnny Poe sprained his ankle very badly. It is feared that he may not be able to play again for some weeks. The Scrubs scored 4 points against the Varsity's 8. Duncan Edwards will be here to coach the players to-morrow.

Local Rugby Football.

The local Rugby Football players will make a start to-morrow. Arrangements have been made for a game between the team of the Allegheny Athletic Association and the Greensburg team. The contest will take place at Exposition Park. The Greensburg team will play a game at West College team will also play a game at West College. The Medical College team will be Dunkle, center; Booher, right guard; McNeil, left guard; Machling, right tackle; Hill, left tackle; Hunter, right end; LaClair, left end; McAllister, quarterback.

Here's Another Remo.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 22.—A prominent baseball magnate, in conversation with friends here this evening, stated that it was well understood on the inside that Cincinnati would have an Association club next year. The scheme proposed is to place the Columbus club in Cincinnati and the Columbus stockholders retaining an interest. It is stated that this will be one of the most important subjects brought before the meeting of the Association, which is to be held in Chicago, and that the leaders of the Association are agreed on the scheme and its success is assured.

THE HERRON HILL SHOOTERS.

They Have Some Good Sport Down on Their Club Grounds.

THEIR THIRD ROUND.

Some Exciting Football Games Expected To-morrow by the League Association Teams—Interesting Gossip Regarding the Various Clubs in the Organization and the Prospects of the Season.

The third round of games in the Western Pennsylvania Football League will take place to-morrow. The previous rounds have demonstrated the fact that there is not a single weak team in the League, and from the standing of the clubs which we publish below, it will be seen that the record is already breaking quite interesting.

The surprise of last Saturday's ties was the defeat of the Pittsburgh club by Homestead. It seems that the local club have more playing members than they can use in their League fixtures, with the result that a number of them have been kicking because they were not chosen to play. The manager of the club being anxious to preserve harmony among its members gave one or two of the reserve players a chance to show their abilities. They held their opponents too cheaply and thought they could win handily despite the fact that some of the best men were spectators. The combination of the forward rank was entirely broken up and judging from the result of the game, it will be a long time before such an experiment is repeated. There will be plenty of exhibition games before the close of the season in which the reserve players will have an opportunity of playing. If the club is to be in the running for the pennant the strongest team possible must be chosen on all occasions for the League games.

The champion McDonalds are at present in the lead, but they will have much harder work to retain their position this year than they had last season, and although they make the proud assertion that they have never been defeated since their formation a few years ago, they cannot expect to win all the time, with so many strong clubs in the League and are almost sure to have their colors lowered within the next week or two. They are followed by Homestead who have three points to their credit. This team has greatly improved since last year's season, and they have a number of last year's Braddock club supporters confidently look upon them as pennant winners.

Pittsburgh and New Castle are tied for third place at present, but have a first-class team. The Bloomfield team possibly must be chosen on all occasions for the League games. The champion McDonalds are at present in the lead, but they will have much harder work to retain their position this year than they had last season, and although they make the proud assertion that they have never been defeated since their formation a few years ago, they cannot expect to win all the time, with so many strong clubs in the League and are almost sure to have their colors lowered within the next week or two. They are followed by Homestead who have three points to their credit. Knocked Tracy Out.

Jere Dunn Very Forcefully Resents a Charge Regarding His Honesty.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Billy Tracy knocked out by Jere Dunn. It was a short and decisive fight, and it occurred in the parlors of Jimmy Wakeley's sporting resort at Sixth avenue and Forty-second street. Tracy, leaning against the bar, was chatting with Wakeley, when Jere sauntered into the rooms. Cordial greetings were exchanged, and wine soon flowed freely, and the talk became general. Finally the discussion became decidedly hot on referees' decisions.

MABER WANTED TO FIGHT.

He Was Willing to Tackle Mahan for $1,000 or $100.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—After the Occidental directors had declared the Maber Mahan fight off last night, Maber met Mahan outside the ring and Maber met his backer post a thousand dollars forfeit at once to fight Mahan at any time. He also offered to go out and fight anywhere for a hundred dollars. Mahan declined the proposition on the ground that it was not legal to fight outside an organized club and as physicians had decided Maber in no condition he (Mahan) refused to meet him at all. Maber expressed the opinion that the offer of odds from $100 to $500 to him to enter the ring had favor just above time to the club's action. President Robinson denied this but Maber insisted that he had offered half of the purse, the matter was dropped and the spectators entertained with a 10-round contest between local boxers.

Will Row To-morrow.

Dan Gould, of McKeesport, and John Sullivan, of Homestead, will row a three-mile single scull races on the Monongahela river at Homestead on Saturday, October 31. The stakes are $100 a side.

General Sporting Notes.

FRED PERRY was in Indianapolis Wednesday trying to arrange a race for the Chicago Association Club.

OWING to Director Kerr's sickness the meeting of the local club directors did not take place last evening.

The Homestead Gun Club has reorganized and will have a shoot to-morrow. A shooting match at rats will take place.

J. B. SAEG, ex-President of the Buffalo ball club, is in the city yesterday trying to secure the printing of the local club's posters for next season.

It is said that John Kelly will be missed from the Cincinnati race track when he leaves for the New York club, as he is expected to resign from the Buffalo club.

The National League doesn't seem to be in a panic. The cold, cold-blooded magnates never did realize when they were in the grip of death and dissolution.—(Sporting Times.)

According to advices received at this office, Snodgrass and Hough are engaged runners for the Boston club, and are expected to run a race at Brownsville.

BULLY sincerely opposed to the plan of an Association club in Cincinnati last year. His comrades, however, considered the Chicago club a better one, and at least some of them, are whistling a different tune now.

A NEWCOMER to the Western turf is Charles Fitch, who has just returned from the bank and distiller. He paid $11,700 for St. Blaise colts, and has entered both in the American and the Kentucky stakes by St. Blaise-Corinna and St. Blaise-Delilah.

MR. J. C. MORSE, of the Boston Herald, has been telling secrets out of school. One Saturday the Boston players at Louisville and the turnstile count was "500." As a matter of fact, Brother Jacob said Boston got paid for about 1,500 yesterday. Time was going around with great rapidity in association society within four miles of the end of his ride against time from next year to John O'Grants, recently, G. P. Mills, the celebrated English road rider, fell asleep, and could not be awakened for seven hours, after previous record only being beaten by 14 hours 30 minutes, instead of by 21 hours, as previously stated in case in Queens county.

The Supreme Court of New York has blacked the eye of the blackmailing Aldermen of the metropolis. The latter tried to squeeze the New York club for passes, and when they failed demanded that the club members be covered. The judicial decision was to the effect that the Aldermen had no authority to pass such an ordinance.

MIKE CLEARY, the pugilist, who was run over at Thirty-second street and Broadway on Monday evening, had his leg so badly crushed that the doctors say it is impossible to save it, and it will be amputated. Cleary was a good fighter among sporting men in this country. A monster benefit will be held at Tammany Hall for Cleary and his wife and children.

TRACY will be no Sunday games at Ridge-Wood Park in the future. That popular baseball ground has been sacrificed to the march of suburbanization, and is to be cut up into building lots. If the American Association really intended to put a club in Brooklyn, they would have bought the ground a Sunday game. Sunday playing is out of the question in Kings county and the same will be true in Queens county next year under the incoming administration.

WALLERTON FELL SHORT

The Speedy King of the Track Fails to Equal His Own Record.

ROY WILKES IS UNSUCCESSFUL.

Windy Weather Interferes Greatly With the Flyers at Independence.

SOME GOOD GOING AT NASHVILLE

INDEPENDENCE, Ia., Oct. 22.—A strong south wind prevented record breaking to-day. The day was cold, and by the time the equines had fought the elements to the van, there was little speed left in them with which to finish.

Alerton, to beat his 2:00 1/4, failed to make his mark. He scored down rapidly and was sent his best. He trotted the mile without a skip, but the gods of the weather were against him, and he could only succeed in stopping the watches at 2:01 1/4. The famous Roy Wilkes, 2:08 1/4, with his noted owner, L. A. Davies, as driver, started to beat his mark. But the speed was not in him, and he only made it in 2:12. His owner claimed it was all the fault of the runner, who did not touch him at any part of the mile. He took another turn on the kite and this time he did a second better, coming under the wire in 2:11. Robert Lysdyk, br. s., by William Lysdyk, who looks and acts like another Alerton, was sent against his mark, 2:14, and trotted an even mile in 2:14 1/4. The class races were run in the street, but without contest. Cliner, Jr., who obtained a record of 2:25 1/4 at this meeting, lowered his mark 1 1/2 seconds in the second heat. The 2:30 pace was made in good time, the first heat being the fastest, at 2:07 1/4.

A GREAT RACE.

Cuckoo and Soldier Make an Exciting Contest on the Nashville Track.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Oct. 22.—Chilly weather out down the attendance at Cumberland Park to-day to about 2,000 people, and the stiff wind from the north prevented fast time. It had been announced that Nancy Hanks would attempt to break her record, but it was decided not to try on such an unfavorable day. She, however, made an exhibition mile in fair time. The contest was between Cuckoo and Soldier for the 3-year-old pacing stake. They alternately taking a heat until the fifth, when Cuckoo won. Lord Clifton, Io and Amorean outlasted their fields. Summaries follow:

Her Hard Luck Story—She Will Talk to Buckeye Workmen Against the Tariff—What Her Hobby Has Already Cost Her.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 22.—[Special.]—Mrs. Charlotte Smith of Washington, who threatened to invade Ohio during the campaign and follow Secretary Foster on his tour of the State, has turned up in Columbus. Mrs. Smith arrived in the city yesterday and registered at the Neil as plain Mrs. Smith. Although she was endeavoring to suppress her identity, a DISPATCH representative to-day discovered her hiding place and got a very interesting story from her in regard to a trip to Ohio. She disclaimed all intention of following Secretary Foster, and said it was merely a coincidence that had brought her to the Buckeye State on the same train with that gentleman. She said:

FOSTER IS FOLLOWED.

MRS. CHARLOTTE SMITH INVADDES OHIO, AS SHE THREATENED.

"What I stated about following Secretary Foster was simply a bit. I merely intended to call him down, and I think I succeeded. But after I got to thinking over the letter reflecting on Governor Campbell's private business, and I saw how cowardly men were getting about it, my sympathy went out to him. That made me decide to come to Ohio and I left Washington Tuesday night. At the depot I ran across Mr. Foster, and in the name of the law, I went to meeting him I took a day coach instead of a sleeper. When the train was ready to start I found Mr. Foster had a private car. It was then too late to get a sleeper, and I was stuck in the best of it. I took off my wrap and placed a roll of money, $175, in my bosom. Unfortunately, I left my dress partly unbuttoned, and before I got to Columbus I discovered I was $175 short. However, I had some money in my satchel, and with that was able to get along. I was beginning to find my trip rather dear amusement, but then I have got accustomed to that, as I have spent about $57,000 in that way already, and unless I get out of the business I won't have any left. When I arrived at Columbus I was undetermined, and concluded to keep quiet until I decided what course to pursue. I have now made up my mind to stay in Ohio until after the campaign. I do not intend to espouse any particular party, but want to talk to the working people. I have come fortified and expect to prove by sworn documents all my assertions. I shall remain right here in Columbus, and from this on shall make it interesting for these people who go about telling the working people that labor is protected by tariff."

Mrs. Smith had no opinions to offer on the contest in Ohio other than that she would be in it. She expects to pay her own expenses on the trip, and denies that she comes solicited by any party or under the patronage of any party.

The Drygoods Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Rainy weather restricted the operations of buyers in the drygoods market, but the character of the demand was unchanged. Developments are not rapid in spite of the large outlook and the strong undertone to the market. Business is being done in a more than usual expectation of the period, while stocks of seasonable fabrics are in remarkably good shape.

Think Snail Can Do Better.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 22.—Mr. A. A. Bonner, son of Robert Bonner, now here attending the races, after hearing of Snail's exploit at Stockton, wired Marvin, her trainer, as follows:

"Allow me to congratulate you. Do you think Snail can beat 2:08 1/4 this year?" To this Marvin replied to-day: "Stockton, Cal., October 22. A. A. Bonner, Lexington, Ky. Thanks. I believe Snail, everything favorable, can beat her record. Charles Marvin."

A NEW MAN JAILED.

Frank Van Loon, of Delaware County, O., Is Charged With Being THE COLUMBUS GROVE MURDERER.

Though a Poor Man He Suddenly Became Flush and Bought a Farm.

MINOR NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

COLUMBUS, Oct. 22.—Frank Van Loon, a married man aged about 25 years, was arrested near Galena, Delaware county, this evening and brought to Columbus on a night train, charged with the robbery and murder at the Columbus Grove bank. He will be held here and taken to that place to-morrow.

So far as known Van Loon was never suspected of the crime for which he was arrested until he was taken into custody. H. F. Like, a detective from Columbus Grove, assisted by the Marshal at Galena, made the arrest a few miles from Galena. The circumstances which point to Van Loon's guilt could not be learned to-night. Van Loon's father lives about 12 miles north of Columbus, on a farm, and is considered respectable.

Young Van Loon has been about home recently, and it is said is known to have had $1,500. He also bought a farm near that of his father. The money and the purchase are supposed to be a portion of the evidence in the case, as he is not known to have been very poor. Whether he was in the vicinity of Columbus Grove at the time of the crime is not known.

While Van Loon is known to be the black sheep of the family, only small crimes, if any, have been charged against him heretofore. He was married a short time ago to Miss Huddell, near Galena, and it was her father's home where he was arrested. The detectives believe Van Loon for Putnam county before they could be found.

COLLIDED ON A CURVE.

An Engineer Who Forgot His Orders Meets a Horrible Death.

McKeesport, Oct. 22.—Another terrible wreck occurred this morning on the Pitts-McKeesport and Younghighway Railway, between 1 and 2 o'clock, at Round Bottom, 45 miles south of McKeesport. At this point there is a curve, and the engineers were unable to stop their trains in time to prevent a collision. The trains were on the same track, going at a rate of about 20 miles per hour, and crashed into each other with terrific force. The piston valve of Scott's engine flew out, and he was scalded by the steam and received other bad injuries from which he died in about an hour.

The engineer and fireman of the other engine jumped and saved themselves, as did also the man in the locomotive, however, was seriously hurt. Immediately after the accident word was sent to Scott's father, who keeps a saloon in Pittsburgh. He immediately telegraphed to have him sent to the hospital, but the injured man died before he could be reached. The collision was believed to have been caused by Scott forgetting his orders which were to pull off on a side track and let the other train pass at this point.

Trouble Over the Name of a School.

BRADDOCK, Oct. 22.—[Special.]—Some time ago the borough school board had the name of Lincoln changed from the Third ward school building and had the name Hamilton substituted. This honor was intended for County Superintendent Hamilton, though it is said the board acted contrary to his wishes in so doing. An "Old Soldier" comes out in an article denouncing the change, and says that the name of Lincoln should have been retained. The members of the Hamilton Mechanics' lodges are also becoming interested.

A Woman's Unsuccessful Forgery.

ST. MARY'S, O., Oct. 22.—[Special.]—Yesterday afternoon a woman, heavily veiled and dressed in black, presented a note of $437 on Mrs. Margaret Saigert for payment at the Home Bank. The woman's strange actions excited Cashier Kishler's suspicions, and he called on the note. Kishler pronounced the note a forgery. Meanwhile the bird had flown.

Miners Still Miss Their Wages.

WEBSTER, Oct. 22.—[Special.]—The Molsberger disappearance is as much a mystery as ever. The miners have fallen into a trap, and are unable to get their wages to recover their wages, though Frank Molsberger, a brother of the missing man, has entered suit for three months' wages as mine boss. The miners have cleaned out the company store, and several pieces of the Molsberger property are held by Constable Barrington. The probabilities now are that the men will not get a penny of their hard-earned wages, the loss of which has placed them in the greatest distress.

A Report of Relief in Johnstown.

JOHNSTOWN, Oct. 12.—[Special.]—The Union Benevolent Association of the Conemaugh Valley, which succeeded the Red Cross Society in their operations here after the flood, held its meeting yesterday. Reports show that 300 families were furnished relief during the past year. One of the important events was the building of an infirmary for the treatment of sick persons. It is fully paid for and a balance of over $2,800 is left. An arrangement is being made to care for the children of women who are employed during the day.

Accidentally Killed While Hunting.

GREENSBURG, Oct. 22.—[Special.]—John Wagner, who lives near Madison, this county, loaded his gun with buckshot this morning and started out in the woods accompanied by his 5-year-old son. He was after a large chicken hawk, and seeing the bird sitting on a tree he hastily raised his gun to his shoulder. The hammer caught on his coat and the gun was discharged, the contents entering the boy's neck and killing him almost instantly.

Nine Cars Down an Embankment.

MASSILLON, O., Oct. 22.—[Special.]—A broken frog on the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling Railroad, in this city, to-day derailed three box cars, three flat cars filled with ore and three empty flats. They were all thrown down a steep embankment into the river and there lay in a mass of wreckage. The loss will be large.

A Drygoods Failure at Braddock.

BRADDOCK, Oct. 22.—[Special.]—The store of J. Litovitz, a large drygoods merchant doing business here, was closed yesterday by the Sheriff. Executions amounting to $2,022 84 have been filed against him.

A Heavy-Weight Killed by an Engine.

WEST NEWTON, Oct. 22.—[Special.]—A Frenchman named Rossy Richmond, weighing over 300 pounds, was struck by the express train this morning and instantly killed at the Port Royal mines.

A Fatal Leap From a Car Window.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 22.—[Special.]—Martin Rods, en route from San Francisco to Philadelphia, jumped from the train at night, and was instantly killed. Despondency was the cause. His wife is distraught. A purse was raised on the train and she was sent on at midnight.

Tri-State Stevedores.

The Carr divisors of the stevedores has resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff.

This corner-store of McKeesport's new hospital will be laid on Saturday, October 31. Lewis Bloch, a Larimer miner, was crushed to death by a fall of slate yesterday morning.

The Board of Trustees of the Lehigh University, Bethlehem, have passed resolutions abolishing free tuition on and after January 1, 1912.

Mrs. M. MATHEW, an aged lady of McKeesport, who has raised to manhood and womanhood nine orphans, had a bad fall Wednesday, sustaining very bad injuries.

A BOY named Curtis Mans had his right leg cut off above the knee by a passing train at Kenner's station yesterday. He claims that his companions shoved him under the wheels when he attempted to board the train.

DAVID DOUGLASS, the embawling township treasurer of Youngstown, has pleaded guilty. He was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary and to refund twice the amount he had stolen. Other indictments against him were nolle prossed.

To satisfy a group of several mouths standing, Mike Cranford tried to kill a McKeesport saloon keeper named Chisholm Thursday night. He buried a glass at his enemy with such force as to break it to pieces on Chisholm's temple. Cranford was arrested.

GENERAL GIBBS and Captain Morrison arrived at Rochester yesterday and were met by a committee. The Republican candidates were escorted in carriages to the residence of Senator Brown yesterday. He claims that his companions shoved him under the wheels when he attempted to board the train.

WEDNESDAY evening a surprise party was given at McKeesport, and about 15 couples of prominent people were in attendance. At 11:30 o'clock the music was turned off and the party was making too much noise. The police were called to a close and several of the participants threaten to investigate the matter and see if the officer has power to act in it.

MR. SEARLES' DENIALS.

HE NEVER ATTENDED LECTURES ON OR STUDIED MESMERISM.

Ignorance of Where the Suggestion Originated to Drop Timothy's Name From the List of Executors—No Secrecy About the Co-Partnership Matter Maintained.

SALISBURY, Oct. 22.—At the hearing in the Searles' will case to-day Mr. Burley asked for letters from Mr. and Mrs. Searles to Hubbard and Stillman. They were read and showed deposits to Mrs. Searles' credit in banks to the amount of $24,000 in three months.

Mr. Burley then called for all the books of accounts of the co-partnership. Mr. Butler objected, and Mr. Burley finally called the books, but witness stated that he did not know anything as to the contents of the books. The letters written "Per E. L." were written by Edith Littlefield, who did some writing for him.

Witness did not know where the suggestion came from to drop Timothy's name from the executors. Mrs. Searles' codicil of June 18, 1888. Witness never knew a physician by the name of Hayward; never attended lectures on mesmerism or made a study. He thought there were copies of some letters sent to Timothy Hopkins by Mrs. Searles. Mr. Searles had not had any direct correspondence with Timothy since his marriage.

Mr. Stillman visited Methuen about a week before the execution of the last will by Mr. Searles. He believed that his coming had nothing to do with the information that Timothy was about to start East. Witness could not say whether he gave any directions as to his will at that time, but he believed that he did.

When Timothy arrived witness had already made arrangements to go away, but delayed in order to welcome him, and witness told Timothy that he had to go to Barrington to look after the work, and went. Witness learned that Timothy had managed his mother's affairs for a number of years, but never heard any discussion as to whether he had received compensation or not. He was not to succeed to the co-partnership. He never heard his wife between June 1 and July 16, 1888, express any wish as to the disposition of any part of her property.
