THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1891.

SUPPRESSION OF SMOKE

Considered by the Committee on P Safety - The Ordinance Conce Locomotives Affirmatively Remended and the One on Manufact Held Over.

Smoke consumption was the subject t consideration at the meeting of the Committee on Public Safety yesterday after-There were two ordinances to consider. The first was that presented by Mr. Warmcastle, compelling manufacturers to adopt smoke consumers in using coal. The and was presented by Mr. Robertson at a recent meeting of Councils, allowing rail-roads in the city to use coal in their locomotives provided consumers were put on. The AGENTS, latter was affirmatively recommended to PERSONAL Warmenstle's bill met with opposition. Mr. Brown-I am opposed to the immedi-nte approval of this ordinance. It has not THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH. a success as applied to manufactories. It could be an outrageous injustice to our big monfactories to compel them to make stly experiments with smoke consumers. make such a law for immediate enforcement would drive some of our big firms out of business. At a plant like one of Carnegie's or Moorhead, McCleane & Co.'s of business. At a plant like one of Carnegie's or Moorhead, McCleane & Co.'s from mills it would cost from $40,000 to $15,000 to equip a smoke consumer. It is generally claimed that a consumer has not FOR THE EAST END, J. W.
