

TRADE IS IMPROVED.

The Increase Is Not Quite So Marked in the East as in the West.

LARGE CONSUMPTION OF PIG IRON.

WHAT BREADSTREET'S AND R. G. DUN SAY

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Special advices to Breadstreet's indicate a continuance of the moderate rate of increase in the volume of general trade.

The season's trade in wool at Philadelphia has not equaled expectations, and carpet manufacturers claim not to have had a profitable season.

On the other hand, quiet encouraging reports come from jobbers, agents and other dealers at Chicago, Duluth, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Omaha, St. Joseph, Kansas City, Memphis and New Orleans.

Live hogs are 5 cents lower, with weakness, owing to free receipts at Western markets, but cattle are steady.

The heavy output of pig iron at most centers of production is not all going into consumption, but a very large sum of it is.

Prices are not likely to advance soon. There is more inquiry for steel rails.

Raw sugar is 1/2 cent off on heavy arrivals and better beet crop reports.

A reduced consumptive demand and the moving of the large crop caused a decline of 1/2 cents on refined.

Business failures in the United States number 230, against 198 last week and 202 this week last year.

MINERS RESUME WORK AT ESSEN STATION.

Although the Pittsburgh and Moon Run Railway was built with extraordinary celerity the company's lines have not fallen in pleasant places since the completion, as just immediately after the shipment of coal commenced the miners' strike put an end to the output, and since then the rolling stock has been rusting. It is said the beginning of the end of the strike is now appreciable in that section, 15 of the regular miners of the Pittsburgh, Chartiers and Youngheaveny Railway Company having resumed work in the mines at Essen station.
