CLEVELAND'S LATEST.

The Ex-President Adds Ecstacy to a Boston Democratic Rally by a Very Characteristic Speech.

He Sees Signs of Discontent With the Economic Conditions.

A TRIBUTE TO GOVERNOR RUSSELL.

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—An immense audience, with enthusiasm, filled Tremont temple to witness a no-tight, the occasion being a rally under the auspices of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Massachusetts.

The distinguished guest of the evening, ex-President Cleveland, received long and hearty cheers as he ascended the platform.

CLEVELAND'S LATEST.

A condition of restlessness and irritation has grown up throughout the country, born of prevailing inequality and unfairness.

When I see the old Commonwealth brought into disrepute by such a course of expediency and dishonesty, when I see a majority of her last elected representatives in Congress bent upon inflicting the principles of expediency and dishonesty upon the State Government...

Any man who fails to appreciate the true motive power of the conscience of Massachusetts has viewed its little purple movements which have made their progress by their own merits, and which have led to national disaster.

On the splendid roster of those here enlisted in one or another of the names of Adams and Everett, and Andrew, and Quincy, and Garrison, and Higginson, and Pierce, and Eliot, and Hoar, and Codman, and William—giving proof that the people as a whole touched the conscience of Massachusetts.

Then came the announcement that the company's friends had collected $25,000 among themselves in the confident belief that the remaining $15,000 required would be subscribed by others.
