SIX MEN MAKING A MEETING OF FORTY

There is war among warriors in Alleheny. The reformers are after one of their number without an identifying mark on that one to indicate who he is. Their plans have been frustrated and the force of the attack on Mayor Wyman and Chief Murphy has been partially lost. The two bombs that were fired on Saturday were intended for explosion at different times, but by the blundering of someone they were both dropped together and in the noisy confusion, argument has proved fruitless, reason has been thrown to the wind and the parties attacked find an easy defence without going into odious details.

Some Plans That Falled.

When the auditors made their report to the sub-committee it was intended by the people at the bottom of the Allegheny investigation that a long, continuous fire should be commenced on the city's two highest officials. The charge was to lead off with the auditor's report, the matter was then to be reported to Councils and when will be.

The majority of the members of the Reform Association are not Straightouts, however, and for that reason they yell treachery. They claim they are non-partisan and say that all efforts to gull them into politics will not only destroy their power with the people, but will also bring down upon them the hatred of both Democrats and Republicans who stick to their party. In addition to that, it is stated that the affidavits of Koerner and Braun were intended for use in the impreselment proceedings against bers Leave the Company. Rev. J. T. McCrory, of the Third U. P. Church took for his subject last night: "The Keeley Cure for Intemperance—Is There Anything Better to Offer the Public." The minister took his text from Proverbs xx, :1. He said that no thoughtful person who reads the Bible need be told of the conse-The Lilliputian Company that appeared in Pittsburg during the past week has been experiencing considerable hard luck. The ompany has only been on the road about four weeks and already there is a cry from the members for their salaries. Several members threatened to leave the company members threatened to leave the company but were promised all back salaries if they would remain until Pittsburg was reached. Unfortunately the business was poor in this city and the salaries were not forthcoming. As a result the Barriston and Adams sisters left the company and departed for New York last night. Major Potter has also retired and is stopping with friends here. An attorney was engaged and an effort was made to collect the money due, but he only succeeded in getting $31 of about $300 coming to them.

The company left for Chicago last night quences of strong drink. We read that the drunkard cannot enter the kingdom of Heaven, but there is a deliverance for them and there is great joy over that de-liverance. "Men need not continue in the use of strong drink for there is a cure, and I think that a word of encour-agement is due on behalf of the Keeley in-stitution. I am satisfied that from results proven to be true the desire for drink can proven to be true the desire for drink can be eradicated. We hear men say that they cannot pass a saloon door but that the desire comes over them for drink, but, thank God, in His beneficient mercy He has enabled Dr. Keeley to make this wonderful discovery, so that this appetite can be cured in 30 days, and the man so treated will be as free from the desire for strong drink as I am. It is a truth in science, one of God's truths, that has lain hid all these centuries, and while we thank Dr. Keeley for the discovery we may also thank God for giving through him the remedy and placed it in his power to save.

"No man can say he cannot resist temptation to drink, for if he does we can offer him the remedy, and if he refuses he doesn't want to be cured."

"Dr. Keeley worked for 20 years, and want to be cured."

"Dr. Keeley worked for 20 years, and people said he was crazy. He said it was a disease, this raging thirst for alcohel, which can be taken away. He has proven it. I venture to say there is not a church within the city to-day but what has a member who gives way to this appetite, and when he recovers comes with tears in his eyes and says 'Oh do not cast me off, I know I have fallen by the wayside, but give one more chance. What shall we do? Take them into the fold and pray for them. They want to do better.

then to be reported to Councils and when the people were argued into believing that they had been defrauded by their public servants, a flauk movement with affidavits was to be run in with a hurrah that would excite the public mind and create a bitter feeling. The plans were well laid. The charge that Mayor Wyman had illegally retained witness fees was to be the foundation for argument and the affidavits of Koerner and Braun were to form the pyrotechnical end of the investigation. But just as the panorama was started, someone flashed the affidavits and the people have forgotten all about the witness fees in watching the fireworks.

The Gullty Man Escapes. better.

"There is the treatment, and in 30 days they may be cured, and then let them prove their sincerety by their conduct. They needn't be a disgrace to the church anymore. Then again the excuse of the young man who is about to be married, is taken away. They can't fool the girls now with that. If they tell you that, just tell them to try the Keeley cure for 30 days and then come to you. This reform after marriage is a fallacy and my young friends it is the argument I want you to use. I tell you the drinking habit is the most horrible disease in existence. It produces vice, vulgarity, profanity, madness and insanity. That is the effect of this disease. It is worse than the smallpox or yellow fever.

"Has the Government any right to establish centers for the development of this disease. No, a thousand times no. There is in this city over 300 of these disease centers established for no other reason except there are some people who want to get the disease and others who want to sell it. But I thank the Lord that through the efforts of Dr. Keely we may be able to prevent the spread of this terrible disease.

"Murphy's doctrine is that a man is saved if he signs the pledge and keeps it, but I say he may be cured of his disease but his soul is lost if he does not go sto the Church and the people to go to work to save the drunkards." better.
"There is the treatment, and in 30 days No one knows who was responsible for giving out the affidavits. They were secured by prominent men in the Reform Association, and their publication is said to have been for the purpose of helping the Straightouts. The cry of the latter organization has been that they are reformers, and the more excitement they get over public affairs the greater, they think, their strength will be.

CATHOLIC PESTIVALS All Saints Day Celebrated Yesterday-Al

tion. One is the auditors who are examining the records, and the other is the citizens' organization. I am one of the auditors and therefore can speak of nothing but what appears on the books. Our report shows that Mayor Wyman retained all uncollected witness fees and did not keep a correct record for use when the fees should be called for. He claims he followed precedent, but that was no expuse for ignoring a statute Souls Day To-Day. The feast of All Saints was generally bserved by Catholics in the Pittsburg lisocese yesterday, but the St. Mary's con regation at Sharpsburg gave it, as is their usual custom, a special observance.

All Saints Day has been set apart as a Mayor shall be turned into the City Treasury. The Mayor says he will return whatever money he owes, but how can he when a record was not kept? One of his propositions, which he made to Auditor Bigger, was that he should return the money before a report was made by us. Of course, we did not even consider the proposal. The procuring

The celebration of All Souls Day, although not obligatory, will be generally observed throughout the diocese. At the Cathedral pontifical high mass will be celebrated by Bishop Phelan at 9 o'clock this morning, and this rare observance will be made more than usually solemn and impressive. At all the churches special masses will be said, although attendance will not be obligatory on the members as was the service of yesterday. The eagle eye of one of the re-formers noticed the mysterious movements of the detectives, however, and to fool of the detectives, however, and to fool them the six men went out of the back door one at a time and walked hurriedly around the square and entered the house again at the front door. The procession was kept going for about half an hour and one of the de-Church, Grant and Webster streets, last night. It was enjoyed by a large congregation. This was a rather unique service of song, conducted by the pastor, Rev. John H. Prugh. During the morning services of tectives, it is claimed, kept tally in a note book of the number of men he supposed were plotting for the Mayor's official scalp. When Chief Murphy was told the story, he denied that detectives had ever been used to watch the movements of the reformthe past month, the people were requested to hand in the number of any favorite to hand in the number of any favorite hymn they wished to have sung at the concert. From this list Rev. Prugh made up the programme, and before each hymn was sung; there was sketched a history of the hymn, its author, and the circumstance under which the hymn was written. A special feature of the concert last evening, was the rendering of some choice selections by a quartet composed of Messra. Horner, Prugh, Ramsey and Corle, a duet by Messra. Ramsey and Corle, and a solo by E. N. Prugh, a brother of the pastor.

The special feature for the concert next Sunday night was announced to be duet seers. The latter are certain that they are being shadowed, however, but are taking the matter in as good humor as their depressed spirits over bad management will allow.

The feeling among Allegheny citizens yesterday was intensified by the day. If the charges made can be proven it is claimed by even the most conservative that the Allegheny scandals will only be less startling than those in Philadelphia in comparison with the size of the two cities. By Sunday night was announced to be duet se-lections by Mrs. Frickie and John Horner. parison with the size of the two cities. Rev. John Alex. Dowie Charges That Other Divine Healers Procure False Testimony.

FATHER MOLLINGER RIDICULED.

A War That Is to Be Followed by Pestilence Over the Entire Earth.

A lively contest is on hand between the two branches of divine healers. The opening attack was made at a Carnegie Hall meeting last night by Rev. John Alex. Dowie, President of the International Di-vine Healing Association. He charged A. B. Simpson, of the Christian Alliance, and John Morrow, the teacher at the Bethany Home, with attempting to get false witnesses, and attempted to substantiate the allegation by producing witnesses who admitted to having testified to being cured by faith when they were not cured. In a fur-ther claim that his doctrin, of divine healing is the one approved by the deity, Mr. Dowie brought forth another witness, who, after failing to be cured by Father Mollinger, has been restored to good health by Pointing Out the Difference. "Anthony's bones didn't work," said Mr. Dowie, in explanation. "The medicine in which he has a proprietory interest failed, but divine power is always successful."

In his attack on other faith curists, Mr. Dowie said he was not actuated by any persoul motives, but that false impressions had become current on account of the work of others, and in order to place himself right before the public he wanted to explain that he was not connected with the Christian Alliance. "I do not wish to speak disparagingly of Mr. Simpson." he continued, "but I think it was to be speak difference between proper to explain the difference between our principles. I do not wish to come in collision with Mr. Morros, the teacher at the Bethany Horse in Pittsburg, but I do say and I can prove that many of the people who at the meeting held by Mr. Morrow and Mr. Simpson in Carnegie Hall last January 15, testified to being healed by taith, were no healed and were induced to make false statements by the men who relyocated the doctrine. I have personal knowledge of this, and will recall two cases. The other was of a woman in Washington county, who came to me last week and told e that on January 15 she had testified that she was we'l. At the same time she was suffering pain, and knew that she was testifying falsely. She claimed that she had done so because Simpson had told her that she would be enred if she would so testify. I know of other cases, and I can furnish names and proof."

Three Witnesses Called. Mr. Dowie then called on persons who had testified to being cured on January 15, and who were still suffering from their old

After the other divine healers were sufficiently torn to pieces, Mr. Dowie asked for those who had been cured by faith to arise. Thirty-five quickly responded, and with compareting enthusiasm made the hall ring with a song of praise.

MINERS CONVENE.

The Issues of the Strike Will Be Further Discussed—A Settlement May Be Arranged—The Findleyville Matter Denied

The principal interest in the miners strike now centers in to-morrow's conven-tion. The miners' committee held a meet-ing late Saturday night, but at that time they refused to say what transpired. Last night President Costello said the meeting was held to decide whether another conven-tion would be called, and accordingly issued the following circular: To the Miners of the Pittsburg District—Greeting:

To the Miners of the Pittsburg District-Greeting:
Your committee of 12, selected by your last convention, has requested the officials to reconvene the convention of October 26, for the purpose of hearing the report or said committee, and also to take further setion on the demands made September 30. You are therefore requested to meet on Tuesday, November 3, at 10 o'clock, A. M., in K. of L. headquarters, 66 Third avenue. It is urgently requested that all miners be represented. We also desire to state the report that we permitted the miners of Findleyville to return to work, is untrue, as they never consulted us as to whether they should cease work or not.

BETTER THAN REPORTED.

Official Report on the Cottage Hospits Investigation. Owing to various reports concerning the management of the Cottage State Hospital at Connellsville, James B. Scott, of the State Board of Charities, yesterday made public the report of the committee that inspected the place. The paper states that no flagrant violations were discovered.

The lack of neatness about the place was ansed by repairs being made. Objection was made to using employes' rooms for pay patients. It was found that the trustees had not been holding meetings every month as required by the by-laws. There was no evidence of intentional financial mismanagement, but it was found that considerable frience avisate hotses are reconstructed. friction existed between various officials of the institution. Lastly, the

against Democratic State Chairman Kerr for alleged libel in issuing the fac similes of the Bardsley certificate.

Considerable interest was aroused at Beaver yesterday afternoon when it became generally known that Rufus Shapley, the Philadelphia lawyer, had been in consultation with Hon. M. S. Quay all day. Several attempts were made to interview the Senator, but he was too busy to be seen, and not until to-night was it known that the long consultation had not been without effect. The two gentlemen had been busily at work on certain papers. Last night a statement was received from Senator Quay to this effect:

Will Proceed at Once. "To-morrow morning, as early as possi-ble, State Chairman Kerr will be arrested on a warrant which is now on its way for the gentleman. The charge on the warrant is that of libel, and conspiracy, and I ask $100,000 damages for the libel in issuing and having had printed the famous Bardsley certificate. The State Chairman will also be arrested on a criminal charge for consistent.

also be arrested on a criminal charge for conspiracy.

Mr. Shapley said later that Senator Quay had retained District Attorney D. A. Graham, of Philadelphia, as associate counsel in the case, and that Chairman Kerr would probably be arrested in Philadelphia early this morning. He added that the cases were to be rigidly pushed, and that other suits would likely follow, though on the latter subject he refused to talk longer.

The first signature on the Duquesne register yesterday was Rufus E. Shapley, Philadelphia. The distinguished attorney, who is retained to defend State Treasurer Boyer and Auditor General McCamant, arrived in the city from the East about 4 o'clock A. M. He immediately repaired to the hotel, and was assigned to room 58, where he washed and brushed up. He took a short nap, after which he came downstairs and break-

Later he consulted the clerk about trains for Beaver, and being informed that the first one available was at 90 clock sat in the gentlemen's parlor reading the morning pa-pers. He conferred with no one, and when the porter announced his train, Mr. Shapley got his traps together and shot down to Beaver to advise with Senator Quay anent the proposed libel suits.

Postmaster McKean, who lives at the Duuesne, was called at 7 o'clock, and it is hought he also went down to Beaver.

papers ready and file them during the week. They say they would have entered the suit before this, but they desired to hear the case of the defense presented in Saturday's hearing, which they claim was greatly to the advantage of the Senator. Major Montooth was seen yesterday and speaking of his client said:

He has told me he would, and I believe him. He has given each of his attorneys a handsome retaining fee, which he would not do if he were simply entering the suits for effect, and, lastly, I believe he has a straight case, without legal complications, and I am unable to see anything to prevent his winning it. a week or two it will be plenty of time, as all such suits are made returnable on the first Monday of each month, by which time

SUNDAY IN POLITICS. Ward Heelers and Some of the Leaders Getting in Considerable Quiet Work-Nothing Being Done in Connection With A great deal of quiet political work was accomplished vesterday by the ward politicians all over both cities, although the majority of the big leaders and candidates staved at home. There was an absence of the familiar faces of the past month around the Republican headquarters, although the place was open for the accommodation of the country politicians who had neglected or were unable to come sooner for their Sheriff McCleary assumed control of the campaign for the Republicans, owing to the unexpected death of Chairman Gripp's little son yesterday. The Sheriff was at the office for a few moments yesterday afternoon. He said the work of the campaign was practically over, and the leaders were all at home taking a much needed rest. The result of Tuesday's election was already settled, he said, and there was no necessity for des crating Sunday by unnecessary work. Asked as to his opinion of the fight, the Sheriff said:

"Things have changed greatly within the past ten days. Two weeks ago I thought Judge Fetterman stood an excellent chance Judge Fetterman stood an excellent chance for election. To-day I feel sure he has no chance at all. The organizations of the two great parties have been at work in that time, and, as usual, have accomplished won-ders. Speculators on Tuesday's result, re-membering last November, must bear in mind that the Republican reservice mited mind that the Republican party is united as far as the leaders are concerned, and in this election they have a powerful ally in the Democrats. There will be a great amount of cutting done in this election. There will be few of what are known as the Straightout tickets voted without cutting. Many of Fetterman's friends in both parties will vote for him but cut both his colleagues, while, I am reliably informed, there are many places where Mr. Fettermans' friends will vote him with the two Republicans on our ticket. A dozen such combinations will be made in various parts of the countr, and our candidates will be elected without trouble."

The Straightouts Busy. The Straightout Busy.

The Straightout leaders were on hand yesterday, and were as busy as bees. A. H. Rowand's office was their gravitating point. Mr. Rowand was up to his ears in the business of the hour, and during the day had many important conferences with the Straightout henchmen who called. He still claims his candidates will be elected beyond a doubt.

still claims his candidates will be elected beyond a doubt.

"We have developed great strength during the past week," he said, "and I feel justified in saying we will come to Allegheny city with no less than 7,000 majority for the Straighout candidates. There we are sure of not less than 2,000 majority, half of which we will get from the first three wards. Then we will cross to Pittsburg with a majority of 3,000 and if the other fellows carry this city at all it will be by less than 3,000, giving us the election by a clean 5,000 majority. I really expect to win in Pittsburg. Our reports from the country are most encouraging and we expect to win in every borough and in all but two or three townships."

Reports of big majorities expected in all wards and country districts are numerous and conflicting, and the truth is probably about as Judge Fetterman said: "There will be surprises on Tuesday, and both sides must expect to hear them."

To-morrow evening, as usual at election time, the returns received over the special wires of THE DISPATCH will be bulletined on the Smithfield street front as fast as they come in, special arrangements having been made for that purpose. Returns will be received from all parts of the country. Doom of the Convention

Unless a great change takes place between now and to-morrow morning the Constitutional Convention provided for by the last Legislature is doomed never to be held. Absolutely nothing is being done in behalf of the movement in Allegheny county. The leaders of all parties admit that it is overshadowed entirely by local issues and little or no attention is being paid to it. The tickets for and against a convention are being sent out and some care is to it. The tickets for and against a conven-tion are being sent out, and some care is being exercised to have the tickets for dele-gates properly placed, but the whole busi-ness is being done in a perfunctory way, in-dicating an absence of interest.

The Republican leaders here say the movement will be defeated in the State bemovement will be defeated in the State because it is unpopular with the people. They say further that nothing is to be gained by a constitutional convention, and much harm might be done.

On the other hand, the Democrats, while desirous of having a constitutional convention, seem to realize the impossibility of attaining it by popular vote and are taking litle interest in the subject. Chairman Brennen probably reflected the sentiment of his party in an interview had with him yesterday.

"I am for the Constitutional Convention." "I am for the Constitutional Convention," said he, "and so is the party, but we are not taking much interest in it. The matter does not seem to enter into the campaign, important as it is, and the resolution adopted by our County Committee on Saturday relating to the subject will have but little effect. The Republicans are against the convention, but they, too, are indifferent, and I predict a very small vote on the ouestion."

The Straighouts are sending out the convention tickets, but Secretary Dunn says no effort is being put forth and will not be until at the last moment when men walk up to the polls. Then, he says, the poll workers will have their instructions and will endeaver in factors.

leavor to influence voters accordingly. SIGNS OF GOOD ORDER.

Sunday Police Hearings Much Smaller Than Usual-Only a Few People Sen tenced to the Workhouse-First Cases in the New Station House. In spite of the fact that Saturday night was Hallowe'en the Police Magistrates had very little to occupy their attention at yesterday morning's hearings. A remarkably small number of people were sent to the Eight to the Workhouse. Magistrate Hyndman presided at the hear-ing at Central station and disposed of 29 cases. Eight of these were workhouse cases, cases. Eight of these were workhouse cases, 30 days being the sentence in all of them. Edward and Emma Breen were disturbing the entire neighborhood in the vicinity of Hill street at an early hour and were arrested at the request of a neighbor, who appealed to a police officer only after getting out of bed for the fifth time to quiet their noise. They were given 30 days sentence. John Carrol, Thomas Irwin, Marion Swain and Ed Case were similarly disposed of. Dale Lenkard was abusing his wife and Mary Mulherron was yelling murder for no apparent cause, and went with the others to Claremont. The only offense condoned was that of singing and talking too loud in Daisy Moore's house on Bedford avenue, for women and four men. On account of the sickness and general hard luck of the prisoners, all of them were allowed their freedom on a promise to be more careful in future. Senator Quay's suit for damages for crim-mal libel has not made any further prog-ress, but his attorneys say they will get the papers ready and file them during the week.

The hearings before Magistrate Succop a The hearings before Magistrate Succop at the Twenty-eighth ward police station yesterday morning were remarkably small in number. to Oakdale. He is minus his right arm. The Coroner will hold an inquest at 10 'clock this morning. The Duquesne Gaining Traffic. Since the Wilkinsburg branch of the Duquesne electric line begun to operate regularly it has been making a heavy reduction in the local passenger traffic of the Pennsylvania Railroad, but yesterday it was especially noticeable. The Wilkinsburg and Braddock church trains were almost empty coming into the city, though heretofore they have always been well filled and seats were scarce. The electric line, however, carried a great many passengers from Wil-kinsburg and all along the line, and with this addition to its business the road did nearly as much business as on a weekday.
