If Beaten the Defense Will Appeal Their

Cause to the Synod, AND STILL HIGHER, IF NECESSARY

PSPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, Nov. 3.-The trial of Prof. Charles A. Briggs, who stands accused of heresy by the Presbyterian Church in America, through Dr. G. W. F. Birch's Committee of Prosecution, will begin tomorrow in the body of the Scotch Presbyterian Church in West Fourteenth street. At 10 o'clock the New York Presbytery will convene, as the book of discipline provides, to listen, both as judge and jury, to the evidence which Prof. Briggs' defenders and accusers, who are also members of the jury,

The friends of Prof. Briggs are as determined as ever to stand by him, and even if he is adjudged guilty by the Presbytery they will not desert him, but will help him to fight his case on appeal to the Synod, and, if necessary, to the General Assembly of 1893. Dr. Birch and his fellow committeemen, who fought so successfully at the last meeting of the Presbytery to prevent a compromise, are ready now to push the trial through to the end, and will be satisfied with nothing but a complete recantation by Prof. Briggs of his alleged heretical octrines.

The reading of his answer by Dr. Briggs
The proceeding. It will be the first order of the proceeding. It will be an exhaustive document, and will take up the charges and specifications separately. Here it is that Prof. Briggs' theological knowledge is expected to be brought out, according to his friends, in contrast with that of the Committee of Prosecution, whose theological range. Dr. Briggs' friends have repeatedly asserted, is not very wide. A strong effort will probably be made to have Prof. Briggs' answer accepted on the spot and the proceedings brought to a close at once, but Dr. Birch and Colonel J. J. Mcat once, but Dr. Birch and Colonel J. J. Mc-Cook, the fighting elder, are determined to prevent any such outcome. They have a strong backing in the Presbytery and they will insist upon their right to attack the answer of Prof. Briggs. It is possible that the Presbytery may adjourn for a few days in order to give the prosecution time to draw up a counter answer. Prof. Briggs has decided to conduct his case personally.

WORKING FOR MISSIONS.

Ladies of the Episcopal Church Hold Their Annual Meeting.

The eleventh annual meeting of the Pitts-burg Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Episcopal Board of Missions, was held in the chapel of Trinity Church yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Ormsby Phillips, the president, occupied the chair. The business meeting was preceded by a brief address from the Rt. Rev. L. R. Brewer, a missionary bishop, who has been located at Helena, Mont., for the last ten years, giving an account of the work done by 15 men under his supervision during that time. He has planned for the erection of five He has planned for the erection of five churches during the next year, and so far he has not more than $500 piedgred for each one. He therefore made an appeal for aid, and the ladies present pledgred him $150. At the business meeting which followed, the report of Mrs. Mary A. Tschudi, the recording secretary was presented, show-ing that the contributions for the year amounted to $500. The report of the Vice President Frances I. Davis, showed that while some of the parish branches are in a hile some of the parish branches are in a purishing condition, others show a falling flourishing condition, others show a falling off in interest and reports were lacking entirely from 3 of the 13 in the diocese.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Ormsby Phillips: Vice President, Mrs. Morrison Byllesby, Allegheny and Miss Frances I. Davis, Meadville: Treasurer, Mrs. J. O. Siemmons, Pittsburg: Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Jeannette Rodgers, Pittsburg: Recording Secretary, Mrs. Mary A. Tschudi. President Junior Department, Miss Annie I. Phillips, Allegheny.

A Husband Arrested on Suspicion of Com

mitting a Horrible Crime. SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Nov. 3 .- The little village of Plainfield, situated between Chicoby, Traveling Passenger Agent, Room 303, Bank of Commerce Building, Pittsburg, Pa, if you desire any further information as to the country and the accommodations for pee and South Hadley Falls, was thrown into great excitement this morning by the finding of the body of a woman buried six feet in the cellar under her own home. The body had apparently been under ground for several weeks. It was found face downward. The skull was crushed and one arm ward. The skull was crushed and one arm was cut off.

It was the body of Mrs. Nellie Kenyon Holmes. William B. Holmes, the second husband of the victim, has been arrested and is now in the lockup at Holyoke. He denies having bad anything to do with the crime. Mrs. Holmes was married to a man named Kenyon some years ago. They were unhappy and Kenyon soon left her and their young son. Soon afterward she fell in love with Holmes and married him. Three years of more ago she separated from Holmes, and a year ago they came together again and bought a house in Plainville. There have been frequent quarrels since and nothing has been seen of her for six weeks.

STRIKING MOLDERS GIVE IN.

A Contest of a Year's Standing Just Ended in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3 .- The strike of the union iron molders, which began in this city November 3, 1889, ended to-day, the union declaring the strike off. The cause of the strike was the joint action of the 14 largest foundries refusing to recognize the rules of the union, which they claimed worked hard-ship to their industry. About 140 molders ship to their industry. About 140 molders and 40 coremakers were involved.

It is estimated that the strike has cost the union over $100,00, and three lives were lost through violence, the outgrowth of the feeling which prevailed between the molders and the foundrymen for the time. The union, in calling the strike off, states that it is informed that the foundrymen will not discriminate against union members and that no objection is entertained to the unionizing of shops, if feasible.

EVIDENCES OF A LAKE DISASTER. Wreckage Bearing the Name of a Chicago

Steamer Is Washed Ashore. Manistre, Mice., Nov. 3.—Several pails marked "Steamer Powers," and a cabin door have been found on the beach about 18 miles north of here. No other wreckage can miles north of here. No other wreckage can be seen. The only steamer by that name is the D. W. Powers. She is valued at $15,000. J. Hamley, of Chicago, is her owner. William Palmer, of Chicago, agent of the Powers, stated to-day that she had left there Friday bound for Manistique to load lumber for Michigan City. It was not expected that anything would be heard of her in Chicago until she had delivered her cargo. He much doubted that she had met with any mishap. She carries a crew of 15 mea.
