A BOOM IN BOWLING.

Great Contest Arranged Among Three of the Leading Local Organizations.

MR. HOSTETTER'S GOOD OFFER.

He Will Give a Valuable Silver Cup to the Winning Club-Conditions of Contest.

CORKHILL SIGNS FOR NEXT YEAR.

Results of the Leading Turf Events-General Sporting News of the Day.

No branch of sport or recreation has made as much progress in Pittsburg during of East End clubs alone. The leading organizations are the Bellefield, the Linden and the East End Gymnastic clubs. Such strong rivalry has developed among those clubs that Mr. D. H. Hostetter has offered a valuable silver cup to be contested for by teams representing the clubs named. The cup is now being designed by Mr. Wattles, the local leweler.

The Terms of Contest.

The terms of the contest are such that it may probably be a long time before any particular club becomes absolute possessor of the valuable trophy. There will be three contests or matches, that is one on the alleys of each club and no club can win the cup expenses, the money to be sent to the Police without winning three straight matches. No club is compelled to be represented by the same five players at every match; changes can be made at any time. The first contest will take place at Bellefield on the evening of the 16th inst; the second at the East Ead rymnasium, and the third at the Linden No club has made a definite selection of its team yet, but contests are taking piace nightly at the various ys as a means of determining best players. At each club all the players who want to be on the teams who will consest for the cup are requested to take part in 12 games and the five having the best averages will be the team to repre sent their eleb. This arrangement is in itself causing lots of fun among the leading business men who are sportively inclined and it is also increasing the membership of the various clubs to a very great extent. Members Are Prominent Men.

The clubs are made up of the most prominent business men in the city and by their efforts bowling promises to become one of the leading pastimes in Pittsburg. It ought to be. Bellefield Club has a membership of 200 and has four excellent alleys. D. W. C. Bidwell is President and J. W. Herron is The alleys of this club are well patronized every evening, and among its players are some very good ones. They ex-pect to make a strong bid for Mr. Hostetter's trophy.
The Linden Club has a membership of 250, and they have also four good alleys. D. McK. Lloyd is president, and R. C. Duncan is secretary. It is expected that this club will soon become a very strong organization, as there is a large number of hustlers among its members.

But the strongest club of the three as far as membership is concerned is the East End Gyms. The Gyms are in everything, and are always well represented. A Strong Club.

Their bowling club has a membership of cve 3.0, and there are some really good bowlers among them. They are confident of season, after having said this. winting the silver cup, and there is sure to he some lively work between them and the Bellefields.

It is safe to give every encouragement possible to the game of bowls. It is called the "gentleman's game," but as an exercise-giving pastime it cannot well be excelled. It is growing, and very rapidly, in popu-larity in every large city in the United In New York several club contests for valuable prizes are now going on, and numerous new clubs are being organized. If the local contest in question proves as suc-cessful as anticipated others will follow.

DON'T LIKE THE SCHEME.

Leading Athletes Not in Favor of Mr. Jans sen's New Association.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4 .- [Special.]-The leading amateur athletes in the East are not taking kindly to the new scheme proposed by Mr. Janssen. Yesterday a prominent athlete said:

"The scheme is transparent. What use is there for organizing the league if it isn't to have jurisdiction over sports? That's what the Amateur Athletic Union exists for, and the new association proposes to take in the clubs that compose the backbone of the A. A. U. The result would simply be to array the silk stocking element in athletics against the humbler class, and the outcome would be disastrous to all branches of sport. The claim that the new body would not antagonize the A. A. U. is all rubbish. Janssen's strictly confidential and not for publication circular states distinetly that the proposed league is to foster and promote all sports, games and pastinces of every description to the particular advantage of its own members, and independently of all other organizations in the United States and Canada. Now, how can it endcavor to take all sports under its wing and still not antagonize the A. A. U., the object of which is to foster and control all branches of sport? The assertion is absurd, and all athletic clubs which desire to see sports and pastimes continue on a healthy basis will fight shy of this wild-eyed scheme."

When F. W. Janssen was questioned, he When F. W. Janssen was questioned, he said: "This plan will in no wise interfere with the A. A. U., or any other body, and I claim the organization will result beneficially to athletics. At any rate the clubs to which I have sent the circular are very favorably impressed with the idea. Five clubs have already officially joined the league, while many others have notified me that they are considering the plan and look upon it with approval. The clubs which have joined are the Staten Island A. C., Athletic Club of the Schuylkill Navy Phil. Athletic Club of the Schuylkill Navy, Phil-adelphia; Columbia Athletic Club, Washington, D. C.; Athenseum Club, Toronto, Ont., and the Providence A. C., of Providence, R. I. Among the clubs that are favorably impressed with the idea and are apt to join are the Berkeley Athletic Club, of this city; Detroit Athletic Club, Olympic Athletic Club, of San Francisco; Manhattan Athletic Club, of New York; Englewood Field Club, Orange Athletic Club, Montclair Athletic Club, St. Louis, Mo. A DEFINITE OFFER.

The California Athletic Club Will Give $7,500 for a Contest Between Jim Corbett and Peter Maher in January Next Probable Battle Between Le Blanche

NEW YORK, Nov. 4 .- [Special.]-The folowing special dispatch was received at the Police Gazette office to-day from R. Valentine, the Chairman of the Boxing Committee of the California Athletic Club:
"At a meeting of the Boxing Committee of the California Athletic Club to-day it was decided to offer a purse of $7,500 for a contest between Peter Maher, the Irish champion, and Jim Corbett, to be held under the auspices of the club in January. Will you please use your influence and cor-respond with Maher and Corbett in regard to the matter."

After the above was received Billy Madthe last 12 months as bowling, and as a den, Maher's manager, and Jim Corbett were wired for their reply. There is every probability of an international prize fight being arranged between Jack O'Brien, the famous English middle-weight, and George La Blanche, the Marine, who is now living the strength latter and it is safe to grown in strength lately, and it is safe to say that between 800 and 1,000 are members atte correspondent in London cabled as

"O'Brien called at the Sporting Life office to-day and issued a challenge to fight George La Blanche, the Marine, at 11 stone, in the National Athletic, Bolinbroke or Pelican Clubs, or in the club offering the biggest purse, and will allow La Blanche £50 for expenses. O'Brien's backer will also back him for £500 independent of the purse. if the American has pendent of the purse, if the American has a backer. O'Brien has posted £50 with the Sporting Life to show he is in earnest."

To-day the following reply was received from Le Blanche: "I see that Jack O'Brien, of London, England, wants to fight me in the National Club, London, and that they offer a purse. I will go over to England and fight O'Brien if he will allow $300 for expresse, the money to be sent to the Pulies. Gazette office. I will fight O'Brien for the biggest purse that any responsible club will offer, at 148 pounds. If this suits O'Brien the National Club can deposit $300 with Richard K. Fox and the match can be ratified. "George Le Blanche, "Ogden, Utah."

WILL BE MANAGER HIMSELF.

Von Der Abe Talks of His Plans and of Players Deserting Him.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 4 .- [Special.]-The news that the entire Brown Stocking team had bid farewell to St. Louis for all time to come caused President Von der Ahe to cut his fishing trip a little short and he is today on his old stamping ground. He looks somewhat worried at the turn things have taken, yet he laughs at the idea of St. Louis not having a first-class ball team next season. It is a sure thing that Comiskey will not play here next season as Von der Ahe says that he would not think of paying him anything like the figures offered him by the President of the Cincinnati club; that a good first baseman, second baseman and another player can be signed for the same amount of money offered to Comiskey by Cincinnati. The boss President is sorry to think of losing the Captain, but he believes that if he handles the men himself St. Louis will be up among the leaders at the end of next season. It is a well-known fact that Comiskey is a poor hand to give away private business, and a secret carried by him is as safe as if it was locked up in a safe-deposit bank and guarded by 1,000 soldiers. When asked whether he had really signed a contract to play with the Cincinnati team next season, he said that there was plenty of time to make that public, but that he telt pretty sure of playing with Brush's club in 1892, and those who know the big Captain.

the Western Leaguers already signed by Von der Ahe, he will try to se-cure Dungan, catcher, who is said to be as good as any man who played in the Asso ciation last season. McMahon may possibly be signed, too. A strong effort will be made to induce Boyle to sign for another season, as it will be a difficult task to fill his shoes, but is is a pretty sure thing that Boyle will go with Comiskey to Cincinnati. Fuller is badly wanted, too, as the boss President re-alizes the fact that his shoes will be hard to fill. Reports have reached here from the East that the League intended to increase its circuit to ten clubs, and that St. Louis and Baltimore were to be used to fill out with, and that people with large capital would back the Mound City team; but nothing is brown here about it. nothing is known here about it. Ex-Man-ager W. H. Watkins was here to-day hob-nobbing with President Von der Ahe, but the former claimed that he was on other business than baseball.

HARVARD VERY CONFIDENT.

Its Fooball Players Certain of Defeating the Team From Yale.

SPRINGFELD, Nov. 4.-Will it be Yale or Harvard in the coming football contest at Hampder Park? This is the question that is vigorously discussed in this city. Harvard men express 'themselves as certain of victory. While admitting that their team is not as strong as last year, they claim that Yale is playing a weaker game just now. This is not borne out by the practice of the blues. They appear to be putting up a stiff game, and will go into the contest here on November 21 full of confidence.

The city is happy in having secured the games for the next four years, and the citizens will do all in their power to favor the boys and help make the games successful. Work on the big grand stand will begin soon. The stand will be a circular one, and it will have a section consists of 2000. it will have a seating capacity of 22,000 persons. Twenty-three feet from the stand the field will be roped off for the players, trainers and reporters. Excursion trains will be run on all the railroads entering Spring-field, and reduced rates of fare will be of fered. Harvard will probably quarter at the Cooley House, where the team put up last year, and Yale will doubtless go to the Massasoit.

Most of the hotels already have been besieged for accommodations. A large delegation of Smith College girls intend to be present, and a number of young ladies will also be on hand from Vassar. There will be fewer tally-ho parties this year, because the new grand stand will shut out their view. The expense for fitting up the stands and rental of the park is something like $5,000.

The Browns Easily Downed. WILLIAMSTOWN, Nov. 4 .- [Special.]-Williams easily downed Brown University here to-day to the tune of 58 to 0. Brown did not have a representative team as her best men have been laid up at one time and another during the past few weeks. Will-iams played steadily.

Brush Secures Comiskey.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4. - [Special.] -John T. Brush announced last night that he had secured Comiskey to play with and manage the Cinconnati team next season Comiskey had a long conference with Brush here yesterday. The stipulated salary was not given, but it is said to be not less than $7,000.

Erie County's 15-Year-Old Girl Counterfeiter Proves to Be

QUITE A VALUABLE PRISONER.

The Weakness of Her Sex Betrays Her Lover Into the Toils.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] ERIE, Nov. 4.-United States Marshal Barring turned up another manufacturer of spurious money to-day. The prisoner is Farmer William Van Nauler, of Venango borough, Crawford county. Van Nauler was the owner of the molds with which James McCormick, now in the Scranton jail, and William Seeley, also in custody, manufactured the spurious money which they circulated at the Stoneboro, Cambridge and other county fairs.

Miss Nettie Morgan, who was arrested at the same time that Seelev was taken, and was also captured by Detectives Mc-Sweeney and McManus, is a valuable prisoner, saying more than is good for lover. Miss Morgan is but 15 years of age and quite comely. Her mother, fearing that her daughter will be sent to the State Reformatory, claims that her daughter is older than she really is.

The girl was used by Seely and his gang as a sort of treasurer, and as custodian of the supplies. The molds were found in her possession, wrapped in a nightdress. The gang used Van Nauler's house as a fence and operated their mint there, which was, withal, quite crude, and the products could only be circulated among rustics.

FRANKLIN, Nov. 4 .- [Special.]-A. gang of expert burglars, said to be from Pittsburg, are getting in their fine work in this part of the State, a long list of robberies having been committed in this county. Several stores have been broken open, and an aggregate of $10,000 worth of goods have been taken and said to have been shipped to a "fence" in Pittsburg.

Last night the clothing store of Towoski Brothers, of this city, was entered, and clothing, watches and jewelry to the amount of $1,000 taken. The goods were packed into a wagon and boldly carted away before the police could be notified. Two valuable horses were stolen from Farmer Wright in Worth township, Mercer county, and though large rewards have been offered not ne of the many thieves has been taken.

My head had a stuffed-up feeling in the morning, my right ear often pained me, had pain in my sides, could not sleep well and feit tired and languid. The tough mucus that dropped into my throat was difficult to raise. My appetite failed, had belching of gas after esting, and my stomach was so weak I had to be careful of my diet. The disease finally reached my lungs so that I often felt soreness in my chast. Not being able to find relief and gradually getting worse, I became afraid I would run into consumption unless I soon obtained heip."

"Reading of so many cures made by the physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute, and that they were catarrh specialists, I consinted them. They made no big promises, but referred me to others who had been cured of conditions worse than mine.
