BACK FROM UTAH.

Mr. Link Thinks the Mormons Should Be Given a Chance Rudolph Link, formerly of this city, but now of New York, was in the city for a few thirty cents. days last week. He was on his way back from a five-months' tour of the West. Dur-Ing his tour he visited the wonderful Salton lake in the Arizona desert and enjoyed a ride of 30 miles on st. He thinks it has come to stay and should be placed on the maps. One curious thing is the old salt works that a few months ago was the solitary feature of the great alkali desert, now stands in the middle of the lake which is at least 30 miles in diameter. In speaking of the crops, Mr. Link said that there were thousands of acres of grain just rotting away, the farmers not having the icilitie for removing the enormous crops.

Mr. Link also spent a good portion of his me in Sali Lake City. He thinks a great me in Salt Lake City. He thinks a great justice has been done the Mormons, which manages from those who have had no inght to their true character. Leaving de their religious belief they are in dustrious, energetic, honest and upright in all their dealings. Most business men have such a high opinion of them that they are extremely solicitous for their trade at all times. Said he: "I would gladly sell to Mormon commercial men without taking the tranble to ascertain their financial standing. The fact that they are able to carry on business under the strict, methodical and sound system in rogue among them is proof that they are

Mr. Link thinks a little more consideration should be given them by an intelligent and just people.
