THE REALM

OF BEAUTY.

12

-Mrs. Thomas Morrison Carnegie issued invitations last Wednesday for the marlage of her daughter, Miss Margaret, to Oliver Garrison Ricketson, the ceremony to take place in Calvary Episopal Church Wednesday evening week, November 18, at 8 o'clock. This means the uniting of representatives of two families well known in Pittsburg. The bride to be is the daughter of the late Thomas M. Carnegie, brother of the iron magnate, literateur, traveler and patron of the arts, An-drew Carnegie. Mr. Ricketson, the ex-ectant groom, is a son of John H. Ricketson. one of Pittsburg's foremost men, and grandson of Abraham Garrison, who has been long identified with the social and commercial world of the Iron City. Since a shorter time that usual has elapsed between Miss Carnegie's coming out ball and r marriage, it is evident the young lady has had a social triumph. Early has had a social triumph. Early in the young lady's drawing room career Mr. Eleketson was mentioned as probably the one to be favored with her hand, finally. So when it was announced that a marriage had been arranged it was no matter of surprise. It is said Andrew Car-negia has promised to be in Pittsburg for his nece's weddims. A thousand invitations have been sent out to the church, some of which inclosed invitations to a home recep-tion afterward at "Fairfield," Mrs. Car-negie's town house. negie's town house.

The Amateur Thespiaus.

were beautifully arranged with flowers, and the softness of the lights only added to the brilliancy of the smart toilets of the ladies. Eight tables were kept merrily going, the honors being finally divided between Miss Sprague, of Elisworth avenue, East End, Mr. E. M. Ladeen and Mr. Henderson, who ob-tained the head prizes, consisting of silver bon-bon spoon, silver cuff links and pencil case. After an elegant supper Miss Upham, of Massillon, O., and Miss Little, of Pitts-burg, delighted the guests with some charm-ing songs. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ladeen, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Watkins, Miss Eate Englert. Miss Chara Watkins, Miss Kate Englert. Miss Sprague, Miss Nannie Little, Miss Henderson, Miss Fannie Upham, of Massillon, O., Dr. Roger Williams, Mr. Charles Crawford, Mr. Carl Miller, of Mas-sillon, O., Mr. Henderson, Mr. Burt Foley, Mr. E. Trafford Wright, of London, England. -Another event of the week was the opening performance by the Sewickley Dramatic Club (they have dropped the word valley since last year), Thursday evening. The reputation which this club Thursday evening, November 5, Miss Anna bears in the amateur histrionic field was not marred by last week's work, which was of Bella Dippold was married to James K. Scott, at Baden, Ps. The ceremony was performed in the Evangelical Lutheran an exceedingly good character. Mr. Newin will doubtless contribute much to keep up the present high standard which the club has Church, at that place, by the Rev. R. M. Smith, after which an elegant supper was held at the home of the bride's parents.

acquir d. By the way two members, and important members at that, have dropped out this sea-son, Mrs. Rose and Mrs. Franks, something exceedingly regretted by everyone. Events of the New Week.

-Among the social engagements for this week are Mrs. C. C. Hussey's reception on Friday evening. Cedar avenue, Allegheny. Mrs. Stanhope S. Pinkerton's reception on Friday evening for her sisters, Mrs. John bine, of Rochester, and Mr. Harry Weber acted best man, with Mr. W. M. Scott and Mr. Jacob Dippold as ushers. Miss Dippold is the only daughter of Cap-tain John H. Dippold, the well-known steamboat man of this city, and Mr. Scott holds a position in the accounting depart-ment of the Pennsylvanis Company. The bridal party leit Friday morning for an absence of several weeks in the Easc, and upon their return will take up their resi-dence at Linmore. Friday evening for her sisters, Mrs. John Mat'ocks and Miss Elizabeth Mattocks, of Chicago: Bidwell and Fifth avenue, city. Mrs. Henry Irwin and Miss Hannah Irwin, "at home" from 3 to 6 Thursday afternoon; Western avenue, Allegbeny. Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Davis, an evening reception, 8 to 12, on Friday; Sewickley. Mr. John Manning was delightfully sur-prised by a number of his friends calling upon him at his home, 4805 Hatfield street, last Wednesday evening, the occasion being his thirty-third birthday. Dancing, games

For the Oakland Children's Hospital.

-At yesterday's meeting in the Oakland Children s Hospital the business of prepara-tion for the dual benefit for the hospital and the Church of the Ascension was pushed briskly forward. The different committees were formed, and what are termed the patrons of the various tableaux somewhat changed and rearranged. The benefit, which will be given in the Auditorium December 4 aud 5, is known as a "National Pageant," and was given a full and exclusive descrip-tion in THE DISPATCH a few days ago. The committees up to the present time are as follows:

Thursday evening the house of James A. ant: Mrs. S. S. Pinkerton and Miss A. Secretaries Mr. W. S. Pier, Treas A. Secretaries Mr. W. S. Pier, Treas A. Secretaries Mr. W. S. Pier, Treas Miss S. H. Killikelly and Miss Speer. al Director-Mr. E. H. Dermit. William Adams, of the West End, whose and Miss days are a reception to the Johnny Smoker Hunting and Fishing Club at their club brate her 15th birthday by a dance from 7 to 11. Some very pretty fancy dances were al Director-Mr. E. H. Dermit. ouise Speer. Musical Director-Mr. E. H. Dermit,

PITTSBURG DISPATCH. SUNDAY, NOVEMBER THE

GRAND OPERA HOUSE J. K. Emme SIJOU THEATER The White Slave DUQUESNE THEATER...... .The Bostonian McKenna's Flirtation ALVIN THEATER. DAVIS' MUSEUM-THEATER......Curlosities, etc. WORLD'S MUSEUM-THEATERCurlosities, etc. WILLIAMS' ACADEMY.......Rose Hill's Folly Co.

Esterline, Best, Glesenkamp, Piaget, Mc-Kelvy and Messra, Porter, Hughes, Babcock, The Pitou Stock Company has made a name for itself already in Pitteburg, and it Keivy and Messra. Porter, Hughes, Babcock, Esterline, Welsh, Gilieland, Bushfield and Chambers. Progressive euchre was the or-der of the evening. Miss McKelvy and J. C. Porter captured the head prizes and Miss Best and B. P. Welsh the second prizes. Re-freshments were served, after which a short time was spent in dancing. The next meet-ing of the club will be at Miss Piaget's house. No. 19 Church avenue. Allegheny, on Friday evening, November 20. can command from henceforth hearty support here. Of course a new company, without the prestige of long establishment in New York, such as the few stock companies in existence have, could not expect to attract the attention of the theater-going public till performance had borne out the promises of its managers. It must be ac-knowledged that the Pitou Stock Company is The Belle Vale Social Club, of Allegheny,

Pa., had a very large attendance at their regular meeting last Wednesday evening at all that Mr. Pitou promised it should be, an organization of artists of the first class. regular meeting last wednesday evening at Towers' Hall, North Diamond street, both of members and friends. This club since its reorganization has made very rapid strides, and from the interest manifested in it, both by its members and also outside well-wish-ers, promises soon to be one of the best of its kind. Its members are young people full of determination and energy. Such finished and complete productions as "A Modern Match" and "Geoffrey as "A Modern Match" and "Geoffrey Middleton, Gentleman," as presented at this company's hands, are very rarely seen here, or indeed anywhere outside of a very few of the first-class theaters in New York. For this opportunity to see really the best acting under most favorable condi-tions the public certainly owes Mr. Pitou a large debt of gratitude. The risk of such an undertaking, both in money and reputation, is as great as the possible reward, but hap-pily I believe Mr. Pitou will get the latter. Thursday evening was kept merrily at the residence of Miss Louise Enfields. Western avenue, by an enjoyable gathering of her averac, by an enjoyable gathering of her numerous friends. The time was spent in dancing and enchre. Among those present were: Messrs. Hamilton, Wood, Patton, Craig, Reed, Graule. Cameron, Appleby, Mercer, and the Misses Scott, Johnston, Laman, Gertie Scott, Irwin, Marshall, Mo-Cullough, Hays and Diebert.

in the difficult and very unpleasant role of Violet Hunt in "A Modern Match," and the very different character of Margarel Merritt in "Geoffrev Middleton," it is impossible to deny that Miss Seligman is a clean head and shoulders above her cotemporaries of the emotional solicol. She possesses the in-tuitive renius of the horn actress, and to this is added a cultivated intelligence and carnest ambition that should place her in a few years at the very top of the theatrical ladder. It is gratifying to know that Pitts-burg showed its appreciation of Miss Selig-man's work in an unwontedly hearty man-ner. Miss Seligman is a young woman, whose stage career is of no more than four years duration, and she has in that time risen with extraordinary rapidity. Her person-ality has a distinct and peculiar charm, and the gods have been generous to her in the matter of physical beauty. Of course, her voice is melodious and powerful-no actress can expect to be great without that-and she appears to have been taught elocution and, indeed, all the acquired art she pos-sesses in the best schools. Talking of elocu-tion, it is a curious little fact that a number of years ago a professor of el-oution in New York took both Miss Seligman and Miss Violet Hunt in "A Modern Match." and the The St. Charles Literary and Dramatic Society, of Penn avenue, will hold their thirteenth annual reception in Raiston School hall, corner Fifteenth street and Penn avenue, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, November 25 and 26. This society is the strongest German Catholic young men's organization in the Pittsburg diocese, and their enterthinments are always good. and their entertainments are always good. Major Lowry Post No. 548, G. A. R., of Wilkinsburg, will probably give the "Little Re-cruit" in the Odd Fellows' Opera House cruit" in the Odd renows Open house about the holiday season. The drama was given in that place some weeks ago and it proved such a success, socially and finan-cially, that a repetition has been requested by many of the prominent citizens of the

A number of friends of Miss Emma Shade, A number of friends of Miss Emina Shade, of Verona, visited her home on last Wednes-day evening in response to an invitation sent out by that young lady for an evening musical entertainment. Among the guests were the Misses Kim, Cyphers, Whiteside, Kletzlev, Menerer, and Messrs. Cyphers, Craig, Whiteside, Kim, Berkley and others. tion, it is a curious little fact that a number of years ago a professor of elecution in New York took both Miss Seligman and Miss Jane Stuart, the brilliant young com-edienne, who was then a school girl of 15, to recite before the great Augustin Daly at the same time. Mr. Daly pooh-poohed their pretentions loftily, and it is a somewhat singular coincidence that both young women are now together again, but this time in the front rank of accepted pop-ular favorites.

An entertainment will be given in the Wilkinsburg Opera House next Friday and Saturday evenings by the Myrtle Kress Lodge, No. 116, Daughters of Rebekah. An excellent musical programme has been ar-ranged and will be tender-d by well-known artists. The ladies of the lodge will serve an orate support sech ovening.

Miss Seligman objects to playing the ex-tromely offensive heroine of "A Modern Match." because, as she says, the public is too apt to conclude that it is not so much William Adams, of the West End, whose too apt to conclude that it is not so much art as nature that enables her to make such a truthful picture of fallen womanhood. To put it frankly, people, especially women, will insist that Miss Seligman has acquired her knowledge of this phase of human nature through her own experience. This, of course, is not the case. The supposition is a compliment to the artist but hardly to the woman. If The Brushton Literary Society will be e est to nature.

oward the son of J. K. Emmet, the son of the inimitable Frits, and if he succeeds in even partly filling the big gap which the death of that wonderfully actor caused in the ranks of charming entertainers, nobody the ranks of charming entertainers, nobody will be readier to welcome him than the Pittsburgers who simply adored his father. In the past it has often been a wonder to theatrical managers that Pittsburg remained so entirely true to Fritz Emmet. Nothing dimmed or diminished his popularity up to the very last. These faithful friends will rally about the son on this occasion, any how, out of love for the father, if for noth-ing else. The advantage of good actors about him and handsome scenery, which the elder Emmet dispised or neglected, may also have their effect in building up the reputa-tion of the new star. ion of the new star.

8.

1891.

Bartley Campbell's "White Slave," which has stirred more hearts than can be num-bered in Pittsburg, returns this week to the lijou Theater, and there can be no question hat with the scenic and dramatic features that with the scenic and dramatic features of the play strongly expressed, as they should be at the hands of Mr. Kennedy and his company, the old story of crowded houses will be repeated. The play is so well known that no more need be said than to give the chief members of the cast, which includes Milt G. Barlow, the greatest aged negro impersonator on the stage to-day, as Job, the preacher: Frank Drew, who has played the character of the lawyer, Stüch, over 1,000 times; Charles Webster, the creator of the shiftless "nigger," Clem; Frank Karrington, as Clay Britton; J. Hay Cossar, as Lacy: Ida Robinson, as Nance; Mrs. Milt G. Barlow, as Martha; Malel Stone, as Lety: Mildred Meredith, as Dophne, and Mrs. Elizabeth Van Deren, as Mrs. Les.

The Bostonians are the welcome visitors at the Duquesne Theater this week, and they promise as usual to give us comic opera in the way it ought to be played, but seldom is. It is proper to repeat the pith of what THE DISFATCH said a year ago of "Robin Hood," viz., that it was the best comic opera yet written in America, and worthy of comparison, distant perhaps, with Gilbert and Sullivan's works. It will with Gilbert and Sullivan's works. It will do to let it go at that, for the com-pany is mainly the same as last year, although Caroline Hamilton, a fine soprano singer from California is one of the acquisitions. Besides "Robin Hood" the Bostonians will give "Dorothy," the reper-toire being arranged as follows: Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday matines and nicht "Robin Hood," and "Dorothy" at the other performances. The company in-cludes Tom Karl, W. H. McDonald. Henry Clay Barnebee, Eugene Cowes, George Froth-ingham, Peter Lang, Edwin W. Hoff, Jessie Bartlett Davis, Caroline Hamilton, Lea Van Dyke, Josephine Bartlett and many others.

Three years ago "McKenna's Fliritation" In Miss Minnie Seligman the American staze undoubtedly has an actress of unusual talent and culture. After seeing her in the difficult and very unpleasant role of week of November 10. The genial comedian is at present playing in Philadelphia, and the press of that city speak of the clever a merry farce comedy of the usual kind, with musical and dancing specialties and no end of broad humor. Billy Barry sustains the best part of the piece himself, and in place of Hugh Fay, who used to be his part-ner, there will be Joseph Brennan, who is said to be a good comedian. A quartet with good voices and a number of pretty girls are also in the company.

The Rose Hill English Folly Company at Williams' Academy this week promises to give an entertainment of which fun and feminine beauty are the chief features. This company has earned a high reputation else-where and its per ormance of the operatic burlesque, "The Mountebank," is said to be very clever.

A romantic charm of the "Monto Cristo" order will be presented by Managers Harris, Britton & Dean this week when "Fabio Romani" will be seen at each of the 19 per-Romani" will be seen at each of the 19 per-formances. Mr. Walter Laurence has won great praise from the dramatic critics of the country for his masterly impersonation of the role of Fabio, as it is recognized as being a thoroughly artistic impersonation of a difficult part. The others in the company are capable people, and the drama one in-spiring intense interest from the prologue to the fall of the curtain on the last act.

Manager A. F. Hariz, of the Cleveland Opera House, writes to THE DISPATCH deny-ing that he has secured a lease of the Opera House here, but admitting that he tried to get that theater three years ago and failed. Mr. Hartz also says he would be willing to lease a theater here if he could. Manager Will thas also emphatically denied the rumor alluded to, so that no change in the manage-ment of any of the local houses is to be ex-pected for the present. The attractions this week may be summed up as follows: J. K. Emmet in light musical comedy at the Grand Opera House; the Manager A. F. Hartz, of the Cleveland

Friday evening was the occasion of a very pleasant gathering at the home of Miss Maud McCreery, No. 99 Fayette street, Alle-gheny. She entertained the following young ladies and gentlemen: Misses Young, The above are the theatrical attractions for this week.

Tableaux-"Columbus at the Court of Tableaux-"Columbus at the Court of by the Misses Claudia Hax, Lillian Beaz and

"Beert, "Reception to Washington and Lafayette" and the minuet-Mrs. Le Moyne, Mrs. Har-vey Childs, Jr., and Mrs. Nelson Clark, "Battle of Bunker Hill"-Mrs. Allan Wood

"Battle of Bunker Hill"--Mrs. Allan Wood and Mrs. William L. Abbott. "Deciaration of Independence"--Mrs. William H. Siviter, Mrs. Christopher L. Ma-gee and Miss Gillespie. "Departure of Thirteenth Regiment, Penn-sylvania Volunteers, from Pittsburg to the front, under Colonel Rowley"--The Misses Allen.

"Woman's Patriotism, the hospital 1861-55"

"Woman's Patriotism, due nospital -Miss Dawson and Mrs. Oliver McClintock, "Emancipation Proclamation" - Mrs. Charles T. Neale and Mrs. George Heard, "Tout Ensemble"-The entire pageant of ten tableaux vivants, composed of 300 ten tableaux vivants, composid of 300 people. The list of patronesses is as follow: Mrs. D. N. Stewart, Mrs. E. E. and Maud M. Forzu-son, Mrs. Le Moyne, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Jas. Me-Crea, Mrs. Sames McKar, Mrs. W. L. Chal-fant, Mrs. Beuben Miller, Mrs. S. S. Marvin, Mrs. James Reed, Mrs. Harvey Childs, Jr., Mrs. Albert Childs, Mrs. H. Kirk Porter, Mrs. Names Reed, Mrs. Harvey Childs, Jr., Mrs. Albert Childs, Mrs. H. Kirk Porter, Mrs. W. S. Pier, Mrs. Allan Wood, Mrs. C. L. Magce, Mrs. A. C. McCallam, Mrs. William L. Abbott, Mrs. Lee Mason, Mrs. S. S. Pinker-ton, Mrs. Josepn R. Dilworth, Mrs. Charles Robb, Miss Kate McKnight, Miss Kertoot, Mrs. Wittehead, Mrs. Edward Jay Allen and Mrs. Charles Neale. Honorart vice presidents are: Hon. Marcus Atchison, Hon. James Reed. Messrs. Stan-hope S. Punkerton, Joseph R. Dilworth, Charles R. Speer, P. C. Knox, S. S. Marvin, E. M. Ferguson, Renben Miller, H. Kirk Porter, William L. Abbott, Dr. Le Moyne, C. C. Bergs, A.C. McCallam, Captair, Robert Hunt, J. B. Doyle, Allan Wood, I. M. Plummer, W. L. Chalfant, Major Edward Montooth, W. S. Pier, C. L. Marce, Charles Robb Colome Ed-ward Jay Allen and James McKay. Marnoy Crawpond GallAchers.

MARION CRAWFORD GALLAGHER.

THE PLEASURES OF SOCIETY.

Some of the Week's Events That Will Inter est People of the Two Cities.

The cornerstone of a new Presbyteriar Church is to be laid at Edgewood in the Church is to be hid at Edgewood in the spring. With foresighted thrift the women of the little borough have taken hold of the project, and in order to hold up their end creditably, they have organized a Doroas Society which will hold a bazar and furnish suppers on the 19th and 20th of November. As this is the first entertainment of the kind, the little borough will be on its mettle, and something very good may be ex-pected. In order to accommodute city vispected. In order to accommodate city vis-tors the bazar will open at 2:30 F. M. at the residence of Mrs. McWhinney, near the station, and supper will be served from 5 until 9. The following indies will take part: Committee on Arrangements-Mrs. A. W. Cadman, Mrs. W. N. Taylor, Mrs. I. K.

Reynolds. Table No. 2-Mrs. J. F. Miller; aid, Miss

Table No. 3-Mrs. J. H. Orr; aids, Miss Jean

Table No. 5-Mrs. F. K. Gibson; alds, Miss Birdie Barchdield, Miss Laura Brown. Committee on Fancy Table-Mrs. James Kerr, Mrs. John W. Langly. Committee on Brica-Brac-Mrs. F. G. Wal-

Committee on Doll Table-Miss Maggie Roberts, Miss R. McKee. Committee on Domestic Table-Mrs. E. J. Loyd. Mrs. A. B. Craig. Committee on Common Sense-Mrs. J. M. King, Mrs. W. M. Anderson. Committee on Common Sense-Mrs. James Montgomery, Mrs. H. C. Baer.

Gueen Isabella," Mrs. Joseph B. Dilworth and Mrs. Charles E. Speer. "Landing of the Pilgrims," Mrs. John Eaton and Mrs. Harry Brown. "Courtship of Miles Standish," Mrs. W. J. Holland, Mrs. W. Dewees Wood and Mrs. James W. Brown. "Old Colonial Kitchen-Woman's Sphere From Heio-1850," Miss Speer and Miss Louise Speer. "Reception to Washington and Lafayette" and the minuet-Mrs. Le Moyne, Mrs. Hartertained to-morrow evening at the home of Miss Gamble on West street, Brushton. An interesting programme of musical and liter, ary selections has been outlined, and the participants anticipate a pleasant evening. The Mendelssohn Band, of Wilkinsburg, is

Committee on Candy Table-Misses Bald-

Committee on Candy Table-Miss Inde-win. Committee on Frait and Flowers-Miss Jessie McCuilongh, Miss Ren Seyple. Committee on Lemonade Booth-Misses Nellie McKelvy, Lucy Rowand and Mar-garetta Alexander. Committee on Chocolate Table-Mrs. M. Bigger, Mrs. C. S. Wight, Mrs. A. T. Rowand. Committee on Ice Cream-Mrs. Charles M. Thorp, Miss Sallie Carlyle; aids table No 1, Misses Birdie and Maude Stevenson; aids table No. 3, Nellie Becker and Arnes Crump; aids table No. 3, Lizzie Burt and Florence Harlon; aids table No. 4, November 19, Jean Wight and Carrie Flenniken; November 20, Marica Langly and Rose Flenniken.

The Mission Band of Grace Church,

Mt. Washington, under the efficient management of Miss A. Armstrong,

President, and Miss Ida Newell, Sec-retary and Treasurer, has been doing a good work during the past summer, send-ing a box of valuable articles to a mission in North Dakota. For the same purpose a box social was held on last Wednesday evening at the house of the President's mother, 66

Southern avenue, and was a success in every way. About 36 young people were every way. About 36 young people were present. A good deal of diversion was caused by the distribution of the boxes filled with luscious irnits and dilicious cake. The guests were Misses Marie Kennedy, Maggie Mahim, Annie Anniger, Mary Ashford, Nol-lie Reed, Marie Kelso, Nellie Peters, Annie McCor, Flossie Rechs, Zilla Gray, Mary Rice, Mary Baker, Helen Miller, Sadie Lewis, Stella Sureny, Helen Keifer, May Carzo and adie Armstrong: Messrs, Ollie Higbee, Arthur Digby, John Patton, Chester Bryant, Robert Naysmith, Ade i Myers, Watt Cor-nelius, Orrin Potts, Rob King, Laurence Gibson, Harry Johnston, Delmont Jones, Willie Kenah, Willie Highes, Alex Cameron, Walter Brichell, Oscar Torrence and Char-ley Seth.

A charming eachre party was given by Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Alexander Watkins at the residence of the former, on Farker street, East End, Friday evening. The rooms were beautifully arranged with flowers, and Miss Dippold was aided by Miss Belle Bris-bine, of Rochester, and Mr. Harry Weber and a luscious collation were the features of the Misses Mary Ann and Magaurette Kav-anaugh, Eliza and Maud Meenan, Rebecca anaugh, Eliza and Maud Meenan, Rebecca Hubbard, Patrica Manning, Tillie Dwyer, Saliie McCossy, Susanah and Clara Hackett, Annie Chifferty and Messrs. Josephas Kav-anaugh, Denny McGraw, M. Rogers, Martin Dwyer, James L. Hackett, Thomas Forsythe, Anthony Leake, John McClosky, Paul Mechan, Jessie Kavanaugh, Tom Garvey, Josh Kentliue, Jim Pollard, Mike Dunn,-Billy Hutchinson, Luke Birchall, John Mc Clure and several others.

the evening. Among those present were preparing for a concert to be given Novem-ber 36, in the Opera House of that place, The band is composed of some of the best musical young men of the borough.

ley Seth.

Mrs. William McCarthy, of Bell avenue, Chartiers, on Monday evening. Mrs. Mc-Chartiers, on Monday evening. Mrs. Mo-Carthy, returning from a swell evening party, found her friends in possession of the house. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrz. McCleland, Misses Mollie and Agnes Wilt, Ella, Megrie and Kate Hawley, Miss Connor, Miss Sheffly, Janett Steel, of Pitts-burg: the Misses Manne, Cora and Gus O'Rourke, Kate Monahan, Mrs Frank Jor-dar, Lillie Kane, Mrs. John Ward, Mr. and Mrs. John Neelan, Magrie McCarthy, Mr. Connors, Bert Nolan, Will Berustein, Mack Meskell, Will Meclan, Joe Teevans, James McDermott, John Cobbett, Phillip Brandt, George Savage, Joe Neelan, Mrs. William McCarthy and P. J. Crayon.

The Dorcas Society of the Edgewood

Presbyterian Church will give a bazaar on two evenings, the 19th and 20th insts., at the residence of Mrs. Mathew McWhinney, of Edgewood. There will be supper each evening from 6 to 9, the bazaar being in evening from 6 to 9, the bazaar being in progress in the afternoons. In connection with the entertainment will be "chocolate room," in which chocolate and coffee will be served. There will be icecrean and other dainty refreshments, homemade candy and sweetmeats. One of the leatures of the bazaar will be the sale of fancy arti-cles for Curistmas, and all sorts of art goods. The affair is expected to be the most ambitious effort of the kind.

An methetic concert is to be given in the Wilkinsburg Opera House next Thursday evening, under the auspices of the King's Daughters of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church of that borough. The first part will consist tertainment. Miss Mattie Smith, of Hooker street, Millvale, gave a reception on Thursday. The rooms for the dancing were tastily decorated with autumn leaves and Japanese lan ated with autumn leaves and Japanese lan-terns. Among those present were Misses Minnie Marshall, Emuna Logan Redic, C. Koler, Mollie Redic, Katie Oldham, Datsy Hamilton, Clara Miller, Virginia Kerr, Celia Paden, K. Goldrich, M. Kelly, K. Perner, L. Kuhn, Lilian Pfitzenmier, M. Riefly, Messra, W. Evens, P. Buckly, H. Anderson, E. Wible, W. Allerton, H. Swartz, W. Swartz, A. Wat-kins, G. Callahan, F. Standfast, F. Maxwell, C. Kuhn, J. Moor, C. Evens, Childradi, and W. R. Taylor, and Y. L. R. Becker.

Becception Committee-Mrs. M. McWhin-pey, Mrs. M. D. McWhinney, Mrs. A. P.
Burchfield, Mrs. W. L. Cromiliso, Mrs. J. M.
Dirckinson, Mrs. C. I. Wade, Mrs. A. L.
Childs, Mrs. I. K. Becker, Mrs. Martha Crair, Committee on Supper Tables November 19
Table No. 1-Mrs. Georre Kappel; alds, Misses Millie and Jennie Bockstoce.
Table No. 2-Mrs. R. C. Moore, Mrs. C. C.
Mellor, Miss Bess McKelvy.
Table No. 3-Mrs. J. C. Hill; aid, Miss 8.
Mary Thompson.
W. Evens, P. Buckly, H. Anderson, E. Wible, W. Allerton, H. Swartz, W. Swartz, A. Wat-kins, G. Callahan, F. Standfast, F. Maxwell, C. Kuhn, J. Moor, C. Evens,
The ladies of the Swissvale Presbyterian Church gave a bazaar and supper Friday.
Among the ladies active in the arrange-ments were Mrs. John Dalzell, Mrs. S. S. Fisher, wife of the Bev. S. S. Fisher, pastor of the church; Mrs. R. C. Carlyle, and Mrs. R. C. Moore. The entertainment was held Church gave a bazaar and supper Friday.

Mary Thompson. Table No. 4-Mrs. H. J. Bigger; aid, Miss Carrie Barton. Table No. 5-Mrs. Frank Schallenberger; aids, Miss Rose Flenniken and Miss Martica

Langly. Committee on Supper Tables November 20 -Table No. 1-Mrs. J. H. Harlow; aid, Miss applied to some useful purpose. A most enjoyable surprise party was ten dered Miss Metta Kellar, of Jucunda street, Knoxville, Wednesday night. Music, danc ing and refreshments were among the ening and retresiduents were allong the en-joyments. Among those present were the Misses Ida Blockinger, Alice White, Emma Frey, Pauline Harris, Berdie Beckert, Ella Broks, John Hail, Laurence Blockinger, Thomas McCoy, Edward Pritohard, John and Thomas Connors, Konenkamp and Harry Sadler. Wight, Miss Carrie Flenniken. Table No. 4-Mrs. G. T. Hamilton; aid, Miss

A very pleasant surprise was given to A delightful reception was given at Masoni Hall, Thursday evening. The orchestra was concealed behind a clump of tropical ferns and plants, and the hall otherwise tastefully orated for the occasion. The first of a series of musicales will be the first of a series of musicales will be given by the Fantasie Club, of Wilkinsburg, Lohr's Hall, Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The proceeds will be put into the musical library fund of the club.

The second anniversary of the Disraeli Social will be celebrated at Cyclorama Par-lors Tuesday evening. The programme provides for a musicale and hop. Mrs. C. I. Briggs, of the East End, entertained a large number of her friends Friday evening. Progressive euchre was the enter-tainment of the evening. Messrs. E. P. George and Marous Murpher will sing at the Shady Avenue Cumberland Presbyterian Church, East End, on next Sunday evening at 7:30.

an oyster supper each evening.

The Young People's Society, of Homewood Avenue Presbyterian Church, exhibit Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works on Thursday evening,

A very pleasant event of Friday evenin was the house warming given in honor of Mrs. and Miss Elia Hinde.

November's Guests and Hosts

Mrs. J. C. Hill, of Edgewoodville, is visty-ng friends in Cincinnati. Miss Maude Smith, of Sharon, has returned home after a brief visit to Pittsburg of that borough. The first part will consist of a cantata, entitled "The Garden of Flow-ers," followed by a miscellaneous concert and tableaux. There will also be a minnet, in which the dancers appear in Louis XVI. costumes. The music is in charge of Mr. Richard Cannon, assisted in the general ar-rangements by Mrs. Goldthorpe, Miss Lizzie Kennedy, Mr. James Heizel and others. Recitations by Messrs. McClelland and Wil-son will be interesting episodes of the en-tertainment. friends. Miss Annie Wilson, of Harrisburg, is the guest of her uncle, Mr. & H. Christy, of South street, Wilkinsburg. Miss Wright, of England, is visiting her brother, Mr. M. K. Saulsbury, of East End avenue, Wilkinsburg. Miss Blanche Quinn, of Franklin, Pa., is being entertained by her cousin, Miss Reels, of Franklin street, Allegheny. Mrs. Hinderliter, of Oil City, who has been

Mrs. Hinderliter, of Oil City, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. I. Briggs, of the East End, returned to her home last week. Dr. John Bockstoce and Messrs. Henry and William Fownes, of Wilkinsburg, are home from a hunting expedition in Fayette Nom a maning experiment in Payers county. Mr. J. J. Moore, of New York, will speak at the Gospel Temperance meeting in the Morehead block, Grant street, near Second avenue, on "Cure or No Cure." Miss Beatrix Vennérs, of Fifth avenue, has returned from Connellsville, Pa., after a de-ligntful visit with Mrs. William Morgart. During the same time Miss Darnell, of Cum-berland, Md., was also the guest of Mrs. Mor-eart.

Rev. Carroll L. Bates, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Wilkinsburg, returned home last evening from Emporium, where he and Mrs. Bates were called last Wednes-day on account of the severe sickness of Mrs. Bates' father.

ABTISTIC EFFECTS IN

Fine Flowers

And plant decorations. Novelties for luncheon, dinner and german favore And plant deconstons. Novelties for uncheon, dinner and german favors. Loose bunches to carry and corsage bouquets a specialty. N. PATTERSON, Su 41 Sixth avenue, opposite Trinity.

Don't Miss It.

Call at the P. C. C. C. on Monday. The great sale of men's winter suits and over-coats is now going on. One dollar buys three dollars' worth of clothing. The public amazed and delighted with this sale. We

Last Wednesday evening the cozy home of Mrs. H. J. Gross, on Tioga street, Home-birthday anniversary of her nephew, Master Wilmer Balph. The little ones enjoyed themselves splendidly until 19 o'clock, when to the artist but hardly to the woman. If Miss Seligman's identity is revealed in her work at all it is more in the warm-hearted, noble woman whom Miss Morton has made the heroine of "Geoffrey Middleton." Still we should have only learned a small part of Miss Seligman's abilities if she had been con-fined to this heroic role, and while we may disapprove of Mr. Fitch's drama the strength of the character which dominates it is un-deniable, as is the wonderful mastery of all emotions which Miss Seligman exhibits in her embodiment of it. Miss Seligman belongs to the new cult which seeks to mirror nature as she is; comedy at the Grand Opera House; the Bostonians at the Duquesne; William Barry in farce comedy at the Alyin, and "The White Slave," a lively melodrama, at the Bijou. HEPBURN JOHNA. The World's Masonm Theater

Another strong list of attractions is to be presented to their patrons by the manage-ment of the World's Museum Theater the coming week. Among the list of attrac-tions to be seen in the large, comfortable which seeks to mirror nature as she is; whose cardinal rule is be natural, and whose curio hall may be noticed Miss Annie Bell, a whose cardinal rule is be natural, and whose supreme guide in histrionic art is nature. The cult I say is new, but it isn't—every really great actor has practiced its pre-cepts, and has succeeded in approaching near-out to nature. very handsome young miss only 19 years of age, who stands 6 feet 2 inches in height and weighs the enormous weight of 622 pounds. Miss Bell traveled through Europe with Barnum's show, of which she was the most attractive feature, as her enormous size does not in the least lessen her symmetry of

A curious contrast to the performance of the Pitou Company was that of another band of actors under Mr. Pitou's manage-ment two weeks ago in "The Power of the Press." I couldn't say much for the actors in this meiodrama, but they satisfied the management and the public to some extent, whereas when the play was first produced in New York with such people as first produced in New York with such people as first produced in New York with such people as first produced in set with such people as first produced in set with such people as first produced in set with such people as the set is pleased nobody, it is said. Why? Because the play, being woefally untrue to nature, actually lost strength when interpreted by actors who believed in being natural. The awful and absurd thing called modern melo-drama must be ranted and roared or the public won't have it. That is what the man-agers tell me. I don't believe this is all the truth, but there is no question that it is worse than crutel, it is absolutely useless, to put good actors into cheap melodrama, vintage 1890. But the public has shown time and again that it does want and can appre-ciate nature upon the stage, if the play and the performers combine to reproduce life as it really is. The managers might study this phase of the matter, and, pernaps, a way to se ve the cause of true art, to elevate popn-lar taste and theatrical standards, and to fill their own pockets at the same time, might become clear to them. It is an insult to the A curious contrast to the performance of

of possessing great personal beauty, will be at Harry Davis' Museum all this week. Big their own pockets at the same time, might become clear to them. It is an insult to the become clear to them. It is an insult to the great mass of theater-goers to say that they do not prefer natural acting to theatrical exaggeration and burlesque. The farce, in its various forms, is well enough, but there is a great demand only half-satisfied nowadays for closer copies of con-temporary life and of human nature of all ages in dramatic form, and to satisfy this craving, which is akin to that which has produced a school of novelists to day, such companies as Mr. Pitou's, and such plays as Miss Morton's have arrived in good time. Mary is different from all the other fat women on exhibition, and will well repay a do not prefer natural acting to theatrical exaggeration and burlesque. The farce, in its various forms, is well enough but there is a great demand only half satisfied nowadays for closer copies of con-temporary life and of human nature of all ages in drawatic form, and to satisfy this craving, which is skin to that which has produced a school of norelists to-day, such companies as Mr. Pitou's, and such plays as Miss Morton's have arrived in good time. At the Grand Opera House next week, J. K. Emmet the only son of the late comedian of the same name, will make his first ap-pearance in Pittsburg, in his father's most notable play: "Fritz in Ireland." Young Emmet is particularly desirous in coming before the public not to be understood as challenging comparsion with his tather. An extract from an interview with the son is a fitting quotation here: "My idea of succeeding my father and fitting quotation here: "My idea of succeeding my father and taking up the thread of his stage life where he left it off is not a new one. It was my intention, long years before his death, and my many years in his management were FANNY RICE, that plump and chirrupy lit-tle actress, will appear in her new piece, "A Jolly Surprise," at the Grand Opera House pretty soon.

Stage Whispers

THE Bostonians are great favorites in Pittsburg. They come this time with all the old favorites and several new candidates, who are highly spoken of.

tention, long years before his death, and my many years in his management were also years of rehearsal under his immediate direction. He believed, and I think the world conceded is, that his creation of the Dutch character in the lines attempted was entirely original. He meant to portray the great, big, overgrown German emigrant lad with a heart as vast as space, the good natured outt of every joke, who met sorrow with a song and raillery with a jest, and who was equally successful in win-ning the hearts of children, whether risking his life to save others singing them hallabys or carrying them on his broad shoulders. He endeavored to shade his humor so that its with roduced a smile, while in its pathos it was nature, and it was his naturalness and has many of his father's best character, fatis. So iar in his endeavors he has been treated with kindly cousideration, and has won some praise of undoubted sincerity. He is giving, it is said, the finest scenio preen-tate med as surrounded himself with a strong company, including Mason Mitcheli, Charles McDowell and Miss Helen Sedgw.ck. THE general impression is that "Boys and Girls" is a little too tough for any theater outside the Bowery, New York. It is to be overhauled, aired and condensed before it goes further.

FRANE DANIELS has three now plays in his trank. He proposes, however, to stick to "Little Puck" as long as the public wants it. This fantastic come dy made $20,000 for Mr. Daniels last season, and its popularity ap-pears this season to be greater than ever.

There can be nothing but kindly feeling HARRY DAVIS materially enlarged his Edgar Smith, Charles Benwick, Louis Beaudst and Clara Condray.

TRACHERS WILL RECEIVE.

The Normal Institute Doesn't Favor the Banquet Scheme-Luckey's Latest Plan -One Girl's Luck Out West-New Schem of Washington Directors.

-Over 80 teachers responded to the call for the Normal Institute and reunion at the Miller street building yesterday. Miss M. I Ruswinkle. of the Grant School, was Chair man, and Miss Seif, of the Howard, Secre tary. The very important point was to be considered whether the slumni should di pense with their annual reception and have pense with their annual reception and nave a banquet. But the majority favored a re-ception, which will be held on the evening of December 3 at the High School. An election of offleers resulted as follows: President, Miss Anna Lowry, of the Moor-head School; Vice President, Lizzie Weir, Mt. Washington; Secretary, Mand Evans, Washington; Treasurer, Kate Neiper, North; Executive Committee, Hulda Weimar, Pee-bles; Elizabeth McCabe, Normal; M. A. Ru-winkle, Grant; Rose Davis, Howard; Mattie Troup, Moorhead. Superintendent Luckey addressed the alumni on "Professional En-thusiasm." The Normal graduates of the High School are considered the bright lights of the pro-fession. Out of 491 graduates there are over 280 now engaged in teaching. The number who have taught and retired number near 100, and the number married also reaches the same numerais. The graduates are scattered all over. There are several who went as missionaries to China. The news comes that more of the Normal graduates have been married this year than ever be-fore. a banquet. But the majority favored a re-

Superintendent Luckey's Latest Plan.

-Following up the great success of the in educational circles two years ago, went West after her retirement from the assist-Luckey has another projected that will take in both sides of our continent. The two great attractions will be Dr. Seaver, West after her retirement from the assist-ant principalship of the Moorhead school, and engaged in teaching. She invested in real estate near Tacoma, and report comes that her investments are making her a wealthy woman. Her sister Amanda, of the Lincoln school joined her last July and is also teaching in Washington at a salary much superior to what she received in Pitts-burz. two great attractions will be Dr. Seaver, Superintendent of the Boston schools, and Dr. John Swett, of San Francisco, who is noted so widely for his work on language and educational methods in general. If Prof. Luckey can prevail on the gentlemen to come to Pittsburg they will talk on the history of methods and give the history of public education at very wide varying points-that of the East and that of the West. burg. EVERY ward in Allegheny, 18 in number, has a night school. The Ninth ward employs Odds and Ends From the Schools.

THE Permanent Certificate Committee will

A GREAT increase in the attendance at the 39

- ACD/

san fill E

3

21

15 A PERFECT

LITTLE COOK BOOK

Un,

A

11

West. The Board of Directors of the Franklin school, of which Mr. T. Doerfinger was Treasurer, have requested Secretary Reis-far, of the Central Board of Education, to six teachers. organize next Saturday at 2 F. M. at the Cen-tral Board rooms. examine and make a complete statement of the affairs of the Board, which will be Tux query goes around, "What has become of the Teachers' Academy?" No meeting has been held this year. lished at once.

Getting the Ladies Interested.

-The directors of the Washington chools, Seventeenth ward, have an excellent scheme in hand to foster more interes mong the patrons of the three schools o

-There was one Pittsburg teacher who was as much interested in the election of McKinley as any Ohioan. Several years ago, when Major McKinley was running for Congress, this teacher was visiting in Can-ton. At church, every Sunday while she ton. At church, every Sunday while she was there, the sexton concluded his prayer with "Oh, Lord have Major McKinley elected." She was anxious to see a man who had such an ardent admirer, so while walk-ing from church she said to her companion, also a stranger in Canton: "Oh, I'd like so much to see Major McKinley." A few paces shead of them was a gentle-man who could hear her remark. He turned around, and raising his hat, said: "Madam, I am Major McKinley," and is was the great tariff advocate.

A Teacher Who Is Sue -Min Forbes, who was a yes Ninth ward school, Allegheny, is noticed. An additional teacher has been granted, the second this year. Miss Cook, this year, is an additional teacher at the Allen school. Miss Koch suc-oceded Miss Unks, who went to the Grant.

THE contract for the new 30-roomed Allen school building calls for the completion of the building July 15, but if the favorable weather continues the people who have charge say they will have it finished by May. The frame school building is now for sale. The Humbold addition of three rooms will be ready for occupancy by the bolidaya.

THERE is a petition in Allegheny Councils to redistrict Allegheny City. If this is done there is every probability that a Central Board of Education similar to Pittsburg will take the place of the School Board of Con-trol and will have but one representative from each ward, instead of all the directors being included, as is now the custom.

1 strawberry shortcake

15 egg rolls,

15 egg rolls, 1 Boston padding, 1 Chicken pie, or Yankee potple, 1 spice cake, 1 Datch apple padding 18 corn muffins, 6 baked apple dumpilng, 1 fr cake, dumping, 1 fig cake, 1 roll jelly cake, 20 Scotch scones, 1 pound cake, 15 walles, 1 lemon cream cake, 19 cruilers, ekcepers always have "good luck" with Cleveland's Baking Powder, and find it the most economical.

The Cleveland Cook Book.

containing over 350 proved receipts, FREE. Ask your grocer for a copy. If he with stamp, to Cleveland Baking Powder Co. 81 Fulton Street, New York.

A Feast of Good Things.

One Pound of Cleveland's Baking Powder

will make everything in the following lists

20 tea biscuit, 1 chocolate cake,

20 tea biscult, 1 chocolate cakes, 20 batter cakes, 1 orange cakes, 1 ocs-cream cakes, 0 cookies, 1 coffee cakes, 1 co apple pudding, snowballs, cottage pudding, apple frituers,

6 crumpets, 1 suct pudding, 12 English muffins,