day was still more active, while the temper of redealing was again most decidedly strong, not to say buoyant, and the net ad-vances, this evening are more uniform and larger than in any day for months. Almost the whole active list is up from 1 to 2½ per cent, the exceptions being remarkably few. Many influences combined to create this effect, but the most important fact is that has been largely oversold. Under the extra-ordinary demand, therefore, first prices were all materially higher than the finals of last evening, and the gains extended to 1% per cent among the leading shares. The high prices naturally brought out some

THE GROCERY TRADE IS FEATURELESS

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, TUESDAY, NOV. 10. COUNTRY PRODUCE (jobbing prices)-Last week's prices of Elgin creamery were reaffirmed at Elgin on Monday. Markets this week, however, were firm, while the previous Monday they were weak. Grapes are still abundant, but the movement is slow and prices are on the decline because of low quality of the offerings. November frosts have not only sent a chill to bananas and grapes, but to trade as well. Malaga grapes are in good demand and choice varieties have advanced in price the past week. Florida oranges are slow at quotations. With the wane of other domestic fruits apples do not boom as was expected. The quality of potatoes offered is better than at any time this season, and future changes are almost sure to be up-ward. There will be no better time to lay up in store for the coming winter. Vegeta-bles of all kinds are quiet.

FIRE FINDS A DYNAMITE STORE.

The Explosion Which Follows Kills One Man and Fatally Injures Others.

HAYWARD, WIS., Nov. 10 .- This town was badly damaged at 12:20 o'clock this morning by the explosion of a large amount of dynamite. The warehouse of the North Wisconsin Lumber Company caught fire, and before it could be suppressed the flames spread to the explosives which were stored there and the explosion followed. The buildings in the immediate neighborhood were badly shattered, one man was killed were badly shattered, one man was killed outright, and many people injured. The large hospital directly across the track, and also the hotel on the opposite corner, were badly shattered. Several guests in the hotel were wounded by falling glass and timbers. A caboose of a freight train standing on the side track was blown to fragments.

The injured are Fred Nelson, an employe of the North Wisconsin Lumber Company, part of scalp blown off and skull crushed, unconscious and dying; John Lee Vall, hotel proprietor, badly bruised and maimed about the body, probably fatally injured; Jean Davis, a boy, badly hurt and will probably die: D. McWilliams, hotel proprietor, painfully injured, though not seriously: Clate Beal, seriously hurt; J. H. Wade, traveling man, badly injured by being hit with flying timbers. The property losses will aggregate $13,000. losses will aggregate $13,000.

The Mayerick Bank Not Reopened. al Bank will not be open for adjustment of accounts to-day, as has been stated. Receiver Beal says the bank will be open for that purpose at the earliest possible moment. It is said that among the assets of the bank is a loan of $80,000 to a former director, since dead, which has back of it collateral worth in the present market but a few dollars.

No Scarcity of Funds for All Legitimate Business Purposes. So long as there is a supply of funds sufficient, and more than sufficient, for legitimate business purposes it would be a mis-application of terms to say that the market application of terms to say that the market is tight. Even in the East, where the Mave-rick Bank failure was most felt, commercial money is in good supply at the usual rates. Any scarcity there is confined to speculation money is in good supply at the usual rates. Any scarcity there is confined to speculation and is the result of manipulation.

Here the market is as well supplied with loanable funds as at any previous time this year. Good borrowers are promptly accommodated, generally at 6 per cent, and no questions asked. Indeed, bankers are in a position to increase their discounts, and would gladly do so if the opportunity offered. No enterprise should be neglected for fear of a stringent money market. There are no signs of it.

Yesterday's business was somewhat below the average, but was good enough for a wet day. Depositing was large, showing activity in regular trade lines. Interest rates were unchanged. Funds were plentiful. Bank clearings footed up, $1,960,144 93, and balances $415,678 26.

The following was received by cable: "The London agency of the Deutsche Bank, of Berlin, says the situation in Bertin is sound, and that there is no cause for uneasiness. There will be no further complications. The firms whose fallures have been announced were of miner consequence. There was postively no foundation for any of the adverse rumors either from Berlin or Paris."

AN INVESTMENT OUT FIFTH AVENUE

There is no disputing the fact that Pittsburg needs a first-class hotel, one equal to the best in Chicago or St. Louis, costing $1,000,000 or more. But a barrier arises at the very threshold of such an enterprise. It is a difficult matter to find a suitable site for a building of the required size. Two or three hotel syndicates have been looking for a site for a year or two, but have not been able to find one that was entirely unobjectionable. The trouble in nearly all cases is that the lots are too small. When large enough the price is so steep as to prevent a

A brief survey of the field will show that this trouble has not been over-estimated. There are only about half a dozen sites that are large enough and central enough to answer the purpose. These are the Speer property on Duquesne way, the Christ Church property, the Splane corner, the Smith property on Liberty and Sixth, the block on Fifth avenue above Cherry alley, and the Government property. All of these have been under consideration, but they are held at such a high figure as to discourage negotiations. There are good sites above Grant street, but they are out of the current of travel, and do not enter into the question. And so the matter rests.

November, $1 05½@1 10½; closing at $1 07½; January, $1 09½@1 10½; closing at $1 07½; January, $1 09½@1 10½; closing at $1 05½; February, $1 09½@1 10½; closing at $1 10½; March, $1 12½@1 13½; closing at $1 12½; Gasing at $1 That such a hotel as has been described will ultimately be erected is a foregone conclusion. There is a demand for it, and the demand will be met, but when or where it will be built is pure conjecture. A good many who have studied the subject favor the Fifth avenue site, provided the church property could be purchased. Others think the corner of Liberty and Sixth the best location. Either of these sites would fully answer the purpose contemplated. Each of the others mentioned has its advocates, but, with the exception of the Splane corner they are not central enough to suit the majority of people. The Splane property lacks sufficient frontage on Smithfield street lacks sufficient frontage on Smithfield street for a building of the requisite dimensions, and so is practically out of the list.

What the promoters of the various hotel projects propose to do is locked in their own bosoms. It is not likely that they will abandon the guest. There is too much involved for that. The necessity is too urgent to permit of a backward step. After full consideration it appears that the best thing to do under the circumstances is to purchase a site at once before owners strike a higher to do under the circumstances is to purchase a site at once before owners strike a higher key. It is almost certain that values will be advanced next year. Delay, therefore, will cost something. A purchase now would give plenty of time for the erection of a building to accommodate the Republican National Convention next year, or any other that might be induced to assemble here.

The statement that the rapid transit system of the hill district on the Southside is tem of the hill district on the Southside is to be extended is of great importance not only to the people of that district but to the entire community. It will open up a large territory to settlement, afford a good outlet for a thickle populated quarter, and in this way be a direct benefit to the home-seeker. There is no better residence location around Pittsburg than is emb-seed in this hilltop district. It abounds in every gift of nature calculates to make home life enjoyable. All that is needs to make it "blossom like the rose" is adequate transportation. This is more than foreshadowed. All of the schemes under consideration are in enterprising hands and have ample financial backing.

THE LONG CARPENTERS' STRIKE

Still Has Quite an Effect on the Demand for

BOSTON VIEW OF THE COFFEE OUTLOOK

The run of cattle at the East Liberty yards on Monday of this week was exactly the same as it was the same date a year ago the number on sale at both dates being 120 carloads. The condition of market and quality of offerings were much the same a year ago as now. Top price as reported

November 10 last year was $4 60, while yesterday there were sales at $5 00 per cwt. Receipts of hogs November 10, 1890, at East

Liberty yards were 50 carloads, and this been on sale. Top price then was about the same as now, namely about $4 10 to $4 20 per cwt. But taking the fall season all through up to this date the price of hogs ranged from 35c to 60c per cwt. higher this fall than last. A year ago large quantities of hogs were pushed on to market before their time on account of scarce and high-priced corn. Now that we have an abundance of corn the same policy appears to be followed, and as a result of heavy receipts prices have de-clined fully 60 per cent in the past two weeks. Hog products are feeling the effect in the demand tendency of markets.

Builders' Supplies, of nails was an important industry in Pitts-burg. In the past few years, owing to extremely low prices, this industry has almost ceased to be a factor in our manufacturing interests. The nail factories of Pittsburg have almost all been directed to other pro have aimost all been directed to other products, in which there was more money. There has never been a time when nails were lower than they have been the past few months. The cost of cut steel nails at the Wheeling mills is $1.00 per keg. At this price it is difficult to see where there is any profit to the manufacturer. Only the most favorably located mills, and with the closest management, can the manufacturer come out whole. Wire nails are selling at $1.00 per keg. There is a general feeling that prices are down to bard pan, and in this faith jobbers are anticipating the future by laying in heavy stocks Throughout the region, of which Pittsburg is the center, the long strike of carpenters through the past baif of the year, has had the effect of reducing volume of trade in this line. Every department of trade connected with building interests feels the disastrous effects of that long strike. A leading cealer in plumber supplies had the strike way of his trade.

feels the disastrous effects of that long strike. A leading acaler in plumber supplies had this to say of his trade: "Our volume of business during the summer months was not less than 33 per cene below the corresponding period of last year, and while the fall trade shows improvement, it is within bounds to say that our business this year all through will foot up fully 25 per cent less than last year."

Dealers in lumber talk in the same strain. A year ago at this time there was a rush to fill orders in all lines pertaining to building, while now trade is reported quiet. The carpenters' strike was a very unprofitable fact to all concerned, and the community still reaps the bitter fruits thereof.

The Coffee Situation.

The Coffee Situation. Following is the outlook for coffee as given by the Boston Herald: Troubles in Brazil have greatly disturbed the coffee market of late, but the position of actual goods in this country is fully maintained. What the outcome of the present troubles there will be it is impossible to tell and, since coffee is the chief article of export from that country, the coffee market is re-carded as in an uncertain position, to say the least. Even the wise heads are not prophecarded as in an uncertain position, to say the least. Even the wise heads are not prophesving.

Saturday's New York market was telegraphed at the close as steady to five points decline. The Rio cable quoted the market firm, with receipts for the day of 8,000 bags, while of santos there were receipts of 17,000 bags. This lack of receipts at Bio, with excessive receipts at Santos, is explained on the theory that there is some trouble with transportation at Rio. The total stock at Rio is figured at 298,000 bags, same time a year ago, 178,000 bags. The weekly Rio cable does not give any position of the market, exthat exchange is down to the very low figure of 12%4, indicating that matters are a good deal disturbed. Purchasers of coffee in Rio the past week have doubtless made a handsome profit from this decline in exchange. The average daily receipts at Rio for the week were $5.000 bags; shipments to Europe, $5.000 bags; to the United States, $6.000 bags.

The total visible supply of coffee is now figured at $50,746 bags; same time last year, 364,757 bags; same time in 1889, 459,613 bags. The total receipts at Rio, on the present crop, and up to November 5, were 1,625,000 bags; same time in 1880, 79,000 bags; same time in last steamer show that the market is 1½c to 2c higher than the lowest point. Javas are also very firm, with the supply short and in iew hands, as already explained.

AN INEVITABLE DECLINE.

Copious Rains Gladden the Heart of the Grains Take Their Cue From Wheat.

CHICAGO-There was a slight but obstinate decline in the wheat market from the opening to the close to-day, and the most effectual only in securing temporary rallies. which were quickly dissipated by the succeeding rush of sales. To-day's decline, however, was a logical one and was caused by what is gladdening the heart of every American farmer-general rains throughout the great wheat belt and continued mild weather. The drop to-day would have come pesterday but for the reports of cold weath-strong as yesterday, but the Chicago trader failed to take his inspiration from Liverpool and Berlin markets, and the cold wave scare having subsided the inevitable decline doubtless on reports of the decline in Ameri-can markets, and the amounts of wheat and flour on ocean passage showing increase of 182,050 bushels, contributed, also, somewhat to the decline. New York was a free seller from the start.

The opening was about 14834c lower than yesterday's close, and with only slight fluctuations declined 134c more, then rerecovered slightly, again ruled easy and the closing was about 13482c lower than yes-recovered slightly, again ruled easy and the closing was about 18/62c lower than yesterday.

Corn opened strong and higher, the built clique evidently bidding the market in order to unload; but when they attempted to do so there was a quick collapse and a drop of 1/26 le with but little subsequent recovery. November corn, which yesterday closed at 54%, opened this morning anywhere from 55%, 265%, but by noon had receded to 54%. Then corn, which had sold in the opening scramble at 484.8%, c. declined in the same time to 47c, and May from 45%, early sold off to 44%. The weakest price of the market was toward the close of the session. November sold as low as 54c and closed at that. Year and December declined to 48%, leaving off at the lewest point, and May touched 45%, 245%, c and closed 45% bid.

Outs opened firm and 1/26 higher at 35% of or November and 35% of or May, these being the high prices for the day. There was considerable realizing and November sold off to 32c, closing 3/2c lower at that figure, while May, after several ups and downs, reached bottom at 25%, that being the closing price. It indicates a decline of 3/2c.
