

ITS WORK FINISHED.

The Supreme Court Winds Up Its Work in Pittsburg.

SEVERAL IMPORTANT DECISIONS.

The Famous Penn Bank Case Consumes the Closing Hours.

AFFAIRS OF INTEREST IN THE COURTS

The Supreme Court concluded its session here for the Western District yesterday. The Penn Bank case was argued and seven decisions were handed down at adjournment of the last day's work.

Justice Sterrett handed down an opinion in the case of D. W. Zeller et al vs Susan and Robert Light, appealed from the Common Pleas of Lehigh county.

Did Not All Agree. Justice Sterrett handed down an opinion in the case of D. W. Zeller et al vs Susan and Robert Light, appealed from the Common Pleas of Lehigh county.

Appeal from Quarter Sessions, Monticome county, in a matter of a road in Moreland township; motion to quash refused.

Appeal of J. S. Miller from Orphans' Court of Somerset county; decree reversed at cost of appellants.

The only case argued yesterday was the Penn Bank case. The matter really comprises several cases which have been in litigation ever since the bank failure in 1884.

Directors Not Held Liable. The directors were not held liable for the shortage. From this decree the appeal was taken.

CRIMINAL COURT WORK. A Number of Small Cases Handled in That Branch.

In Criminal Court yesterday, before Judges Ewing and Porter, six cases were disposed of. Some interest centered in the one against William Glenn, indicted for assaulting Mollie Hanlon, of Jones avenue, on August 28, 1891, which was nolle prossed.

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT. Marshal Harrah Wins in the Suit About the Steamer McCleary.

Wants Viewers Appointed. City Attorney Moreland yesterday, in behalf of the city, filed a petition for the appointment of viewers to assess the damages and costs of opening Forbes street from Hoyd street to Diamond street.

PROGRESS OF WOMEN THE WORLD OVER

Both on and off the stage the Delarste system is now so much in favor that society women can no more hope to be graceful and easy in their drawing rooms unless they have studied the Delarste than actresses can hope to be successful without it upon the stage.

There's a woman who has studied the Delarste system, exclaimed a man to a New York Advertiser.

The secret of her grace. The woman was certainly graceful, and later, when acquaintance had ripened into friendship, she told me the secret of her grace.

A TWENTY PER CENT SCRAP DIVIDEND DECLARED

CALIFORNIA. The Country of Delightful Winters. California is the most attractive and delightful section of the United States, if not of the world, and its many beautiful resorts will be crowded with the best families of the East during the entire winter.

and degree. Commercial colleges, post offices, banks, railway and telegraph offices accept women as students or employ.

In Denmark women are distinguishing themselves in literature and medicine. At the University of Copenhagen several women students have honorable places in the classes.

In Vienna the Government granted to women the privilege of practicing medicine in Bosnia, where the subjects are Mohammedans, who do not allow their wives to be visited by men.

In Bucharest a young woman has been admitted as a barrister to plead at the bar.

A Fashionable Woman of Ourga.

Julius M. Price, the artist, lately visited the sacred city of Ourga, and while there sketched an ultra-fashionable lady as follows: Ourga is the Mecca which Jerusalem is to the better half of the world.

It is the woman who is interested in the art itself, and studied Delarste to become a truly graceful woman. In the privacy of her room, clad in a flowing Greek robe, she has twisted and turned and bent and writhed and wriggled, always according to Delarste until she could perform some of the most wonderful feats that one could imagine.

An Ultra Fashionable Lady of Ourga. says Mr. Price, the boards presented a very ludicrous appearance, which so reminded me of the familiar springboard in a swimming bath that I never passed them without an inward grin—if you can imagine what that is—for any sign of outward mirth at the strange proceedings would probably have got me into trouble.

She Will Wed a Duke. In announcing the engagement of Miss Mattie Mitchell, daughter of Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, to Duke Francois de la Rochefoucauld, of France, the Washington Post says: "The young people met six years ago at a dinner party given in Miss Mitchell's honor at Sainte Germaine, where the Duke, who is an officer in the Chasseurs d'Afrique, has for the past three years been stationed with his regiment at Algiers."

Progress of Women. In 22 representative cities of the United States there are 342 occupations in which women are successfully working. Every day women grow more alive to their new wants, and the deficiency is scarcely recognized when the improvement begins.

An Anti-Prohibition Decision. The Annulling Constitutional Amendment in Iowa Again Passed Upon. DES MOINES, IA., Nov. 11.—Judge Conrad, of the District Court, on Monday listened to arguments in the application of J. A. Harvey, of the State Temperance Alliance, for a writ of mandamus to compel the Secretary of State to certify to him a copy of the Constitution of Iowa, and particularly the constitutional amendment relating to the prohibitory law.
