All the Baseball Magnates Meet in New York and Big Rumors Are Numerous.

POWERS ACCEPTS KING'S TERMS.

The Pittsburgher to Get $4,000 for the Season-General Baseball News.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—That historic stamping ground of the National League officials, the Fifth Avenue Hotel, was this afternoon full of buzzing conversation, bursts of laughter, mysterious conferences, earnest expostulation and heated argument.

One of the three bundles of paper consisted of 20 pages of foolscap, covered with type-writing. The subject dealt with was the way in which the National League race ended and the document was a concise resume of the charges against the New York club and the circumstances on which the charges were founded.

THE DIRECTORS IN SESSION.

The Board of Directors went into session at once and began to wrestle with Hart's statement. For hours the directors regally emerged from their conference, and they finally emerged John R. Day remarked that "the championship was awarded to Boston."

THE BROOKLYN ARE DOOMED.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—Columbus is doomed. No doubt of this now exists. The Association will at its next meeting give its franchise outright. Now that it is settled that the club will not be in the field next season a wild scramble is taking place on the part of the Association managers, who are anxious to secure several of the valuable players of the team, such as Crooks, Knell, Duffie, Twitchell and Catchers Donohue and Dowsie.

THE TURF CONGRESS.

An Important Rule Adopted Relating to 3-Year-Old Runners.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—The seventh annual meeting of the American Turf Congress convened here this morning with the following clubs represented: St. Louis, President; Pulla Wells; Lexington, President; J. F. Robinson; St. Paul, Secretary; F. N. Shaw; Latonia, Secretary; E. C. Harger and Vice President George Perkins; Louisville, President M. Lewis Clark.

ROGER CONNOR'S CASE.

In the case of Connor, the evidence shows that he was excused from participating in Monday's game September 29, and received permission to go to Kentucky, Conn., on important private business, with the full expectation that he would be present to take part in the games scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday, September 29 and 30; that he left Wednesday, Tuesday, and was delayed by a railroad wreck which rendered it impossible for him to reach Boston for the games of September 29. He played in Wednesday's games. In the case of Richardson, he took part in the games of September 29 and 30, and was injured in uniform on the 30th, but was obliged to retire on account of illness, and was unable to take part in any subsequent championship game.

SETTLED THE MATTER.

Pitcher Charley King's Terms Are Definitely Accepted by Manager Powers.

Pitcher Charley King and Manager Powers came to a definite agreement yesterday and as a result the manager wired President Young that the New York club had accepted King's terms to play next season.

SMITH DENIES THE CHARGES.

George Smith, the local sprinter, yesterday made a vigorous reply to the charges preferred against him relative to last Saturday's foot race. Smith frankly stated that he lost the race because Farrel is a better runner than he is. Smith has taken much to heart the accusations made against him.

A SHOOT AT BRADDOCK.

BRADDOCK, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—The marksmen of Maclelland and Hamon clubs have organized a gun club and will give an all day shoot on Thanksgiving Day.

New York. I will bring contract for you to Pittsburgh as I return.

It is, therefore, settled that King is to be a Giant next year at a salary of $4,000 and a good slice of advance money. He expects that Manager Powers, while in Cincinnati will sign Jack Boyle to catch for him. Last evening Director Kerr, of the local club, met King and was surprised to learn that he had agreed to go to New York. Mr. Kerr was under the impression that Mr. O'Neill had made King an offer, but King denied that an offer of any kind had been released to him by the local club after he was released.

ABELL QUITS IT.

He Decides to Withdraw From the Brooklyn Club Owing to Quarrels.

New York, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—The bomb which has been sizzling in the camp of the Brooklyn League for the past month exploded yesterday with such a loud report that there will probably be no more uncomfortable feeling in the meeting of the League this morning at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Director F. A. Abell has decided to step down and out, and has offered his stock in the club for sale. His action is directly due to a misunderstanding with Director Joseph J. Doyle.

LOTS OF RUMORS.

The Baseball Magnates are Causing Any Amount of Conflicting Stories.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—All kinds of rumors are current tonight in baseball circles here relative to a settlement of the trouble between the League and Association. It is stated that a secret conference is going on between representatives of the two parties with the object of formulating a plan of settlement.

PROTESTED AGAIN.

The Orange Athletic Club Definitely Refuse to Give Up Donovan's Prizes.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—The Orange Athletic Club annual games last June had among the competitors "Push" Donovan, the clever professional sprinter who won the 100 and 220 yard dashes from Victor Mapes and a field of starters in hollow style. He entered from the Mohican Athletic Club, of Newark, under the name of Frank Duff.

MAULIFF AND MYER.

The Champion Says He Can't Understand What the Cyclone Means.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—Lack McAuliffe, the light weight champion of America, while in Bloomington was asked whether he ever expected to meet Billy Myer again. "I can't tell about that," he answered. "He doesn't seem to be anxious to fight for even money. In fact, I could never succeed in making any satisfactory arrangements with him. But, if things could be fixed up to suit, I am ready for a battle at any time."

The Contest Causes the Friends of the Winners to Think About the Future.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 11.—Yale played her last match game of football on the Yale field this afternoon with Amherst. The battle was won by Yale, but the final score showed only 27 points. The weather was very bad for football and Yale started in with a team crippled by the absence of McClung, Heffelfinger and Hinckley.

AMHERST'S WEDGE WAS BROKE AT THE START OFF AND YALE GOT THE BALL ON FOUR DOWNS, sending Bliss through the line for 30 yards and a touchdown. Jackson was following Bliss closely and tackled him behind the line, both men fell together, but Bliss did not get up. He was taken from the field stunned and Dyer substituted.

AFTER THIS GAME WAS PLAYED IN THE center of the field for 20 minutes, neither side making much headway, although Amherst bucked Yale's center strongly and oftentimes successfully. The half closed "Well, Mike," said Butler, "now let's get to work. Who'll we get?"

BUTLER'S LIST OF MEN INCLUDED Pete McCoy, Walter Campbell, Jim Givna, Bill Davis, Jack Myers, Charley McCarthy, Jimmy McNamee, Paddy Smith, Mike Posing and "Fatsy" McGee. An attempt will be made to get one of Paddy Slavin's brothers, now in the city, to fight one of the foregoing.

THE FIRST PROFESSIONAL ENTERTAINMENT will be held on Saturday evening, November 28, and will doubtless be a success. Mr. Devan wants all "amateurs" to write to him in case they wish to come out in their true colors.

WHY THEY DISBANDED.

Secretary Hughes, of Manhattan, Talks About the Late Football Team.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—Regarding the disbandment of the football eleven of the Manhattan Athletic Club, Secretary Hughes said last night: "We do not wish to go on record as withdrawing from the American Football Union and disbanding our team because we thought the unjust 100-mile rule would affect the strength of the team. It would certainly take three good men, Ames, Donnelly and Lilly, but we had excellent players to take their places, and, as a whole, I do not believe the playing strength of the team would have been greatly weakened. The talk about Cash being from Chicago is absurd. Cash is a born New Yorker."

"No," said Mr. Hughes, "the reason we withdrew from the union was owing to the circumstance of the New Yorks getting Woodruff from Philadelphia, just 90 miles away, and then having a 100-mile prohibitive rule passed in New York. Why not have made it 25, 50 or 75 miles? But just far enough to catch Philadelphia? Well, it's all over, and there's no use talking about it. But it was certainly a funny business."

IT WILL BE INTERESTING.

Great Contest Expected Between Yale and the University of Pennsylvania.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—The inter-collegiate football championship game, Yale vs. University of Pennsylvania, at Manhattan Field, 2 p. m., next Saturday, will be a very exciting one. There will be considerable interest taken in the result, as the University of Pennsylvania's eleven met Princeton last Saturday and their meeting with Yale's eleven next Saturday will carry the contest to its climax.

PLAYED A STRONG GAME.

Lehigh Defeats Lafayette in a Very Close and Exciting Contest.

EASTON, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—Lafayette and Lehigh put up a strong game of football today. Lehigh won, more because of an error of judgment by Lafayette than by superior play. It was at the close of the first half, Lafayette had the ball and had not gained on two downs. Lehigh had been shoving the ball and it was within twenty yards of Lafayette's territory.

THEY MAY WITHDRAW.

An Important Meeting of the Local Association Football Club Called.

It may be that the Pittsburgh club will withdraw from the Western Pennsylvania Football League on account of the action of the majority at Tuesday night's meeting. Secretary Fickard, of the club, has called a meeting for Monday evening to be held at George Tann's Hotel, Tenth street. At the meeting a vote will be taken regarding whether or not it will be advisable for the club to remain in the League.

DOCTORS IN CONSULTATION.

Advice About a Sure Medicine.

CHEERFUL AT HARVARD.

Confidence Has Been Restored in the Football Team, and There Are Now Great Hopes of Victory Because Corbett, Waters and Mackie Will Play.

CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—There was no sign to-day of the cloud of gloom which has been settling over Harvard's campus of late. Confidence has been restored, and now Harvard's football team has settled down to solid work, backed by an enthusiastic constituency. The general feeling seems to be that the playing of Corbett, Waters and Mackie will raise seeming defeat to victory at Springfield on November 21. They were needed badly. Capt. Trafford had been holding off in the hope of securing them as members of the team, and that why the team had not been selected. Now there will be a revival of interest in Harvard's team, and there will be seen more of the careless playing which has characterized the work of the eleven in the games thus far played. The make-up of the "Varsity eleven" will be materially changed from this time. Mackie, who has been playing on the second eleven regularly, has completely outplayed the other candidates for that position, and is undoubtedly the only man in college who can stand up against the mighty Heffelfinger. He weighs about 195 pounds and is a very hard man to block, as he plays a strong, aggressive game. He will play regularly on the team all right guard after this. The football men are elated at the possibility of his playing, as he will strengthen the center materially.

The make-up of the two other center positions is the most puzzling question at present. Dick and Highland, the other candidates for the left guard, are very evenly matched, with the chances slightly favoring Vail. His advantage over Highland is that he is a stronger man, and is more closely and devoting more energy to tackling than to worrying his opponent. Bangs, who is playing center at present regularly, is not very satisfactory. Bangs is improving very rapidly, and is expected to play on the second eleven, simply played with Bangs. He broke through him at almost every scrimmage, and once went through so clearly that he seemed to be a man for a very unusual feat as a center rusher. Although the center is completely unsettled, and probably will be up to within a short time of the Yale game, it would not be surprising to see for a few days, Vail, Shea and Mackie. This would make a very heavy center, Vail weighing about 185 pounds, Shea 215 and Mackie about 195.

Corbett's work at half-back last year is well known to every football fan. He is probably feared more by opposing rushers than any half-back in the country, and with Lake will make the team wonderfully strong back of the line. Waters will undoubtedly play left half in the field. He is a man for a hard game throughout. His great weakness is in being easily blocked off. But if he can overcome that he will be invaluable to the team, and will be a splendid tackle. His strongest point is ground gaining. He goes through the rush line in much the same manner as Lake.

It is highly probable that the "Varsity eleven" will face Yale on Saturday, and will follow, center being the doubtful position:

Lake will not play for a few days. He has been training down low, and will be laid off. Trafford will also do little more than usual in regard to the kicking game. Unless things greatly change he will in the Yale game, punt very frequently. McCormick, full-back, is certainly no match for him at that point. Trafford's individual rushing has fallen off very much of late in his effectiveness. To be sure, the rushers make no holes for him as a center, but that weakness does not account for the visible slowing up which he shows in entering the line.

Selected Their Judges.

BOSTON, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—Capt. Trafford, of the Harvard eleven, and Captain McClung, of Yale, have just decided upon the men who shall judge the playing in the great game on November 21.

Alexander Moffatt, formerly of Princeton, will be referee, and S. Coffin, formerly of Wesleyan, will be umpire. Moffatt is an old Princeton player of much repute. Coffin was umpiring in the Yale-Princeton game last Thanksgiving.

Dickinson Wants a Trainer.

CARLETON, Nov. 11.—Since the defeat of the Dickinson College team by Swarthmore on Saturday last, some action was taken yesterday to secure the services of an experienced trainer. The boys claim that they have one of the best teams in the League, but they need training. The money is being rapidly raised to defray the expenses.

Harvard Defeats Trinity.

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—Harvard defeated Trinity on Hampden Park this afternoon by a score of 38 to 6. Captain McClung, of Yale, witnessed the game, accompanied by Heffelfinger and Hinckley of the eleven.

A Fight for Bates.

YOUNGSTOWN, Nov. 11.—[Special.]—Efforts are being made to secure a match between Jack Bates, a well known young pugilist here, and Kid McCormick, at present residing in Trinidad. McCormick is the latter states that he is desirous of meeting Bates in the ring to fight to a finish. It is expected that McCormick will arrive here tomorrow and articles will be signed, as Bates expresses a willingness to meet him on any terms and for $500 or $1,000.
