WANT JACKSON AND SLAVIN TO FIGHT. Fag Ends of Sports Which Occurred Testerday, and a Glance at Those to Come. Bowling as a recreative and healthful sport has no equal, and its popularity in this country is rapidly increasing. In the Eastern cities, especially New York, there are innumerable clubs, and the interest taken in it is coming west. Last night the old English game was formally inaugurated in Pittsburg at the Bellefield Club House, and if the initial attempt to introduce it is a criterion there vear-olds." will be plenty of the indoor sport this winter. In England, Northumberland has always been the center of bowling, and the young and old indulge in it with us much vim as Americans do in basebali. The club house at Bellefield was comfortably filled with representatives of leading families from East Liberty, Bellefield, Oakland and Pittsburg, all of whom displayed creat enthusiasm in the game as their regreat entrustation in the game as their re-spective clubs made a "spare" or a "strike." Bosides the interest which the game alone induces, a series of contests will take place among three clubs: the Bellefield, Linden among three clubs: the Belleheld, Linden and East End Gymnastic Clubs, for a mag-nificent silver cup, offered by D. Herbert Hostetter. The season has hardly opened up, consequently many of the bowlers who took part last night were a trifle nervous, and showed a lack of dexterity in controlling the bail. The Bellefield club showed up in good at 10 o'clock. About 600 will be on exhiform, which their vanquished opponents attribute to constant practice. The East End Gyms say they have not had the opportunity to perfect themselves, owing to their inferior alleys. Notwithstanding the excuses offered for poor scores, there was sufficient interest taken by determined players to assure bowling a great success for the coming winter. According to the programme a number of series will be played, and there is no telling when the cup will be handed over for permanent ownership. In order to have full title to the trophy one club must win three successive series. As each series comes off weak players will be substituted comes on weak players win he substituted by members who have demonstrated a right to a try by making envia-ble scores in practice. Therefore, by the time the senson ends a great many games will have been played. The next series is scheduled for November 30 at the Linden Club House. The referees of last night's games were J. E. Schwartz, C.

tinental countries, but his progress is slow not burning for a battle with the black in England where the people are very con-servative. Runners are able to hold their own in and near to large cities, because people crave an opportunity to gamble. He thinks the trotting horse is the best as the trot is more scientific and there are less chances for crooked work. Mr. Covode claims the runners will never gain a foothold in the far West.

ANOTHER WORLD-BEATER.

Capt. Brown Tells of a Colt That Promises Great Ranning.

The last car load of Captain Sam Brown's stable of runners were yesterday shipped from New York to Mobile, Ala., where the horses will be wintered. The Captain said yesterday he would not work any of his horses until next summer, and his object in sending them South is to give them a long winter's training, and to strengthen them for an active campaign next season. "My stables are in better condition now than they have ever been," the Captain said. "My 3-year-olds quit the past season in elegant shape, and my yearlings promise extraordinary work. But," the Captain went on, his eyes sparkling with delight and confidence, "I have a filly that promises certainly to be a world-beater. It is a colt by Katie A., by imported Richmond, and is a maxificent scenario of horse deep. In a a magnificent specimen of horse flesh. In a trial a week ago the colt finished three-eights of a mile in :38. That, among the runners, is looked upon as phenomenal, and I am confident the country will hear from that colt about the time it starts with the 2-veer olds."

"What will become of W. L. Scott's run-

"What will become of W. L. Scott's run-ners?" was asked Captain Brown. "They will be sold scon. The Scott horses are strong and well bred, but Mr. Scott never made much money on the track. He made his money in selling valuable colts from his $40,000 sire. These colts always commanded high prices, and many of them are still on the farm at Erie. The Scott farm is likely to be abandoned for breading purposes. It is too far north and the grass is too stiff and sour. Mr. Scott was always a successful breeder, however.'

FAMOUS HORSES ON EXHIBITION.

The Bard and Leopold, the Sultan's Gift to Grant, Win the Honors.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16 .- The seventh annunl Horse Show Association opened this morning in Madison Square Garden. Out of 1,066 horses entered 450 had been stalled bition. Among the score of noted animals on exhibition are Mr. Cassatt's "The Bard," once unchallenged as king of the turf; S S. Howland's Arabian stallion Leopold; C. J. Hamlin's Mambring King, "the handsomest horse in the world;" Belle Hamlin and George Pepper's jumper, Roseberry. The exhibit of hackneys is unusually large. Among the exhibitors are such well-known breeders as A. J. Cassatt, Pierre Lorillard, Prescott Lawrence, John A. Logan, Jr., F. Pillsbury and Henry Fairfax.

Judging began at 2 P. M., and the ring took on a lively aspect. The first competition was between thoroughbred stallions, 3 years old and upward, shown in hand, not ridden. The Bard, the great stallion owned by A. J. Cassatt, was the first in the ring and was greeted with vociferous applause. The first prize, $500, went to him; King Like, by King Ernest, bred and owned by D. D. Withers, second prize, $250; Im-ported Loyalist, lately owned by the Prince of Wales, price $10,000, owned by William Wales, price $10,000, owned by William Easton, received a "very highly com-mended."

Class 2, for stallions 3 years old or over-The aged Leopold had a walkover. This is the stallion that was presented to the late General Grant by the Sultan of Turkey.

It is the general impression among swim-mers who profess to know that McEwen will win at least the one-half mile and mile in his races with Fox at the Natatorium, next week. Fox however smiled at the idea and says he will have a surprise for the sure thing people in every one of the races.

THERE is a bitch in the billiard match be-tween Schaefer and Slosson. The latter ob-jects to Mort Humphreys as a manager. There has been a coolness between Hum-phreys and Slosson for nearly two years. The Brunswick-Balke Collender Company will settle the question of management.

Pittsburg Football Men Mad.

A large meeting of members was held last night to take action on the league's decisions in throwing out their games they honestly won against McDonald and Bloomfield. The matter was discussed thoroughly, and those present at last came to the conclusion that the Pittsburg club would not under any consideration play another league game unless the league reconsidered its decisions and awarded the Pittsburg team the games they had won. A resolu tion was sent into the secretary of the league to that effect. Secretary McPherson of the league, was seen last night, and stated he had received the resolution from Secretary Pickard, of the Pittsburg club, and, as he considered it a very important matter, he intended to call a special meeting of the league for Friday night next to take action on it. Fred Goodwyn, presi-dent of the club, was in the chair.

I wish to say we have made every effort to get a game with the 3 A's and they have finally given us their answer which is, that they cannot play us early in the season. Secretary Brainard promised Mr. Barbour. who was then chairman of our committee, that he would give us the first open Satur day. After during that, they made games with Greensburg and W. and J. Team. The latter game was arranged after we had asked for it. We do not like to claim any-thing we have not won on the field, but as we cannot get a game, we shall certainly claim the championship of Western Penn-sylvania. I make the statement to satisfy the numerous friends of the East End Gym's that it was no fault of mine that the game was not stranged. England Wants Jackson and Slavin. BOSTON, Nov. 16 .- The National Sporting Club of London, through its American agent, Captain Cook, of Boston, has offered a $10,000 purse and $500 for expenses to Peter Jackson to fight Siavin, but the fight must come off during Derby week in June. Jackson will probably accept the latter con-dition, as the others are acceptable to him. The California Club is desirous of having the fight in this country, and offers a purse of $12,000, of which $10,000 goes to the winner and $2,000 to the loser.

The purchase provides for the necessary funds by the Pittsburg and Western Rail-way Company to put the line in thorough condition as a link in an important through line.
