ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW HAVEN, Nov. 19 .- The Yale team put in its last afternoon practice, before the great game, in the field to-day. They were given easy work in perfecting signals. They will go to Springfield to-morrow afternoon and put up at the quarters of Stagg's Christian workers, which is about two miles out of Springfield. They will have the use of the Y. M. C. A. building and grounds, and have a good chance to practice "tricks" unmolested under the supervision of Stagg. Yale men are getting their courage up over the game. Nearly all the old coachers who have been watching the players feel confident that Yale is going to win on Saturday. Those who have seen both teams play are now putting their money on Yale. Two of the old players, who have been coaching the team this week, said this morning that they felt confident of a victory for Yale. Yesterday a Harvard man came down to New Haven with $1,000, which he said he wanted to put up at odds of 10 to 7 in favor of Harvard. He made the statement before of Harvard. He made the statement before several Yale men and they at once went out to get $700 more, but when they re-turned the Harvard man backed down and asked for odds of 10 to 8, which were re-fused. The makeup of the Yale and the substitutes, as given out by Captain Mc-Clung this morning, will be as follows:

A special from Cambridge says: Har-vard's football practice for Saturday's great struggle with Yale is finished. To-day's work was very light. Captain Trafford had his men on Jarvis field for a little while this afternoon, practicing a few minutes and familiarizing themselves with the new signals. Then they took a run to warm themselves up and keep their wind in good condition. After the customary looking over by Dr. Conant, who took their weights, they were taken to Boston, where they dined at Boston's swellest club, the Somerset, as the guests of the coachers. Dr. Conant prepared the bill of fare, which was the same as would have been served at the training table in Cambridge, and they sat down to dinner at

About Harvard's Eleven.

Of the 11 men whom Captain Trafford wants to put on Hampden Park against Yale only one is out of condition and doubtful, that is Sam Dexter, the big guard, who is scheduled to face Stanley Morrison. Dexter has not been on the field since Monday, when he twisted his leg. Dr. Conant will not say until the day of the game whether club, was in St. Louis yesterday for the Moffet blows the whistle for the game to Whether he can play the game out is a question, but if Dr. Conant allows him to play at all it will imply that he is all right and fit to play for his life. Harvard will send to the scratch their very best foot-ball eleven that ever represented the crim-son. The rush line will average a few ounces over 178 pounds to the man, which a shade heavier than Yale's line. Harvard's backs are so much beavier than Vale's that the team average is 1731, pounds to a man, while Yale's is only 1681; lowing is a list of 11 men who will play Saturday, with the three subs who are the most liable of all the list to be called upon:

who expect Harvard to win Saturday, but among the Boston graduates there seems to be a general expectation that the crimson is to be victorious over the blue. There has not been much betting as yet among the students. Those who have placed any money have got odds of 5 to 4 in most cases and in some instances 10 to 6. The Boston professionals are backing Yale and giving odds. They did the same last year and lost. Among those who have watched the daily practice from the side line, the opinion is expressed if Yale does not have the game linched in the first half, Harvard will win. The eleven will leave for Springfield tomerrow at 4 o'clock

LOCAL FOOTBALL

The Three A's Have a Losing Practice Game at Exposition Park.

The team of the Alleghenv Athletic Association who are to meet the kickers from Cleveland are practicing as much as they can. They are aware of the very tough argument ahead of them and are auticipating Saturday with considerable anxiety. Yesterday an eleven of the Three A's met an eleven from the Western University at Exposition Park, and after an interesting contest the University boys won by 14 points

Of course, the Three A's had not by any means a representative team on hand, but their defeat meant that they must try and brace up for to-morrow if they want to do anything creditable against the Clevelands. One or two good players of the Three A's will be absent, but good substitutes are provided. It is a pity that the East End Gyms and the Three A's cannot consolidate forces for to-morrow. The former have no engagements, and if the best men of the two could be put into a team Cleveland would have an argument.

Defeated the Three A's Fairly. The Dayton football team claim the game they recently played with the Three A's by 10 to 0. The result of the game as claimed by the Three A's was 6 to 6.

Just at the close of the game there was a dispute about a touchdown claimed by the Daytons. The player was tackled behind the line, and he let the ball fall from his hands and the claim was not allowed. The following correspondence ex-plains matters from the Dayton's stand-

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 .- [Special.]-The National Cross-Country Association of America held a star chamber meeting at the Arena last evening and took action against the expulsion of the organization from the list of allied members of the Amateur Athletic Union.

McPhee Still Hesitates.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 19 .- [Special.]-Captain Comiskey has had another conference with "Bid" McPhee, but the latter still refused to sign. The Cincinnati cluffi is deserving of better treatment at the hands of the second baseman. He could not have a better chance to prove as libelous the oftrepeated assertion that ball players as a class are a lot of ingrates. The club wants to know where it stands. The cranks are anxious for McPhee to declare himself. Cincinnati must have second base covered, and if McPhee is not there someone else must be secured. Either "yea" or "nay" would settle the question as far as McPhee CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 19. - President Thompson, of the Gloucester Race Track, said to-day that the track would be closed down on November 28. He stated that this action was taken in consequence of the decision of the Court of Errors on Wednesday, declaring pool selling illegal. The date for closing down is made November 28, said Mr. Thompson, because of the large number of horsemen and attendants now at the track who want some time to make arrangements for going elsewhere.

SCRANTON, Nov. 19 .- [Special.] - The election of chief counsel and officers for the Pennsylvania division, League of American Wheelmen, which took place in this city on Monday, was announced to-day. Owing to there being no fight this year, the vote cast was very light, for though out of a total membership of over 20,000 Pennsylvania counts between 2,000 and 3,000, but 626 votes out of this total were cast. Mr. Samuel A. Boyle, of Philadelphia, was again returned as Chief Consul, with D. K. Trimmer, of York, Vice Consul, and J. J. Van Nort, of Scranton, Secretary and Treasurer. Two days later he won second money in the Open Derby in a large field of money in the Open Perby in a large held of starters. His next attempt was last week, when he won third money in the United States Field Trial Derby, held at Bicknell, Ind. (24 starters). Wun Lung, with one exception, is the only dog which has been eligible to run in Derbys of two succeeding years; is the youngest puppy that ever started in a field trial, and is the only winner of Derbys of succeeding years. His courage, style, endurance, speed and bird-sense are wonderful.

KNOCKED LARKIN OUT.

John T. Griffin Defeats the Jersey City

Man in Four Lively Rounds. NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 19.-Before the Olympic Club to-night James F. Larkin, of Jersey City, and John T. Griffin, of Braintree, Mass., contested for the feather-weight championship and a purse or $2,500.

Prof. John Duffy officiated as referee and Mr. John M. Goss acted as master of ceremonies. The principals were weighed in this afternoon at 3 o'clock according to the articles of agreement. Griffin weighed under the 122 pounds and Larkin an ounce or two more. Larkin's trainer, McMurry, wagered $250 with Jimmy Carroll on the result. Time was called at precisely 9 o'clock. Larkin was seconded by John Meo'clock. Larkin was seconded by John Mc-Marray and John Glynn, and Jimmy Car-roll and Prof. Robinson seconded Griffin.

Fighting commenced at 9:15 and was hot from the start. Griffin assumed the ag-gressive, puncing for the neck with all his might, while Larkin led for the head, fre-quently missing. Griffin seemed strong and eager. Larkin pale and on the alert.

In the second round Griffin assumed the aggressive immediately on the call for time. In a hot rally which immediately followed Larkin fell from exhaustion. He got up on the count of four, but seemed weak and beaten. In another clinch which followed he fell in the break away, half out of the ring. By cute ring maneuvering he evaded the loss of the battle in this round by going on the defense and running away. Griffin would defense and running away. Griffin would not be denied, and landed left and right with a single return. It was plain that Larkin was a beaten man, the terrific body punching of the Braintree boy having done its work.

The fourth round commenced by heavy fighting from Griffin, Larkin being too weak to stop his heavy left swings on the stomach. He was knocked down twice in this round, and the last time failed to regain his feet in the allotted ten seconds.

has been received here from Shanghai, stating that the situation arising from the recent act of Chinese mobs in attacking and threatening foreigners in the province of Hunan, is more satisfactory, owing, to the energetic action of the representatives of the foreign powers. It will be remembered that the Chief of the Kalno Hui, the great Chinese secret society, one of the objects of which is to drive all foreigners from China, was recently arrested in the French concession at Shanghai. His right hand man, Chen Kin Lung, was shortly afterward arrested at

Soo Chow, a short distance from Shanghai. Chen Kin Lung was subjected to torture to make him confess his connection with the crimes against foreigners committed in Hunan, but he would confess nothing. It is said, however, that compromising documents were found upon him at the time of his arrest, and it is believed that these papers have given the Chinese authorities a clew to the perpetrators of the more recent attacks upon foreigners, for it is said that numerous arrests of secret society men have been made. At any rate, according to the semi-official dispatch received to-day, the Government has greatly increased the severity of its measures against criminals of this class, and at present it seems determined to exert all its power to protect the foreign residents of the Empire.

COAL AT ANY PRICE

Is the Cry Now Going Up by Cincinnatians and Their Neighbors.

NO SUPPLY TO BE HAD BY RIVER.

Impossibility of the Existence of a Coal Pool in the Queen City.

TOO LITTLE PROFIT IN THE BUSINESS

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CINCINNATI, Nov. 19 .- The limited supply of coal on hand, and the impossibility of getting a supply by river, is attracting much attention here and eliciting a great deal of discussion. "The coal business in this city has not been favorable at all for a few years past," said K. D. Hurd, Secretary of the Consolidated Coal and Mining Company, to-day. He continued:

The warm weather which has prevailed throughout several winters has reduced local consumption, and the market has been affected by supplies in excess of the demand. In the year 1888-89, there were the largest receipts of Kanawba coal in the history of the trade, while in 1889-90 the Pitts-burg receipts were the heaviest ever known. burg receipts were the heaviest ever known. The demand from the Southern States, and even from Canada, has improved, larger quantities having been shipped from this city both North and South. The demand for coal from Chicago has increased; 24.6 per cent of all the coal received here comes by river.

There is really no coal pool in existence here. When one is formed it does not last over six months. The reason is there are to omany elevators. There are 12, when, under a pool arrangement, three could do all the work in season.

Too Many in the Business. There are too many persons in the cost business, and prices are consequently cut to an alarming extent. The supply of coal here is limited. The weather indications are against rain and a higher river, so that coal is likely to go up.

There is plenty of coal awaiting shipment, but it is now a question when it will get down. Everybody holds back on sales, and so the market Is not very active. We do not seek businesss, but it comes to us. Cold weather, of course, creates a bigger demand, and a short supply means better market prices. We do not sell to small dealers, and know nothing about their prices. A great deal of talk about extortion is unfounded. The small dealers as a general thing take out a living, and that is all. When coal gets up to 20 or 30 cents a bushel it is hard on the poor people, but the small dealers do not get all the profit. In 1884, I believe it was, coal was up to 32 cents a bushel, and I heard of no fortunes being made that year. Helped by the Gas Going Out, and Indiana from the effects of the natural gas supply. The coal business dropped off gas supply. The coal business dropped off wonderfully in Findlay and many other points in the State some years ago. The coal trade at Indianapolis and many Indiana towns, too, was seriously affected. The decline of natural gas in any place means the improvement of the coal business there, Pittsburg coal is held to-day at 12 cents affoat and none for sale. James M. West, of Pittsburg, one of the largest coal handlers of that city, was at the Grand this morning. In speaking of the prospects for coal here he said: prospects for coal here he said:

There is one thing about the coal business that is of interest. It is recovering in Ohio

It is hard to tell when a rise will come, but we are following the scriptural injunction, and "watching and praying." But I do not think there need be any fear of a famine in Cincinnati, nor ought the prices be so very high. With the railroad facilities now centering at Cincinnati, coal ought to be set down here at II cents a bushel, or about $3 a ton. Now that is not so very high, and I think the larger dealers in this city will bear me out in the statement that coal can be brought here by rail and set down at a little more than II cents a bushel.
