ST. MARYS, O.-The heavy decline in pro-duction and the remarkable falling off in operations and new work throughout the oil fields of Ohio is causing considerable comment and surprise. The outlook at present is that on account of the low price of oil and the overproduction, operations in the Ohio field will be lighter than ever.

GAME NO. 191-"DYKE."

The following games were played in Pitts-burg, at headquarters, between J. P. Reed, of Chicago, and H. C. Ewalt, of Pittsburg.

Ewalt's Move.

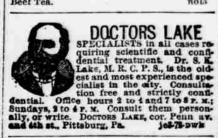

James P. Reed is in Pittsburg visiting his mother. In appearance he is looking well, and in no way cast down over his defeat. He speaks as though it would be some time before a match would be secured with Bar-ker, owing to Mr. Barker wanting every-thing his own way, both as to amount of stakes and everything else, but, by leaving Mr. Barker to himself for a little while, he will come down, owing to the fact that Reed is about the only one who has the nerve to play the now champion; and he will wanta match by eand bye, and will be willing to come and go a little as to terms, when he finds he will be accommodated. This now is Reed's position, and Barker can have the match, when he so desires, and, if Reed is the soft, easy snap that the friends of Barker say he is, Barker is very foolish not to go right into playing Reed, so long as the backers of Reed are willing to put up the staft. 7-11 9-14 11-15 23-26 10-6 26-2 30-26 2-6 Reed won. ngl4-trssu Stuff. W. C. Brown, the Altoona expert, will be the guest of Mr. R. W. Patterson for one week, and his headquarters will be the Home Hotel, where he will play all comers. Mr. Brown is starting on a four throughout the second the country. He is expected Brown is starting on a four throughout the various towns of the country. He is expected to play in the tournament on Thursday for the championship of the State. We ex-pect the local experts will make it quite in-teresting for him. James Wyllie's answer to Mr. Barker's touch of pity is right to the point, and shows that the G. O. M. is made of the true championality stuff. Wyllie, as we have always held, is no figurehead, but the true champion of the world, won on his merits as a player, and it now comes to this: If Barker is willing to cross the occan and put his $500 against the old man's, he can have a match for the stake and the championship of the world, and Wyllie guarantees he won't break his heart if he does lose, and that Barker will have more glory than from all the matches he ever won in his life. B BLUE LIPS AND COLD FEET. Why Ladies Look so Miserable in Cold A Small Weather - A Few Suggestions About Health and Complexion. Quantity of "Why do women look so pinched, blue and cold? Nearly every lady I saw on the street to day had drawn features, blue lips, and seemed shaking with the cold." The gentleman who made the above query was an observer simply. He did not know that underneath the gloves which the lady wore, were chilled fingers, and within the shoes were cold feet. Unfortunately, however, women are troubled with cold feet, benumbed fingers and a general feeling of chilliness, which is anything but conducive to good health or beauty. Do you ask what Strength and Fine Flavor. causes it? Thin blood and poor circulation If the blood gets chilled the feet are certain to be cold; if it circulates poorly, colds, coughs, congestion and pneumonin are the result. Can this be prevented by warm clothing? Partly only.
