followed by sounds of subdued voices, as if engaged in angry dispute. This was fol-lowed by the sounds of a struggle. The living occupants of the room, strangely

Iving occupants of the room, strangely enough, experienced no fear. The atmosphere during these disturb-ances was reduced to a frigid temperature. In the morning the furniture of the house was entirely disarranged. This perform-ance has been repeated several times. The voices are always raised to a certain pitch, and can be heard with equal distinctness from any part of the house, although words cannot be distinguished. The strange affair is creating no end of talk.

The Harvard Team Leaves for Springfield to Tackle the Yale Players.

Bostox, Nov. 20.-[Special.]-The Harv and tootball eleven started for Springfield on the 4 o'clock express this afternoon. A marlor car was reserved for them and the Harvard Glee Club chartered another car The players received a tremendous send off at Cambridge, several hundred students cheering theman to victory. The betting has been very light. What sums have been posted are at precisely the same odds that resulted on the day before the match last tain still takes a great deal of interest in year. A few bets are being made at odds of 5 to 4 on Vale. This was the figure last year and Harvard won. In fact bets are seldom to be relied on as a criterion for the accurate prediction of the result of a college

A trip around town to the places when men are wont to congregate who back their opinion with cash failed to disclose any extensive betting. Professional betting men are fighting shy. They do not know how much stock to take in the reports of the weakness that have emanated from New laven and Cambridge. Still they favor Yale and the odds are about as quoted above. In Cambridge no large amounts have been wagered vet. A good many of have oven wagered vet. A good many of the Harvard men who are prepared to back the crimson are waiting till they get to Springfield and they expect to find Yale willing to give odds.

THE EAST END GAME.

Western University and Geneva College to Line Up This Afternoon,

East End people will have an introduc tion to real college football this afternoon between the University and Geneva College tennes. The adherents of each institution will be out in full force, and every effort on the part of either team will be met with encouraging cheers from their respective representations.

Both say they are sure winners, and will have their strongest teams on the field and the playing will be to win the contest, and the game will no doubt resolve itself into one of endurance, as the testas are very evenly matched. The teams will line up as tollows. Position. University, Geneva.

Taking His Horses to Mobile.

Thirteen of Captain Sam Brown's horses reached Pittsburg last evening from New York, bound for Mobile, to spend the winter. The Captain was at the Union station to see them. The only one, he said, worth mentioning was Senorita. The others were 1-year-old fillies. One of the horses fell in horseflesh. The car will be side-tracked for a day at Louisville to give the colts a rest.

Marvin Will Retire.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.-Charles Marvin, the famous driver, who has managed the trotting division of the Palo Alto Stock: Farm for many years, will shortly retire and go into business for himself. Another well-known driver, John Gold-smith, who has been with William Corbett for some time, will shortly leave that gen tleman's employ.

LOOKS LIKE A FIGHT.

Jackson Agrees to Go to England and Mee Paddy Slavin

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.-Peter Jackson, the well-known colored pugilist, received a telegram from London yesterday, announcing that the National Club, of that city, had agreed to allow him $750 for expenses if he would come to London and fight Frank Slavin for a purse of $10,000, which they offered. Siavin has agreed to the match, and as Jackson's terms have all been agreed to, he has practically done so. Articles of agree-ment will be forwarded at once. The fight will be pulled off in June. Jackson will begin light training at once. He says he can defeat the Australian, but expects a good fight.

Bowen and Gibbons Matched.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 20. - The Metropol. itan Athletic Club have matched Andy Bowen, of New Orleans, and Austin Gibbons, of Paterson, N. J., to fight for a purse of $2,500. December 22. The winner of this fight is to challenge the winner of the Carroll and Myers fight, which takes place at the Olympic Club, December 10.

Jones to Morrissey

James Jones, the Homestead sprinter who recently defeated in a 200-yard run George Beatty, of Shire Oaks, wants to make a match with Patrick Morrissey, of McKeesport, for a 190-yard race for any sum of money. All he will ask from Morrissey will be 3½ yards start. Will Morrissey come to time?

A Homestead Foot Bace.

George Perry and William Rosser, both of Homestead, will run a 100-yard race three weeks from to-day. Articles will be signed this evening. The purse will be a large one. Both young men are well known and are fast goers. Much interest is manifested in this race. Football Notes

After consuming the buildings the flames spread to the timber on the hilfside, and about 60 acres were burned over, when the fire was brought under control. The miners' houses on the top of the hill and a large quantity of lumber were sared. Water was very scarce, and for a time it was feared that the village of Carroliton would be destroyed. The loss of the Browns is about $25,000, and Frank Minnoun loses about $5000 on lumber. The mine had just been opened, but was not in operation. Some coal and debris at the mouth of the pit took fire, and it required hard work to keep the flames out of the time. The origin of the fire is not known.
