FACING THE CHARGES.

The Mayor of Wilkesbarre Prosecutes a Lately Missing Man.

HIS WIFE'S LOVE WAS ALIENATED.

A Pittsburg Shoeblack Turns Bandit on Youngstown Streets.

NEWST NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

PRESCIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WILKESBARRE, Nov. 22 .- A big sensa tion was sprung on the town to-day. Last January, W. H. Shepherd, a prominent contractor, disappeared from his home in this city. His family were greatly alarmed and thought be had met foul play. He was last seen in Philadelphia. The family spent $5,000 advertising for a clew that would lead to the recovery of the man, dead or alive. Detectives were also employed. No tidings of the man could be

Then it came to be whispered about that there was a woman in the case, and that she was no less a personage than the wife of the Mayor of the city. The search was resumed, but without success. It was then given out by Shepherd's family that he was surely

One day in May, however, one of the sons received a startling telegram from Indian-apolis to the effect that his lost father was in a hotel in that city, sick nigh unto to death. The son hastened there and con-firmed the story. He said his father was a confirmed invalid, but the contractor did not return home. Many people thought this very queer, but they had their own opinions about the matter. Two weeks ago public notice was given that Shepherd would return home and that he would meet his enemies. The attorneys for Mayor Sutton notified the Shepherds that if their father desired to return to the city he would be at once placed under ar-rest. Mayor Sutton is the prosecutor. He caused two warrants to be issued. One is a criminal action and the other is a civil suit for $20,000. Mayor Sutton claims Shepherd alienated his wife's affections and broke up his home. Shepherd appeared before Aiderman Davidson to-day and gave bail for

ing Rain to Head Off Injunctions.

Etir. Nov. 22.—[Special.]—The Pittsburg, Shenange and Lake Eric Railroad Company sent a large construction force into this city last night. After midnight they came down upon and captured Twelfth street and began to lay their line into the city. The company had made every possible effort to settle with the property boiders and had paid a large number of them 30 per cent of the assessed valuation of their property fronting on the street. Fearing injunction proceedings they concluded to secure the right of way by concluded to secure the right of way by strategy.

Over 100 men have been working since 12 6 clock last midnight, in a drizzling rain, building the track, and by midnight to-night will have completed it. Through a little stroke of dinlomacy they had succeeded in getting the Pennsylvania Company has a force of nearly 100 men on duty to prevent the opposing forces of the Pittsburg, Shenango and Lake Erie from tearing up and dispossessing them of a valuable side track privileges which they have been retaining on Twelfth stroet against the wishes of the city authorities, who have ordered them off it three times. The Pennsylvania Company have a large number of cars on the track and have two engines chained down at the point of nttack. Last night a gang of toughs attacked the Pittsburg, Shenango and Lake Erie forces and fired several shots, but no one was injured.

A YOUNG PITTSBURG BANDIT

Arrested for Complicity in a Robbery and Murder in Youngstown.

Yeungstown, Nov. 22.—[Special.]—Andrew
Krause, a German laborer living at Hazelsight, while returning home with a com panion, they were attacked by two young men who demanded their money. While his companion went for help, Krause was beaten with a shovel, robbed and left dving on the railroad track. At the hospital an examination showed he had been nearly examination showed he had been nearly scaliped, and brain matter was oozing from a terrible wound in the head. Surgeons have no hope of his recovery.

Chief of Police Cantwell to night arrested Silas Hurrington, a bootblack, aged 17, who says his nome is in Pittsburg. He said he met a stranger here who claimed to be a detective, and that the latter assaulted Konse with a show!

Inomity by a Disparce reporter at the Newshoy's Home in Pittsburg shows that hose in charge have no knowledge that any the name of Silas Harrington ha had by the name of Silas Harrington has been an inmate of that institution. They say, however, that about a week ago the home harbored a boy of about 17 or 18 years of age, whose name was unknown to them. He was such an incorrigible young character that the managers of the home were obliged to discharge him.

Probably a Murder at Manor.

GREENSBURG, Nov.22.—[Special.]—It is prob-ble that a murder has been committed at Manor. This morning Henry Sheppard, a coal miner, was committed to jail, charged with the stabbing of John Laird, a fellow workman. The two men, with others, had been drinking, and a quarrel arose between beppard and Laird, when the former drew a knife and shashed Laird across the abdo men. Immediately after the cutting Shep mard was arrested by four of Laird's friends He made a desperate fight for liberty, but as finally bound hand and foot and con yound to fall.

Author of the Homestead Law Relieved. Wheeling, Nov. 22.—The Ohio Valley Trades Assembly this forences appropriated a sum for the relief of "Land Bill" Allen, author of the Homestead law, who was reently sent to the Franklin county, Ohio, affrmary, and recommended that all the local unions take similar action. This is the outgrowth of a movement started by the Wheeling Intelligencer in behalf of the aged

A Sickening Attempt at Suicide. Youngsrown, Nov. 22.-[Special.]-John teinhouser, a carpenter, while quarreling with his wife this afternoon attempted to was called to arrest him, when Steinhouser, on the pretent that he wanted to change in the pretent that he wanted to change his clothes, went into a bedroom and cut his throat with a razor, and also tried to dis-member himself. He was discovered and a surgeon was called to dress his wounds.

Twenty-Five White Caps Indicted. WHEELING, Nov. 52 -[Special.]-The grand pury of Lincoln county has indicted 25 citizens for complicity in the recent White Cap outrages there, and particularly for the un merciful whipping of Charles Tyrell, a lead ng farmer. The men are indicted under what is known as the "Red Men's act," which imposes very severe penalties.

ANOTHER CLERICAL SUICIDE.

A Superaupuated Chicago Clergyman Hang

Bimself in an Attic. Chicago, Nov. 22.-It now appears that the death of Rev. Ezra Marsh Boring at Evanston last night was not caused by old age as at first reported, but that the unfortunate man committed suicide. The deceased was one of the oldest living Methodist Episcopal ministers in the Northwest, and had been prominently connected with the Chicago district since its organization. For some time past he had been on the super-BROOKLYN BRIDGE'S FIRST SUICIDE. An Unknown Man Plunges Into the Depths of East River at Midday.

Manipur, Mrs. Grimwood, will remarry.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22 .- Shortly after noon o-day, when the big Brooklyn bridge was covered with promenaders, a stranger jumped from the center of main span to the East river, 140 feet below, and was drowned. It was a clear case of suicide. James Ross, a peddler, was driving upon the New York end of the bridge roadway when the stranger stepped up and begged permission to ride across. He was a medium-sized man, in middle life, clad in the garb of a longshore-

On reaching the center of the main span, the man jumped up and exclaimed: "I guess I'll jump overboard." Ross, thinking he was joking, replied: "All right; you jump and I'll follow." He did jump, going down half the distance as straight as an arrow, feet first; then, turning, he struck the water face fire and was lost to view for some seconds. He rose once, his head just showing, and sank for the last time. The body has not been recovered. This is the first suicide from the bridge.

Furniture Makers Locked Out.

FIFTEEN RAILBOADS AT THE FAIR

Three Pittsburg Roads Among Those Secure a Jackson Park Entrance. CHICAGO, Nov. 22.-The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is the prime mover in a scheme to secure an entrance into the south end of Jackson Park and the World's Fair for all lines running south from the Union, the Van Buren street and the Polk street stations, as well as those from the Illino a Central station. Under the terms of this arrangement 15 great railroads will have a direct entrance to the World's Fair grounds, including the B. & O., the Pittsburg, Ft.
Wayne and Chicago and the Panhandle.
The Exposition management will assume all obligations for the lease of the grounds over
