S. C. Shortlidge's Team to Tackle the East End Gyms on Thanksgiving Day.

THE W. AND J. PLAYERS WEAKEN.

Walter Camp Gives a Very Interesting Criticism of the Recent Yale and Harvard Game.

PRINCETONS ARE NOT DISCOURAGED.

They Think They Will Make a Good Stand Against Yale-General Football News.

At the last moment the team of the Washington and Jefferson College have decided not to come to Pittsburg Thanksgiving Day and tackle the East End Gyms in a son players give no definite reason for so abruptly disappointing the Gyms, and it might have been that the Gyms would have an enforced idleness on the holiday

But Prof. Kirchner started to hustle as soon as he received the news from Washington, and as a result Mr. S. C. Shortlidge has agreed to bring his Media team here Thursday. His team will play the Gyms at Liberty Park, East End, and undoubtedly the contest will be much more interesting than would be a game between the Gyms and the Washington and Jefferson team. Shortlidge's team have so far this season done well, and they wound up their college contests by defeating the Delaware College elever. Mr. Shortlidge requires $200 to bring his team here and the Gyms are plucky enough to pay it.

A contest between the Gyms and a team such as Mr. Shortlidge has will be of great interest and importance to local patrons of football, as it will give us an idea of how our teams here compare with good Eastern teams. So far the Gyms have defeated all teams with whom they have come in con-test, but in the Media players they will tackle a lot vastly superior to any they have yet met. While it may not be safe to say that the local team will win, it may safely be said that they will make matters onite warm for the visitors.

PRINCETON STILL HOPEFUL

The Orange and Black Not at All Discouraged by Yale's Victory.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 23 .- [Special.]-The football men who were in attendance at the Vale-Harvard game yesterday returned to Princeton this morning. Fvery man watched the game critically, of course, but as a result of his careful observation no e to-day had anything striking to relate. I have talked with quite a number of the men this afternoon, and all that the most of them had to say could be summed up in the few words, "Yale did play a tremendously strong game." But they all added that they expected this, and that Yale's work did not in the least surpass their expectations.

What they saw vesterday does not seem to have changed them in their opinion as to the result of the coming Thanksgiving Day game. They realize they have some hard work to do if they are going to win, but to perform the work is not an impossibility, and a desperate effort will be made during the few days still remaining to put the team in shape to do it. Captain Warren, in commenting upon Saturday's game, said Yale put up au exceedingly strong game in her team work, but that she did not show in any better form than be had expected. He is in no way discouraged as the result of the Thanksgiving Day game, but says his men have some hard ork to do to get into shape to walk over Vale, but he thinks Princeton has a fair show and is still in it.

To keep in good training the men all took a walk out into the country about five miles this afternoon. Trainer McMasters says the men are all in excellent physical condi-Poe, who injured his ankle in last Thursday's practice game and has not played since, will be on the field again to-morrow, when the men will be given a practice game of about an hour, which will be repeated on Tuesday. Students but no outsiders will be admitted to the field. On account of freezing and thawing the field that has been s in a horrible condition, and closely resembles a country cattle yard in the spring of the year. To-morrow and the rest of the week the grounds on the south side of the regular field will be marked and posts set up, so that it can be used instead of the old

THAT DISPUTED GAME.

The Geneva College Team Captain and Umpire Claim the Victory.

The following communications from the Captain of the Geneva College football team, who played the W. U. P. team Saturday, and also from the umpire of the game, explain themselves: To the Sporting Editor of the Dispatch:

DEAR SIE-There appears to be a misunder-standing in regard to the result of the foot-standing in regard to the result of the foot-ball game last Saturday between W. U. P. and Geneva College, at East End Gym grounds. A clear statement of the facts con-cerning the point in dispute is necessary. The umpire decided that a certain play was "off side," which, if allowed to pass, would score the W. U. P. four points. The latter team protested against the decision, and the referee proposed that the game proceed with the point under protest, to be decided afterward. This proposial was not received by the Geneva team, who claimed that a decision should be made by the referee in accordance with the team, who claimed that a decision should be made by the referee in accordance with the off-side play. The referee, up to this point, had not rendered a decision, but simply of-fered a proposal, which was not agreed to lie then said the following in the presence of many witnesses who are willing to testify to the truth: "If both captains will be sainsfied I will render a decis on."

Both captains hestinted, and then conferred with their respective teams. The referee then added this assurance: "I feel sure that it will be satisfactory to both sure that it will be satisfactory to both sides." Upon this assurance both captains agreed to abide by the decision of the referer, who decided that the ball should be given to W. L. The latter team claims the four points over the umpires and the referee's decision, which, of course, is out of the question entirely, according to the fol this there is no appeal. Therefore, the game is decided by rule in favor of Geneva, 6 to 4. Charles O. Bemiss, Captain Geneva. To the Sporting Editor of the Dispatch

DEAR SIR-I would like to make a state ment in regard to the disputed point in Sat urday's game between Genera and W. U. P. The decision on the point was made by the referee alone. The umpire was not asked for a decision, nor did he give one.

At the close of the game the referee claimed that his decision was not final. Now, if the re-cree wishes to maintain his decision, we will accept it; but, if not, I claim the right to make the decision myself. My decision is that Evans was offside when he touched the ball down, because Steele was decision is that Evans was oursue when no touched the ball down, because Steele was the farthest man up the field when he kicked the ball, and Evans touched it down at least ten yards behind the line before Steele was within 15 yards of the line. ## WALTER CAMP'S CRITICISM.

He Expresses Himself Fully and Interes tingly About the Recent Yale and Harvard Game. Players Who are Worthy of Praise, Bliss, Hinkley and Hartwell

Regarding the great football game between Harvard and Yale Saturday Walter

Camp has the following to say: There were plenty of surprises at Springfield, as is usualy the case when two teams meet after having been thoroughly talked over and written about for months. The first surprise was the lack of weakness in the Harvard center. Even Heffelfinger found it easier to make his gain a little to the right or left of either guard than straight through, where he was many a time stopped. And in the second half Harvard forced the Yale center quite as often football game. The Washington and Jeffer- as Yale forced Harvard's. The next surprise was the strength of Yale ends. Hinkley and Hartwell played well above their reputations, and their work was worth a great deal to the Yale captain.

The punting of Bliss was unexpectedly strong, and although for a time in the second half Trafford's kicks were forcing Yale steadily back, it was sure to be the Harvard halves who would finally must the catch and thus surrender the ground Trafford had gained. Harvard's best chance of turning the tide lay in that early portion of the second half when Trafford's punting was taking a few yards at every interchange be-tween himself and Bliss and neither side seemed able to get in much effective run-One could actually feel the increas ing confidence that must have been pervading the Harvard team and sympathizers, as well as the unpleasant pervousness which was entering the Yale ranks as the play came gradually further down into the Yale goal. But twice was the ground lost for the Harvard by bad handling of Bliss' punts, and this muffing gave Yale the opportunity to recover while Harvard tell back into hope-

Both teams seemed to have an unlimited amount of wind, for Harvard's steady forc-ing up through the center in the second half, followed almost immediately by Yale's progress down the field by short runs, showed conclusively that neither team had been exhausted in the first half. Some of th's may be accounted for by the fact that both captains interspersed enough kicking among their runs to be sure and keep their men Iresh and able. But for all that it is undeniable that both teams must have been in good condition to keep up the regular work on a rather warm day through the two three-quarters of an hours with no apparent

The work between the snapback and the quarter on both sides was clean and good, there being almost none of the delays usu-ally consequent upon downs due to inter-ance with the ball, and both centers gave their quarters good snapping to handle. There was a notable absence of anything like difference of opinion upon rulings, and both Mr. Moffatt and Mr. Coffin sustained their reputations as most competent

Football Notes.

THE W. & G. team evidently are not anxious to take the Gyms. ED BRAINERD and a number of local athletes left for New York last evening.

THE game Thursday between the Media team and the Gyms will be worth seeing. PRINCETON is strong in its defensive work, and has the endurance to play a long and hard game.

THE University of Pennsylvania-Wesleyan championship game will be decided on Manhattan Field to-morrow.

Wesley an has had heaps of hard luck this season, and the big scores which have been piled up can be attributed to this cause. The Lafayette team are nearly as unlucky as Weslevan in having their best players in-jured. Edwards, March, Moyle, Voight and Wilson are in bad shape.

Thenr is a demand for reserved seats and admission for the Yale and Princeton game on Thanksgiving Day. Billy Edwards says the block of tickets of both kinds on sale at the Hoffman House command only the regular rates, though a stiff advance is looked for to morrow or next day. for to-morrow or next day.

THE Cornell Sun prints the following: "There has been a large amount of talk in all the papers since iast Saturday's game with Princeton about our heavy teams and it has been stated that our team was much heavier than Princeton's. In another colheavier than Princeton's. In another col-umn we give the weights of our eleven, the average of which is 1624 pounds. The aver-age weight of the Princeton team is 171 pounds. Cornell's 'cowlike' rushline aver-ages 1674, while Princeton's dainty line averages over 175. These figures ought to demonstrate to certain New York newspa-ners the fact that it was something besides 'cowlike clumsiness' that kept Princeton down to six points. We call attention to little matters like this, in order that Cornell shall not be too greatly misrepresented by partisan correspondents of papers, who ap-parently know as much about football as they do about the average weight of 'cow-like giants.'"

MAY ENGAGE MUTRIE.

The New York Club May Secure Him as an Advertising Agent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23 .- [Special.]-It will be good news to the great army of baseball enthusiasts in this city to learn that there is a strong possibility of the New York club retaining the services of ex-Manager James Mutrie. The management of the club fully appreciate the genial "Jeems' " ability as an advertiser and boomer of the game, and have made him an offer to accept the position of advertising agent.

The New York club last season drew more people both at home and abroad than any other club in the country, and not a little of this success was due to Mr. Mutrie's well-known hustling qualities. When the Giants and Mutrie arrived in a city everyone knew it. James always made things hum. He is just as popular with the newspaper men of other cities as here and would make a model advance agent. It will be a very popular innovation on the part of the New York elub management and one no doubt which will be tollowed by other League clubs.

BIG HANDICAPS

Important Action Taken Regarding the Suburban and Brooklyn.

THEY WILLEACH BE WORTH $25,000

New Rule to Prevent Repetition of the Huron Case of Last Season.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, Nov. 23 .- Progress is the watchword of our great jockey clubs, and from present indications the turf is on the highway to greater successes in the immediate future than many persons interested in the thoroughbred had dared hope for within the next decade. Secretaries McIntyre, of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, and Fellowes, of the Coney Island Jockey Club, announce that the Brooklyn and Suburban handicaps for 1892 will be worth $25,000 each, which makes them the most valuable handicaps of the year for horses of any age.

The conditions for both these races are practically the same, being a sweepstake of $250 each, or only $50 if declared by February 20. The guaranteed value of the prize is $25,000, of which $5,000 will go to the second and $2,000 to the third horses. This will leave the race worth $18,000 at least to the winner, and this fact insures the nom-ination of every horse of class in the coun-try. No owner can afford to let such prizes pass untried for.

Weights for Both Races.

The weights for races will be published February 1, and winners after the publication of the weights of $2,000 must carry fou pounds extra; of two races of $2,000 each or one of $5,000, or two of $5,000, or one of $10,000, 12 pounds extra. In the case of horses handicapped at 115 pounds or over these penalties shall apply to the extent of one-half, and in the case of those handicapped at 122 pounds or over to the extent of one-quarter only, and in the case of those handicapped at 128 pounds or over to the extent of one-quarter only, and in the case of those handicapped at 128 pounds or over they shall not apply at all.

over they shall not apply at all.

In the days when the Suburban and Brooklyn Haudicaps were new events the winning horse rarely received more than $7,000 or $8,000 for his share of the prize, and there is no more striking evidence of the growth of the turf than the increase in value of these great spring handicaps, which, before the days of winter racing, gave the public something to talk about and speculate upon all winter and early

The Coney Island Jockey Club announces the closing of the great Futurity stakes of 1894 on January 2, 1892. The estimated value of the race is $100,000, of which $7,500 goes to the breeders. This will be the greatest prize ever raced for on this conti-

His colt Huron, although not recognized by the Coney Island Jockey Club, running second to His Highness last season in that event. Yorkville Belle, third at the finish, inished fourth, received third money.

The Brooklyn Jockey Club will close on January 1 next 18 stakes for their spring meeting in 1892. Besides the Brookyn Handicap already spoken of, the Great American Stakes for two-year-olds, worth nore than $20,000; the Brooklyn Cup for three-year-olds and upward: the St. Jame Hotel Stakes for three-year-olds and upward; the Maturity, Brookdale and Fort Hamilton Handicaps, the former exclusively for four-year-olds, and the two latter for three-year olds, are worth striving for. The Great American Stakes has usually been productive of a great contest, as it brings pick of the two-year-old contingent to the post before the season is old enough for any of them to become stale. Full conditions for all the Brooklyn Jockey Club's stakes will be announced on Monday next.

HE BLAMES O'NEIL

Billy Barnie Says J. Palmer Is Respons ble for the Present War.

Bold and baldheaded Billy Barnie dropped into the city yesterday morning on his way from Chicago to Baltimore. He is an Association magnate, and during a conversation with the writer yesterday deplored the present trouble between the League and the Association for it. He said:

"J. Palmer O'Neil told me himself that he was instrumental in having the League Conference Committee dissolved. Had that committee been kept together, things would have been settled by this time. O'Neil said the Association had determined on putting a club into Chicago, and that being so, it was useless to retain the committee. But O'Neil forgot that during our Washington conference the League took Mike Kelly from us. The League committee told us they had nothing to do with that, and I told O'Nei we had nothing to do with the Chicago affair. "What we want now is for the League to keep all the players it now has and let us do the same; let us have a club in Chicago and one in Boston, and we will agree to sign a national agreement. In short, let both organizations remain as they now are, and let us respect each others contracts, reservations, etc. That is our position, and we claim it is reasonable and fair." Mr. Barnie went on to say that everything n connection with the Chicago Association elub was going along all right. When Mr. Barnie arrived in this city he met Pitcher Jones, of Homestead, and signed him to pitch for the Athletics next season.

Mr. Barnie further said that the Associa tion would likely have a ten-club circuit. He stated that there are now nine clubs and the tenth will either be in New York or Brooklyn. He intimated that Jim Mutrie might be given charge of a team in Buffalo and in that event New York and Brooklyn ould not be bothered

THE PARSON'S OPINION.

Davies Has a Few Words to Say About Jackson and Slavin.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Parson Davies, Peter Jackson's backer, arrived home last night. In regard to the Jackson-Slavin match he said:-"The National Club, of London, has offered $10,000 and the men will probably fight there in June. Jackson, whom I saw in San Francisco a short time ago, is in fairly good shape and is living well and having a good time. I want him to spend about two months in hunting and fishing and then I will have him put in six weeks of training. The men will probably fight with four ounce gloves, which will suit Jackson all right.

"I will doubtless go over with Jackson about March, and I think it probable Lord Lonsdale, who thinks a good deal of Peter, will allow him to spend a time on his estate. will allow him to spend a time on his estate, where Jackson will train. The change will do him good, and I don't doubt that he will be in fine condition to fight when the time comes. I don't believe in taking a man direct from an easy life and putting him into hard training. He should have some little time in which to build himself up. Jackson is confident about the result, but never boasts about anything. He will do his best with Slavin and is not afraid of the latter at all. He can easily get into good trim, and I want him to be in the very best

ONE FOR FOX.

He Defeats McEwen in the First of Their Swimming Races.

There was really an exciting swimming race at the Natatorium last evening between Joseph McEwen and J. P. Fox. As already stated they were matched to swim a series of three races for a prize and an outside bet by their friends. Last evening they swam 20 lengths of the pool, the distance being a quarter of a mile and 20 feet. The sporting editor of this paper was referee, and Messrs. McIver and Bruce lapkceper and timekeeper respectively. There was a large

The contestants made a good start, and Fox at once went slightly to the front. Both men swam in an excellent and plucky manner, being heartily urged on by their respective friends. Fox, who was swim-ming in lighter fashion than his opponent, gradually drew shead and won a most ninutes and 30 seconds.

The entries for the Futurity stakes, to be run at Gravesend during the autumn of 1894, will close on January 2 next. The Coney Island Jockey Club adds $17,500, and the stakes, it is estimated, will be worth $100,000. NEXT to the Connecticut Yankees the Can Next to the Connecticut Yankees the Canadians from Ontario take the bunnery. When asked the other day why such a name as Ted Gegg had been given a colt, the owner naively replied: "Why, its worth a couple of points in the betting. Homely horses are always associated with homely names in the fancy of the public."

The California colt Pescador, 2 years, by Gano-Ameda Howard, carried 105 pounds and beat a field in 1:20 2.5 at six and a half furlongs ten days ago at San Francisco. This beat Rinfax's record of 1:20½, with 106 pounds up, made in the matcu against Geraldine last April. Geraldine, however, subsequently beat Pescador's time.

No owners were heavy winners, on account of all the races being purses. Several boys rode well, notably Perkinson, Bryant and Hoggett, who tied for first honors, each winning 14 times. With this meeting the legitimate racing season in the West closed for 1891.

He promises to be in the finest possible trim for this engagement, for he realizes that the Englishman is a much better man than any he has tried thus far in his pugilistic career. The betting is 103 to 89 on Kelly at present. A DISPATCH from Chicago says: C. S. Fry and T. A. Tanqueray yesterday entered into the following agreement: Fry agrees to forfeit $1,000 to Tanqueray if he (Fry) cannot run 100 yards in ten seconds, and Tanqueray, on his part, agrees to forceit a similar amount if Fry can accomplish the task. A forfeit of $250 a side will be posted Tuesday next, and Fry will be given 30 days to train

Here are Billy Edwards' selections in the pugilistic events scheduled for the near future and for some which may be arranged: Carroll to beat Myer; Kelly to beat Plimmer; La Blance to beat Greggains; Sullivan to beat Slavin if they should be matched and John L. should be well; Slavin to beat Jackson or Corbett; Jackson to beat Corbett; Sullivan, Slavin, Jackson or Corbett to beat Maher.

BEFORE the Larkins-Griffin fight it was hinted that Paddy McBride, of Philadelphia, would be matched against the winner. McBride had a responsible backer then who would put up from $1,000 to $2,000. It is doubtful if McBride has him now, since Griffin polished off Larkins in such short order. New York and New Jersey sports thought Larkins was invincible. What will they think of Griffin?

BILLY Woods received $250 expense money before he left Denver for San Francisco, where he will go into training for his coming fight with Joe Chovnski. Billy and his friends are very confident that he will win, although they admit that he is going against a hard and clever fighter. In all Choynski's battles he has shown himself to be a game, clever and hard-hitting fighter, and if Woods defeats him he will have to make a remarkably clever fight.

Young Mitchell, who saw Slavin fight three times in Australia, one being a draw with Mike Costello, says: "Slavin is not in Sullivan's class. The latter is the cleverest and best of them all. As to Slavin, he is not a sparrer, nor does he pretend to be. He is essentially a fighter. He hits hard and depends upon his strength to win battles. Sullivan is fully as stiff a puncher, is more alert, has infinitely superior knowledge of the use of his hands, and is a far better general. Why shouldn't he 'do' Slavin?"

The backers of Chapnie Moran and Eddie

Why shouldn't he 'do' Slavin?"

The backers of Chappie Moran and Eddie Avery, the Brooklyn Spider, with the pugilists, met at the Police Gazette office yesterday and posted the second deposit in their match for a purse of $500 and $500 as side. Dave Thompson, of Brooklyn, put up the money for Avery and Billy Wilson did the same for Moran. The contest is to take place in December, and only a limited number of spectators will be allowed to be present. Avery has gone into training at Dempsey's old training quarters on Long Island, under the mentorship of Tom Meagher.

John L. Shluyan's offer to beln Paddy

JOHN L. SULLIVAN'S offer to help Paddy Byan with a benefit is likely to put the exchampion once more on his feet. Several prominent horse-men and other influential friends are managing the affair, which will take place the 28th. Sullivan will wind up with Byan in a four-round set-to, which, under the circumstances, will be a mild bout, unless Byan taps his old adversary too hard, and then—well, Paddy will be better able to explain afterward. Choyinski, Fitzsimmons, the "Black Pearl," Ed Benney, Con Riordan, Billy Smith and other celebrities will appear.

A NEW assirant for the welter-weight

Billy Smith and other celebrities will appear.

A New aspirant for the welter-weight championship of America has been found if W. L. Layton, of Roanoke, Va. He wants to fight Hite Peckham at 140 pounds. "If Peckham won't fight me," says Layton, "I'll go any of 'em for a purse. If there is no purse forthcoming I'll fight em for fun, because they may say I had no reputation. That's an old gag with fighters. But say, I beat 'Reddy' Gallagher in 17 rounds at Lima, O., Joe Tansey in three rounds at Birmingham, Ala., Frank Griffin, two rounds, Roanoke, Va., and fought George La Blanche to a draw in Bradford, Pa., Peckham's home, Layton has probably been dallying with a pipe.

the Movements of Boats. SEPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE DISPATCH. PARKERSBURG, Nov. 23.—The Onlo river tonight measures 8 feet 4 inches and rising fast.
Heavy rains and snow fell all day, accompanied by high winds. The little Kanawha is rising to the headwaters and a large river is expected sufficient to let out all the timber. The Heathering left this morning for Pittsburg with ties. The Hawk, which left for the South last Saturday, grounded
at Newburg and returned to-day, but left again tonight.

McKeesport Rivermen Happy. MCKEESPORT, Nov. 21.-The Monongahela river is rising rapidly, and there is a general hustling among rivermen and coal operators, getting ready for shipping a wast quantity of coal. Seventeen million bushels of coal are awaiting shipment, and the outlook is that the greater part of it will go out with the present rise.
