NEWST NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

SAVED FROM THE MORMONS.

A Lover Rescues an Unwilling Emigrant by Elopement and Marriage. PARKERSBURG, Nov. 26.—[Special.]—A number of Mormon elders have been in Boone, Raleigh and adjoining counties in this State making converts. Among those who had become believers was a family named Jarrod, one of the wealthiest in Boone county. Last night the east-bound train on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad brought four Mormon elders and the entire Jarrod family to Gwandsote, on their way to Utah. Mr. Jarrod sold all his possessions in this State. They remained in Gwandsote, waiting for a train which would take them to Kanawha and Boone counties. There was one member of the Jarrod family, however, who had not been converted. This was Miss Mildred Jarrod, a beautiful girl aged 19 years, who had a lover, A. L. Griffith, a young lumberman in this State. Although she begged piteously to be left behind, her father and mother were decided, and on the next train, which brought 20 or more converts, young Griffith arrived to capture his lady love, if possible. During the night she escaped from her father but was caught and brought back. Griffith brought with him four friends, and after vainly attempting to induce Mr. Jarrod to allow Griffith to see Mildred, a police officer was called to the aid of the father, and he gaining admission to the room Mildred was in, told her that Griffith was near and she could see him if she wished. Mr. Jarrod's Mormon elders were using all their persuasive powers to induce her to accompany them, but she decided to go. A few minutes later she fled, and she and Griffith were united in marriage. She is not being 21, license could not be secured in this State without her father's consent. They at once hired a buggy and drove to Ohio, where they were united in marriage. A few hours after their flight bearing the Mormon elders and their converts pulled out for Utah, leaving the young couple behind.

LEASES OBTAINED IN MANY COUNTIES.

They also obtained leases in Lewis, Gilmer, Clay, Boone, Doddridge, Calhoun, Ritchie and other counties in this State, and in Greene county, Pa., of all of which, according to Stevenson's claim, he and DeWitt were joint owners. A. L. Lewis, of Pittsburg, and Joe McDermott testified as to the cost of boring the wells. Then came the testimony of T. C. White, State Geologist. The professor said: The plaintiff (Stevenson) acted as a business agent for him as far back as 1886, but he had no other interest in the transactions than as agent. The business was purchased some time ago in the Philadelphia Gas Company, which he afterward sold, though a great deal of the stock remained in his name. At that time he was an employe of the Philadelphia and Norfolk Gas Company. He never gave any information that was not proper," said Prof. White. "On the contrary he refused me information regarding the presence of wells which I greatly desired to learn. Only as he was about to leave the company did I get an information regarding the presence, and then it was under the promise that I should never use it to the detriment of the company."

WORLD'S FAIR BOOMERS TO BE ABANDONED.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—[Special.]—The Commission to honor the World's Fair in Southwestern Europe has been appointed by Director General Davis. It consists of Vice President Thomas B. Bryan and Harlow N. Higginbotham, of Chicago, Thomas F. Bayard, of United States Senator, and National World's Fair Commissioner James Hodges, of Baltimore.

WHICH TIP A BIG SCHEME.

DEAR STEVENSON—Yours of 23d duly received. You ask my advice about changing your business. I want to get out of the Philadelphia deal first, for when you leave the company the pointers will stop and we will not have any inside track. I am hatching a scheme by which big money can be made, and you and I understand each other and can pull together. Working for others isn't the thing, especially if you have the brains. Think of the money I have put into Guffey's pocket this winter you seem so about the Philadelphia Company will be kept strictly confidential, so don't be uneasy about their getting on. Very truly yours, I. C. WHITE.

"AND DID YOU WRITE OR PRINT ON A TYPEWRITER TO THE PLAINTIFF AS FOLLOWS:"

DEAR STEVENSON—Yours received. If DeWitt, Gillespie, at all, and you pick up on this way and we will divert. Get as many that follows as you can on your string, and the geologist will make them happy (prospector). Before leaving the Philadelphia Company get all the information you can about their plans, records of wells made, etc., as we may want to sell them some gas territory, and keep a record of it. "I did you not on the 15th of February inscribe the paper with your own hand, West Virginia University, Classical, Scientific and Law Course," and did you not write as follows in February 15, 1886?"
