Taylor Will Contest Against Fox at the Natatorium General Sporting News of the Day.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27.—The football season of 1891 at the University of Pennsylvania is now a thing of the past. The team had a most successful season financially and in team standing. The game with Weslevan was a surprise to many, as Pennsylvania was expected to score 24 points at least. According to precedent this was Wesleyan's year to win, as each college has heretofore won alternately. Now that the season is over, there is nothing to do but make conjectures as to next year's team. Schoff the great end-rusher, who has been declared by competent judges to be one of the greatest ends in the country, was chosen captain for next year at the last meeting of the team, held at the Sturtevant House after the Wesleyan game on Wednesday. A Popular Toung Man.

He is very popular with the team, as was shown by his unanimous election on the first ballot. He is heavy, strong, and in every way qualified for the position, and the alumni and undergraduates are well llowing will now take the place of football, and the candidates for the 'Varsity crew will go on the machines at once. A very promising candidate is Wetherill, stroke of '94 college crew; A. L. Harris, '92, will stroke again this year, and Ellis M. Hawey, '93, medical, will again captain the crew and row number 5. Some of the other candidates are Church, '92, Captain of this year's football team; Thayer, '92, full back on the team; Schoff, '93, and Branson, '92. Ellis Ward will again train the crew. Rowing has been given a new lease of life at the 'Varsity on account of the Inter-Collegiate Rowing Association, the new organization. Yaic and Harvard have not joined vet, but it is thought they will later on. The University of Pennsylvanis was one of the prime mo. ers in organizing the

More Football Games.

The class football games will be played next week for the championship of the college. The outlook now is very bright for '52 college: '95 college will enter a heavy team, but they lack experience; '92 college and '94 college are about evenly matched. The games will be hotly contested, and whoever becomes custodian of the silver cap for this year will have had a hard fight for it. The "Mask and Wig," the dramatic organization of the University, which has ained such success in the last two years, has issued a circular requesting all those who wish to try for the cup to hand their names to the Secretary on Monday, Novemher 30. A preliminary play will be given, in which only new talent will be used, and the best will be chosen for the new play now being written by McMichael, '90, and and Neilson, '90, which will be given in conjunction with "Miss Columbia." Rehearsais will begin immediately.

M'CLUNG WELL PLEASED.

The Yale Cantain Thinks That Princeton Played a Great Game.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 .- A smile of happiness registed through the deposit of muc which coated the features of Captain Mc-Clung as he was carried to the dressing room of the team after the football game vesterday. And the reasons for his joy are parily expinined by a short conversation held with him while a brawny rubber was putting life into him. He said: Princeton men have reason to be proud of their team, and I think there is little doubt that they put up a more scientific and cleaner game than Harvard. I have not had time to realize that the months of training and planning are over. For the men who have worked so devotedly to play football for old Yale I am very glad that they can go out of training under the most joyful of circum-

None of the directors could be seen las evening to confirm or deny the above; but it is likely that one or more new players may be heard from to-day, as the wires were put into operation last evening.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 27 .- Fritz Pfeffer is here after "Pete" Browning and "Red" Ehret, but so far has not been successful. Ehret has promised to go to the Cleveland League club. Pfeffer left to-night for St Louis, where he goes to make a trade with Von der Ahe for Fuiler and Lyons. In speaking of the matter Madden said: "I will make the match for a purse of $5,000 a side and the best purse to be offered by an athletic club, the contest to be decided under Loudon prize ring rules. I prefer the latter rules, because I think they will be the fairest for the men to fight under, and neither man will have an advantage

W. C. Daly offered B. Bradley $5,500 for the 2-year-old colt Blitzen yesterday at Gutten-burg. The offer was refused. Mr. McCornick, the owner of the pacer Dallas, remarked that his horse will be in great shape next season if all goes well. THE unexpected closing of the season at Nashville has disgusted many horsemen, who expected the racing to last at least un-til Christmas.

MONROE SALISBURY, owner of the Pleasanton Stock Farm, Cal., and the level-headed little pacer, Direct, 2:06, says that he intends to breed a two-ninute harness horse through the son of Director.

It is easy to make many Guttenburg book-makers "rub." Frequently $5 or less causes them to grip their sponges and use them vigorously in lowering the odds or wiping them off their slates entirely. THE Executive Committee of the Washington Jookey Club declined to ratify the lease of the race course at Bennings, made by a sub-committee to the Gloucester Club, and the Gloucester is left out in the cold.

Two young women at Guttenburg Tuesday intrusted a small amount of money with a stranger to invest for them. The stranger did not return. The women complained, and an everyday visitor to the track was accused of being the culprit and taken before the Executive Committee. He was very indignant, and claimed to be the cashier of a hotel. The women were pretty sure the right man had been caught, but the evidence was not conclusive, and the verdict finally was in favor of the "cashier," who was allowed to go.

Enoch Ardenism and Breach of Pro-Figure in a Cincinnati Case. CINCINNATI, Nov. 27 .- The preliminary steps have been taken in a suit that has created a great sensation. The principals are Charles O. Hall, of the Hall Safe and Lock Company, and Ada Belle Anderson-Hall, daughter of a Baptist clergyman, of Iowa. The latter's story is that after returning from Europe she met and married newspaper man, whose name she does not wish to divulge. They separated after a year, and a month later she read a notice of his death. A year later she met Mr. Hall, and was secretly married to him in Chicago, in the presence of friends of both, and came with him to this city, though at his request the marriage was kept a secret here.

Several months ago she was horrified to find that her first husband was still alive, and she quietly obtained a divorce. Hall heard of it, and, being free, declined to remarry her, though he still supported her. In the meantime Mr. Hall has become enraged to a belle in Utica, N. Y. Yesterday he was practically sued for breach of promise by Mrs. Anderson-Hall, but was riven until noon Saturday to accept certain propositions. Mr. Hall admits riage, but says that being now free he does not desire to remarry the lady, but will pay er reasonable damages. No one suspec that Mr. Hall was a married man.

Two Booms That Vanished. Ivanhoe people are disappointed. A few days ago it was stated that a glass manufacturing company had purchased ground from Wood, Harmon & Co., and intended the erection of a factory at once. Wood, Haron & Co. stated that they wished it was so, but that they knew nothing of the mat ter. Doubtless the site will be utilized ere long. There was talk of a distillery being started just east of Ivanhoe, but nothing has been heard of the project lately.

Allegheny County Farmers Bite on the Old Promissory Note Scheme. Some people in the southwestern portion of this county are at present disposed to say with the Psalmist, and not only in haste but at leisure, that if not all men are liars a wonderable percentage are. SIR EDWIN ARNOLD contributes a pretbills of fruit and shade trees to a number of farmers, among others Samuel Groom and Nicholas Nolte. He took their notes for a year promising that they should have three years time if they wished at 3 per cent annual interest, but the rate was not medified on the note. As prices were as cheap as those of nurserymen generally and interest low the inducement to buy was strong and the man met with great succ The year expired a few weeks ago and the debtors were astonished on learning that the till seller had discounted the notes in a bank in Erie, and on a basis of 6 per cent interest. Nolte's is $350, so that he will be out $31 50 if he cannot bring the agent to time, and Mr. Groom seems to think there is small chance of doing so. The dodge enabled the seller to dispose of many more trees than he would otherwise have been able to do, but he has killed his field of operations in that section, and some patrons are put to great inconvenience by being forced to raise the money two rears sooner than they had calculated Some of the victims are comforting themselves with the reflection that the Pyth-agorean philosophy of a future state has never been disproven, and that when rein-carnated they may be able to witness the tonement of the man who has done them up.
