HEYDRICK SUCCEEDS CLARK.

THE STATE SUPREME BENCH FILLED BY THE GOVERNOR.

Venango County Gets the Appointment—A Prominent Out Country Lawyer Named Late Last Evening, The New Judge a Democrat, Was Named.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—[Special.]—1:30 A. M.—The Governor has appointed C. Heydrick, Esq., of Franklin, Venango county, as Judge of the Supreme Court, vice Hon. Silas M. Clark, deceased.

Charles E. Heydrick is a leading lawyer of large and intricate practice in the oil region counties of Venango, Warren, Crawford and Erie. He is a member of the Venango county bar, a resident of Franklin, and has been in active practice for a period of 30 years, being intimately identified with the peculiar character of cases and causes due to oil region operations and properties.

Mr. Heydrick has been associated with a number of the leading cases before the Supreme Court, in recent years. He is a Democrat, but not of the partisan stripe. As a citizen he has been ever foremost in public enterprises and progress. As a lawyer he has a wide reputation for presenting case and argument in clear, concise and comprehensive terms.

A meeting of the Venango county bar was held yesterday afternoon, at which a resolution unanimously indorsing Mr. Heydrick for the seat on the Supreme Bench made vacant by the death of Justice Clark was passed.

THREATENED WITH LYNCHING.

THE KIDNAPERS OF THE BEALS CHILD IN DANGER.

They Are Removed by the Back Way in Time to Prevent the Accomplishment of the Deed—King's Complicity Is Denied.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 20.—[Special.]—The mysterious King, alias Dennis, alias Spiole, who, it is said, returned the kidnaped child of Banker Beals, arrested at 4 o'clock this morning, King and his wife, Lizzie King, alias Lizzie Smith, were brought before Justice Worthen this morning and charged with abduction of the son of David T. Beals, David T. Beals, Jr. They pleaded not guilty to the charge. Their bond was fixed at $3,000 for Albert King and $3,000 for Mrs. King. They could not give bond and they were committed to the county jail. Their case is set for next Wednesday.

George D. Ford, who was present when Mr. Beals paid the $5,000 ransom to the unknown man for the return of the boy, called at the jail today to see the king. He said the alleged confederate of Lizzie Smith, was the man who had brought back the boy. He took a long look at him and was positive beyond all doubts that King was not the man whom the $5,000 ransom was paid. Mr. Ford and Mr. Beals were the only persons who were present at the conference. They refused by reason of the terms of the agreement in the offer to pay the ransom, to give any information to the police. Several other arrests were made, but no one was held, each being able to prove his innocence.

Public indignation over the crime has been raised to the highest pitch. A mob at 8 o'clock this evening began to gather around the jail where the two prisoners were confined and the mob was manifestly so ugly and its purpose so apparent that the police considered it prudent to remove the kidnapers out of town. Accordingly they were spirited out of the back entrance and were driven in a carriage to Independence, a suburb of this place. When the mob learned that the prisoners had been removed, the mob dispersed. There is no doubt that an attempt at least would have been made to lynch the kidnapers but for precautions taken by the police.

CONVICTS TO BE RETURNED.

Tennessee's Prison Board Decides to Send Them Back to the Mines.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 20.—The Board of Prison Inspectors held a consultation today lasting several hours. They discussed the convicts who are being sent back to the mines with a view of arriving at some definite conclusion as to when the convicts will be sent back to Coal Creek and Briceville. The lesses of the convicts are very anxious to re-establish the prison at Briceville.

The meeting being private, members of the press were excluded, but all of the gentlemen in the conference stated that the inspectors had agreed that the convicts who were released from Coal Creek and Briceville to these two places, the order in general terms, they said, is to send them to the mines. It was noted that it puts no restrictions on the lesses nor does it fix the time when the convicts shall be returned.

JACOB A. PHILLIPS DROPS DEAD.

Heart Disease Carries Off One of Pittsburgh's Prominent Merchants.

Jacob A. Phillips, of the firm of Eisner & Phillips, dropped dead at 12:30 o'clock this morning at his home, 138 Center avenue. About midnight he left his store at the corner of Fifth avenue and Wood street, and after a short time started for his home. He arrived there at 12:30 o'clock and a few minutes after fell down and expired. The cause was presumably heart disease.

He had suffered from a severe cold for a week past, but it is not suspected that this was a cause that led to his death. He was 40 years old and unmarried. He was one of the best known business men of the city, and had been connected with the clothing firm of Eisner & Phillips for many years.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—A conference of great importance to the future of Pittsburgh's street railway systems was held at the residence of John G. Johnson, No. 506 South Broad street, this afternoon and evening. There were present Messrs. C. L. Magee, J. O. Brown, Senator William F. Flinn, the Hon. M. A. Egan, Esq., of Pittsburgh, representing the Duquesne Traction Company of that city, and Messrs. W. L. Elkins, P. A. B. Widener and J. G. Johnson, Esq., of this city, representing the Pittsburgh Traction Company, a rival line.

In the conference it was decided to equalize the rates of fare, and come down to a basis of 5 cents, which practically means a consolidation. Beginning December 1 the Pittsburgh Traction Company will increase the fare on their line to 5 cents, and the Duquesne will maintain the same rate. An exchange or transfer system will be put in operation, by which passengers from the western or lower part of the city will be carried to Wilkensburg, in the eastern end, for 7 cents.

Certain privileges are reserved by the rival managements, but it is understood that the practical management of the Duquesne line will pass into the hands of Colonel George Elkins, President of the Pittsburgh Traction Company, on December 1.

Silent on the Financial Basis.

There are several points agreed to in the conference of which neither side would talk, particularly the financial basis under which the two companies will operate, but it is intimated that the Pittsburgh people got all they asked for. C. L. Magee did not return to the Stratford Hotel, where he makes his headquarters, until after midnight. Senator Flinn and Mr. McKee kept him company. Mr. Magee, when asked for particulars concerning the conference, said:

"There is nothing much to say, except that the Pittsburgh Traction has agreed to our terms and their 3-cent fare meets our common 5-cent rate."

"I don't know the Pittsburgh Traction did not swallow the terms," Mr. Magee said.

"Hardly. How's that, Flinn?" said Magee to the senator, who stood near his listening. "I should say not," he added. "Swallow the Duquesne? That's just like a joke, isn't it?"

Mr. Magee thought it was, and the party broke away for the night. The Duquesne Traction has won a big victory, according to the gossip heard here, by their agreement with the rival company, and it may be enforced on Magee's terms.

A Hitch That Didn't Occur.

It was rumored in this city yesterday that a hitch had occurred in the deal at Philadelphia and that Messrs. Magee, Flinn and Brown had gone down to assist in the negotiations. They had, however, returned to Philadelphia on the 1:20 train yesterday morning after receiving a telegram from Charles McKee, Esq., attorney for the Duquesne, who had preceded them by several days, and, it was understood, had power to close the deal on the terms of the agreement.

The change of the tracks which will form a connection between the Duquesne and the Fifth avenue line at the corner of Fifth and Sneyd avenues is progressing rapidly and is expected to be ready for operation by the transfer system Wednesday morning.

Five Huge Concerns Organize a Spruce Timber Syndicate.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Nov. 20.—[Special.]—One of the largest syndicates ever organized for the importation of spruce timber from Canada for pulp mills has been formed by five of the largest pulp concerns in this State and Canada. A meeting was held in Toronto, this week, when the preliminaries were arranged. The firms in the deal are the Detroit Sulphite Paper and Pulp Company, of Detroit; the Rochester Paper Company, the Riordan Wood Paper and Pulp Company, of Merrittton, Ont.; the Cascade Paper and Pulp Company, of Niagara Falls; and the Lockport Pulp Company, of Lockport. The company was organized under the name of the American Wood Pulp and Paper Company, of Canada, with a capital stock of $300,000, at first, under an old charter Mr. Riordan held, which permitted the company to supply all kinds of a company except to build railroads or start a bank. Several days after the organization was perfected it was found that the charter had lapsed. This caused a change in matters, and at a subsequent meeting it was decided to increase the capital stock to $1,000,000 and obtain a new charter.

The incorporated name of the company will be shortened, and officers will be elected at a meeting called for December 1 at the Hotel Duquesne. The interest represented in this big syndicate are enormous. The output of the mills alone of the five companies will probably be 100 tons of dry pulp weekly, which will supply all the requirements of the pulp mills in the East and Canada.
