Rev. John Whitehead Explains Woman's Mission in This Life.

A PASTOR'S LIBERAL VIEW OF SIN.

The Wilkinsburg Y. M. C. A. Celebrates Its Second Anniversary.

Rev. John Whitehead gave the second sermon of the course on "Marriage" at the New Church, Isabella and Sandusky streets, Allegheny. He said: "The Word of the Lord is given to teach us of spiritual things; and to convey these to us it contains a spiritual sense within a literal sense. The first chapter of Genesis, in the spiritual sense, treats of the new creation, or the regeneration of man, showing how from natural he is made spiritual. The second chapter treats of his intelligence and wisdom. The Garden of Eden, with its trees, etc., represents that intelligence and wisdom. Referring to his first discourse, he said that man was created male and female, the male be ing born to become intellectual, or a form of the understanding, and the female to become voluntary, or a form of the will. From the exercise of his love of knowing, understanding and growing wise, he acquires knowledge, intelligence and wisdom. He also has a corresponding natural love which is the love of acquiring wealth, possessions, etc., in the world. When he has sequired these, a secondary love is formed, which is the love of his own wisdom, or, in other words, the pride of his own intelligence, and on the natural plane the pride of wealth and possessions.

Secret of Woman's Mission.

"This secondary love, as it exists in the man, is an evil love, because it partakes in great measure of the love of self and the world, and it has in it pride, conceit, contempt of others, and many other evils. If man remains in this love it will destroy his spiritual life, and therefore the Lord provides for its removal from the man, which removal is meant by the words: Jehovah God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept, and He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof. And Jehovah God built the rib which He

'Man's love of his own wisdom is called a rib, for this love in man has little or no spirital life; it is like a dry bone; but man is formed by the Lord to be the love of the man's wisdom, and in her this love is vivilied or made alive by the Lord. It is no longer in her a selfish love, full of conceit, pride and unlovely qualities in gen-eral; but it is transformed into everything that is of feminine loveliness, beauty and Transmission of God's Love.

"The Lord's love is a love of those who are out of Himself. He is entirely unselfish. Man, to be an image of God, must love that which is out of himself. If he loves himself, and is in the concell and pride of his own intelligence, he dotroys the image of God in himself. But the Lord, to preserve man's integrity, transfers this to the wife and transforms its nature, for in her the is the true womanly feeling, and the Lord, in a true marriage, gradually forms her into this love of her husband. The rib taken out of the man is spiritually built into a beautiful and lovely woman. As woman receives intellectual things through onjunction with man, so man receives all delights and happiness of conjugal life from the Lord throug the wife. It is only v the reciprocal giving and receiving o each other's qualities that a true heavenly union is formed and the two minds are formed into one mind or one flesh.

SERVING A MEAN MASTER. What Rev. O. B. Miffigan Thinks of a Man

Without a God. Rev. O. B. Milligan preached on "The Wise Choice," at the Highland Avenue U. P. Church last night. His text was taken from the life of Joshua and his final address to the children of Israel. The preacher explained by giving Joshun's experience with the Children of Isrnel, why he had found it necessary to impress upon them the importance of choosing the living God. He said: You may say, If I don't worship God am I therefore worshiping idols? Not necessarily worshiping idols, but you are wordriping another if it should be e serves no god, but of all the gods in the calendar, the 'no god' is the meanest and out twenmical There is no sect to-day so bigoted and sectarian as the belever in 'no god.' Even if he acknowl-

ter, and he must serve him, whether he

The outcome of all this serving of aner than the living and true God, whether it be a stick, or a stone, or an idea, or a roun, even self, is to land at last with the devil and his angels. This therefore is a certainty-by your very nature you cannot escame lovalty to something. It may be must, and will, and do recognize something as your choice in the matter of a god to fol-low. God shows clearly that if a man is not for Him, he is against Him. No inter-mediate position is possible,"

PRESBYTERY MEETS TO-MORROW.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School Will Convene This Afternoon

The Presbytery of Pittsburg meets in the Sixth Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock and will probably continue for two or three days, as there is a large amount of business to come up.

This afternoon and evening at the same church the Presbyterian Sabbath School Association will hold an institute under care of the Presbytery. Charles H. Shinkle will conduct the opening exercises at 2:30 after which Rev. C. W. Wwcoff will talk about "How Can the Association Help the Sabbath School Under Its Care" Dr. John L. Ferson will dis-cuss "The Library;" W. H. McConnell, "The Primary School," and F. L. Fulwood, Preparation and Teaching. The afterences between pastors and superintendents and between primary teachers, At 5:30 a lunch will be served. The evening service will be opened at 7 o'clock by Rev. J. B. Hill, and at 7:30 Rev. A. N. Carson, D.D., will dis-"Conditions of Successful Teaching. Nov. O. A. Stewart will follow on wher and His Work," and the institute Il close with a brief general discussion of interesting topics to Sunday school workers.

Wilkinsburg Y. M.C. A. Anniversary. The second anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Association, of Wilkins burg, was celebrated last evening in the First Presbyterian Church of that place. The exercises were attended by members from nearly all the churches in Wilkinsborr and was therefore somewhat of a union meeting. The services were opened with the voluntary, sung by the choir. Rev. J. S. Freeman followed with the invocation mi Rev. James Meachem and Rev. S. H. ere offered prayer. Mr. T. F. Bailey President of the Association, read the yearly report, which was very satisfactory ddresses were delivered by Mr. H. Kirke, orter, of Pittsburg and Prof. J.Q.A. Irwin of Elua, Rev. M. M. Patterson, paster of the First Church, brought the exercise to a close with the benediction. The association, though comparatively still young, bas a large

A TALK ON TRANSFORMATION.

Rev. S. W. McCorkle's Interesting Talk God's Power to Save. Rev. S. W. McCorkle preached at the First Congregational Church, on Manhattar and Franklin streets, yesterday, his subject being "Transformation." His text called first for the consideration of the material to be transformed by the gospel of the grace of PRESETTERY MEETS HERE TO-MORROW God. He said:

"The field of its operations is the family of man. Angels in heaven don't need it, fallen angels are beyond its reach. Every generation has had its vices. We cannot take a photograph of the human heart without the constraining and transforming influences of the gospel. It further shows the depth to which humanity has sunk by its religious history. Take the Ammonites, for instance, or the Egyptians, who worshipped everything from a snail to an elephant; the Druids, who could not old a service without sacrificing human life; the Mendi people, who, when a great chief died, 30 soldiers were killed as a sacrifice offering, and 30 maidens who knelt about the coffin were slain to satisfy the beliefs of the people. It further proves that sincere belief in God makes it possible in cases which are far gone in vice to be trans-

Mr. McCorkle did not approve of the Salvation Army's demonstrative methods as practiced by General Booth in London. He was, however, glad to see the transforma-tion in the "Lower Tenth," the class of people who the army is endeavoring to aid in many ways.

He compared the great deserts of the West with their sterile and worthless waste of land to the sinner. Speaking of an agency from God, he said that it was useless to have an agency, but God himself is at work, because he is the center, life and motive power of it all.

CONSCIENCE AS A GUIDE.

Rev. A. A. Mealy, at the Central Presby-terian Church, preached last evening on the "Pleasures of Sin." He said: "Sin gives man pleasure, but it is not enduring. There is no use denying that sin gives pleasure. Unless it did man would not commit sin. But we have only three score and ten years of life, and what is that compared with eter-

"If it were not for the hereafter I would say to man, go ahead and sin. It would only be in reason for him to do so. I do not call attention to cardplaying, theater going or dancing. I think those matters should be left to man's conscience. I only wish to teach how to lead moral lives. If people do not steal, do not lie and do not commit other flagrant of-fenses, and live according to the dictates of their consciences, I have nothing to say on those other matters."

NOW HAVE AN EVEN HUNDRED. Philanthropic Objects of the Bi-Chloride of Gold Club. The Pittsburg Bi-Chloride of Gold Club, at its meeting held yesterday afternoon, at 3811 Fifth avenue, registered its one hundradth member. News was received from the Bi-Chloride of Gold Club of the World, with headquarters at Chicago, that the Pittsburg club would be recognized as Auxilary No. 1. Auxilary No. 1.

The club is composed of "graduates" of the Pittsburg Keeley Institute or those who have completed a course of treatment in that institution and received a cure of the drink habit or disease, and they are held in membership so long as they do not relapse into their old ways. Thus far the name of not a single member of the club has been stricken from the rolls.

Regular meetings are held at 3 o'clock
P. M., on the first Sunday of each month, but there is found in the lively interest of the club, urgent reason for the holding of special meetings upon every Sunday. The first annual meeting is to be held on the second Sunday in December. Among the objects of the Bi-Chloride Gold Club, is the furtherance of a plan by which the Keeley cure can be extended to deserving men who may need temporary

The club is about to establish a library. for which the nucleus is already assured in the gift of $150 by an anonymous benefactor. Doubtless other donations, both of money and books, will be received from various quarters as the good objects of the club and its manner of carrying them out become better known to the public.

STENGER EXPECTED IT

Outcome of the Election No Surprise to the Philadelphian.

NOT A HOPE FOR PATTISON'S BOOM.

He Says That Harrity Barred Him Out of the Convention.

DOUBTS ABOUT GROVER'S STRENGTH

William S. Stenger, of Philadelphia formerly Secretary of the Commonwealth during Pattison's first term, registered a the Duquesne yesterday. Mr. Stenger is now devoting his time exclusively to law and leaving politics along. He came here to attend to some legal business. He is not in line with the Harrity-Hensel combination, in control of Democratic polities in the State, and he reviews the result of the late election with grim satisfaction. Last summer Mr. Stenger was elected a delegate to the State Convention, but his seat was contested and he did not appear at Har risburg. He said those in power had affaire so arranged that they could have gotten rid of him without much effort, and there was nothing to be gained by kicking up a row. "We were put in the light of contestants," he remarked, "and had no favors to expect. Why Stenger Was Barred Out. Harrity, however, was looking for Stenger, and about that time he was shaping the Pattison Presidental boom. His plans were laid to defeat Stenger before the Committee on Credentials to prevent him from appearing on the floor of the convention. The ex-Secretary is a fiery talker, and would have created a breeze, if allowed to take his sent. His aim was to kill off Pattison's Presidental aspirations.

"Was the outcome of the election a surprise to you?" was asked Mr. Stenger.

"No," he replied. "I expected such a result in Philadelphia, at least, but wasn't prepared for the slaves in the State. In prepared for the slump in the State. In Philadelphia the Democratic managers have nobody to blame but themselves. They made the Republican victory possible. The made the Republican victory possible. The course of the administration stirred up the Republicans, and they got out a full vote. The Democrats didn't begin to poll their complete strength."

"Is the Governor still working for the support of the Pennsylvania delegation?"

"I don't know about that, I am sure. There is a general impression since the election that his Presidental boom has flattened out considerably. I was very much pleased with the showing of Campbell in Ohio. I regard him as one of the ablest Democrats in the country. He discussed Democrats in the country. He discussed the issues from a practical point of view, and had a marvelous knowledge of tariff details. In Philadelphia we are talking of choosing our national delegates for next year, but we are all at sea. Will Figure in the Coming Contest. "I expect to take some interest in the coming Presidental contest, but I am not prepared to say what candidate I will support. Outside of New York no other Democrat is so strong before the country as Cleveland, but I doubt whether he can carry his own State. He is not in harmony with all the leaders there, and the Democratic nominee must win out in New York. I think Hill has a good grip on the machine, but he doesn't stand so well with the people at large. Gorman is a Maryland man, but that wouldn't have any effect on Northern Democrats. His record has always been good.

During the war he supported the Union. If Governor Campbell had beaten McKinley, he would be a strong candidate. I don't believe the party can afford to nominate a man unless he is sure to carry his own State. Until I study the situation a little more I don't know what to do."

Mr. Stenger doesn't think, if Mills is elected Speaker that his extreme tariff views will injure the party in 1892. He says no man can be a free trader as long as so much money is needed to sup-port the Government. It requires $1,000,000

ooth Gentleman Worked a S How a Su side Glassblower

Walker Wilson, a well-known glassblower, of Elliot street, West End, was robbed of all his clothing and valuables by a confidence man early yesterday morning. Saturday evening Wilson was in town spending the evening, and while drinking in a Smithfield street saloon was approach by a well-dressed young man, who told Wilson several hard luck stories about losing all his money and burying his mother with the last he had. This softened the glassblower's heart and he immediately gave the unknown several dollars.

They then proceeded from one saloon to another until 12 o'clock, when Wilson invited his new friend to accompany him to his home in the West End for the night. They slept together, and when Wilson awoke about noon Sunday he found his awoke about noon Sunday he found his friend had skipped out with everything he could lay his hands on. A gold watch and chain, valued at $75, his suit of clothes, overcoat, shoes, a diamond pin, cuff buttons and about $25 were gone. Wilson notified the police at the Thirty-sixth ward station and gave them a description of the man. He places the value of the goods at $250,
