BLUE FOR THE BEARS.

The Monthly Oil Report for November Shows a General Decline.

NEW PRODUCTION FALLING OFF.

One Fifth Sand Well Reported on the James McGregor Farm.

SEVERAL BITS ARE ON TOP OF THE SAND

The field work and its results for the month of November should encourage the bulls. A comparison with the work done in October shows an increase of one in the number of completed wells, with an increase of 24 in the number of dry holes, and a total decrease in new production of 16,007 barrels. The average number of barrels to the well has fallen from 201 in October to 185 in November. There has been a decided change in the McDonald field. The last day of October the estimated production of the McDonald pool was about 75,000 barrels, and yesterday it was 55,000. There was an increase of 12 in the number of completed wells in November in the southwest and a decrease of 17,089 barrels in new production. Only 29 dry holes were completed, as against 31 in October. In the southwest there has been a decrease of 24 in drilling wells, and a decrease of 8 in rigs. Outside of the southwest Butler and Armstrong show the greatest change. There were four more wells completed than in October and an increase of 438 harrels in new production, and the dry holes went up from 6 to 11.

One Fifth Sander Vesterday. There was only one fifth sand well re-ported yesterday from the McDonald-Mc Curdy field. It belongs to the Forest Oil Company and is located on the James Mc-Gregory farm north of Oakdale about a mile and a half. A late dispatch from the field last night placed it at 40 barrels an hour. This farm is located yout west of the Moore farm and southwest of the Thomas Wright heirs' property, on which the same company completed a good well a ccuple of months ago. The same company's No. 9, on the Leonard Shaffer fue west, is almost through the fifth sand. The fifth sand to make a showing. The fifth sand to make a showing. The Western Prospector With a Scheme That Outdoes Col. Sellers. HIS HIDDEN SEA OF GOLD DUST. Wants a Substantial Company to Develop the Rich Find.

THE SCHEME PORTRAYED ON PARCHMENT

Samuel Trumbull, a young Western prospector and miner, arrived in Pittsburg re-cently and is stopping at the Arthur Hotel, on Twenty-seventh street, Southside. Mr. Trumbull has a glowing, cheerful way about him, and he has an unworked scheme, before which Colonel Mulberry Sellers' railroad to the moon pales into insignificance. Mr. Trumbull sees almost within his reach more money than would pay the national debt, and he has more childlike confidence than can be found at an ordinary Democratic convention.

On a piece of heavy parchment, in all the colors of the rainbow, Mr. Trumbull has painted his project, and all he wants.now is company, financially substantial, to aid him in its development. The scheme on paper was developed to a DISPATCH renorter yesterday. The story of the rich find is interesting.

"I am a miner, plain and simple," Mr. Trumbull said. "I have worked claims in California and every gold-producing State in the Union, but I have struck it rich at last. What I now want is to keep on the inside and not get the worst of it, as the miner usually does."

Then Mr. Trumbull unrolled his parchment. It looked a landscape from an old master.

There's Millions in It!

"There's my scheme, sir," he said, and he threw himself back into his chair with the air of a Mackey or a Jones. "You see those snow-clad mountains? They are the Rockies. Here," pointing to a brown bulge on the parchment, "is a valley. At one time this was a sea of lava. After it baked hard it was a sea of lava. After it baked hard it bulged up, leaving a hollow space beneath. In that hollow space is a world of gold dust. Why, my friend," he went on with some enthusiasm, "there is this minute more gold there than there is in the national treasury. It is simply inexhaustible. I tell you the wealth of a world is buried there, and it is ours if we go after it."

"How do you propose reaching it?" was asked.

"Ah, that's the scheme. See," he said, "Ah, that's the scheme. See," he said, pointing to a sort of a tower painted red, and placed with an artist's skill on the summit of the brown bulge on the parch-ment. From the tower down through the bulge or upheaval, to the bottom of the painting where gold dust was liberally sprinkled on the parchment a red line ex-tended. "That is supposed to be a pump-ing station, and the red line extending down through the heavy crust to the hollow space represents the hole to be drilled. It is 1,000 feet from the surface to the hollow space represents the hole to be drilled. It is 1,000 feet from the surface to the hollow space, I propose to drill through, place my pump at the bottom and force the gold dust to the surface. All I want is $40,000 or $50,000 to do the drilling, I will take all the chances. I will be the first to go down into the hole, and I will guarantee to make a millionaire out of any one who will help me out.

millionaire out of any one who which here here out. "Where is this place?" was asked. "I am keeping that quiet, but if you can help me any I don't mind giving the snap away. It is in Montana. It is in a canyon in the Rockies, and is just 100 miles north-west of Helena. Here," he said, pointing to the right of the picture, "a herd of wild horses stay.

fearfully nervous, week, dizzy, faint and ex-hausted from nervous prostration, until I became entirely helpless. Thanks to Dr. Greene's Nervara, I am now so well and strong that every one who sees me is very much surprised. I would like to tell the whole world of women what Dr. Greene's Nervura has done for me, and to recommend all women to use this wonderful medicine. "I am a nurse, and when nursing my sister I gave her Dr. Greene's Nervurs. She says she has never felt better than since using it. I gave it also to a lady suffering from great nervous prostration, who could not get help from three physicians. She is now well, strong and fleshy, and says she should have been in her grave if it had not been for Dr. Greene's Nervura. I hear this wonderful medicine named and blessed everywhere, and I am giad to add my testimony to its great value, and truly call it a savior of us

Yesterday's Market Features

Yesterday's Market Features. Bosiness was light and the range of fluctu-ations narrow, as usual at the period for changing the option. Switching was 15/c. News from the field was a little more bull-ish. The opening, lowest and closing for December was 58c. The highest was 55% of For January 50% was bid. Daily average runs, 123 741; daily average shipments, 80,530. OIL CITY, NOV. 30.—National Transit cer-tificates opened at 55%, highest, 55% of lowest, 57% of closed at 57% of barrels. We made the first announcement on Sunday and since then we've had one endless stream of people calling at our store, one and all amazed at the wonderful bargains. We bought $40,000 worth of the finest overcosts—in other words, we closed out the entire overcost stock of a prominent New York manufacturer at a big sacrifice. We now turn around and offer it at 40 cents on the dollar to the people of this vicinity. We take no greater delight than in giving our customers bargains. We now have the chance. To day our store has supplied hundreds of people with overcoats, and saved shrewd buyers thousands of dollars. Save money. Come to us for you overcoat. The P. C. C. C. Now has the privilege of offering to the people of Pittsburg the most wonderful values in high-class clothing they ever beheld. We divided the $40,000 purchase for your convenience into four bargain lots, as follows:
$15,000 worth to choose from at $8 for any overcoat or suit—such as usally sell at $16 to $18. Fine chinchillas, long ulsters and 18 styles of kerseys; also, beavers and ribbed casimeres. Choice of the above lot at $8 for any man's overcoat or suit today. Wednesday and Thursday.
$10,000 worth of very superior overcoats and ribbed regine prior for the rest of the above lot at $8 for any man's overcoat or suit today. Wednesday and Thursday.

THE biggest and quickest overcoat sale on record is now in progress at Kanfmanns'.

"Behind that snow-topped peak the biggest and boldest band of horse thieves known to the boundless West are in hiding. Off to the right, where the horses stay, is a vast tract of unclaimed land, and the is a vast tract of unclaimed land, and the herd of horses roam at their own sweet will, and probably many of them have never seen a living being. To the left here is Snake river. This river bursts out from under the hard-baked lava and carries out great quantities of gold. This gold is caught by dippers, but it is of an inferior quality, and only proves my position that there is still a rich mint in that hollow space." As Mr. Trumbull told his story one could almost see the great see of gold dust, hear almost see the great sea of gold dust, hear the clatter of the wild horses rushing in confusion through their unlimited pasture, and see the daring horse thieves stealing their way through the rugged mountain pass to their rendezvous. "Oh, it's a great scheme," the miner con-eluded, "and I want to give Pittsburg capitalists a chance at it."

STOP that cough. It is a danger signal. Piso's Cure for Consumption never fails. Pleasant to take. All druggists. 25 cents.

CAN it be done? Yesterday's sales show that it can. Ninety thousand dollars' worth of overcoats, bought by Kaufmanns' for $57,000, to be closed out to the people of Pittaburg this week for $60,000, is the great ARE WE problem to be solved this week.
