Ino Old Players May Rejoin Tales Feetball Team-General Sporting News of the Day.

There was, indeed, plenty of sport and fun at the Linden Club House last evening. The second three matches of the bowling tourney took place there and the audience was not only a fashionable one but very large. Fully 50 per cent of the crowd were ladies and they enjoyed the fun immensely. How they applauded as strike after strike was made, and it was interesting to note that the fair portion of the audience had their Invorites.

To say that the Landen Clubbouse is an elegant one is a very mild way of praising it. It is just as handsome inside as it is cozy, and it is evidently well looked after. The bowling alleys are excellent and the bowling on them last evening was very good indeed, and the result was pleasing to a large number of people, as it will keep the cup from absolute possession for some time longer. The condition of the tourney is that the same club shall win three successive contests before it can own the cup. Bellefield won the first, and last evening Linden was the victor.

The Linden team really rolled in good style, and McClintock was particularly in good form. His strikes and spares did good service. Wainwright, for Bellefield, was not in his best form after the first match, and, in fact, almost all the players fell off considerably before the third match was finished. In the first match Wainwright had no less than eight strikes and one spare and Black had seven strikes. The East End Gyms are not as formida-ble as bowlers as they are in other branches of sport, but with practice they will proba-bly come out all right. The next series of matches will take place at Bellefield Mon-day night a week, when the Gyms expect to have their forces in line to win. Following are the scores of last evening's game;

THE PRICE OF YACRTS.

A Great Shrinkage in the Value of the BOSTON, Nov. 30.—[Special.]—The public have but little idea of the shrinkage in the price of yachts from one year to another. The falling off is greater in England than in this country. The catboats and the 30footers hold better prices than any other and the loss on a 30-footer is not over $700 on a total cost of about $3,500. The 40footers originally cost close on to $8,000. and many of them have been sold for an average of $4,500.

The Marguerite sold for $4,500, and she was a good boat. The Minerva cost $7,000, and she can be bought for less than $4,500. The 46-footers cost over $11,000, and it will he hard work to get $8,000 for them. As the size of the boats increase the falling off becomes greater, and a 53-footer like the Clara, with two suits of sails, and built originally for over $12,000, was sold last year for just half that sum.

The big schooners show a great reduction. Good ones can be bought for reasonable sums on the other side, and the same can be said of all kinds of yachts. The market is overcrowded over there, and the different yachting agencies have hundreds of boats on their lists. The loss on the original costs was very greats on the schooners Am-bassadress, Alert and Constellation—in fact, a small-sized fortune has been lost on each

Mr. Vanderbilt bought the steam yacht Conqueror at a great loss to the original owner. He did not pay one-fifth of the original cost.

Steam yachts hold up better than sailing vessels, and John Stetson sold the Sapphire very close to her original cost-in fact, it has been many times said that he got out of yachting cheaper than anybody else

ELMIRA, Nov. 30 .- In regard to an inter-certain as to his contract with the Wagners, Richardson said to-day that he was very much surprised. He further said that he had never yet broken a contract and never would. He stated that the Wagners had no disagreement with him, and he would do as he agreed in this contract as far as playing with the Athletics was concerned.

AFTER OUR CHAMPIONS.

Frenchmen Anxious to Engage Jake Schneffer and Slosson to Go to Paris and Play Billiards-Foreigners Willing to Put Up Cash for Our Experts.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 .- [Special.] - What the sporting world calls a "solt snap" seems to be awaiting ambitious billiard professionals in Paris just now. The Parisian sporting capitalists have tried the American wrinkle of buying foreign stars, and are ready to offer francs in abundance to secure the presence of our crack players. The advent of the holiday season always brings a great boom in billiards in Paris, and the offer of the French capitalists indicates that there is a bigger boom just now than ever

The news of the willingness of the Frenchmen to put up cash to secure American talent came on Thanksgiving Day, and was a big surprise. It shows that they have planned something unusual for over there for the coming year if they can woo our players across the ocean. The offer that was directed to the Brunswick-Balke-Col-lender Company, is in substance as follows:

was directed to the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company, is in substance as follows:

Paris, November 12, 1891.

There has just been started in Paris a vast billiard hall called The New Circus, in which Messrs. Vignaux, Gibelin, Garnier and other professors of renown play matches. I am the proprietor of the Cafe Adolphe. I have as assistants Messrs Fouruil, Care and other professors of like renown. I started this billiard academy about a year ago, and its success has been beyond my expectations. In order to compete with the other academy I wish to secure the services of Mr. Schaefer or Mr. Slosson, and will guarantee either of them 100 francs a day net during six months, provided they will come over and play in my hall. In default of either of these gentlemen to come over, I make the following proposition to Mr. Carter or Mr. Ives: To pay either of them 60 francs a day net, plus 3 per cent of the profits of the matches.

I will be greatly obliged to von, gentlemen, if you will inform me immediately by cablegram whether any of these gentlemen will come over. If Mr. Schaefer or Mr. Slosson decide to come, I can arrange matches with Mr. Vignaux which will be of general interest, as the game of billiards is now very popular.

George Slosson, who is the only Ameri-

George Slosson, who is the only American who ever defeated Vignaux on his own ground in Paris, received notification of the offer, and immediately replied that he was willing to go to France and exhibit his skill against the French cracks, but he raised considerably on M. Choumar's figures. This is the Student's reply:
"I will go to Paris for a six months' engagement, beginning January 1, 1892, 181 days, provided Monsieur Choumar deposits with the Brunswick-Balke Company, on or before December 18, the sum of $10,860."

This is at the rate of $60 a day, and Slos on agrees to pay his own expenses. He aid last night that he could not leave his asiness in this city for that length of time r less compensation. He added: "I know e project which M. Choumar has in hand. here is a fortune in store for him if he can ceure is a fortune in store for him if he can ceure the presence of Americans as competitors in his exhibitions. Auction tools are made on each one of these games, and the proprietor of the hall deducts 10 per cent commission on all ragers. They are great betters over there, od on matches that might be made with a impetent American player very large sums money could be netted by M. Choumar, ut his offer of $20 a day is not enough to tract the right kind of talent. It is not what Vignaux got to come over here, and ess money is not likely to tempt American aleut. The offer of Mr. Choumar gives way the secret of the unwillingness of French stars to come to America. They are aking too much at home.

Maurice Daly has received similar liberal ffers through Albert Garnier, and Slosson ays that he has been informed that the rench capitalists are ready to put up purse of $10,000 for a tourney in Paris. provided the American cracks compete.

GOSSIP ABOUT THE TURF.

Garrison's Case Attracting Considerable Attention Among Turf Patrons.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 .- [Special.]-The interest in racing circles is now centered upon the Board of Control. Within the next few weeks the leading jockeys will be applying for their licenses, and there is widespread interest in knowing how many of them will be refused. Members of the board announced last spring when licenses were issued to a number of suspicious characters that they were simply admitted on probation. The board was to give everybody a fresh start and a clean sheet. Their tuture would be in their own hands.

It is known that for some time members of the Board of Control have been quietly investigating the conduct of some suspected jockeys, and the names of half a dozen are quoted as being among those to whom no

Garrison's case is attracting especial in-terest. He has recently signed a two-rears contract with Marcus Daly, the millionaire copper king, at a large salary. Of course the contract will be valueless unless he receives his license; and the chances of his getting a license are by no means rosy. The Board of Control will be more powerful next season than it has ever been. It is now almost certain that the Western clubs will recognize its rulings; and it will be almost impossible for a jockey without a license to earn a living. Bergen's friends will make a strong effort to secure his rein-statement on the plea that he does not want to ride here, but in England, and that, as his suspension was not on account of fraud. it would be unjust to keep him from making a livelihood in another country.

Among the probable applicants for a license is "Sammy" Loates, the queer-looking little English jockey who was here last summer. He will not apply, however, un-less he is reinstated by his own turf authorities. Loates is an unusually shrewd fellow and is one of the best jockeys in England.

STILL AFTER PLAYERS.

Local Ball Club Agents Hustling, But Boyle Reported Uncaught Yet. If Mark Baldwin is trying to sign Jack Boyle for the local club nothing definite was done in the matter yesterday as far as Director Kerr knew. Al. Buckenberger, during a conversation, stated that Denny Lyons may be the man who will be corralled. Lyons has signed a contract with the Chicago Association Club but there is some-thing defective about it and Buckenberger thing defective about it and Buckenberger thinks that Lyons will ignore it and come to Pittsburg. The local directors on the other hand think that Boyle will be cap-tured by them. It is to be hoped he will.

TUG OF WAR CRAZE

resented at the New York Contest, NEW YORK, Nov. 30.-[Special.]-The international tug of war tournament which was held so successfully in San Francisco some time ago will be repeated in this city at Madison Square Garden for one week, beginning December 21. This novel affair will be open to teams composed of all nations. They will consist of ten men each, of unlimited weight, born in the United States, England Ireland, Scotland, Germany, France, Denmark, Italy, Norway, Canada, Sweden and Australia. The men will be selected from all working classes in this city and will be paid $5 a day during the tournament, which will make up for whatever money they may lose in that time by remaining away from their regular labors. In addition to this a purse of $1,000 will be divided as follows: $300 to first, $300 to second, $150 to third and $50 to fourth.

In all there will be 120 competitors, taken from the following classes: Blacksmiths, butchers, brewery workers, engineers, gran-ite cutters, iron molders, firemen, teamsters, boiler makers, 'longshoremen, stevedores, sailors, machinists, gas workers and brick handlers. In fact, any strongly built man can compete. The managers of this tournament, Messrs. McNeil and Sanderson, who handled the California tournament, say that the object of the coming contest is to decide the nation in whose ranks are the men of the greatest skill and strength. They have drawn up the following set of rules to govern the tournament:

The tournament shall be pulled on a raised stage 6 feet high, 160 feet long, laid with batterns 1½ inches thick, 2½ inches wide and 6 inches apart, beveled 1 inch on the outside.

The rope to be 136 feet long, 4 inches in circumference, to be secured in the center by the McNeil & Sanderson patent clutch and held until the referee gives the signal to start by firing a pistol, when it shall be released.

Footwear—Any kind of footwear may be used, but must be free from spikes or projecting nails.

The hands—Any substance may be used to strengthen the grip of the competitors.

MAY RETURN TO YALE.

Two Old Football Players Likely to Rejoin the Team.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 30 .- [Special.] -Already the prospect is bright of filling at least two of the vacancies which will be left in the football team of '92 by the graduation and departure of five of the eleven. George Woodruff, '89, has announced his intention of returning to the University next year in the law school, and Wnrtemberg, '89, is to return to the medical school. Woodruff was one of the most powerful men physically that ever entered Yale. He was one of the best guards that ever played on a Yale team. For the last two years he has been director of athletics in the Pennsyl-vania Charter School of Philadelphia. Wurtemberg was the Varsity quarter-back in '88 and '89. He was in the medical school last year, but could not spare the time to play. But he is coming back next year and intends to take up the game again.

An Important Meeting. An important meeting of the Pittsburg

Football Club will take place to-morrow evening at George Tann's. Every member of the club is requested to attend, as the vital question of keeping the team to-gether or not will be discussed.

General Sporting Notes. THE local bowlers should time their contests to end before 11 or 12.0'clock. Bowling looks as if it were going to be come very popular out in the East End, Manager Powers, of the New York club, left yesterday on another hunt for players.

It is probable that Harvard will meet both Yale and Princeton on the baseball as well as the football field next year. JAMES F. LARKINS, the ex-champion 122-pound puglist, states that he has given up all intention of again entering the prize

For the information of letters upon the election of 1884 in New York, it may again be stated that Cleveland's plurality in that contest was 1,149.

ONLY 75 tickets have been issued for the Callaghan-Kenny skin glove-fight, which will take place some time next week. Both men are in excellent condition. THE directors of the New York Club say they consulted their lawyers before signing Taylor and Jennings, and believe they had every legal right to engage the men. ANOTHER match between E. D. Fulford and Captain J. Brewer is on the tapis. L. Miller, the proprietor of Dexter Park, is likely to arrange a match soon after the shoot of De-cember 15 at Woodlawn Park.

EDGAR G. MURPHY and L. S. Thompson will shoot a bird "frace" for $1,000 a side at the Carteret Gun Club on Thursday. The conditions of the match are 100 birds each, Hurlingham rules, 30 yards rise and 50 yards boundary.

INE WEIR who came on from Boston to box at the New York Athletic Club on Saturday night, was greatly disappointed because Mike Donovan could not find a man to meet him. Weir did not notify Donovan until last Tuesday that he would compete. According to a dispatch from New Haven last night Yale expects to receive $17,000 as her share from the Yale-Princeton game last thursday. This sum will be distributed among the various college athletic organizations, including a payment on the debt still hanging on the Yale field, the baseball association and the crew.

People Who Come and Go,

R. B. Mantell, the actor, is at the George Westinghouse left for New York in his private car. W. S. Foltz, a New Castle banker, put up at the Duquesne last evening.

A son of Charles E. Miller, the contractor, went to New York last evening. Frank Castlemaier left for San Antonio last evening, where he intends to locate. James D. Lee, agent for "The Last Word" company, is stopping at the Monon-gahela House.

Attorney Harold, who represents the Pennsylvania road at Sharon, came into the city last evening.

Dr. John S. Newton, of New York, and R. F. Downey, a prominent Waynesburg iawyer, are at the Monongaliela House. Al Johnson, of Cleveland, ex-baseball magnate, is at the Anderson. Mr. Johnson is building a street railroad in East Liverern University, was in the city yesterday. He is a noted elocutionist and popular with teachers' institutes. James C. McGuire, who is inspecting the material for the Government World's Fair buildings, is at the Duquesne. He is con-nected with the Supervising Architect's office.

Joseph Eichbaum, Prof. Sam Andrews and Anthony Grassel left for Philadelphia last evening to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge. A large crowd of Masons will go over to-night.

Hugh Young, of Wellsbore, who succeeded George Sheppard as Bank Examiner, telegraphed for a room at the Central Hotel from Williamsport yesterday. He was expected to arrive at midnight. General Superintendent Alfred Walters, of the Baltimore and Ohio road, was in the city resterday. Changing the main line to the Pittsburg and Western brings the head officials to Pittsburg frequently.

John D. Carr, steward of the Fayette County Poor Farm, was in the city last night. He says that the Democracy of Fay-ette was never more harmonious, and the county will doubtless support Cleveland for President.

E. C. Dunnanant, city passenger agent for the Lake Erie road, returned from Havana vesterday. He says the climate is delightful, but the tobacco crop is only fair this year. The price of fine Cuban cigars will be higher, of course, This will furnish some excuse for steeper rates.

Along the Wharves.

Nothing along the wharf yesterday denoted great activity. The scarcity of towboats, and the fact that most of the coal is out made river matters only mediocre. The cold weather has had a tendency to cause lower water, and the stage at 6 o'clock was 9 feet and falling. The packets were the most animated of the craft, and were liberally patronized, both by passengers and freight shippers.

LITTLE DICK got out with five boats for Louis-THE Twilight took out six boats and two barges to outsville yesterday for Jutte & Sons. CAPTAIN SAM BROWN is in Louisville overseeing his boats getting off to New Orleans. THE Lizzie Bay was the incoming packet from Charleston yesterday. She leaves to-day. THE W. W. O'Neil got in late Sunday night and left yesterday with 16 boats for Louisville. THE Keystone State arrived yesterday morning and departed for Cincinnati in the afternoon. THERE is according to some people's judgment between 3,000,000 and 4,000,000 bushels of coal still to

THE Adam Jacobs was the up-river packet yes-terday afternoon. She was well loaded down with freight. THE winarf boat of Reno Brothers, which was wrecked last week, is now in the docks at Man-chester being overhauled. THE Little Bill, with five boats, broke an engine at Chesher, near Point Pleasant, and the Time is on its way up to take the tow on to Louisville.

THE demand for coal has not abated in the South-ern markets. It readily brings 10 cents a bushel at Cincinnati, and a cent or two more at points be-

THESE THREE GRADES EVER REACHED.

The greatest auction sales ever held by Eastern Carpet manufacturers took place in New York City on November 10 to 13. Buyers were present from every large city in the Union, and the goods were knocked down to the highest bidder in every instance. We bought 40,000 yards of the above grades-the largest quantity purchased by any dealer in Pennsylvania. The goods are now coming in, and will be placed on sale, beginning Wednesday, December 2, at a small advance over the auction prices.
