POWERS AND CLEARWATER MATCHED.

Important Trotting Horse Cases Disposed Of-General Sporting News of the Day.

Football has been such a great success in and about Pittsburg this season that already plans are being mapped out for next season, and it is safe to expect that the lively sport will have a greater boom in Pittsburg next fall than it has ever had before.

The East End Gyms are already contemplating next season, and during a conversation yesterday Secretary Wells, of the Gymnastic Club, said: "We have made our minds up to one thing, and that is to have some of the very best football teams in the East here next year. We have proven that the game will pay here, as we cleared $500 Thanksgiving Day despite the bad weather. This fact has prompted us to formulate plans for next year, and the chief feature of these plans will be to secure dates with some prominent teams early next year. I mean by this that we will in the early part of summer make dates for the the early part of summer make dates for the ball games. It will require us to make early application to secure good teams. We will, I think, get dates with Lehigh and Cornell. Of course we will give Media another try as we only paid them $200 for expenses Thanksgiving and their trip cost them $350, but $200 was all they asked for.

"Or course we hope to have local rivairy, as the Three A's ought to be able to put a good football team ou the field next year. I teel confident that the Gyms will be stronger next season than they have been this season. There will be lots of money in this season. There will be lots of money in football in Pittsburg. Oh no! I do not expect that we will see paid football players for a long time yet. We are quite prepared at the gymnasium to join any well estab-lished league, and if a leaugue is organized in connection with the A. A. U., we will, I think, be in it just as our baseball teams will contest for the A. A. U. baseball championship next summer."

Short of Cash.

CAMBRIDGE, Dec. 2.-Harvard men, after the recent football match at Springfield, appear to be completely cleaned out of ready money, Yale's victory having apparently taken all their cash. At any rate, this has a show of truth from a statement made by a South End pawnbroker, one who catches the cream of the trade. He says that these young gentlemen are payning watches, jewelry, and all sorts of things pending the arrival of remittances from their respective homes.

THE BOARD OF REVIEW. Opening of the Important Case Relative to the Trotter Temple Bar.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.-Late this afternoon the Board of Review of the National Trotting Association handed down two decisions in cases that were pending before them this morning. They reinstated S. A. Ferguson, of St. Mary's, O., who drove Pilgrim, alias Mountain Boy, for Frank Rogers, of Ridgeway, Pa., and also John E. Walsh, of New Jersey, who was expelled at Trenton, N. J., on July 9, 1890, for ringing with Maggie W, formerly Fame.

The case of Dr. Sayles, owner of the famous trotting horse Temple Bar, was opened. Dr. Sayles and his horse and driver, George W. Spears, were expelled for alleged flagrant abuse of privileges and violation of the rules at Cleveland, O., last August. It was charged in the complaint that Temple Bar was nulled by Driver Spears by order of Dr. Sayles, the purpose being to lose the race, which could, in the estimation of the judges, have been won in three straight heats had the horse been woners and the straight heats had the horse been woners. properly piloted. Dr. Sayles, in his answer to the charges, avers that he did not instruct Spears to pull the horse to lose, but did warn him not to pump him out by hard driving in the first two heats. Temple Bar, he declared, was a horse of marvelous endurance and fitted to run in long contests. It was his intention to win the race, and for that reason be protested against the unseating of Spears after he had lost the first three He did not believe at the time there was anybody else who could drive Temple Bar quite so well. When George W. Wilson was put behind Temple Bar and drove him out a winner in the fourth, fifth and sixth heats there was no one more pleased than he, and he so declared to the judges at the time. He declared that he had not bet a dollar on the race, directly or indirectly, and the insinuations and charges of the "astute, reputable and close observing that it was his or Spears' pur pose to lose the race in hopes of profiting in other ways were unfounded in fact.

An affidavit by C. H. Sellers, Dr. Sayles' stableman, was read, setting forth that Dr. Sayles told Spears, while scoring for the third heat, that he would give him a bonus of $100 if he won the third heat. Dr. Sayles' counsel said the charges were principally against Spears, for whose conduct Dr. Sayles should not be held responsible.

EXPELLED FOR RINGING.

IT LOOKS BRIGHTER.

President Byrne Says the Baseball War I Practically at an End-Be Gives Som Reasons for His Opinions-A 12-Club League to Be the Result.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 .- [Special.]-The baseball war of 1891 is practically ended, and the 12-club League plan is all but in operation. So far as the East is concerned, differences have all been adjusted, and the only obstacle to complete success is the Association club in Chicago. If they continue obstinate, heroic measures will be adopted to bring them to time. Boston is in line, which means that the clubs there will consolidate. Philadelphia is in the 12-club camp, which also means that the Wagners have practically agreed to sell their club to the League magnates. Von der Horst, of Baltimore, is eager to enter the National League, and has so expressed himself. That he has an understanding with the Leaguers is quite generally known. The most surprising thing of all is that Von der Ahe, the great Association chief of St. Louis, has also capitulated, and will, in 1892, be found in the 12-club circuit. There will be a sharp skirmish with Williams, of Chicago, and then a gentle, dovelike peace will settle upon the perturbed baseball situation. When the skating season again comes to a close, and baseball claims the attention of the masses, there will be 12 cities in the National League circuit, and one club in each city, as follows: In the East, New York, Brooklyn, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington; in the West, Chicago, Cincinnati, Pittsburg, Cleveland, St. Louis and Louisville.

A very significant fact is the intense quiet that reigns in the Association centers. With the exception of the wail of President Phelps, there has not for weeks past been a murmur from any of the Association magneter. nates. The League magnates assert that no stronger evidence of weakness on the part of the Association could have been shown than that manifested by Phelps, and that as a matter of fact the Association has always been eager for a settlement of some sort, and simply held off in the hope of making better

It is generally known that there has been no stronger advocate of 12 clubs than Charles H. Byrne, the clever-headed Presideut of the Brooklyn club. From the first he has been earnestly in favor of arranging peace on some basis of fairness to both sides, and to accomplish this he has worked in a tireless manner. Since the close of the recent League meeting, Mr. Byrne has been industriously working to bring about harmony, and it is understood the League delegated him to use his best efforts to bring about a proper settlement. For the past ten days he has been looking very cheerful, and yesterday he fairly beamed with good humor. When asked by a reporter for the cause of his apparent satisfaction he

"Well, I am very much pleased with the outlook of the 12-club scheme." "Then you think it will succeed?"

"I am positive it will," was the reply. "Will you kindly tell THE DISPATCH'S readers upon what you base your con-viction?" At this point the Brooklyn President grew a trifle frigid, and said: "I am not at liberty to go into details. But this much I can say. I have in the last few days received telegrams from Baltimore, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other points, that lead me to believe the plan will surely succeed. In Boston, as we all know, there will be no trouble. Baltimore and St. Louis will surely come in, and the only point where there is any trouble is at Chicago. I think the difficulty there will surely be overcome."

"Mr. Byrne, have you heard anything from Philadelphia that leads you to believe there will be a settlement there?"
"Yes, sir. I have received information from there that makes me positiv matters are now practically arranged in that

Then it looks rosy all around? "It does, most emphatically.

Regarding Chicago, it is certain that if the Association club holds out when all the other cities have come to an understanding they will combine and compel the Chicagoans to come to terms.

Want the Percentage Plan.

A movement has been started among the County League baseball clubs to have the percentage plan introduced. President Mayer, it is stated, is the chief advocate of the plan, and he suggests that next season each home club receive 65 and the visiting club 35 per cent of the receipts. The East End Gyms are strongly opposed to this plan, claiming that it will cause them to lose money. When the general meeting of the League is held there will likely be a lively discussion of the question.

FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Powers and Clearwater Matched to Play

Pool for $250 a Side. The backers of A. G. Powers, the champion pool player of America, and W. H. Clearwater met at this office last evening and made a match for the two experts named to play a continuous pool contest for $250 a side and the receipts. The match is to take place in the World's Fair Hall, East End, on December 10, 11 and 12, that is, on the evenings of Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. The contest will consist of 450 points, 150 being played each

Each party put up a forfeit of $50 last evening, and as the two players are in good form and the best in the world, it is likely that a great game will be played. Of course the contest will also be for the cham-

Kelly Loses the Forfeit. NEW YORK, Dec. 2.-When the backers of Tommy Kelly, the Harlem Spider, and Bill Plimmer, the 110-pound champion of England, met yesterday the backers of Kelly, J. R. Baker and Pete Black, asked for a postponement for ten weeks, saying that Kelly was ill and had been so for some that Kelly was ill and had been so for some time. Ike Ingersoll and Charley Morton, who were acting for Plimmer, refused to accede to the request. They said that the other side should have known their man's condition when they placed him in train-ing. They then claimed the $500 stake money that was said to be up. Baker pro-tested against the payment of the money and said he would sue for its return. This ended the business. The backers of Plimmer then put up $500 with a challenge to any 110-pound man in the world for from

$1,000 to $3,000 a side.

Lots of Glove Contests. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.-The Pacific Athletic Club announced to-day that they are conducting negotiations looking to a series of important glove contests to follow the Choynski-Woods fight. Among the matches which have been considered is one between Jim Hall, of Australia, and Jim mie Carroll, of Brooklyn. Negotiations have been going on for some weeks, but the club received no assurance from the men until last night. A match is also proposed between Johnny Griffin, of Boston, and George Lavine, of Michigan, or George Van

A Challenge From Jones. The following challenge was received at this office last evening signed by James Jones, of Homestead: "I do hereby offer to run Fred Wetzel, of Frankstown, or Whitey, of Soho, a foot race of 100 yards for a reasonable stake. An answer through THE DISPATCH will be attended to."

Out on a Sandy, SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.-After nearly total abstinence for 21 weeks John L. Sullivan has commenced drinking again, and last night appeared at a Bush street theater under the influence of liquor. Much disappointment is felt by sporting men here at Sullivan's relapse into his old habits, as it was hoped that he would keep himself in good condition until next fall, when, as he has announced, he would again enter the prize ring for the last time.

THE 100-bird race between Captain Anson and J. L. Wilcox for $100 a side, American Association rules, Saturday, resulted in a victory for Anson by a score of 92 to 82. THE East End Gyms, of the County League, have secured the services of "Chuck" Lauer and Jim Grav for next season, and the Wilkinsburgs have signed Pete McShaume.

HITE PECKHAM, of Bradford, Pa., writes that James O'Donnell, of that city, will back him for any part of $2,500 to fight any 140-pound man breathing, Tommy Ryan pre-ferred. BECAUSE one can play first base in a ball game it does not follow that he can successfully fill the position of first bass in a church choir. The pitch is somewhat different.—

The California Athletic Club offers a purse of $7,500 for a fight between Peter Maher, the Irish champion, and James Corbett. Should Corbett and Maher fail to make a match the club will offer a purse of $10,000 for a fight between Charley Mitchell and Jim Corbett. A SPECIAL cable dispatch from London to the Police Gazette office yesterday stated: "Fred Johnston, the bantam-weight cham-pion of England, will sail to-day for America in company with Harry Nickless. Johnston will fight any man of his weight in America for £100 or £500 a side."

An offer of an English gentleman to lay an even £10,000 on Orme for the Derby of 1892, a run guaranteed, was declined. JACK DEMPSEY is still ill. Some people think his maiady is consumption. This recalls an incident in Dempsey's life when he resided in Williamsburg. He had his lungs sounded just before a fight. In the assault and battery case of Mrs. Julia Durenski against A. Gersune, the second-hand dealer of Carson street, before Alderman Hartman last night the case was settled by Gersune paying the costs. He thought he was also ordered to pay the witnesses for attending the hearing. He handed a daughter of Mrs. Durenski's two silver dollars. The girl took the money and placed it in her pocket. When Gersune discovered his mistake he wanted the girl to give it back. She refused, and Alderman Hartman told her that the money did not belong to her. She said: "That's all right he gave me it and I am all right; he gave me it, and I am going to get me a new hat." The matter was talked over for more than an hour, but as Gersune had given the girl the money Alderman Hartman could not force her to return it.

HOLD A RECEPTION AT ST. LOUIS.

The Affair Under the Auspices of the Marquette Club There.

EMINENT STATESMEN SEND REGRETS

Sr. Louis, Dec. 2.-The solemnities of the celebration of the Golden Jubilee of Archbishop Kenrick being over, His Grace was tendered a reception by the Marquette Club this evening. It was the most notable gathering of distinguished representable gathering of distinguished representatives of the Roman Catholic hierarchy ever witnessed in the West or, perhaps, in this country.

The Marquette Club was organized four years ago for the purpose of bringing together socially the representative Catholics of St. Louis, and now has a membership of over 500 leading Catholic gentlemen of St. Louis. Its clubhouse is one of the finest in the city. the city. The decorations and illuminations of the lubhouse were made on a magnificent scale, hundreds of incandescent lights being arranged artistically, both in the interior and on the exterior of the building. The large parlor, where the Archbishop and the visiting prelates were received, was beantifully draped in American and Papal colors. Flowers, ferns and evergreens were scat-tered in profusion throughout the building. At one side of the room a dais had been At one side of the room a das has been erected, which was exquisitely draped in gold, red and purple. On this, sitting under a canopy, were Archbishor Kenrick, Cardinal Gibbons and other chief dignitaries, and here they received the homage of the company. Later they mingled with the guests and were freely introduced to those in ettendance.

The club rooms were thronged with a brilliant assemblage. Over 300 clergymen were present. Of the 1,500 invitations is-sued, fully two-thirds availed themselves of the opportunity to attend.

The following gentlemen sent letters of regret: President Harrison, Vice President Levi P. Morton, Secretary of the Interior John W. Noble, Secretary of the Navy B. F. Tracy, Secretary of the Treasury Charles F. Tracy, Secretary of the Treasury Charles Foster, Postmaster General John Wana-maker, ex-President Cleveland, Governors Francis, of Missouri; Fifer, of Illinois; Boies, of Iowa; Campbell, of Ohio; Cardi-nal Taschereau, of Canada; Archbishops Duhamel, of Ottawa; O'Brien, of Halifax; Waleb, of Tarcento; Williams, of Boston; Walsh, of Toronto; Williams, of Boston; Fabree, of Montreal, and others.

Notwithstanding his advanced age and the fatigue of the past three days' celebration, Archbishop Kenrick was in excellent health and spirits, thoroughly enjoying the occasion, as did Cardinal Gibbons and the other prelates.

DOWN ON CHAIRMAN BRENNEN.

The Ex-Letter Carriers Object to His Statements About Their Organization

The Democratic ex-letter carriers who served under the Cleveland administration, held another lively meeting at No. 133 Fourth avenue last night and elected temporary officers. James Simonton was made President and P. Madigan Vice President. A communication was read from the excurriers of Allegheny pledging their support to the movement, but as none of the Allegheny people were present it was decided to wait until they joined the organization before naming permanent officers, which will be next Wednes-day night. The name adopted for the or-ganization was the Independent Democratic Club, and the list of eligibles was widened to include all ex-employes and ex-office holders who held positions under Grover Cleveland, the original plan being discarded because there are not sufficient eligibles under that plan to form a large club.

The meeting was held with closed doors, but it was given out that a resolution was unanimously adopted that the club shall support the party's nominee for President in 1892, whether it be Cleveland, Hill or Gorman, and that it attend the Democratic National Convention in a body. It was also resolved to send two representatives to the next meeting of the National Executive Committee. County Chairman Brennen's remarks on the organization were severely discussed and it was voted the sense of the meeting that he has no party, owing to his action during the recent election, that he don't amount to anything politically, and that he ex-Carriers' Club, being independent, will not accept dictation or advice from Mr. Brennen or any of his followers. Committees were appointed to secure meeting rooms and make other arrangements and to report at the next meeting.

President Weihe in Youngstown. Unless a settlement is effected a strike may be ordered by the Amalgamated Association at the Valley Mill, of Youngstown. A new gas furnace was erected, which the men who work by the day claim greatly increases their work, and they demanded an advance in wages, which was refused. Pres-ident Weihe was called there, but did not succeed in settling the matter. The company claims there is no justice in the de-mand for an increase. Vice President Mc-Evey was at the Lectonia rolling mill yesterday adjusting some differences.
