

-On the right hand side of Trinity Church-yard, among a little group of graves, is a recumbent slab, the surface of which is devoted wholly to the story of him who lies beneath it. The man had lived in the first years of the nineteenth century, and in the days when more than a date and a name was thought necessary to mark the last resting place of a beloved one. This particular epitaph is said to have been written by Bishop Hopkins, who, being a relative, was chosen also to be the chronieler of a sad event. The Bishop wrote the story cut on this stone, and anyone can read it by coming a few min-utes earlier to church by way of the western walk through the graveyard: Mary A. Barrow, Maggie and Mary Comley,

BENEATH THIS STONE WILLIAM EDWARD MULLER,

Who was cut off by the hand of a wise but mysterious Providence in the 23d year of his age. In the week before his expected nuptials, in the morning of life. Happy in the warm attachment of his friends, and the nuprials, in the morning of life. Happy in the warm attachment of his friencs, and the general exteem of socity. Strong in health—buoyant in hope, and with every earthly prospect brightening before him. His death was occasioned by a switz and fatal mortification. The efforts of medical skill and the watchful assiduities of friendship were all exerted in vain, and the lapse of seven days closed the scene and compelled him to resign the promised festicities of the bridal for the awful stillness of the tomb. He endured his acute sufferings with heroic toritinde, and met the approach of death with a degree of calm resolution and fervent platy which utilosophers may applied, but the Christian alone can seek, learning to his youthin! companions salutary and impres-sive example, and to his deeply afflicted rei-stives the blessed assurance that he was taken from a world of uncertainly and sor-row to the bosom of his Savier and his God. Bern on the 25d of May, A. D., 1792. Died on the 25d of May, A. D., 1792.

The Story of Prominent Families.

-Edward Muller-William was given to him only at his birth and afterward at his death-was engaged, as the tombstone tells us, and his fiancee was Nancy Denny. The name was an old one, even then, in Pittsburg. Miss Denny was an only daughter of Harmar Denny, and even in the short time then permitted to a girl to be in society, had become celebrated as a beauty and a had become cerebrated as a beauty and a belle. The wedding had been set for April 7, 1822. The thrifty young husband had taken a house and furnished it, preparatory to housing his pretty bride. He was altentive, as all young lovers should be, not only to his sweetheart but to everyone who claimed kin-hip with her. A few days be-fore the wedding young Muller drove Miss Denny's maiden aunt, who probably had little chance for thriving on those sorts of little chance for thriving on those sorts of sttentions, to Hamilton Hall, near Braddrock, the residence of Charles von Bonnhurst. The fashionable turnout in those days was a gig, in which the driver stood up if he could pride himselt at all on his skill. On a rough road one can readily imagine the danger to which a man driving in this manner would be exposed. Young Muller was thrown out and his leg broken. The tembstone tells us, though in other language, that the best doctors in Pittaburg were called in, but in vain. The things of this world were laid sside forever Edward Muller: the maiden sunt the ndirect cause of the trouble, and the heartbroken Nancy Denny lived. The young man was laid in old Trinity, and all the country side came to the funeral. After a while, somebody, whose name was Harding, came along and Miss Naney's tears were dried and her broken heart was mended. The Mullers and the Harding-Dennys still belong to Pittsburg, but they are not re-lated, as they would have been had Edward Muller not driven off on that fatal day in the year 1822.

ray, and Messrs. W. and C. McGuffin, Frost Murray, Thompson and McElroy. Monday was the fourteenth anniversary of

Lillian Ruch, Lizzie Rainev, Ida and Lizzie McClure, Marie Siegner, Sallie Ruch, Marie Steel, Anna and Agnes McCourt, Millie Smith, Minnie and Jeanie Stoupp, Misses Dodd, and Messrs, James Simpson, W. J. Sterling, Butler Flinn, W. J. McClure, Will-iam Kerr, William Findley, J. Abbey, James Steel, Thomas Wilson, John Longhry, Will Addy, E. V. Metzgar, George Urbs, A. G. Rotrock, Harry Speer, J. G. Montzomery, R. B. Browne, Mr. Dix, Joe Watt, Will John-son, Thomas Ward, C. H. Brown, Will Reo-ton, James Ruch, Charles and Frank Haid, Joe Alexander, Harry Harbaugh, George Yobe, Harry Johnson, Jim Adams, W. R. An-derson, Flo Hill, Joe McCully, George Glass, D. Goewey, Mr. Simpson, Mr. Richards, Dr. George, Frof, Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sterling and others. the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ertzman, of Hazelwood. In the evening about 50 of their most intimate friends, who had confided the secret to their host, called to spend the evening. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schiliken, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. A. Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. William Bunton, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Kepnle, the Misses Sadie Gribben, Dora Smith, Sadie Harlen, Minnie, Nettie, Lena, Christina, Louisa and Carrie Meyers, Magzie McCleary, Emma Kerr, Mattle Stevenson, May Egger and Emma Gath; Messrs, John Moore, John P. McCleary, Elmer Campbell, John Voght, Charles Sanders, William Meyers, John A. Fischer, William Kessler, Harry Martin, Frank McLaughlin, Harry Roberts and Adam Gersier, Mrs. Ertzman was the re-cipient of a number of presents. aded the secret to their host, called to spend The ladies of Bellevue are not "in the rear of the procession" in active, charitable and church work. They vie with their sisters in the cities in their zeal and industry, and at present are busy arranging for a holiday bazaar, to be held in the Methodist Protestant Church on next Thursday evening, Fancy and common sense articles will be on sale, and the young ladies will offer the Ladies' Aid Society No. 21, Sons of Veterans, will hold their annual reception at Knights of St. George Hall, Pean avenue, most toothsome home-made candies, besides a monster four-and-twenty blackbird ple. An excellent supper will be served in the lecture room from 6 to 7:30 r. M. The comnear Sixteenth street, Friday evening December II. It promises to be the best they lecture room from 6 to 7:30 r. M. The com-mittees are: Supper Committee-Mrs. James Lee, Mrs. C. L. McIntyre, Mrs. H. H. Durbin, Mrs. C. L. Gilchrist, Mrs. H. Behrs and Mrs. A. McIntesh, Fancy Bazar-Mrs. W. H. Warwick, Mrs. E. S. Revnolds, Mrs. W. P. Herbert, Mrs. Geotre F. Wright, Mrs. A. Hendrie and Mrs. B. F. Groat. Blackbird Booth-Mrs. H. O. Hukill. Candy Booth-Mrs. James Irwin, and aids, Miss Ellorence East, Miss Jennie Mathias, Miss Ella Hultz, Miss Annie Page. Miss Edith Irwin, Miss Mamie Wright and other pretty girls. December II. It promises to be the best they have held yet, as the following well-known ladies are on the committee: Mrs. Joseph Dutton, Mrs. Charles Franke, Mrs. Thomas Golden, Miss Mollie Brown, Miss Blanch Maguire, Mrs. P. J. Price, Miss Magrie Brown, Mrs. Ed Tobin, Miss H. Brown, Mrs. John Rummel, Mrs. McCain, Mrs. Shank and Mrs.John O'Brien. The Orignal Royals and Michaels will furnish the music. This aid is increasing in membership, as they are mus-tering in recruits at every meeting. ering in recruits at every meeting.

Sterling and others.

A very pleasant masquerade surprise party was given in honor of Mrs. James B Thompson at her residence, No. 13 West Canal street, Wednesday evening. Among those present were Mr. James B. Thomp son and wife, Mr. A. B. Gallbreath and wife, Mr. Fall and wife, Mr. J. McGarvey and wife, the Misses Anna and Estella Price, Annie Connolly, Lizzie and Rosey Quinn, Messrs, Thomas Drenan, R. C. Comley, Frank Connolty, G. S. Comley, William Merker, John Kruse, J. Berger and wife, S. B. Ziegler John Kruse, J. Berger and wife, S. B. Ziegler and wife, George Thompson and wife, John Cowen and wite, William Davis, L. Lapp, L. West, Charles Parkes, Walter Davis and many others. There were some very hand-some costumes worn, and Mr. John H. Kruse, the Indian chief, was present in all bis grandeur. Dancing was the principal feature of the ovening, the Eureka Orches-tra furnishing the music. A very fine lunch was served. was served.

The Carpadium Euchre Club. of Lawrence ville, met Friday evening at the home of Miss Molly Fennerty, River avenue, East End. Mr. J. D. Miller and Miss Bella Blackford won the head prizes, Mr. Ford and Miss Taylor taking the booby prizes. Cards were indulged in until II o'clock, when an elegant supper was served by the charming | 2. The following were present: Misses Straiostess, after which there was dancing. The hostess, after which there was dancing. The members of the club are the Misses Ada Ferson. Bella Blackford. Mary Ferguson, Jean Devlin, Jennie Taylor, Annie Devlin, Molly Fennerty. Ida Irwin, Louise Rein-hardt and Alice Reams. Messrs. Otto Rein-hardt, Harry Fennerty, J. D. Miller, J. E. Mitcheil, F. E. Saupp, Otto Graf, George Weber, J. W. Ford, Bert Ferguson and Mr. Sleeth.

Mrs. L. A. Meyran, of Shady Lane, East End, gave a very pleasant progressive "Hearts" party on Wednesday evening. The winners of the first prizes were Miss Laura Kinzer and Mr. A. E. Niemann. e Laura Kinzer and Mr. A. E. Niemann, Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Binck, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Fricke, Mr. and Mrs. X. A. Scott, Jr., Mrs. A. Rockel, Misses Lili is Schleiter, Ida Schleiter, Clara Ochmler, Laura Kinzer, Wid McCabe, Sadie Cochran Jonnette Dickson, Louise Poese, K. Meye, and Messrs, R. Ochmier, Blair Scott, Walter Schleiter, Eduta Roenigk, A. E. Niemann: J. G. Niemann, Paul C. Herrosce, E. T. Hitch-mann and Vance Donaldson. After refresh-ments the pleasures of the evening were wound up with dancing until after midnight. refreshments were served.

Miss Nellie Davis was agreeably surprised on Friday evening, the thirteenth anniver sary of her birthday, at her residence, Pennsylvania avenue, by a large concourse of her school friends. Music was the feature her school friends. Music was the feature of the evening. Among those present were the Misses Nellie Davis, Ella Murray, Elsie Kerner, Myrtle White, Marion Brennan, Lizzie Mečano, Mannie Heit, Flora Sour-beck, Leanour Parsons, Daisy Parsons, Car-rie Seaman, Scott Davis, Knox, Matthew Langsdale, William Heckert, Howard Cranft, Walter Stedeford, Frederick Rhodes, Andrew Morehead, Willie Hilt and Hugh Henderson.

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 6.

Last week was the first week of post elec tions. A number of nosts do not elect till this week. The results in Posts 3, 117, 162, 206, 215, 230, 235 and 259 will be published next Sunday. Following is the result of last week's elections:

Post 41 - Commander, Charles Young: Senior Vice Commander, Lucian Miller; Junior Vice Commander, George Krapn; Chaplain, David Davis; Surgeon, Comrade

Statzman; Officer of the Day, A. K. Oates, Officer of the Guard, Comrade Godfrey; Out-side Sentinel, Matt Heyl: Inside Sentinel, Henry Glunt; Delegates, J. C. Kennedy, A. K. Oates, Alf. F. Jones and Charles Gang-stech Frank B. Killin entertained his friends Monday evening at his home on Palo Alto street. Dancing and games made the even-

K. Ontes, Alf. F. Jones and Charles Gang-wisch. Post 88-Commander, James P. Stewart; Senior Vice Commander, Samnel Reynolds; Junior Vice Commander, James H. Cochran; Quartermaster, John L. Shook; Surzeon, W. W. Cole: Chaplain, W. G. Griffith: Officer of the Guard, Thomas Carpenter; Trustee, H. O. C. Oehmier; Delegates, Hugh Morrison, H. O. C. Oehmier; W. H. Lockhart and Samuel Scott; Alternates, James D. Walker, William Greenawalt, William Cowgill and John H. Stevenson. ing pass very pleasantly. Those present were es Kate Fleming,Katie Raymond,Emma Alisses Ante Fleming, Katie Raymond, Emma Hill, Ella Weber, Lettie Graham, Jennie Walters, Clara Strain, Marie Graham, Annie Lytle, Mirs, Emma Fleming, Mrs. John Luzeli, Messrs George, McCuber, Cooper, Will Bestner, Prof. Mont Neves, Arther Winn, Joe Leonard, Wilse Fleming, John Porter, John Luzell, Berney Killin, James Morrison, John Graham, Mr. Temen, Mr. Shook gate, William Mensinger: Alternate, David Pnillips; Trustees, William Mensinger, G. Leihman.

Post 115-Commander, D. H. Speer; Senior Post 115-Commander, D. H. Speer; Senior Vice Commander, Thomas J. Jones; Janior Vice Commander, William Beardsley: Chap-lain, James I. Gracy; Surgeon, William Hoff-man; Quartermaster, W. P. Lenhart; O. D., Jacob Nelson; O. G., Fred Atkinson; Dele-gate, William Mensinger; Alternate, David Phillips; Trustees, William Mensinger, G. Leihman. One of the very pleasant events of the past week was the meeting of the Wednesday Night Enchre Club at the residence of Miss Teresa Donahue. After a very close contest the prizes were drawn by Miss Bella Murphy the prizes were drawn by Miss Bella Murphy and Mr. S. A. Warde. Those present were the Misses Annie and Rose Gaytons, Mary and Rose O'Donnell. Alice and Marr Mc-Keever, Nettle and Annie Russel, and May and Nellie Coll; Messrs, Walter McCormack, Joseph Burke, Charles Larkin, S. A. Wards, James Gaytons John McLaughin, John O'Donnell, M. Brandt, Tom Murphy, C. A. Coll and D. Murphy.

Post 125-Commander, Louis Horst; Seni or Vice Commard.r, James Steel; Officer of the Day, Charles Orbi; Officer of the Guard, William Morrison; Chaplair, William B. Brown: Quartermeste. Clark McConnell: Delegates. Chi rles W. Gerwig, Thomas G. Sample, D. M. Morrison, A. R. Dawson, John Diebold, John Detz and James Rafferty.
Post 151-Commander, James McTris; Junior Vice Commander, James Morris; Junior Vice Commander, George N. Hunter; Officer of the Day, George M. Buck; Officer of the Guard, Jacob Brudhi: Chaplain, James Sheppard; Quartermaster, John Dettis; Sur-geon, George W. Powell: Trustees, Henry Stande, William O. Russell and John C. Slas; sub-Relief Committe, Hartman Coleman, John P. Wilhelm, Philip Hetrick and Jacob Wise; Outside Guard, Oliver Shawhan: In-ide Guard, Angus Noll; Delegates, William O. Russell, S. M. Durall, A. C. Frank, John Dettis and Thomas E. Keen; Alternates, James Morris, John P. Wilhelm, Hartman Coleman, John P. McCord and James; Ort. Post 155-Commander, D. H. Speer; Senior Vice Commander, W. Beardsley; Chaplain, F. I. Grucey; Surgeon, G. F. Hoffman; Officer of the Day, J. Nelson; Quartermaster, W. Len-hart; Officer of the Guard, J. Atkinson; Tras-tees, Wm, Mensinger, A. Lehman and D. H. Speer; Delegate, W. M. Mensinger; Alternate, David Phillips.
Post 157-Commander, John Braun; Senior Vice Commander, Senior Vice The first select party under the anspice a of the Speciel Delivery Boys, under Captain Joseph B. Eaton, was held at the residence of D. A. Harris, 1713 Cliff street, on December 2. The following were present: Misses Stra-ley, Rodgers, Williams, Schafer, Greatrake, Currans, Mellon, Brash, Mariner, Mason, Rolands, Zacherias and Rudolph, Messrs, Brush, Kennedy, Williams, McCullough, Doran, Harris, Locke, Sykes, Lang, Turner, Quigg, Zacherias, Currans and Walton. The features of the evening were music, dancing, recitations and games.

The Sans Souci Progressive Euchre Club, of Allegheny, was entertained last Friday evening at the home of Miss Amy Ross, Juniatta street. Miss Gertrude Piaget and Mr. R. P. Welsch won head prizes, and Misa Gussie Young and Mr. Babcock contested for the honors of the booby prizes. The next meeting of the club will be at Miss Mary McKelvey's house, No. 95 Taylor avenue, Friday evening, December 18.

Speer: Delegate, win. Mensinger: Alternate, David Phillips.
Post 157-Commander, John Braun; Senfor Vice Commander, S. T. Turner: Junior Vice Commander, W. A. Moffatt; Chaplain, James L. Dawson; Surgeon, B. M. Vanhorn; Quar-termaster; H. L. Hoburg: Officer of the Day, Frank Calhoun; Officer of the Gaard, Thomas J. Terrant; Sentinels, Joseph Victoria and A. N. Patterson; Council of Administration, H. H. Bengough; Captain of Firing Squad, F. C. Calhoun; Lieutenant, Thomas J. Terrant; Color Bearers, John Laubach and Ed Cramer; Delegates, Bernard Coll, O. S. McIt-wnine, H. H. Bengough, H. L. Hoburg and X. S. Rees; Alternates, Joseph T. Evans, S. T. Turner, W. A. Moffatt, J. H. Baer and D. A. Haggerty. An interesting feature of the past week was a "Rainbow tea" given Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Fifth Avenue M. E. Church. In the programme rendered afterward, Miss Dunn recited, charmingly, "The Minuet," and an Irish recitation. After the entertainment The first open meeting of the Eureka Literary Society will be held in the Trinity Lutheran Church, Sidney street, Southside, next Tuesday evening. A literary and musi-

Turner, W. A. Monatt, J. H. Baer and D. A. Hargerty. Post 450-Commander, J. H. Atkinson: Senior Vice Commander, William Luckett; Junior-Vice Commander, James Black, Quartermaster, William R. Pryce; Chapiain; J. H. Gross; Officer of the Day, A. J. Reid, Officer of the Guard, William Miller; Surgeon; Comrade Myers; Delegate, George S. Wood; Alternate, James Black. cal programme has been prepared, and the hope is expressed that many friends may be enabled to be present. The Ladies' Aid and Sewing Circle, of the First English Lutheran Church, of Fifth First English Latheran Church, of First street, Braddock, gave a very delightful fes-tival and entertainment on Thursday and Friday evenings. "A Doll Social" was a pleasing and unique feature, as well as "An African Coffee Party."

The Department Commander's Visit. Arrangements are about complete for the Army because an old soldier was interred last week in a pauper's grave. The veteran was a stranger here and nothing was known was a stranger here and nothing was known of the matter until it was too laté. The comrude belonged to the Seventy-eighth Ohio Infantry and died at the Poor Farm. At the meeting of the Executive Committee last Wednesday evening the matter was dis-cussed and it was decided to have the re-mains disinterred and reburied in the sol-diers' plot of the Homestead Cemetery. The Poor Farm authorities should have noti-fied the Grand Army men at Homestead. Had they done so the remains would have received proper burial in the first place.

Post Bulletins. COMRADE WHEELER, of Post 162, is improv Post 157's election will be held next Tues

Post 88's sick are all getting along well ex cept Comrade Becker Post 207, of Homestead, met last night in its ew hall for the first time. COMRADE MITCHELL, of Post 1, Maryland, isited Post 157 last Thursday night. Post 41's fair opened last Tuesday evening. It gives promise of a successful run. Post 162's election took place last night. The result will be published next Sunday.

Post 480 is proud of its charter. It is the new style, about 18x20 inches, and is very COMMADE R. D. BARKER, of Post 163, died last Wednesday evening. He was long member of 162.

The posts of Allegheny will act as escor to Department Commander Boyer and staff next Wednesday evening. QUARTERNASTER JOSEPH B. EATON. of POST looks a little, thinner after his six weeks lness, but otherwise he is O. K. again. NOMINATIONS will be made and the election will be held by Post 259 next Tuesday evening, the only meeting in the month. EXTRA attractions are promised for next Thursday's meeting of Post 157 by Chairman Askin, of the Entertainmen³ Committee. Post 157 will meet at Municipal Hall at 7:30 P. M. next Wednesday in full uniform to take part in the reception of Department Com mander Boyer and staff.

Post 157's Washington Committee will hold another reception at Central Turner Hall on February 22. It will be under the auspices of the same committee as the last.

Post 155 is now erecting scenery in its new hall, Grandview avenue. The first entertainment will be given by Miss Edith Smith-son Friday evening, December 18. THE hop of Colonel John B. Clark Circle

No. 11, Ladies of the G. A. R., at Cyclorama patiors last Tuesday evening, was most en-loyable and the success that was anticinated.

CONRADE S. T. TURNER, Senior Vice Com mander-elect of Post 157, is a printer and writer of no mean ability. He will make a good Commander to succeed Comrade Braun next year.

THE "German Volunteer" will be given in the Fifth Avenue Opera House, Homestea on December 16, 17 and 18 for the benefit o John S. Hollingshead Camp No. 31, Sons o Veterans,

At the meeting on Thursday night last Comrade Bernard Cole was unanimously in dorsed by Post 157 for election by the de partment as representative to the Nationa Encampment

THE Ninth Pennsylvania Reserves will celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of the Battle of Drainesville by the usual banquet at Central Turner Hall on Saturday evening December 19.

OFFICERS will be clected by Post 256 next Friday evening. There is no opposition to W. C. Gould for Commander, nor to W. H. Barrett for Senior Vice Commander. Chap-lain Bargessor will be re-elected.

Post 480 organized a Washington Club last night a week. Already 15 comrades have signed the roll, and almost that many names of comrades' wives are on the list. It is the intention of as many as can to take their wives along.

COMPADE MAX KLEIN of Post 128, has secured the list of the names of the inmates of the Uniontown Soldiers Orphans' School and will furnish each of them with a Christma gift. There are 232 inmates, and they are re membered each year by Comrade Klein.

COMBADES of the One Hundred and Second Regiment will leave corner Third and Smithfield street, by way of Second avenue cars, this afternoon to attend the funeral of their late comrade, John E. Williams, Com-pany M, Greenfield avenue, Twenty-third ward.

COMRADE BERNARD COLE, of Post 157, has lost none of his popularity with the members of his post. In the contest for representative to the Department Encampment he received the largest vote cast, notwithstanding there were a large number of popular comrades on the closer THERE'S nothing in the two cities to compare with the Grandeur, Magnificence and Beauty of our Mammoth Holiday Display. Such is the unsolicited, hearty, unanimous verdict of tens of thousands since Tuesday last. Nothing of the clap-trap or nonsensical, neither loud, windy talk to create an hour's so-called fun, but, instead, culture, science, beauty, refinement, elegance, instruction, amusement. All of these pleasantly and harmoniously blended and modeled down to business. Then, when you visit the Children's Toy Paradise in basement, there's a sight calculated to thaw out and make glow with a living, loving heat, the most cold-blooded heart that ever beat beneath a waistcoat. Look at the dear little ones, their very hearts bounding and every fiber of their little bodies thrilling with joy and delight as the beauty of every new plaything or toy is unfolded to their thrice happy vision. Come along, paterfamilas and materfamilas, and bring all the family with you. It'll drive away the blues for a month to ramble through our Great, Big, Beautiful Stores for an hour or so during this joyous Holiday season.

Come and See the Biggest Doll Congregation You Ever Looked At.

Thousands of Dolls were sold last week-a corresponding number of dear little maidens' hearts will be made glad on the morning of December 25. My, won't the little folks be up betimes that morning, though! Aye, and the older folks, too, for that matter, for the boisterous mirth and happiness of the youngsters is communicated in a most powerful, though subdued, manner to the hearts and souls of their elders. But, speaking of Dolls, as usual Danziger's is the headquarters. A bigger variety and lower prices than anywhere else, without reservation or exception. All our Dolls are imported direct in immense quantities, which means a saving to the buyer of from 25 to 50 per cent.

Books, Games, Etc.---A Most Wonderfully Interesting Aggregation,

It's utterly impossible to enumerate everything in this multitudinous collection, but in the way of Books we are thoroughly warranted and justified in saying that everything calculated to enliven and elevate the minds of our youth is here in an abundance of variety, and the wee toddlers haven't been forgotten, either. Picture Books, with or without letters, an immense selection. The fact is, if you can't be suited with books here, it'll be hard to get suited at all, either in quality, quantity or price. Then the games. We've got hundreds of different games; all the new and popular ones. They're just the thing to interest you and your family when you're all gathered around "your ain fireside" these long winter nights. Then the Building Blocks for the younger branches of your posterity. We have a large and interesting selection and all at Our Well-Known Money-Saving Prices for the People.

Then Go Down to Basement and See Santa Claus' Royal Toy Paradise!

Past Description ! Beyond Comprehension ! To us it is, but not so to the Infantile Mind. Just as we are writing this "ad." a "Young America," who has already passed through the various stages of Five Christmases, has just come up from The Paradise of Wonderland with his mother. He looked around him, then exclaimed : "Ma, hasn't Santa Claus got the boss show this year !" Truly, the child is father to the man. But really never was such an enormous and varied assortment of Toys beheld under any one roof in Pittsburg before. There's millions of them, and the prices are such that you will be enabled to buy twice as many for the same amount

The Cricket on the Hearth.

-This is the complete cast of "The Cricket on the Hearth," which the Sewickley Valley Club gives between Christmas and New Year's:

Stranger. Dot Mr. Cari Kimball Mrs. N. B. Starr Dot Mrs. N. B. Starr Bertha (the blind girl). Miss Bessie Anderson Mrs. Fielding. Mrs. Dwight Bell May Fielding. Miss Bryner Tilly Slowboy. Miss McCleary

The Use of Husband's Titles,

-Helen Watterson says something concerning women using their husband's titles, which, once for all, ought to kill that reprehensible custom. The rebuke is best given in her own language: "Last of all," says Miss Watterson, "let any wife take heed how she wears her husband's title and allows herself to be spoken of as Mrs. Governor Jones or Mrs. Secretary Smith. No matter what title her husband has, she has no more rights to wear it than she has to wear his

Some Society News Notes.

-Mr. and Mrs. George H. Welshons eptertained a party of visitors at the Grand Opera House Wednesday evening. Arrangements had been made for a box party the night before to see Crane in "The Senator," but the expected friends, who were on their way from Portland, Ore., did not appear until the next day. Mrs. Welshons gave a dinner party on Thursday evening for these friends. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell's sister, and on Saturday morning accompanied them as fer as Washington, D. C., on their way to

Mrs. Joseph Brown, of Stockton avenue, Allegheny, receives on Tuesday in honor of Miss Clara Childs and her niece, Miss Siebeneck, both of whom belong to the bunch of beauties expecting to bud this winter.

Mrs. Henry Kirk Porter, of Pittsburg Tuesday in conjunction with Mrs. William Sprague Hopt, to the patronesses of the New York Summer School of Art. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shields Clorke were among the distinguished guests. Mrs. A. E. W. Painter has issued invitations for a reception on December 16 in honor of Miss Newton, of St. Paul, Minn., Miss Lane and Miss. Mary Lane, of Troy, V., and Mr. Max Agassiz, of Cambridge,

A rehearsal of the various tableaux and dances for the National Pageant was held at Mrs. Magee's house last night. Undoubtedly flattering success awaits the pre-sentation of this novel entertainment. MARION CRAWFORD GALLAHER.

HOURS OF PLEASURE.

One of the pleasant social events of the ast week was the surprise party tendered Muss Marguerite McCourt at her home, No. H Seventh avenue, on Thesday evening, by about 90 of her friends. She proved herself a charming hostess and entertained the a charming hostors and entoriained the merry litraders quite royally. Parlor names and dancing helped to pass away the bours, after which a tempting luncheon was conved. Among those present were Misses chusic, Annie Magrie Deere, Alice and Mag Greves. Annie Ritter, Claire Done hoo, Daisy Williams, Emma Evans, Katie George, Ella Means, Maggie and Olive Mor-rison, Lia Leightly, Nanne Watchen, Lida Todd, McCully, Anna Wickerly, Lida Todd,

A very enjoyable birthday party was held at the residence of Mrs. M. Hare, 42 Lake street, Allegheny, in the honor of her son's 20th birthday, December 2. Among those present were: Miss Minnie Durning, Miss present were: Miss Minnie Durning, Miss Nannie Biehey, of Emsworth; Miss Mangle Rider, Misses Annie and Katie Cook, Miss Katie Lanaban, Miss Jessie M. Hare and Miss Delia Roe, of Allegheny. The gentle-men present were: Mr. Frank Richey, Mr. Robert Durning, of Emsworth; Mr. Harry Graht Bichec, Mr. George Clary, Mr. Benule Richey and Harry Lyle Hare, Samuel Richey.

The ladies of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, Evaline avenue, near Liberty avenue, East End, are making extensive ar-rangements for a bazar and supper to be held in the church on the after held in the church on the afternoons and evenings of Thursday and Friday. December 10 and 11. The proceeds are for the furnish-ing of the new church, which is in course of erection. Supper will be served from 5 to 9. Avrangements are also being made for fancy candy and refreshment booths to be pre-sided over by some of the charming young hadias of the church. some of the charming young ladies of the church.

Progressive eachre whiled away a few easant hours for the fortunate ones invited to Miss Nettie Duncan's house at Wil-kinsburg last Tuesday evening in honor of her classmate, Miss Sweetman, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Hartwell, of Oil City. Miss Margaret McIlvaine carried off the "ione hand" and head prize, while Dr. "Jone hand" and head prize, while Dr. White took the gentleman prize. Miss Keehle and Dr. Proctor the foot prizes. After lunch and dancing to Gernert's nusic, Miss Sweetman, who has a pleasing voice, rendered several songs very prettily. Miss

A social event of the Southside on Thurs day evening was the marriage of Miss Tillie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Strange, the marriage being solemnized at the resider of the bride's parents by the Rev. J. C. Kunzof the bride sparents by the flev. J. C. Kunz-man, pastor of Grace Evangeical Lutheran Church. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony. The bride wore a fine gown of pink sain and lace. The attendants were Miss Jennie G. Leonard, maid of honor, and E. C. Hendrick, best man. Mr. and Mrs. Headrick depart shortly for a tour through the larger cities of the East and South.

"Ingomar" will be given at Mt. Washington Library Hall, Friday evening, December 18, by some of the Mt. Washington people, the cast being as follows: Timarch, J. A. Hage-mann; Polydor, Samuel Williams; Myron, (C.R. Shepler; Lykon, Charles Seidenstricker; Ehhenor, Joseph Keefer; Alastor, F. A. Grundy; Noria, William J. Irvin; Neocles, Melvin McComb: Theamo, Miss Roberta Hilliard; Actea, Mrs. Adison Myers; Par-thenia, Miss Edith Smithson; Ingomar, Mr. J. C. Kober.

A baznar will be held Monday and Tues day afternoons and evenings, at the residence of Mr. James B. Youngson, corner Wylie avenue and Vine street, under while avenue and the street, under anspices of Woman's Home and Young Indice' Missionary Societies of the Smith-field Street Methodist Episcopal Church, The attractions at the sale will be articles for Christmas presents, fancy articles of every description, and home-made candles, Refreshments will be served.

One of the events of this season was the grand reception and supper given by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morgan at their beautiful residence, Undercliff, Pa., on Thanksgiving Eve. The guests, mostly from Pittsburg and Allegheny, 85 in number, were warmly received by Mr. and Mrs. Morgan. Supper and dancing comprised the evening's pleasire, which was kept up until the arrival of the 6:30 train.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharrer, of Foster street, Lawrenceville, were tendered a delightful Lawrencevine, were tendered a deigntral surprise by a host of friends on Wednesday evening. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sharrer, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. McCallum, Mr. and Mrs. M. Al Seif, Mr. and Mrs. S. Bowden, Mr. and Mrs. H. Grundmah, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Naser and Mr. and Mrs. John Kell, Jr.

In a general shifting in the Allegheny County Central High School, at Copeland, Prof. G. L. Hamm becomes principal in place of Prof. J. L. Demning, resigned, Miss Mary R. Kennedy takes Mr. Hamm's place, Miss Emma North will occupy the position an North will occupy the pos vacated by Miss Kennedy. A wedding of interest to Braddock young people was that of Miss Clara Walters, daughter of Mr. John Walters, and John Gallagher, in St. Thomas' R. C. Church, Braddock, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Miss Mary M. Paschek and Harry W. Rotterauff, of Braddock, were married at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the St. Josph's German Catholic Church at Brad-Mr. John Rinard, of Fourth street, West

Braddock, of the firm of Rinard & Williams, was married on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock to Mrs. E. E. Flickinger, of Reiners-

The Ideal Eachre Club was entertained by Miss Emma Ecker, of No. 13 Oakland Square, on last Thursday evening. A very pleasan evening was spent.

The Epworth League Chapter, of the First M. E. Church, of Braddock, on Tuesday evening gives an entertainment of stereop-tican views.

Rev. Dr. Thomas N. Boyle, the popular pastor of the First M. E. Church of Braddock, left Tuesday for a tour of the Eastern cities.

John A. Brashear, of Allegheny City, lectured on "A Night with the Stars" in Carnegie Hall, Braddock, Friday evening.

Harry B. McClure, of Braddock, will be given a reception Thursday evening in Leightner's Hall. Prof. McClure, of Braddock, gives a recep tion on Thursday evening.

Personal Pointe

Miss Ray Sabiodonsky, of No. 10 Wylie ave-nue, left last evening for New York to spend the winter season. Mr. Howard H. Brown, of New York, re-turned on Thursday after a week's visit to Harry J. Bird, of North Braddock.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Smith and Miss Daisy Smith, who have been visiting in Pittsburg, left last Monday for their home at Bellaire, O.

Mr. Thomas Addenbrook, of Braddock, a member of the Board of Education and Su-perintendent of the building department at the Edgar Thomson works, returned Tues-day from a five months' visit in Great Britain and a tour of the continent.

SAVE money by purchasing your holiday presents of fine diamonds, watches, jewelry, silverware, clocks, bronzes, etc., of M. G. Cohen, Diamond Expert and Jeweler, 36 Fifth avenue. No fancy prices. Store open evenings during December. Telephone 1936.

STORE open every evening until Christ-mas. Call and see our stock of holiday goods.

MICHIGAN FURNITURE Co., 437 Snuthfield street.

THE eighth wonder, "Chemical Dia-nonds." Who has them?

MUFFS to match fur capes. SMILEY & Co., 28 Fifth avenue.

Allegheny's Grand Jewelry Store, Described in this issue, is the place to find the very nicest things for presents in the way of silverware, fine plated ware, clocks, iewelry and precious stones.

LADIES' and gentlemen's seal gloves. SMILEY & Co., 28 Fifth avenue, visit of Department Commander Bover and staff. The camp fire at Old City Hall next Wednesday evening promises to be the biggest affair of the kind we have yet had. A the ticket.

gest affair of the kind we have yet had. A very interesting programme has been ar ranged, and the confrades and their friends, who will attend en mass, will be interesting-ly entertained. All old soldiers, their fami-lies and friends are cordially invited. A number of prominent local comrades will meet the visitors at Greensburg to-morrow evening, where a grand rally will be held. The train will leave the Union station at 515 r. M. The party will return on the train leaving Greensburg at 1124 r. M. On Tuesday the visitors will leave the Union station for New Brighton at 515 r. M. Retu uing they will leave New Brighton at 5202 A.M. On Thurs-day Butler will be visited. The train will leave the Federal street station of the West Penn Railroud at 315 r. M. Returning the party will leave at 620 and 630 Friday morn-ing. The last visit will be to Connellsville on Friday evening. The party will leave the Baltimore and Ohio depot at 415 r. M. at 430 and 730 o'clock. These visits will arouse great interest in the different localities and will doubtless do a great deal of good.

a great deal of good.

Ladies of the G. A. R.

Mrs. Anna Stradling, of Bristol, Pa., and Mrs. Elia Lauterbauch, of Philadelphia, members of the Board of Managers of the Home of the Ladies of the G. A. R., are the uests of Mrs. Rachel Doran, Department President. The Department President, Mrs. Rachel Doran, desires all department officers, cir-le presidents and Ladies of the G. A. R. to neet at the hall, No. 81 Fourth avenue, on meet at the hall, No. 81 Fourth avenue, on next Friday at 2 r. M. sharp. Business of importance is to be considered. The Department President has returned from a trip through the eastern part of the State, having visited all the circles in the East. She reports all in a flourishing con-dition

The Board of Managers of the Ladies of the G. A. R. Home desire that the G. A. R. Posts, Union Veteran Legion and Sons of Veterans of Pittsburg, Allegheny and sur-rounding towns not having made an annual

Visit to the drvine service at the Home at Hawkins station, will set their own time and notify the Secretary of their intended visit so the necessary arrangements can be wade made. The Ladies of the G. A. R. regret that they are about to lose one of their oldest and best workers in the person of Mrs. Emma Doug-lass, of Braddock, who will remove to a Western home in the near future.

Most Baking Powders Contain Ammonia or Alum;

OFFICERS were elected by Major Samue OFFICIES were elected by Major Samuel Harper Camp No. 102, SONS of Veterans, last Tuesday evening, as follows: Commander, O. D. Stewart: Senior Vice Commander, An-drew Hopkins; Junior Vice Commander, Ernest M. Rees: Delegate, W. A. Morrison; Alternate, W. J. Siebert: Camp Conneil, R. A. Morrison, J. H. Shaw and Emil Poerstei, Jr. The meeting was one of the most enjoy-able in the history of the camp. Much en-thusias was manifested, and, as the new officers are hustlers, a decided boom is al-most a certainty. Two applications were read Tuesday night. Comrade Schultz, of Post 3, was a visitor.

Union Veteran Legion. ENCAMPMENT No. 1 will elect officers to morrow night.

COLONEL FRANK J. WHEELER, of No. 6, is stowly improving in health. He is now able to sit up a little.

COMBADE J. C. STEVENSON, of New Castle editor of the Volunteer, attended last Friday evening's meeting of No. 6. THE matter of Warden Cassiday's tirade against all old soldiers received some atten-tion with brass knucklers at No. 6's meeting No. 6 met with a sad loss in the death of ex-Colonel R. D. Barker. He died last Thursday morning after a protracted illness. By request of Comrade Barker, Post 162 and Encam ment No. 6 conducted the funera rvie

On last Friday evening No. 6 elected off cers, with the following result: Colonel Com-mander, J. H. Stevenson: Lieutenant Colonel, John Beers: Major, C. J. Cross: Sur-geon, C. M. Green; Chaplain, Arch Cham-bers; Officer of the Day, B. T. Sheehan; Trus-tee, John Beers.

THERE are about 10,000 Union soldier buried in the cometery at Beaufort, S. C. buried in the cometery at Beaufort, S. C., the dead of all the adjacent islands being gathered there. A movement is now on foot, starting here in Pittsburg, to organize a party of 150 to 200 veterans and go to that city some time this winter and hold a memorial service. Anyone desiring to join in this movement should correspond with J. H. Stevenson, attorney at law, Pittsburg, Pa. This may result in a cheap excursion to that beautiful country.

What Mrs. Harrison Reads.

Send 25 cents to the Ladies' Home Magatine, 1025 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa.,

Will Not Lie in a Pauper's Grave. Reflections have been cast upon the Grand

Cleveland's does not-

It is made only of pure cream of tartar and soda, with a little flour added to keep the strength, nothing else. That is why Cleveland's baking powder is perfectly wholesome, does the work better and keeps food moist and fresh.

it would cost anywhere else.

TAKE ELEVATOR FOR FANCY FAIR ON SECOND

Manicure Sets, Dressing Cases, Work Boxes, Collar and Cuff Boxes, Handkerchief Boxes, Glove Boxes, Odor Cases, Smokers' Sets, and all of the newest and prettiest designs in Plush, Leather and Oxidized, Handsome Albums in all the pretty creations of Leather and Plush, beautiful Leather Writing Tablets, elegant Leather Cigar Cases, neat Leather Music Rolls, etc., etc., ALL AT DANZIGER'S RECORD-BREAKING PRICES.

Grand Fancy Bazaar on First Floor, Sixth Street Entrance.

Conceded by all that we've got the biggest choice, best selection and by far the lowest prices in these two cities of Sevres Ware, Fontainbleau Ware, Royal Dresden Ware, Crown Derby and Royal Worcester Ware, Royal Berlin and Imperial Vienna Ware, Old Hall and Coalport Ware, Adderly and Bisque, Bronze and Marble Statuary, Lamps, Onyx Tables, Pictures, Placques, Candelabra, etc., etc.

MILLIONS OF XMAS CARDS AND BOOKLETS.

All the Newest Revelations, Fancies and Peculiarities in Xmas Cards and Booklets are here in all their pristine beauty and loveliness, and the prices, well, no one need lack for Xmas Cards on that score if they come to Danziger's for them. Ministers and Sunday school teachers buying quantities will get special prices.

Maybe It's Umbrellas You're Interested In This Joyous Xmas Season,

And, if it is, we've got thousands of them. Hundreds of different, artistically pretty handles in Gold, Silver, Oxidized and Natural Wood. Many, yes, very many of them are exclusive at Danziger's, and can't be had anywhere else. But, as ever, our prices are right, being always the cheapest.

N. B.-No CHARGE FOR ENGRAVING.

We'll Wind Up With a Few Stunning Holiday Bargains From Cloak Room!

We cleared an extra fine lot Super-Astrachan Fur-Trimmed Reefers, 30 inches long, four lovely head ornaments, and half silk-lined; they sold last week at $18; won't they make an elegant FOR $10 EACH. Xmas gift? and now

Rich and elegant are the Lynx Fur-Trimmed Reefers-$20 ones-28 inches long, full collar and satin lined; we've been on the outlook for this lot, and secured them at the right time to sell AT $11.98 EACH.

Then there's a regular gem of a $10 Reefer, very fine Astrachan trimmed, 28-inches long, and has four pretty silk ornaments; this lot we also secured to sell now FOR $5.49 EACH.

Another very noticeable lot of $8 garments that we've "gobbled," are the neat, durable and stylish Reefers, tailor-made, neatly bound and open seams; they're 27 inches long; come in black, tan, and blue, and are guaranteed strictly pure wool. THEY'LL SELL NOW FOR $4.99 EACH.

And now, in conclusion, there's the prettiest lot of $12 Beaver Jackets you ever clapped eyes on; they're 30 inches long, with vest and full shawl collar, and we'll clear them FOR $6.99 EACH.

ALWAYS THE CHEAPEST. DANZIGER'S SIXTH STREET AND PENN AVENUE.