FIGHT FOR A STATE.

The Way Paved for the Real Struggle for New York's Senate.

COUNSEL DECIDES ON A COURSE

That Will Be Closely Followed in the Court of Appeals To-Day.

DEMOCRATIC DECISIONS NON-PARTISAN

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCHA ALBANY, Dec. 7 .- The troublesome contested Senate election in the Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Twenty-fifth and Twenty-seventh Senate districts, on the settlement of which depends the control of the next Senate, are now practically before the highest judicial tribunal of the State, the Court of Appeals, for adjudication. The formal presentation of the cases to the Court of Appeals will occur to-morrow morning, when a place on the immediate calendar will be a ked and the fixing by the Court of a day-probably next week-for the argument of the same.

The day's proceedings in this very important matter were rapid, but harmonious and effective. The Board of State Cauvassers met in the morning, but with the full knowledge that the counsel on both sides, by agreement, were presenting the cases to the courts, did nothing but take a recess subject to the call of the Chair. The history of the day was thereafter wholly enacted in the champers of the Supreme Court at the City Hall here.

A Great Array of Prominent Lawyers. Judge Edwards came down from Troy and re-convened the adjourned special Supreme Court session for the purpose soon after 9 A. M. The representation by counsel included Hon. Matthew Hale, William A. Sutherland, John T. Parkhurst, William Nottingham, J. Rider Cody, Joseph H. Choate and Eugene Burlingame for the Republicans, and Deputy Attorney General Maynard, Delos McCurdy and Thomas Gan-non for the Democrats. Application was made by Messrs. Hale and Choate for five writs of mandamus, as follows:

writs of mandamus, as follows:

First—In the case of the people ex rel Finnklin D. Sherwood vs Frank Rice as Secretary of State, for an order directing the return of the resolution of the Stablen County Supervisors as to the eligibility of said Sherwood, Republican candidate for sends in the Twenty-seventh district, and all extraneous papers filed with the Secretary of State in cannection with the returns from that district.

Second—In the case of the people ex rel Finnklin D. Sherwood vs the Board of State Canvassers, for an order restraining said heard from considering said extraneous papers.

board from considering said extraneous papers.

Third—in the case of the people ex rel Walliam C. Daley and John I. Platt (as relations for Gilbert A. Dean, deceased) vs the Board of State Canvassers for an order restraining said board from canvassing the statement of the returns from Dutchess county (known as the Mylod certificate) filed with said board.

Fourth—The people ex rel Rufus T. Peck, against the Board of State Canvassers, for an order restraining them from issuing a certificate of election to any but Peck.

Firth—The people ex rel John H. Derby vs same board, for an order directing the issue of a certificate to said appellant as Senator-elect in the Sixteenth district.

The Agreement Made by Counsel. The Agreement Made by Counsel.

With this application was presented the stipulation by counsel for both sides under which it is agreed to bring the cases to the court of last resort as follows: court of last resort as follows:

It is hereby stipulated in each of the nove entitled proceedings that an appeal shall be immediately taken from each of the orders granted therein at the Columbia Special Term, commencing December 3, 1891, and entered in the Albany County Clerk's office December 7, 1891; that the relators therein will print the papers upon such appeals, and turnish them so that the appeals shall be submitted to the General Term, now being neld in the Third department, on Tuesday, December 8; that the respondents upon such appeal will accept notice of argument thereof for that day, and units with the appellants in a request to the General Term to present such appeal upon its calcular for that day, and immediately hear and decide such appeals.

ender for that day, and immediately hear and decide such appeals.

That the detented party at general term shall immediately appeal to the Court of Appeals, and the prevailing party shall accept short notice of argument of the appeals in that court, and unite with the appeals in that court, and unite with the appealants in a request to the court to place the appeals upon the present calendar and hear them upon some day to be fixed by the court therefor as early as practicable, and that the proceedings of the State Board of Cauvassers relating to the canvass of votes for Senator in the Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Twenty-fifth and Twenty-seventh Senatorial districts be suspended until the decision of the Court of Appeals upon such appeal, providing such decision be made prior to December 30, 1891, and that such canvass shall be completed and the certificates of the result made by the State Board of Canvassers in accordance with the decicates of the result unde by the State Board of Canvassers in accordance with the decision of the Court of Appeals in these cases, if so unide, and in accordance with the decision of the Court of Appeals upon the appeals which will be taken in the matter relative to the canvass of the votes for Senator by the Omandaga Board of County Canvassers, dated Albany, December 7, 1891.

Writs of Mandamus at Once Granted. On consideration of this stipulation, Justice Edwards at once granted the applicaof mandamus asked, and sent them to the general term, on appeal, without argument. The Democrats, represented by Deputy Attorney General Maynard, on their part withdrew the motion made for an order va-cating the order which directed the Dutchess County Board of Canvassers to reconven-and recanvass the vote of that county.

Some little skirmishing on the part of counsel ensued over the attempt of Mr. Hale to get in affidavits showing that a demand had been made by Republicans upon the Board of State Canvassers for the issue of certificates of election to the several Republican contestants in the four districts, but it resulted only in the admission of the affidavit in the Derby case of the Sixteenth district, the others being ruled out by Judge Edwards. The morning's work ended with this.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon Deputy Attorney General Maynard, representing the State Board of Canvassers, and Delos McCurdy, representing the Democratic counsel, and Hon. M. Hale, for the Repub-licans, appeared before Justices William L. Learned, Stephen L. Mayham and John R. Putnam, sitting in regular term session. Mr. Hale presented the orders of Judge Edwards, pro forms, and asked for an order confirming them. They were at once placed on the calendar, the order for confirmation granted, and an appeal taken by Mr. May nard to the Court of Appeals.

The Way Paved for To-Day's Work. The litigation for the day was over, and the way carefully and legally paved for the presentation of the question at issue to the Court of Appeals to-morrow. Delos McCurdy, representing the Democratic counsel, in reply to a query of THE DISPATCH reporter, made directly after the general term sitting, stated that the position of the Board of State Canvassers occupied to-day was that of acting—or rather refusal to act—under the stay granted by Judge Barnard pending the recount of the Dutchess county returns, although the orders granted to-day, and the stipulation of counsel especially, inferentially stayed the board from acting on the returns from the four disputed districts as they were now on file before them tricts as they were now on file before them till such time as a decision by the courts should be reached.

It was expected that as this was the last day the Board of Canyassers would be called together again this afternoon, but it was not, and one of the members stated they would not meet again to-day, being in any event subject to the call of the chair, which could be made coincident with an order of the court after a decision had been order of the court after a decision had been reached directing them to reconvene and canvass the votes in the disputed districts.

Democratic Justices Make All Decisions, Though the decisions of the courts may result disastrously in a political sense to Democratic hopes of controling the next Senate, still none are warmer in their praises of the high plane of action assumed by the Judiciary of this, the Third Judicial district, than the Democratic State officials about the Capitol. It is worthy of note that every decision and order of importance thus far granted, either for or against the Board of State Canvassers, and in line with Republican claims and hopes, has been by a Democratic justice.

> DEATHS HERE AND ELSEWHERE. Ex-Senator Andrew J. Bell.

Ex-Senator Andrew J. Bell died at Peoria, Ill., Sunday night of apoplexy. He was stricken down four days ago while making an address before the Park Place Chantauqua Assembly. He was 49 years old. He served two terms in the State oid. He served two terms in the State Senate, and was prominently identified with measures tending to the benefit of workingmen. He was a candidate for Lieutenant Governor in 1888, but was defeated. Two years ago he founded the Peoria Herald, but afterward retired from the position of editor. He would have been the Democratic candidate for Congress in his district at the next election. He was for years political editor of the National Democrat.

Thomas Clarence Layton. Yesterday morning Thomas Clarence Layton, one of Pittsburg's most promising young men, died at his father's residence, L.S. Lay ton, at Neville station. He was 28 years of age and was connected with the firm of T.
G. Evans & Co. Acute tuberculosis was the cause of death. He was a brother of Harry Laytor, the well-known newspaper man.
He was also a prominent member of the Randall Club. The funeral services will be held this morning at Neville, and the interment will be at Morgantown, W. Va.

AISLE NUMBER TWO Will be filled with several hundred suits on which we have made the special price of FIFTEEN DOLLARS.

LIKE THE BOY WHO FELL THROUGH A WINDOW

It gives us a pane in our head when we think what some of these suits cost. But the first loss is the best, and trade has been so good we can afford to be generous. WE WILL BE.

Almost every style of fabric you can think of is represented. Elegant Sacks, stylish Frocks and Form-fitting Cutaways, most of them made and trimmed equal to custom work.

There are in the lot suits that we have sold at $18, $20, $22 and even $24. We don't pretend that we can fit everybody in every suit. But we can fit you in a good many of those we shall show.

Your size is there; it will pay you to take a little trouble to

The early birds will catch the best suits.
