BAUSMAN INDIGNANT

At the Sensational Charges Openly Made by the Now Celebrated McCrory.

A LIVELY PRESBYTERY MEETING.

The Discussion Becomes Fo Personal That the Moderator Is Forced to Call a Peremptory Halt.

SUNDAY OPENING OF THE WORLD'S FAIR.

An United Presbyterian Elder Positively Refuses Pray for His Paster.

The Sunday opening of the World's Pair and the now famous Bausman case were the features of the meeting of the Allegheny Presbytery yesterday. Rev. R. Donaldson was cleated Moderator and G. L. Milligan Clerk. Rev. W. E. Donaldson, Rev. J. K. McKallip, Rev. M. Rutherford, Rev. J. F. Robinson and A. C. Patterson, Esq., were appointed to investigate the condition of the societies attached to the churches of the Presbytery; to find out their number and membership, and to ascertain what progress they are making.

Rev. P. H. Holliday, Rev. J. L. Reed and R. B. Mowry, M. D., were appointed a Committee on Narrative and State of Religion of the Church. Then Rev. J. L. Reed presented the following paper: To the Board of Managers of the World's Fair for the State of Pennsylvania: GENTLEMEN-The Presbytery of Allegheny of the Synod of Pennsylvania, in regular session upon this eighth day of December, 1891, believing that it represents the practi-cally universal mind and feeling of the Christian people of this region, does hereby very earnestly petition your honorable body to use all your influence and cast your ballots in favor of closing the gates of the Columbian Exposition upon the Christian Sabbath. The paper was ordered to be sent to the board.

The Bausman Case Bobs Up. Rev. Dr. Campbell, chairman of the committee that was appointed at the last meeting of the Presbytery to watch over the Bausman case, reported progress. He had nothing definite to say nor any recommendations to make. In the opinion of the majority of the members of the Presbytery this report seemed to leave the matter as it was and did neither justice to Mr. Bausman nor to the Presbytery, and this occasioned considerable

In several short speeches Rev. J. H. Bausman spoke of the effect his dissolution from his Rochester congregation would have. He said: "If that church is allowed to go on as at present it will not suffer fuancially, spiritually or in any manner that concerns its growth. My destinies alone are not concerned in this matter, but those of others, and I have worked faithfully. Before God I can say no more."

The speaker then referred to the action against him, and intimated that the origin of the trouble in his congregation was due not alone to an interest in the spiritual wellfare of the church, but to a personal autagonism directed against himself by certain members of the congregation.

To Watch Him in the Future. Rev. John Fox then said: "I move that the committee be continued until the spring meeting and report then whether or not Mr. Bausman has returned to the faith of the church, and also to offer such recom-mendations as may arise from the case and tend toward its ultimate disposition." This resolution was seconded and dis-cussed at length. Rev. J. K. McKallip, whose church is at Benyer Fells was inwhose church is at Beaver Falls, was inclined to proceed slowly and allow the mat-ter to shape itself. He said that this course would not mean that the Presbytery shared in the reported views of Mr. Bausman nor that the Presbytery was careless. Too swift judgment would likely work an in-justice instead of right it.

Rev. John Fox said that he desired to secure peace and harmony; that the case had excited interest throughout the church generally, and that a disposition of it was expected promptly. He, however, offered to withdraw his resolution, but it was fol-lowed by one that would bring the same conclusion. It was that "the committee report finally on the case at the spring meeting, and make such recommendations as the case warrants."

McCrory to the Front.

Rev. W. J. McCrory at this juncture cre-ated the sensation of the afternoon, and had need the sensation of the alternoon, and had not the Moderator interposed a heated dis-cussion would have arisen. In speaking of the resolution of Mr. Fox he said: "The teachings of Mr. Bausman are derogatory to the Christian morals of the community, and injurious to the cause of Christ. His preaching is the same." preaching is the same."
In an instant Mr. Bausman was on his feet and quoted the sentence of Mr. Mc-Crory, asking excitedly if he had heard the gentleman correctly. Upon being informed that he had, he asked, sharply: "Mr. Mc-Crory, do you mean to say that I preach derogatory to the morals of my congrega-Mr. McCrory-I do. Mr. Bausman-Did you ever hear me preach anything derogatory to Christian

The Moderator-This discussion is personal and out of order.

Mr. Bausman—I claim the right to ask him if he ever heard me preach matter such as he speaks of.

The Moderator—This is out of order and must stop. The Beaver Valley Divine Aroused.

Mr. Bausman (angrily)—Mr. McCrory, I demand an answer. Have you ever heard me preach derogatory to Christian morals? Cries of order drowned any answer that may have been made by Mr. McCrory.

The motion of Rev. Mr. Fox was then read and carried and the discussion ended. Much other business was then transacted among which was a report from Rev. D. S. Kennedy relative to the establishment of a Bible School Mission on the Perrysville road, the cost being $1,000 for the property and $1,300 for the building. The report was adopted and the work will be pushed rapidly. The overture of the General Assembly relating to the establishment of judicial commissions to try church cases and hear complaints, was answered in the negative. The resignation of Rev. D. V. Mays. of Springdale, was received and accepted upon the earnest solicitation of Mr. Mays himself.

PRAYERS WERE REFUSED.

A U. P. Bellevue Pastor Denied Spiritual Comfort by an Elder-Trustees Didn't Belong to the Church-Graham Given Permission to Withdraw.

The meeting of the Allegheny U. P. Presbytery was enlivened yesterday by the case of Rev. S. H. Graham, of Bellevue, who resigned his charge. Testimony on both sides was heard by a special committee which reported to the presbytery in favor of accepting Rev. Mr. Graham's resignation. The season was that it was impossible to cure existing troubles in the Bellvue church without a change of pastor. The following resolution was presented:

Resolved, That the resignation by Rev. 8. H.-Graham, of the pastoral charge of the H.-Graham, of the pastoral charge of the congregation of Believue, be and is hereby accepted.

Resolved, That in consenting to the dissolution of this pastoral relation, the Presbytery expresses its disapproval of the conduct of taose in the church whose unjustifiable opposition to the pastor, continued through many years, has for a long time hindered his usefulness and has at last made his resignation necessery.

Resolved, That in relieving our brother from his church we put upon record our high appreciation of his character as a man, as a minister, and commend him to the people of God everywhere as an able minister of the gospel and one most worthy their confidence and esteem.

Resolved, That the resignation of Brother Graham take effect on the last Sabbath in December and that he be appointed to preach on that day and declare his pulpit vacant. hindered his usefulness and has at last made White-Haired Preachers Pult Wool. This was a signal for war. Dr. Robinson stood on the floor and held it, Then he struck an attitude and the back of a pew, struck an attitude and the back of a pew, and declared it looked as if Presbytery wanted to convict someone without a trial. "The paper makes a direct charge," said he, "that someone has been guilty of unjustifiable conduct, but who is it? There has been no investigation, there has been no charge made against anyone, and how can Presbytery take the responsibility of passing a censure upon this congregation. I had no idea of any trouble in Mr. Graham's congregation. Suddenly I learn that members have been guilty of unwarranted and Suddenly I learn that members have been guilty of unwarranted and unjustifiable conduct for many years.

Mr. Graham—Nothing but the truth has been presented to the committee. It was my desire that the facts be kept away from the Presbytery, but they can be presented if desired. There are plenty of them.

Mr. Calver—As an example of some of the reasons why Mr. Graham wants to resign is that a certain elder in his church would not pray for his pastor nor allow any-Having had an aggravated case of eczema on ankle and knee of two years' standing, I was in-duced in try your CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have entirely cured toe now. Dr. Robinson—It must be a magnetic individual who can wield such an influence over an entire congregation. Airing the Church Skeletons Dr. McMillan said there could be no

Or. McMillan said there could be no doubt about the case being properly presented, and he was opposed to the Presbytery being too easy with the people. "There is no use of being afraid of hurting anyone's feeling," said he. "If they deserve a censure let us give it to them."

"I believe in striking anyway, and if Billy Patterson is not there he won't get Billy Patterson is not there he won't get hit," shouted a minister from the rear.

Dr. Wallace favored striking out the word "unjustifiable," and the resolution passed. Later in the day it was discovered two of the trustees of the Bellevue Church were not members of the congregation, and, after a bitter fight of words, this congregation was cited to appear before the next meeting Presbytery. There are other churches which will also be hauled over the

The other business transacted was as follows: Prevision was made for a new congregation at Mars, Butler county. H. G. Swearingen and J. B. Johnston, two students, preached trial sermons of 15 minutes each, which were pronounced evidences of progress. A report indersing the proposed new financial system of the General Assem-bly, which provides for one general finan-cial secretary and treasurer for all the church boards, was adopted.

During the Holidays.

As well as at every other time of the year, Marvin's cakes and crackers are so popular that it is difficult to supply the demand. Royal fruit biscuit can hardly be supplied fast enough to meet the demand, while soda crackers, Marvin's old reliable, famous XXX sodas, are selling like hot cakes. Everybody seems to want them at once. They are so delightfully crisp and fresh that people who try them always want more. Ask your groce: for Marvin's cakes and crackers. Don't take any others.
