

BOTH SIDES AGREED

That County Officers Should Have Additional Salaries.

NO DOUBT CONCERNING THE END.

A Long List of Suits Disposed of in the Criminal Branch.

VARIOUS MATTERS HANDLED IN COURT

Proceedings were commenced in Common Pleas No. 1 yesterday to obtain for the majority of the county officers for their present term of office the salaries provided by the act of 1883...

The question of salary was created by the census of 1890. Allegheny county was then working under the act of 1881 which fixed a schedule of salaries for officers of counties having a population of more than 300,000...

For the same reason the act of 1891, passed at the last session of the Legislature fixing salaries of Allegheny county officials, could not apply to those who went into office on the first of January, 1891, and claim their salaries under the act of 1883...

When the officers claimed the increased salaries Controller Grier refused to pay them. As he was one of those affected, he decided to sue for the amount...

The suit is an action in assumpsit, brought by John A. Hill, County Treasurer, against Allegheny county, to recover $7,500 for his salary for the year 1891...

Judge Stowe concurred in the point that the act of 1891 did not apply in these cases as it was passed since these officers took their positions. He directed the court to prepare briefs and submit them to him...

IN THE CRIMINAL BRANCH

A Large Number of Little Cases Disposed of Yesterday.

In Criminal Court yesterday, before Judges Foster and Kennedy, Charles Kennedy was found guilty of stealing a watch from J. H. Brown in the East End July 9, 1891...

Thomas Frances pleaded guilty of keeping a disorderly house on East 10th street, and was sentenced to the workhouse six months. George Howard pleaded guilty to assault on a woman and was sentenced to the workhouse two months...

Frank Rubolta was convicted of entering Joseph Verbitski at a Polish wedding on the night of November 2, 1891, and was sentenced to the workhouse for the next three months. James Drew was acquitted of receiving stolen goods from William Gaffney...

Henry Wyatt and Ed Lantner were tried for robbing Charles Allison in a saloon near McKeesport April 11, 1891. Wyatt was acquitted of murder and Lantner was acquitted of murder and Lantner was acquitted of murder...

In the case of Margaret Sabl, tried for assaulting a woman on East 10th street, a verdict of not guilty was rendered and the case dismissed. George Mitchell was acquitted of stealing a pair of trousers from Joseph Kobulinsky November 7, 1891...

James Woods was sent to the workhouse eight months for the larceny of a lot of stolen clothing from Dr. H. B. Haddock. Edward Swaine, charged with felonious assault and battery on John Parker, was acquitted of assault and battery on John Parker...

Atlantic City. After Hallor returned home his wife found a picture of himself and Miss Bishop taken together in his dressing room. The picture was appended to the testimony. Mr. Hallor finally had to leave her husband.

Work of the Grand Jury. The grand jury yesterday returned the following true bills: James Newell, Thomas Walton, Jennie Stauffer, Simon Kaatman, Harry Chambers, David Larimer and Martin Gallagher, in common; Frank Lomax and Frank Leonard, larceny from the person; Mary Dunbar, selling liquor without license; Benjamin Stronnes and Charles Ford, entering a building; Ed McLaughlin, in common; Ed Norwalk, embezzlement; George Dark and Wilbert Freeman, aggravated assault and battery; John Klockin, felonious assault; Wesley Barber, assault and battery. The following were ignored: Carrie Burns and John M. Batten, assault and battery; Annie Behan, larceny of value; Jos. Collopy et al, false pretense; Wm. M. Jackson, larceny; Louis Huchenburg, assault and battery; Wm. Koons, nuisance.

Little Notes From the Courts. The suit of T. C. Sauer against A. Mozersky, to recover architect fees, is on trial before Judge Stowe. The jury is out in the case of M. L. Walle and C. W. Frank against J. S. McDonald & Co., an action for wages.

The suit of A. E. Walker against McKeesport borough for damages for land taken in violation of the act of 1881, is on trial before Judge Collier. A bill in equity was filed by Emma L. Hunt and Margaret McKinley against John Stewart for the partition of a lot on Penn avenue, Twelfth ward.

George E. Cartwright entered a suit against A. A. Harwood for $2,000 damages for slander. A similar suit was entered by Henry Friel against John Laidler. By the suit of Paul Sanderson against the Pittsburg Traction Company for damages for injuries caused by a fall when getting on a car, a verdict was rendered for the plaintiff.

By the suit of Paul Sanderson against the Pittsburg Traction Company for damages for injuries caused by a fall when getting on a car, a verdict was rendered for the plaintiff. A verdict for $4,000 was rendered for the plaintiff in the suit of C. A. Balph vs the Central Traction Company, an action to recover a balance due for the erection of the Wyllie avenue power house.

Mrs. W. H. Haver secured a verdict for $2,500 against the Pittsburg and Allegheny Bridge Company. She claimed to have received a permanent injury while crossing the bridge by striking her foot against a spike. The testimony in the divorce suit of Marie R. Orr against James L. Orr, the real estate agent, was filed yesterday. Orr was convicted of assaulting May Kelly, and was sentenced four years and ten months to the workhouse.

A verdict for $10 was rendered for the plaintiff in the suit of P. Moran and wife against J. W. Tygard. It was an action to recover damages for injuries to household goods caused by a falling ceiling, although the bridge by striking her foot against a spike. The testimony in the divorce suit of Marie R. Orr against James L. Orr, the real estate agent, was filed yesterday. Orr was convicted of assaulting May Kelly, and was sentenced four years and ten months to the workhouse.

The suit of C. S. Crawford against George Poteris, for damages for alleged false arrest, is on trial before Judge Kennedy. Poteris had sued Crawford for conspiracy, charging him with trying to break him out of his interest in an oil well. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff and Crawford was discharged, and he then sued for damages.

WE HAVE 'EM ON THE RUN!

AND DON'T YOU FORGET IT.

"For goodness sake, let up on your prices; they're simply ruining you and us, too," is the cry of our fellow shoe dealers. "Let us tell you, gentlemen, we will not let up. If our prices ruin us, that is our business; if they ruin you, we can't help it." This was our reply to the most pathetic of appeals ever made by one merchant to another. We are here to make trade hum by naming the lowest of living prices on Honest Footwear, and that we are succeeding in our efforts the crowded state of our store from morn till night speaks volumes.
