SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH 1

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WARREN, PA., Dec. 9.-In court to-day the placing of John S. Berg on trial for killing Montgomery J. Sloan introduced evidence recalling that sensational affair. On Friday, October 2, 1891, Montgomery Slean, aged 45 years, a private patient in the insane hospital at North Warren, had some difficulty with his attendant, John J. herg. In a paroxysm of rage Sloan had torn his bed to pieces and Slavin, another attendant, went into Sloan's room to get the had He asked Sloan to gather up the straw which was scattered about the room, and the patient began to do, so when Berg entered the room and said:

Good morning, Mr. Sloan," Stoan told Berg to "get out," at the same time striking at him. A fierce struggle ensued, in which Slavin helped Berg, although the latter had his patient on the floor. Berg kicked the prostrate patient four times. The following Sunday morning Sloan died, the hospital records said of peritonitis, caused by the rupture of a small intestine. After a post mortem exmination Berg was arrested and held for

Dr. Hunter, of the asylum staff, save that it was impossible to diagnose Sloan's symp-toms. He would invariably say in response to questions, that the whole world was in He examined the man after death, and found two bruises, and believed he had died from the rupture of an intestine. Dr. Pierce, the Coronor, says there were evi-dences of inflammation in the abdominal cavity, pus formation and a rupture, all probably the result of external violence. At the trial all these facts were brought out by witnesses. The indictment charges Berg with voluntary manslaughter.

Montgomery J. Sloan, the unfortunate was well known in Pittsburg, where he lived for a time when on the Oil Ex-change. He was also a driller and conand was well known all over the upper and lower oil regions, and was, besides, a great traveler, an unusually suc-1889 he had a severe attack of the grip which finally affected his mind, and on the 4th day of June, 1891, he was taken to the He was known as a private patient, his expenses being paid by his fam-ily, wealthy and prominent people of Park-er's Landing. It was more than intimated that this was the fourth death by violence, in one way or another, inflicted by keepers on patients g. Experts, among them the hospital systemas, were examined, and the latter tried to make out a case that Sloan had rup-tured himself by severe vomiting before the immerel began. The case was given to the shad until to morrow The prevailing ion is that Berg will be found not guitt, owing to the conflicting testimony.

AS BAD AS BULL FIGHTING.

Two Wolves From Pittsburg Chewed Up by Hounds at Greensburg.

GREENSBURG, Dec. 9 .- [Special.]-Th great welf chase took place near here this afternoon on the stock farm of Paul H. Hacke. Many friends of Mr. Hacke were present, and people from the surrounding country swelled the crowd. Dr. J. B. Grimes, of Pittsburg, conducted the affair. It was not a brilliant success as a chase, since the beasts were not given much chance for their lives. Two prairie welves, fleet of foot and savage and snapping, arrived here from Pittsburg at 2 o'clock. They were taken to the farm and one of them loosened in the dog kennel, covering but one acre of ground and surrounded by a high board fence.

Four of the handsome wolfhounds recently imported by Mr. Hacke (the youngbeing selected as a trial), were then turned loose on the shivering wolf. The animal turned at buy, and a terrific fight ento whimpers of pain, but they fought gamely-never so gamely, however, as the wolf, which was plainly besting the dogs, and would certainly have killed them finalhad they not received aid. At a signal on Dr. Grimes three of the older dogs were let loose, and in a moment later the olf was dead, his body being torn to shreds by the infuriated dogs.

Believing that the second wolf would give a lively chase, even against the entire s wild scene for a moment, but the wolf was easily captured. Just as he was crouching for a leap over the fence and into a dense thicket the leading bound caught him by the neck and dragged him back to the howling pack, where he was torn to pieces in a

This chase is the first of a series that will be held on the Hacke farm during the winter. The next will occur during the holi-days, when it is expected the animals will be given a better chance for their lives. The Hacke kennel of wolfhounds is said to be the finest in the country, and was displayed to advantage to-day, though the first welf left marks of his fangs that will not soon be

Annual Gathering of the State Troting Horse Breeders.

STAKES ARRANGED FOR NEXT YEAR

Princeton Begins to Complain About the Thanksgiving Day Receipts.

The best annual meeting that the Pennsylvania Association of Trotting Horse Breeders have ever held was that of yesterday held at the Seventh Avenue Hotel. Not only was the attendance larger than at any previous meeting, but the reports were better and the enthusiasm was stronger. The association has, indeed, thoroughly estab-lished itself, and is known throughout the land. Its prospects are better than ever, and its roll of membership is increasing every year. Yesterday's meeting comnenced at 3 o'clock P. M. with President N. G. Edelblute in the chair. Mr. J. C. Sibley was the only executive committee nember absent. The annual reports were read and they were extremely gratifying, and, of course, were heartily approved.

Reduced the Initiation Fee. The membership initiation fee was reduced from $15 to $10, and it was resolved o confine the stake races of the race meeting of 1892 to breeders of Pennsylvania. Six members of the Executive Committee were elected as follows: N. G. Edelblute, Punxsutawney; H. S. Denny, Ligonier; Hon. J. C. Sibley, Franklin; J. W. Tetley, Millerstown; John E. Du Bois, Du Bois; A. W. Harbison, New Castle; J. P. Mur-phy, Pittsburg. The latter was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of his father, Colonel John Murphy, and will only serve one year. The balance will serve two years. The committee met after the general meeting and re-elected Mr. Edel-blute as President; J. H. Ellsworth was elected Vice President; H. J. Denny, Treas-urer, and A. W. Harbison, Secretary.

The following stakes were then agreed upon for next year: Yearling trot, for horses bred by members or toaled to proper-ty of members, two heats in three, entrance $25, half-mile heats. Year pace, same conditions as above.

Two-year-old trot, for horses bred and owned by members, two heats in three, en-trance $25, with $100 added. Three-yearold trot and 4-year-old trot same conditions as 2-year-old, except three heats in five. Two-year-old trot for horses owned by members, two heats in three, entrance $25, with $50 added. Three-year-old and 4-year-old stakes same conditions as 2-year-old, except three heats in five.

Stakes for the Pacers. Two-year-old pacers owned by members, entrance $25, with $75 added. Similar conlitions for 3-year-old pacers, except three heats in five. forty-five trot for horses owned by members, entrance $25, with $75 added; 2:33 pace for horses owned by members, entrance $25, with $75 added; 3:90 trot for stallions owned by members, entrance $25; 2:50 trot for stallions owned by members, entrance $25. 2:28 and 2:25 trots for stallions, same condi-

It was further decided to offer a $500 prize for an exhibition of stallions owned by members, ten to fill, the entrance fee being $50. The stallions will be judged according to Wallace's scale of points. Several places were mentioned as suitable for the Association's race meeting next foll, and the Secretary was instructed to write the Secretary of various tracks and "learn their terms.

There was a strong feeling in the meeting favorable toward holding the race meeting at Mendville, and it is likely it will be held there. The meeting yesterday adjourned to meet again at the call of the committee.

AMATEURS AND SALARIES.

A Meeting of the County League to Discuss an Interesting Question.

There is to be an interesting meeting of the County Baseball League next Tuesday evening. The meeting has been called by the East End. Wilkinsburg, Mansfield and Climax clubs. Strange to say, it is to discuss the salary question. That is probably a new feature among amateurs, but when explained it is all right.

It has been the custom to pay some play-ers what is termed their expenses for losing ers what is termed their expenses for losing a day's work to play. That has always been deemed all right, but it has been learned that one or more clubs are making big inducements to players in the way of offering them extravagant expenses. For instance, it is stated that one club has offered Thompson, of the East End Gyms, $15 per game to witch for them. pitch for them.

The proposed meeting is to adopt a rule prohibiting any club in the County League from paying any player more than a certain sum ($3 or $4) per game. There certainly is a great interest centered in the County League already.

M'GUNNIGLE'S VIEW OF IT. The Local Ex-Manager of the Ball Club Says a Few Words About His Release-He Was Not Particularly Anxious to Come

Here-His Future Plans. BROCKTON, MASS., Dec. 9.—[Special.]—W. H. McGunnigle, of this city, has received no notice of his release by the Pittsburg club yet. To-night he said: "I do not claim to own the Pittsburg club and although I had a contract signed to manage the team next year, still I am not partic nlar whether I do or not. I have worked for the interests of the club and can see no eason for the recent action, unless the directors want to hit O'Neil over my shoulders. Now, as regards O'Neil, I must say be used me white, and I cannot but appreciate his friendship as well as the friendship of others in Pittsburg. I do not understand what the directors are up to. Saturday I received a in Pittsburg. I do not understand what the directors are un to. Saturday I received a telegram requesting me to report expenses and money advanced for signing each of the four contracts previously mentioned. This I did by sending with each contract a receipt for the amount allowed by the directors. As the baseball season does not open until next spring, I came home for a few days intending to return to Pittsburg shortly and report results more fully, but now I am told I am not wanted. Now I don't care much whether I am in Pittsburg next season or not, after such treatment, but I have had several good offers, one of which came from the Emerson Shoe Couppany, to abandon baseball and manage a shoe store in Brooklyn at a larger salary than I would receive in Pittsburg. "Since it became known I was deposed, I had a conference with an agent of the Association in regard to my future plans, and long before I signed with Pittsburg I was asked to make a bargain with some leading Association magnates. I do not intend to force myself upon any club, and particularly upon the Pittsburg directors. I have had a better offer to quit baseball, and may accept. There are plenty of cities aside from Pittsburg where I have had offers to manage a club. I have not decided what to do in enforcing that contract. If the Pittsburg directors say they want somebody else for manager, why, I will not stand in their way one second. All I am waiting for is some official notice."
