FOR CHILDREN ESPECIALLY.

Lovely Things for the Little Ones at J. C. Grogan's, 443 Market Street. Mr. Grogan never forgets the little tots in his Christmas preparations, as he thinks the best part of that festival season is the injurement of the youngsters in opening heir gifts in the early morning, even before they are dressed; they take such genu-ine satisfaction out of it all that the older people are absolutely bound to select so far s possible what they will most like. One cannot go amiss in selecting from the llowing: Pretty little rings, jeweled and berwise; gold beads, cap pins, safety pins, all sizes; all sorts of pretty pins, salety pins, all sizes; all sorts of pretty pins for their wrans, waist buttons, teething rings and rattles, puff baxes, little brushes, with combs to match; knife, spoon and fork sets, or singly, or combined of any two of them; a full line of porringers and bread and mill
