To the Claim of the Modern Building and Loan Association.

SAYS HE CANNOT BE HELD LIABLE

Because He Became Surety Under False Representations.

AN ABUNDANCE OF BUSINESS IN COURT

Attorney Morton Hunter has filed the answer of ex-Mayor McCallin to the suit of the Modern Building and Loan Association of Pittsburg against Theodore Doerflinger, William McCallin and Augusta Doerflinger. The suit was to recover $5,000 on the bond of Doerflinger, as treasurer of the association, on which McCallin and Mrs. Doerflinger were sureties. In the answer it is claimed that the sureties are not liable, and the association is arraigned at length.

It is first asserted that the filing of the plaintiffs' affidavit was premature. A alleged shortstatement of the by McCallin age was requested from the attorney of the association, C. C. Lee, and the agent, J. McCrickart. They could not give it, the books being in the hands of an expert and the amount not being then known. On this account the plaintiffs were not entitled to proceed. It is further denied that the treasurer, as alleged, has failed and refused to turn over a large amount of money in excess of the amount of the bond, or that there was any breach of the conditions of the bond. It is further denied that there was any embezzlement, if any at all, since the bond was excented, May, 1891. If there was any embezzlement it was long before that, and the defendants are not liable. Doerflinger was treasurer from the beginning of the association, March, 1888.

The Blame on the Plaintiffs.

He was re-elected annually, and during his terms the association published semiaunual statements of its financial condition and audits of its books and accounts, for distribution among the shareholders and the public. From these statements it appeared that its affairs were being prudently and honestly administered, and thereby in-duced the public to believe that the treas-urer had up to that time, the date of the last statement which was shortly prior to the giving of the bond, acted as an honest and trustworthy person, and the de-fendants were thereby induced to become surety for the treaturer, when, if as alleged, he was an embezzler, he had been guilty of embezzlement during his former terms of office, which might have been discovered by the plaintiffs by the exercise of slight diligence.

The natural and necessary effect was to deceive the defendants and conceal from them facts increasing their risk and suffering them to become surety under false impressions. By this course on the part of the plaintiffs the defendants' contract of suretyship became invalid and they are not liable. The statements and re-elections were an implied guarantee to the defeudants that the plaintiffs had audited the treasurer's account and called on him to turn over all money in his hands semi-annually; also that the Board of Directors had examined his books frequently and seen that he had attended to his duties faithfully as required by its own by-laws. It was further asserted that the association did not enforce its own by-laws and so allowed the treasurer

Disregarded the By-Laws.

The by-laws required that the Board of Directors or any officer neglecting or failing to perform their or his duties as required by the by-laws, became liable for all loss or lamage resulting from such neglect. The charter and by-laws of the association provided that as soon as the price of a share, $200, accumulated it was to be loaned to the highest bidder. Stated meetings every two weeks was to be held to suction off the money. If this had been done more than $200 could never have been accumulated in the hand of the treasurer. This was disregarded and large sums allowed to was disregarded and large sums allowed to accumulate. The money, further, was not auctioned at sta ed meetings, but the priority of the loan determined by some illegal method and there was no competition for the

Another rule was that money was to be paid out on a voucher, countersigned by the president and secretary. This was to be given to the person for whom the money was intended and to serve as a sight draft on the bank. The voucher, however, were given to Doerflinger, and he could thus withhold them, the parties not knowing the money was due them, and embezzle the money so withheld. If any money was embezzled, it was asserted, it was in this

If there was any embezzlement, it was as serted, it was commenced in April, 1890, and the plaintiff by its own neglect did not discover it until October, 1891, when by a slight effort and reasonable attention it could have discovered it at once. The plaintiff was, therefore, negligent and guilty of a fraud in law. For these reasons, it is asserted, the sureties are not liable on Claims She Was Deceived.

A bill was filed yesterday by Mary Mc-Claren against Margaret McClaren, widow and children and administrator of Peter and children and administrator of Peter McClaren, deceased. The plaintiff states she was the mother of the deceased. He transacted her business for her and under pretense of having her sign an instrument to borrow money to pay off a mortrage on her property on Wylie avenue, Thirteenth ward, he got her to sign a deed to him of tha property. She now wants it decreed the the property is hers.

The Bauder Gang Case Up. The case of Maggie Raymond and Lowry Bender, charged by ex-Alderman Doughty and J. D. Bauder with perjury in connection with the famous Bauder gang suits, was be fore the grand jury yesterday. Doughty and Rauder, who are now serving a term in the workhouse, were brought down from Clare-mont to testify before the grand jury, and were then recommitted. No return of the case has as yet been made.

Says It Is Unconstitutional.

Jennie M. Parker yesterday filed excep sessment for the grading, paving and curb ing of Mahon street. It is claimed that the act of Assembly under which the assessment was made is unconstitutional, and that the assessment is excessive.

A Pair of Divorce Suits. Wilbert Simpson filed a bill of divorce yesterday against his wife, Christina J. Simpson. He alleges infidelity and names William Huston et al as co-respondents. J. A. McElfresh also wants a divorce from his wife, Louiss Jane. He files a plea alleging desertion on July 4, 1890.

The December term of court is full of records. One was made yesterday that has never been beaten in the history of the county. An information was made against a man, the grand jury passed off the case and returned a true bill, the defendant was taken into court, he pleaded gullty and was sentenced by Judge Porter, all in precisely an hour and ten minutes.

It was the case of John Gasser, alias Frank Gyser. Ga-ser has two wives, one in Germany and the other here. Lewis Brunner, a relative of wife No. 2, sued Gasser for bigamy. His case came up for trial yesterday, and during the hearing it was developed that, under a decision of the Supreme Court, he was not punishable, because the marriage ceremony in neither case had been performed in Pennsylvania. Gasser had let his first wife in Germany, and had married his second in Ohio. She was present, and tostified that she had married the de endant with the understanding that he had no other wife. had no other wife.

While Gasser was reveling in a dream of prospective freedom, unconscious of what was going on, County Detective Britzhoover made the information referred to, and about the time the defendant was thinking of reall-inc. the time the defendant was thinking of walking out of the court room a free man he was called before the bar to answer to the charge of immoral conduct. He pleade guilty and was sentenced to pay the costs in the former suit and undergo an imprisonment in the workhouse for six months. Judge Porter said he only recollected of one other case where such time was made. It was a larceny case some five or six years ago from Allegheny, in which the defendant was arrested, tried, convicted and sentenced the same day he committed the crime.

IN THE CRIMINAL COURT.

A Long List of Cases Heard Before Judges Porter and McClung.

Before Judges Porter and Kennedy vester day Patrick Lynch and Harry Kennedy were found guilty of the charge of attempting to enter the building of C. W. Wattles, 32 Fifth avenue. October 3. with felonious intent. William N. Stivers was tried on a charge of assault on Fannie Clark September 30.

The jury is out.

Charles Rea, a small boy, charged with stealing $4 from Charles Chestner, an Allegheny butcher, was found not guilt?.

John Jarvins was convicted of assaulting his daughter and was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years and ten months, and also fined $500.

Annie Morrow, charged with stealing four ducks from Maria Kneeland, November 5, was found not gnilty.
Howard Pixley was acquitted of the charge of stealing a watch from Samuel M. Shaner, on Diamond street.
Edward Sarreant and James Best were tried for entering the stable of Louisa Beila, in Beltzhoover borough, with felonious intent, September 29, and were acquitted.

Work of the Grand Jury. The grand jury returned the following rue pills yesterday: Addison Gillan, Frank Hamilton, Lizzie Jones, O. R. McKibben, as-Hamilton, Lizzie Jones, O. R. McKibben, assault and battery; William Agnew, telonious assault and battery: Andrew Byrne, assault: Amelia Carberger, Pat Conway, Pat Fagan, Barnev Magahan Joseph Miller, Arthur Oicott, Henry Ward Iarceny: John Kammerer, Frank Lonz, Zach Taylor, illegal liquor selling: Silas Gasser alias Frank Gayser, immorality. The following bills were ignored: Katherine Grovann, August Rut, assault and battery: Thomas Brannan, larceny by bailee; Tracey Farreil et al and F. Hamilton, larceny; M. M. Dewey and J. H. Chambers, conspiracy.

Giles Must Give Bond. Judge White held a hearing in the case of E. S. Giles, the Allegheny milliner, charged with getting goods by misrepresentations H. M. Mort & Son and Eggelbrecht & Bern-H. M. Mort & Son and Eggelbrecht & Bernhardt, who had the bench warrants issued, testified against Giles. On the strength of his claim that he had $7,000 in bank they shipped him goods. Judge White ordered Giles to appear in court this morning and give bond securing his creditors, pending his taking the benefit of the insolvent law. Two new suits were entered against Giles vesterday—one by Porter & Donaldson for $1.472, and the other by Kohn & Baer for $497, both for goods sold him.

Two executions against the Eric Wringer Manufacturing Company were issued ves Manufacturing Company were issued yesterday and placed in the hands of the Sheriff. One writ was issued by James W. GOOD PRODUCERS NEAR ZELIENOPLE

The production of the McDonald field, was 51,000 barrels yesterdsy, the same as the day before. The stocks in the field were also unchanged, remaining at Tuesday's figures-110,500 barrels. There were no big fifth saud wells completed to increase the output for to-morrow morning. Fifth sanders are getting to be few and far between. When an operator gets a fair well in the Gordon, or third sand, he thinks twice before drilling it to the fifth and taking chances on ruining it. The pressure of gas in the lower sands has made t dangerous to put a well down owing to the fact that the gas dries up the oil from the Gordon.

esterday and it is a Gordon sander. It belongs to Nolan & Co., and is located on the Robbins lot at Laurel Hill. When last heard from it was making 20 barrels an hour. There was a well belonging to Clark & Bannister, located on the Walker lot not over 250 feet from the Robbins, which reached the Gordon yesterday and is dry so far in that formation. Bartlett & Co. expect to be in the Gordon to-day on the Couch property. Kerner & Co. expect to be in the Gordon to-day on the Couch property. Kerner & Westhead, who are drilling 200 feet from the Nolan well are down 1,400 feet. Ewing & Co. were confident of reaching the Gordon sand last evening on the Smith lot, northeast of McDonald horough Moyer & Co.'s No. 2 on the U.P. Church lot, at the forks of the road in McDonald borough, is two bits in the fifth sand with no showing of oil. It is dry in the Gordon. This well was started several months ago. The Bridgewater Gos Company's well on the Lockhard lot in McDonald is good for about 125 barrels a day.

There was only one good well completed about 125 barrels a day.

Robison, Conway & Co.'s well on the Dietrick lot, in the northeastern part of the borough is in the Gordon and making about 120 barrels a day. It was shot last Saturday. An Erratic Producer.

A peculiar action on the part of the People's Gas Company's No. 3 on the Miller farm is puzzling the wise heads in the busi-ness. Last Saturday it stopped producing. farm is puzzling the wise heads in the business. Last Saturday it stopped producing. It remained dormant until Tuesday afternoon when it suddenly broke loose and started to flow at the rate of 100 barrets an hour. It kept up this gait until 2 o'clock yesterday morning when it stopped again as suddenly as it had started. The owners are now auxiously watching it, and hoping that it will not be like grandfather's clock, and never go again. The Forest Oil Company's No. 1, on the Agnes Kemp farm, fell off considerably yesterday, and last evening was reported to be making only ten barrels an hour. The same company was expecting to get the sand with every bit in its well on the Marraret McGregor farm. The Bear Creek Oil Company is spudding in its Margaret Campbell No. 2. The Kyle Oil Company is starting to drill its No. 2 on the northwest side of the A. Wettengell farm. Gordnier, Snyder & Co.'s well on the Malthouse lot at Oakdale was drilled deeper into the fifth sand yesterday, but was not improved.

Davis & Brown have started to drill on the Duvesne lot at Willow Grove. W. P. Rend has rigs up for his Nos. 6 and 7 on the Rend farm. The Grover Cleveland Oil Company bas a rig up for its test well on the J. W. Kelly farm southwest of McDonald. All of the stockholders in this company are Democrats, and the only Republican they lave allowed on the lease is H. H. Davis, the rig builder.

Packed Off the Gas. Thomas Cushing has succeeded in packing off the fourth sand gas in Davis & Brown on the brickyard lot near Laurel Hill. The gas was unusually strong in this well, and completely shut off the Gordon oil. Mr. Cushing is now making arrangements to protect the packer so that the well can be shot in the Gordon sand.

Greenlee & Forst's No. 15 Mevey is only two bits in the fifth sand according to the statement made yesterday by one of the owners, who says the well shows some oil from that rock, and their No. 13 Mevey is in the Gordon and good for 200 barrels a day. No. 11 is through the Gordon and drilling for the fifth. Their No. 8 Mevey, which was a big sand gasser, has been muzzled, and shows a pressure of 25 pounds. They have made arrangements to sell the gas to a local gas company. The same parties expect to reach the Gordon to-day on the Gladden farm adjoining the W. E. Moorhead.

Golden & Co.'s No. 3 Scheiver, 100 rods west of the Pfeieffer well, is making 60 barrels an hour. Their No. 2 is in the sand with several hundred feet of oil in the hole. The Hundred Foot Oil Company's No. 3 Stauffer is a few feet in the sand and making 100 barrels a day. It will be drilled deeper in a few days, Younkins & Co.'s No. 1 Coleman is in the sand and has made several flows. This is the farthest well in advance on the west side. Lockwood & Co. have a well southeast of the above 12 feet in the sand.

Mr. Morris—The McClure farm well of the Dunkirk Oil Company, which was reported as a big gaser a fow days ago, has been drilled to a second pay, and is now spraying oil at the rate of 10 or 12 barrels a day. It is two miles northeast of this place.

Reported Bonanza in Kentucky. The following telegram from Danville Ky., seems a little too good to be true: The Kentucky Consolidated Oil and Gas Company, prospecting on Otter creek, in Wayne county, has struck a stream of lubricating oil which flows 50 barrels per hour. The oil assays a specific gravity of 25° and is free assays a specific gravity of 25° and is free from grits. It is pronounced by experts to be of superior quality, having a market value of from $8 to $11 per barrel. H. A. Harvey, of New York, is Vice President of the company, and is now at the wells and feels confident that Wayne county will prove a great oil field. Otter Creek is 20 miles from a railroad, but a pipe line is now under contemplation which will serve to put the oil on the market. The company has options on many acres of land, and will drill more wells immediately.
