MONEY AND MARRIAGE

Is the Experience of a Hun Who Took Part in a Family Quarrel.

BUNKOED BY HUSBAND OR WIFE,

But He Easn't Peen Able to Find Out Which One of the Two Did It.

A VERDICT RENDERED IN CONFUSION

The course of married life among Hungarinus does not seem to run more smoothly than in advanced America. Austria-Hum gary, in lower Allegheny, was stirred yesterday by a lively before Alderman Foley in which the faithlessness of a wife or hushand, the Aldermen didn't know which, were the points at issue. The suit was entered by George Yocksits to recover $50 from Francis Phinoch, which he claimed he given the defendant to bring her husband from Hungary. husband, it was stated, had six months ago described his wife in a fit of passion and left her to fight her own way. After be reached his native heath the poor living he was compelled to endure, as well as love for his deserted partner, induced him to plend for forgiveness, and at the same time money to take him-self to America. Mrs. Phinoch in heartrending grief sought Yocksits to bor-row the money and got it with the underderstanding that she was to send the money to Hungary at once. This, she claims, she did, but Yocksits says the husband never came and that instead Mrs. Phinoch had married another more faithful than the first, and that she had taken his $50 to do it

The trial was like a celebration of a Hun garian semi-centennial. The old and young, with all the different kinds of mud that is found in Woods' Run besineared over their faces, came out as if they were going to a wedding or a funeral, and despite the rappings of the Alder-man and the threats of the constable, kept up a continual gippering that made the little office seem like a miniature Castle Garden. Mrs. Phinoch was a woman of the fat lady in the museum dimensions, who didn't even blush as she brought her secondhand husband to the front to show that she wasn't friendless. The man was as little as he was ngly, and both were matters of curiosity. Through an interpre-ter, Mrs. Phinoch claimed she had sent the money to her first husband, and as he did not respond, she married the second as a business necessity in order to support her-self. Then the spectators joined in a general argument from which they were not disentangled when the Alderman rendered a verdict of "not guilty."

THE REASON SO MANY LOTS HAVE BEEN SOLD IN SUCH A SHORT TIME

KENSINGTON

Is that numerous WORKS of different manufactures are located there; that constant work can always be secured by the laborer and mechanic and a large business to the merchant. The addition of the Chambers Glass Co., the largest glass factory in the world, has greatly added to the value of the property and has made increased sales of lots in this new city. Many of the choicest lots for residence and business purposes are for sale. Selections should be made at once. Free Tickets given there and return. Salesmen always on the ground.
