Dr. Sutherland Discusses the Discrepancies of the Bible.

BISHOP JOYCE. ON THE SOUTHSIDE

SS. Peter and Paul new German Cathclic Church, on Larimer avenue, East End, was formally dedicated at 10 o'clock yesterday morning by Rt. Rev. Bishop Phelan in the presence of a vast concourse of people. Previous to the ceremonies was a street parade, participated in by the Society of SS. Peter and Paul, Knights of St. George and Young Men's Catholic Literary Society, who met the Bishop at Penn avenue and acted as escort to the church." The ceremonies proper were preceded by the ringing of the new church bells for 15 minutes, at the conclusion of which the visiting priests all formed in line, headed by the Bishop. The outside of the church was first circled, the Bishop sprinkling holy water and the priests chanting the fiftieth psalm. When the outside of the church had been circled, the procession entered the church and circled the interior, after which the altars were blessed by the Bishop Solemn high mass followed, which was cele brated by Rev. H. Goebel, assisted by Rev. A. A. Lamburg and Rev. George Alliman.

The Bishop was assisted by Very Rev. Louis Guenther, Prior of the Cormelite Fathers of Pittsburg, and Verv Rev. Lean-der, Prior of St. Mary's Church, of Allegheny. The sermon in German was preached by Very Rev. John B. Duffner, of St. Peter's Church, Southside, and remarks in English were made by Bishop Phelan and Rev. Father Suhr, of SS. Peter and Paul Church. These remarks were of a congratulatory nature, complimenting the con-gregation on their zeal and hard work in establishing such a beautiful church.

Among the priests who took part in the ceremonies were Revs. Father Hyscinthe, Father Oster, Father Murphy, Very Rev. Father Leander, O. S. B.; Very Rev. Louis Father Leander, O. S. B.; Very Rev. Louis Guenther, O. C. C.; Very Rev. Father Ber-nard, O. P. C.; Rev. James Cosgrøve, Rev. James McKeever, Rev. Thomas Cochran, Rev. A. A. Lambing, Rev. Francis Kain, Rev. F. X. Tobin, Rev. L. Werner, Rev. Stager and Rev. Ferdinand, Master of Cere-maniae

BISHOP JOYCE IN PITTSBURG.

The Central Figure at the Reopeniug of the Walton M. E. Church.

The Walton M. E. Church, at South Twenty-fourth and Sarah streets, has been completely renovated and refitted and was reopened yesterday. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. W. Davis. The sermon was delivered by Bishop Joyce, of Chattanooga, who came here for the purof Chattanooga, who came here for the pur-pose. Many prominent ministers were present. The Bishop selected his text from Hebrew xii:2, "Who, for the joy set before Him, endured the cross, despising the shame." He said: "I select these words because of the great Christmas festival coming this week. The birth of Christ is one of the greatest facts of history. It stands alone in the annals attending it and in the voices witnessing to it. It is the incident that be-ring the earth life of Jesus. The cross and gins the earth life of Jesus. The cross and the grave end that life here. The cross is the most significant emblem known among men-the influences abroad in the world today molding individual life, chastening the home life, modifying society, making for righteousness in the nation, proceed from the cross lifted up 18 centuries ago outside the gates of Jerusalem. "Now, the cross He endured we have no just appreciation of. A pure, righteous soul, untouched with sin, nailed to the cross in the name of sins He never com-initized. But this is not all. From the night. He took up the story of the finding of the Christ child by the wise men. Then he showed the relation which angels bear to the Trinity in the matter of man's salva-tion. Then he said: These angel messengers told of a great fact and a glorious prophecy, for to Christ we owe the extension and expansion of all that is with in Judaism. It was reserved that is vital in Judaism. It was reserved for Christ to bring the character of God as a god of love into the full noonday light in his having so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son. Sinai was the characteristic of the Old commend them to the public for the real very prompt and honorable manner of doing business. CLARA S. BLOOD. Mr. Blood had several other small poli-cies, but the Equitable was the first to pay. gave was the enaracteristic of the Old Testament and Calvary is the revelation of the New. Born in Christ was the brother-hood of man—that pledge of infinite results and the realization that all men are equal. To the Hebrew God had made the world for them, to the Greek humanity was unknown and to the Roman there was none other than and to the itoman there was note out of a man of Rome. "With Christ was born compassion and pity for the weak and the helpless. Then a slave was of less consequence than the cattle of the field. Christ's coming meant a revo-bation. Bafora him ware no asylums; no MWP of the field. Christ's coming meant a revo-lution. Before him were no asylums; no hospitals. With Christ came the great principle of the power of love, for the cleansing of man, which is above law, above nations, above governments hitherto sorrow

This is not an exception to their usual mode of settling claims, but the rule. Those who are contemplating life insurance would do well to note this fact and examine into the plans and results of an Equitable policy before making application. EDWARD A. WOODS, Manager, 516 Market street, Pittsburg, Pa.

During the Holidays,

During the Holidays. As well as at every other time of the year, Marvin's cakes and crackers are so popular that it is difficult to supply the demand. Royal fruit biscuit can hardly be supplied fast enough to meet the demand, while soda crackers, Marvin's old reliable, famous XXX sodas, are selling like hot cakes. Everybody seems to want them at once. They are so delightfully crisp and fresh that people who try them always want more. Ask your grocer for Marvin's cakes and crackers. Don't take any others. It won't pay you. MWF had cried into vacancy, despair had taken the place of hope and faith was dumb, blind dead. Immortality was a farce, God a myth, might was right, light was darkness and darkness was light. There was no sin; there was no righteousness. Into such a world Christ came. The saving of the world was his inspiration and his life was a song of prophecy for the future of the race." won't pay you.

endured the agony of prescience about it, but He despised the shame. The cross was a shameful thing. It meant a death of shame. The worst criminals suffered by it. He was between two thieves, yet the shame of this shameful death He despised, but was able to quell the sense of shame in His soul to feel that it was no shame to die even on the cross. Such ex-altation of mind, such elevation of thought above what men saw in His death is one of the strangest things in His history. How shall we account for it? First in the joy set before Him. What was that joy? Doing the father's will. One of the greatest things in the Bible is God's love for man. He loves him with an utter abandon of self. The coming of Christ proves that He so loved the world that He gave His son. The joy of Christ was to do the Father's will. Seeond, His joy was in that it was His own great love, not his regard so much for the condition of men as for the souls of men, their lost condition and their hopeless estate. His love and sympathy were the great impulses that led Him upon His mission. He saves to the uttermost all who put their trust in Him."

LESSON FROM A MIRACLE.

When Christ Cures the Effect Is Immediate, Absolute and Permanent.

Rev. A. E. Linn, of the Thirty-ninth Street Presbyterian Church, drew an interesting lesson from the miracle performed by Christ just after He had come down from the Mount of Transfiguration. Among the assembled multitude were a father and his deaf and dumb son, whom physicians and the disciples had for years vainly endeavored to cure. The father prayed that Jesus would have compassion and cure the child. The miracle was performed then and there. "And the child was cured from that very hour," was the minister's text. "Some people think that children ought not to be brought to Jesus," he said, "but this instance should satisfy them that the little ones have as much right in the pres-ence of the Savior as older persons. The disciples thought the children should not be brought to Christ, but He said, 'Forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven.' Don't try to keep the children away, but do all you can to bring them to Him, as this father did with his deaf and dumb boy. If you want your children to go to Christ you must take them by the hand and lead them to the foot of the cross,

"In this illustration we have the patient little sufferer, the Great Physician and the wonderful cure. 'Who is your doctor?' is a question often asked the convalescent. In his case the father had left all medicines behind when he started toward the Mount of Transfiguration, and, the doctors and disciples having tried and failed, he was now before the One who is always distin-guished from His own followers. Thus, if we want to get well we must not stop with the church, the ministers of our Lord, nor with the officers of the church. We must with the officers of the church make our appeal personally to Him who ordained His ministers, appointed His ordi-nances and established the church.

"When Christ cures, the effect is immedinte, absolute, permanent. Salvation is an ari, not a treatment. Now is a convenient time with the Lord as it is an important one with you. When He saves the soul He saves it entirely. He heals all diseases and forgives all iniquities. He takes away every transgression."
