

WAR TO THE KNIFE.

That's What the Entry of Wallace in a Legislative Fight Means.

CLEVELAND AND HILL FACTIONS

In a Fierce Struggle for Supremacy in the Keystone State.

HARRITY'S FORCES WELL IN HAND

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20.—A prominent Democratic politician from Clearfield county, who was in the city a day or so ago, is authority for the statement that ex-Senator Wallace's intention to re-enter public life is prompted by a desire to lead the anti-Cleveland forces in Pennsylvania. This, of course, also implies that he would like to lead the various elements not in accord with the present State administration.

It is the truth, however, the Senator is still smarting from his failure to get the gubernatorial nomination in the recent Convention. He thinks his reputation as a leader was very much at stake in that campaign, and while he bowed to temporary defeat, he is not willing to concede that William F. Harritt is entirely his superior as a political general.

It means war to the knife. This information simply means that the lines are to be drawn sharply in this State, and that it will be war to the knife between the two factions of the Democratic party. The contending forces will be led respectively by Mr. Wallace and by Secretary of State William F. Harritt.

The administration forces have been called the Pattison-Harritt-Hensel combination, but that does not place the situation in a strictly correct light. It is really Harritt alone. He is furnishing the politics for this administration. Pattison's cold personality does not take with the leaders in the various counties. Consequently, he is contenting himself with furnishing the dignity and a pretty good administration of his office. Hensel's offensive pomposity discounts whatever political ability he may possess, so he is grinding away at the law.

When the tug of war does come, there will be a great deal of promiscuous Democratic fur living about the State. Wallace is classed as a Hill man, or anything to beat Cleveland.

The Ex-Senator's Picturesque Following.

The following of the ex-Senator, if not large, is picturesque. In Philadelphia he is credited with having ex-Secretary of State William S. Stenger, Congressman William McAlister, Senator John McFallen. These three "sojourners on the terrestrial globe" are supposed to represent the three elements of the Democratic party in the Quaker City. Outside of Philadelphia the ex-Senator's brigades include the Hon. John M. Mitchell, of Easton; James M. Guffey, of Pittsburgh; Edward A. Bigler, of Clearfield; Thomas H. Greely, of Altoona, and W. Rush Gillon, of Chambersburg. While Guffey is generally credited with being against Cleveland he will not say so.

Harritt's Forces in Good Shape.

Harritt's forces are in good good shape. The supporters of the Secretary of State say while he is not entirely wedded to Cleveland, he is not entirely wedded to him, and is likely to abide by the decision of the convention. Of course, in making an inventory of the Cleveland men the Governor and Harritt are not at the top of the column. Then they claim the active support and sympathy of D. T. Watson, of Pittsburgh; Eckley B. Cox, of Driftwood; George Ross, of Bucks; Mortimer F. Elliott, of Logan; Clarence F. Black, of York; Senator P. Gray Meek, of Center; Representative W. E. Ritter, of Lycoming; William A. D. Markley, of Montgomery; William M. Singler, and John C. Ballist, of Philadelphia, and ex-Governor Andrew G. Curtin.

It is asserted that these influential names are only a marker of the kind of support the Cleveland men will get in Pennsylvania. At the present time the tide seems to be in their favor, and they are likely to get a large majority of the delegates to the National Democratic Convention. Harritt has Philadelphia just as he wants it, and there is little question but that he will get a solid delegation from that city. Of course there will be little outbursts in various sections, but it will not amount to much.

Some Losses for Wallace Likely.

It wouldn't be a bit surprising if the Wallace men were to lose the services of Postmaster B. F. Myers, of Harrisburg. During the heated Pattison-Wallace fight Myers was the first lieutenant and the most valuable aid possessed by the Clearfield man. If Wallace leads the anti-Cleveland movement he can scarcely hope for the support of Myers. The latter was appointed postmaster of Harrisburg by the ex-President, and it is hardly within the range of possibility that he would consent to go into a movement against him.

The Democratic State Committee meets in Harrisburg on January 20. This meeting, as a matter of fact, will prove to be the preliminary skirmish for position. The Cleveland men and the Hill men will do everything in their power to make a good showing for their side.

The First Tests of Strength.

The main fight will hinge on the election of a successor to the late William L. Scott on the Democratic National Committee. As is well-known, the two candidates are William F. Harritt and James M. Guffey. If Harritt wins—as seems more probable at this distance—it will be regarded and heralded as the first knockout for the Hill men.

A Chairman is Also to be Elected to take the place of Mr. Kerr, and the side having the majority of votes will thus capture the organization.

Christmas Panel.

"The Home Guard." If you wish to secure one of these beautiful panels, you can do so by purchasing one pound of tea, one pound of baking powder, or two pounds of coffee at any of the stores of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co.: 34 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh; 1618 Penn avenue, Pittsburgh; 4134 Butler street, Pittsburgh; 6127 Penn avenue, East End, Pittsburgh; 1703 Carson street, Southside, Pittsburgh; 126 Federal street, Allegheny; 128 Fifth avenue, McKeesport.

Santa Claus' Visit

Won't be complete unless he leaves some of Marvin's nick-nacks, animal cakes, Christmas toys and cocoa, non-bon maccaroons for the little folks. Christmas toys have rings attached to them, and make beautiful Christmas tree decorations. Order them from your grocer. Don't let anybody make you believe that other crackers and cakes are as good as Marvin's. Make the test yourself and be convinced.

SIR MORELL MACKENZIE

Says in the Journal of Laryngology, November, 1887: "Compressed Faculites of Soda water are now an article of commerce as well as the mineral waters. These are made from two of the well waters, and containing a large amount of chloride of sodium, are particularly serviceable in pharyngeal catarrhs, and may even in some degree be used where it is desired to obtain the effects of the Soda treatment in persons who are unable to make the necessary journey to the spa itself."

People don't usually bother about Dress Goods the last three or four days before Christmas.

We're going to do something these four days before Christmas. Come early—that will demonstrate that people will bother about it when it pays so well.

Sell 200—no more—CLOTH DRESS PATTERNS, grey and illuminated mixtures—6 yards 30-inch wide goods in each.

$2 A PATTERN.

500 suit patterns assorted—in fine colored Cashmeres and Henrietta. Suitings and Novelties at $3, $4, $5 and $6 each—that are away under price and good enough to give anybody—or a great value to buy yourself. You might as well save dollars at Christmas as any other time.

It's so easy and takes so short a time to come now from any district on the rapid transit cars—for instance, only 4 or 5 minutes from Forbes to our stores by the Allegheny and Manchester Traction, or by the Pleasant Valley. Get off either line of cars at Park way. It will pay to attend this great holiday sale.

Large lot good choice ENGLISH SUITINGS—original price $1 25, 30 inches wide.

65 CENTS.

Won't this pay you to bother about? This statement is backed up by the evidence, and you'll say so as soon as you see the goods.

THREE LOTS

BLACK SILK WARP HENRIETTAS

Extra ones, 40 inches wide, $1.25, $1.40, $1.75.

Better ones than people have a chance to buy often. What a splendid present a pattern of these superb Black Silk Warp Cashmeres makes—and it's mighty interesting to save 25c to 50c a yard when you get it. That's what you can do if you come.

Best French steamer brought us 3 large foreign cases of ALL-WOOL FRENCH CHALLIS—one case came express last Tuesday from New York Custom House—the other two came freight and are on sale to-day, just in time for Christmas.

These Challis are the latest Paris printings—advance styles for next season's business—distinctly new and have a "new look" to them. Also, a few pieces of a very choice new cloth came with them. All-wool Crepes or Crepe Challis that will be appreciated—altogether in this early Challis shipment.

One hundred and fifty styles for selection. These are at Center Department in Dress Goods and Silk Room.

There never was a Christmas season when BLACK SILK COSTUME VELVETS were not bought to a greater or less extent for presents.

Two lots Black Silk Face Costume Velvets, 24 inches wide, $1.50 AND $2.00.

Three lots extra BLACK SILK FACE COSTUME VELVETS, 36 inches wide. We've never seen any so wide as these before, did you?

We bought them at half price from the importer—he'll never import any more unusual widths as an experiment—one loss like this will satisfy him. That's why you can get 36-inch Black Velvets, $5.00 Grades at $2.50. $5.50 Grades at $2.75. $6.00 Grades at $3.00.

All silk, back and face, that's the kind—4 lots, 27 inches wide, $5, $6, $7, $8.
