

BIG FIGHTERS MEET.

Mitchell and Corbett Have a Few Words About a Battle.

SULLIVAN WON'T FIGHT SLAVIN.

Manager Buckenberger Signs Denny Lyons to Play in This City.

THE LOCAL BILLIARD TOURNAMENT

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Jim Corbett's manager called upon Charley Mitchell this morning and asked him what he intended to do about making a match with the California champion. Mitchell would give no direct reply, except that he would meet Corbett under London rules. In the afternoon Corbett and his manager came upon Mitchell, Slavin and half a dozen of their friends seated in the Hoffman House bar. They stepped up to Corbett and induced him to go over to where the Englishman and American were sitting. Having become seated Corbett said: "Don't you think we ought to come to some understanding?" "What do you mean by an understanding?" answered Mitchell.

Corbett Wants to Know.

"You have said you would meet me," rejoined Corbett. "And I'd like to know when and where. Suit yourself about that." "Oh, well," said Mitchell, "let's wait until to-morrow to talk it over. Meantime, let's have a drink." "Where can I meet you to-morrow?" asked Corbett. Mitchell proposed the Police Gazette office, but Corbett wouldn't go there. The men finally agreed to meet at the Tipper office. Slavin to-day issued a challenge to John L. Sullivan. He said: "I think I can whip John L. Sullivan or any other man in America, and that is the purpose I am in this country for. I am willing to meet the best man in this country, with Sullivan preferred."

Then a desultory conversation ensued, and some quick talk was indulged in between the men proposers of the meeting of the famous pugilists. "I am here," said Slavin, "to meet the best man in this country can produce and I expect Sullivan as the man."

Sullivan Wants Too Much.

Sullivan, so said Slavin, was asking for too much time. "This thing of Sullivan's lockers having their money lying idle for eight months is not proper business. I am in this business for money. I am here prepared to fight, and I can finish a trainer in ten weeks. I am willing to allow Sullivan much more time, but it is simply unreasonable for him to say he does not think he can fight before October, 1932." A special dispatch from San Francisco says that Sullivan declines to make a match with Slavin at present. This announcement has caused great disappointment among John L.'s friends.

CONNOR FOR PHILADELPHIA.

Roger Will Stay There and Richardson Goes to New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—[Special.]—Roger Connor will play first base for the Philadelphia League team next season. This is the result of an understanding between the New York and Philadelphia clubs, by which the latter waived claim to Richardson and the New York managers yielded any rights they might have in the case of Connor. Ewing will play first base. This was corroborated by Manager Powers, who said to a reporter to-day: "It has always been our intention, in case we failed to get Taylor, to play Ewing on first, and present appearances will alternate Ewing and Boyle in that position. My preference in the matter is to play Ewing behind the bat, providing his arm is what we want to do the work properly, in which event Boyle would go to first base. Boyle is a hard, reliable hitter, always being around the 300 mark, and is a good man to play in every game. By alternating Ewing and Boyle at first base, we should have the best batting combination in every game, which is an excellent thing. With Ewing or Boyle on first, Richardson at second, Fuller, Hart and Bassett third, we shall have a grand infield. Ruse, King and John Ewing, making a trio of pitchers to be proud of, and this young man Van Zant is liable to surprise people. Behind the bat Ewing, Boyle, King and Fuller, the best good man will do the work well, and our outfield is the same as last season. New York will be in it, although it is not one of our strong teams. I am confident that in comparison with the great baseball battle of 1932, all others will pale into insignificance."

WANTS TO PLAY WITH WARD.

Fred Pfeiffer Feels Wary and Desires a Job at Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—[Special.]—The Brooklyn Baseball club has secured Fred Pfeiffer, the crack second baseman of the Chicago club. Fred has expressed himself as unwilling to return to the Chicago club as under Captain Anson and has written to John M. Ward asking for a place on the Brooklyn club. Pfeiffer and Ward are warm personal friends, and John will in all probability make a hard fight to get Pfeiffer to return to the club. Pfeiffer is held under reserve by the Chicago League club, but would have been free if the Chicago Association club had not been bought out by the League as a part of the 12-club League settlement. According to the rules of the League, Pfeiffer returns to Anson. This, however, Fred positively refuses to do, saying that he will not play ball again unless he is released by the Windy City club.

LOCAL BALL CLUB AFFAIRS.

Manager Buckenberger Signs Denny Lyons —Talk About Grimm and Farrell.

The fact that the local ball club has been for several weeks trying to secure Denny Lyons to play third base here has often been mentioned in this paper. Yesterday Manager Buckenberger returned from Cincinnati bringing with him a contract bearing Denny's signature. The contract will here next season as there are no objections attached to the contract. Yesterday Vice President Kerr stated that the club still expects to be allowed to retain Grimm and it is also hoped that Farrell will be allowed to play here. Now that Westcott won't come here the idea is to put Farrell in the outfield if a regular first-class fielder cannot be secured. The contract for Westcott need not be needed now that Lyons is signed. Mr. Kerr states that no more players are needed at present.

Results at Guttenberg.

GUTTENBERG, N. J., Dec. 21.—The track was in good condition to-day: First race, six furlongs—Repeater first, Joe G. second, Bruised third. Time, 1:50.4. Second race, five furlongs—Little Fred first, Zenith second, Inferno third. Time, 1:50.4. Third race, six and a half furlongs—Eclipse first, Second second, Vanguard third. Time, 1:52.3. Fourth race, one and a half miles—St. Ives first, second, Lord of the Harem third. Time, 2:08.4. Fifth race, six furlongs—Gambler first, Alma L. second, Knapsack third. Time, 1:51.4. Sixth race, six furlongs—Duke first, Duke John second, Centaur third. Time, 1:50.4.

New Castle Team Challenged.

George Stewart, of the Homestead Association football team, writes this paper to the effect that the Homestead team will play the New Castle team for badges to cost $50 and the price of the badges to be deposited with the sporting editor of THE DISPATCH ten days before the game. Each team is to pay one-half of the general expenses and each team to take one-half of the gate receipts. The contest, Mr. Stewart suggests, can take place within six weeks from date.

Harvard Very Well Satisfied.

CAMBRIDGE, Dec. 21.—[Special.]—The Harvard athletes are all delighted with the arrangements made with Princeton. It is now hoped that an all-round triple athletic league will be formed before next spring.

Two More Good Games.

Two more interesting games in the local billiard tournament were played yesterday in Davis' room. In the morning game Gilchrist, scratch, defeated Lewis, scratch, by 35 points. The winner's average was 11.55-36 and his highest run was 14. Lewis' average was 11.67-37 and his highest run 12.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] BURGESSSTOWN, Dec. 21.—To correct the charge made against Rev. J. L. Weaver, pastor of the Presbyterian Church here, by two members of the session that he had lost his influence over the young men of this community, the following paper, signed by 68 young men, was read after service yesterday:

We, the undersigned young men in this Presbyterian Church of Burgessstown, Pa., having been misrepresented in a statement made to our pastor, Rev. J. L. Weaver, that by his preaching the truth from his pulpit he had lost his influence over the young men of this community, we desire to say to the pastor and his congregation that such a statement was unwarranted by us, and we desire that no change be made with regard to his preaching the truth, as he understands it.

General Sporting Notes.

MIKE LUCIE wants to fight young Mitchell. CARROLL and Myer fight this evening at New Orleans. FLOWERS and Fox will swim for records at the Natatorium Christmas Day. In a sculling match for the championship of England recently W. G. East defeated J. Perkins. J. Mitchell and Corbett cannot come to terms for the latter will no longer decline to meet Maher. It is expected that the Pittsburgh and Youngstown association football teams will play a good game here Thursday. The Missouri Amateur Athletic Club, of St. Louis, will give a series of indoor games January 23 at St. Louis. TOM GALLAGHAN, the English featherweight, is looking for a fight with a boxer from the United States and will probably secure a fight with George Dixon.
