HUTCHINSON GUILTY

The Aged Millionaire Convicted of Assault and Battery.

MANY MARITAL DIFFICULTIES.

The Grand Jury Quits Until the Second Monday of January.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNTY COURTS

David Hutchinson, the wealthy old gentleman of the Sixth ward, who was charged by Nicholas Messner with assault and batery, was convicted before Judge Porter yesterday. The story of the prosecution was that on October 20 Messner and another young man named McNulty attempted to board a Fifth avenue cable car at Stevenson street, when Hutchinson came pushing his way out and prodded Messner in the face with an umbrella. Mr. Hutchinson's story was that, as he was trying to get off the car, the young men tried to trip him. He had been robbed at the same place some years ago, and he feared the experiment was to be repeated. Mr. Hutchinson is a rather eccentric old gentleman, and while District Attorney Burleigh was cross-examining him he would only make such replies as seemed to suit him. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault and battery. The defendant, who is 71 years of age, will be sentenced Satur-

WORK OF THE GRAND JURY.

An Adjournment Taken Until the Second Monday of January.

The grand jury adjourned yesterday until the second Monday in January. They have been in session 14 days and have acted on 600 cases, or an average of about 30 cases a day. They have had before them more important cases than any other grand jury for berveral terms. Among these were the suits against the city officials of Allegheny. the Quay and Doerfinger cases. A true bill has been returned against H. J.

Ousy and Doerflinger cases. A true bill has been returned against H. J. Bigger, the attorney, charged with embez-stement. He was employed by C. J. Cum-mings to collect a claim due on an estate he had settled to the amount of $389 50. He col-lected the money, according to a receipt in the Register's office, but, it is claimed, never turned it over to Cummings, hence the suit. A true bill was also returned vesterday in the Register's office, but, it is claimed, never turned it over to Cummings, hence the suit. A true bill was also returned vesterday in the case of M. Newey, the Penn avenne physician, charged with misdemeanor. The cases of Joseph Walton and I. N. Bun-ton, charged with selling oleomargarine at Elizabeth, were before the grand jury and true bills were returned. The other true bills were returned. The other true bills were is Joseph Blair, and Jacob Edsel, immorality: George Black, George Hoimes, James E. Tyrell lar-ceny: Joseph Walton, I. N. Bunton, M. M. Dewey, Fred Heil, Joseph Slattery, Charles Strain, E. J. Upham, misdemeanor: William Conroy, James Fitzpatrick, Frank O'Neil, Hegal liquot selling. Villiers Durante, felo-nious assault and battery: Walter Evans, Al Meyer, William Mottet, immorality: Ju-lings Kulzner, Minnie Knepper, perjury; Nicholas E. Leech, embezzlement; Lena Lewis, keeping a disorderly house: Law-rence D. Straass, Louis I. Satler, conspiracy; Hiram Schell, attempt to commit a serious

The ignored bills were: Arthur Alcot, John Johnston, Harry Martin, Mary Mc-Cully, larceny; T. H. Cain, larceny by bailes; C. S. Cooper, A. G. McLaughlin, criminal megligence: Emma Dennis, immorality; P. Fink, John Waskirche, illegal liquor selling; E. F. Frasher, immorality; Jane Quay, malicious mischief.

MARITAL DIFFICULTIES.

Divorce Suits Filed, Testimony Taken and Decrees Entered.

Thomas M. Marshall, Jr., Esq., yesterday filed the divorce suit of William L. Snod-grass against Ida M. Snodgrass. The couple were married July 28, 1889. Mr. Snodgrass alleges that his wife was guilty of infidelity and that she deserted him on April 1, 1890. He also claims that his marriage with her was not legally contracted, she having been married ten years ago to Adam Roodbeck, who is still living and from whom she was workhouse while on a visit there, and on an information for disorderly conduct was com-mitted to the workhouse for 90 days. She has already served 30 days and claimed that she could not be committed for a longer pe-riod than that. Judge McClung, however, refused to order her release, and remanded her to serve out the balance of her time.

Court Proceedings Bolled Down.

ALICE SNITH yesterday entered suit against Andrew Ross for $1,000 damages for slander. JOHN D. THOMPSON yesterday issued an ex-ecution against M. J. E. Moore, Fred. Wald-schmidt and James B. Sipe, for $3,473 39. THE suit of Eliza Alexander against J. B. Hill, executor of Isabella Hill, to recover wages for nursing is on trial before Judge White.

The suit of Dennis Haelsy against Jen-nings Bros. & Co., Limited, for injuries caused by a mold falling on him, is still on trial before Judge McClung.

THE County Treasurer has received the warrants for the money due the Aldarman and Justices of the Peace for their costs in collecting mercantile license fees, and they are ready for navment are ready for payment.

ANTONIE CERUTIE yesterday entered suit against Jacob Gedicke for $2,000 damages. Cerutie alleges that on October 24, in North Fayette township, Gedicke hit him over the head and also broke his thumb.

THE estate of the late John Wallace will come up in the Orphans' Court for auditing to-day. Theodore Doerflinger was administrator of the estate, and, it was charged, em-bezzled about $3,000, the proceeds from the sale of property. The audit is of his account as administrator.

MICHAEL and Mary Joyce yesterday re-ceived a verdict for $400, and Honora Wall, trustee, a verdict for the same amount, in their suits against the Pittsburg Harbor Company, Limited, for damages tor injury to the property caused by making a boat land-ing on the shore along their land.

The hearing in the equity suits brought by J. M. Guffey and others against the Pitts-bury and Duquesne Traction Companies to prevent the connection of the two lines at Fifth and Highland avenues, has been con-tinued until Saturday. The preliminary in-junctious will remain in force until then.

An inquest in lunacy was held yesterday in the case of William Butler on the petition of his wife Anna Butler. He has been an inof his whe anna butter. He has been all in-mate of Dixmont since 1873 and was de-clared a lunatic. The proceedings were brought in order to obtain the appointment of a committee for Butler, so some property in which he holds a small interest can be rold.

CHARLES BOYER and wife yesterday entered suit against the Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston Railroad Company and the Charleston Railroad Company and the Phillips Glass Company, for $10,000 damages for alleged injury to property. They state that the companies laid a switch from the railroad to the glass company's works, along the sidewalk in front of their house on Josephine street, shutting off access to the house and damaging the property.

THE OIL-BEARING ROCK.

RICHEST GORDON SAND EXPECTED

SOUTH OF M'DONALD. Three Wells Showing for Good Producers

Yesterday-Many Others Now on Top of the Gordon or the Fifth-Well-Known Oil Man Dead.

There was a very noticeable reduction in the production of some of the big oil wells in the McDonald-McCurdy field vesterday morning. The estimated production was, however, only 500 harrels lower than it was the day before. This is partly accounted for by the fact that the smaller wells held up and several of them even increased their output under agitation. There is no disguising the fact that the field as a whole is on the western side of its meridan, but it will be longer in reaching the Gordon than either the old McCurdy field proper or Wildwood, for the reason that over the greater part of the territory it has two sands to draw from the Gordon and the fifth. The feeling at pres-ent seems to be that when the fifth plays out the Gordon will still produce, possibly for several years to come. Unless all lines, theories and opinions fail there will be more Gordon or third sand oil produced south of McDonald than there will be north of it. The best wells have thus far been found north of the railroad, but the fact that the Venture Oil Company's wild-cat on the Moornead farm, a mile south of McDonald station, is doing 300 increased their output under agitation.

By a series of exciting incidents the lord-ship in him disappears and he becomes an applicant for any kind of work in Wash-ington. The Old World notions of the young Lord, which are not nearly so ar-tinct as he thinks they are, come into sharp contact with the practical workings of rude democracy, and here Mark Twain gets his opportunity for graphically showing in his picturesque manner some of the differences between the aristocratic idea and the demo-cratic idea.
