THE CANADA MUDDLE

May Yet Make Great Britain Step in to Settle It Arbitrarily.

THE AIR FILLED WITH RUMORS.

Downfall of the Administration Expected at the Elections.

CABINET IN COUNCIL AT MONTREAL

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE, 1 OTTAWA, Dec. 22 -The political atmosphere is full of rumors to-day, and if onehalf of them materialize, within a very short time Canada will be in such a political muddle that the intervention of the British Government alone can prevent the breaking up of the federation of the British

North American provinces. Such was the opinion given expression to to-day by one of the most active party men, who, during his lifetime, followed Sir John Macdonald, but who ranks among the disaffected ones since the disclosures of last session and subsequent revelations. The intrigues of Premier Abbott, he said, to secure the dismissal of Premier Mercier are without parallel in the annals of constitutional government, and have already alienated some of its strongest supporters from the Conservative party new led by Mr.

The success of Premier Mercier in the approaching elections which will be necessi-tated by the dismissal of his Government, which, supported by a large majority in the Legislature, would be the deathblow to the Abbott administration at Ottawa, so closely has Premier Abbott identified himself to secure the downtall of the late Government of Quebec. It requires no deep penetration into the future to see that the Abbott administra-tion, as it now exists, has but a short time to live. Some bold step alone will avert its overthrow. It therefore becomes important that Premier Abbott must at all hazards secure the election of a Conservative govern-ment at Quebec, and the only chance of accomplishing this and strengthening his own party in that province is to dissolve the Fedaral Parliament and go to the country for re-election at the same time the Quebec elections are held. Cabinet in Council at Montreal.

A special from Montreal says: The new Cabinet formed by De Boucherville is looked upon by all classes here as one of the strongest and cleanest the province has had since the confederation. The members are expected to arrive here to-night, and a council will be held to-morrow. One of the first acts will be to raise $2,000,000 to pay the interest on floating debts and other pressing obligations, the treasury being almost empty. It is stated that the new Government will immediately ask the Lieutenant Governor to appoint another royal commission to investigate all the transactions entered into by the Mercier Government since its entry into nower. The Conservatives claim that $1,250,000 in plunder has been obtained by the Mercierites.

One Good Trait in the German Character

(Not that it is the only one) Is, they generally take wife and children along when out of a Sunday—or holiday. If he gets beer they all get beer—and so on. Like Christiana in Pilgrims' Progress—when she started for the Celestial City she took the little ones along (Christian had gone alone). Now herein the good-natured, family-loving Teuton and Christiana are just like the man who buys a Decker Bros. or Fischer piano or celestial voiced Estey organ. They are sure to attract all the family to them, can't help it; all are irresistibly drawn to them by the charm of sistibly drawn to them by the charm of their rich, beautiful tones, and chaste beauty of exterior. Nothing could be more symmetrical in design and artistic in orna-ment-finish and choice of woods. In every suitable quality of hard woods, from the satin wood to the mahogany, and Circas-cian walnut, every conceivable style, you will find at Hamilton's for holiday trade. This house may be relied upon for prices This house may be relied upon for prices and terms of payment to suit all tastes, pocketbooks and salaries. ## FINELY DECORATED

Jacob Craig's Stand at Diamond Marke Christmas is near. That Jacob Craig and his popular assistants, Henry Dornberger, George Oaks and Charles C. Kunberger, realize this fact is made evident by the grand display which they are making at Mr. Craig's stands, Nos. 75 and 92 Diamond Market. Their large stock of meat is tastefully exhibited and artistically decorated fully exhibited and artistically decorated with laurel wreath flowers and evergreen in a manner which reflects much credit upon the above named gentlemen.

One of the most novel sights presented is the recumbent forms of eight little pigs on a swinging shelf above the center of the stands. Their ears have been scalloped, while just back the skin has been so arranged that it forms a perfect resemblance to a seashell. In the mouth of each has been placed an ear of Indian corn. The rebeen placed an ear of Indian corn. The re-sult is one of the oddest and most interesting sights imaginable.

Mr. Cruig personally makes it a point to appear neat and tasty, and he exacts the same of his employes. The result is he has a class of customers who stay with him the same as they did with his father before him, and if a clean stand, close attention to busi ness, and a general desire to please make a success, Mr. Craig is bound to get along. To his old patrons it is not necessary to say anything in his praise, but to the general public it need only be said, pay him a visit, and you will be made to feel heartily wel-
