OFFICE OF PUTTELUNG DISPATCH, FEIDAY, DEC. 25.

RAW IRON AND STEEL-The iron and steel trade may thus be briefly summarized-an enormous production of pig iron and a reasonably firm market with demand increasing for most descriptions, a general tendency toward improvement. So the pig iron branch seems to be in pretty safe condition for the present. In spite of the brought in yesterday was the Forest Oil Company's No. 1, on the McClelincreasing output of pig the market retains its strength in a remarkable degree, with a steady improvement in some cases. Of course current business is lighter than during the first days of the month, as orders then placed covered the wants of consumers for some weeks in advance. One reason for slackness just now is that those who can wait for iton are holding their orders until after the beginning of the year. The ill after the beginning placed is made up ieffy of small orders for immediate de-ery. In regard to the price of raw iron parties agree that hottom prices were ached some ten days since. While there reached some ten unys since majority are firmly of the opinion that the new year will witness a large morense in the demand and that better prices will rule.

A Further Decline Improbable.

well-informed iron dealer has this to say: "In view of continued heavy purchases for some weeks past, it is evident that large consumers regard the chances of a decline as not favorably. The conditions are so different in many respects from any that have been heretofore experienced that it is exceedingly hazardous to make predictions. We have the fact of an output averaging

We have the fact of an output averaging over s00,000 toos per month, to absorb which we have the probability of the largest con-sumption on record." Since our last remote prices of steel billyts and sinbs have stiffened very materfully, an advance being domanded on both descrip-tions. Certain makers have refused to sell at prices that rul 2 tor some time past. Bes-semer is also held at an advance for spot and future delivery. Gray torge—There are no soliters at prices that were current a short time ago. A furnaceman remarked "My are ago. A furnaceman remarked: "My innace is out of blast and will so remain furnace is out of blast and will so remain until a further advance is established." Structural two remains quiet. From the number of large buildings projected for next year the demand will certainly be large. Old from and steel rails scarce; holders firm in their views. Scrap material quiet, prices weak. New steel tails—Market steady at unchances.

ichunged prices. Some Predictions Verified.

THE LATEST-The parties who have read the iron reports of this paper will be fully prepared for what is to follow. During the past two weeks, from actual observation, we became fully satisfied that iron and steel had reached a point at which makers would not accept lower figures, and several have refused to sell at prices then current. Of course there was a wide difference of opin-ions in regard to the future of the market We stated in our last that the "outlook was decidedly better; that Bessemer wasadvaneng; that most descriptions were firm and ending upward." Last week Bessemer sold is low as $15. This week $15.50@15.75 is deanded for January, February and March elivery, 1892, and, what is more, sellers are of anxions and are making no efforts for we business at present stiles. Gray forgs firm with sales of 1,500 tons at $13.65 the gives figure for a long time. Blooms and filets are on the up grade, with sales at 50 units per ton advance in some instances, littsburg parties closed a contract with St. const that will require a latge amount of aw iron. Steel raiss are firm and active, evious prices being steadily maintained. CONT. SMELTED LAKE AND NATIVE ORES. 600 fons gruy forge, 1st 3 months, 1892,513 (0 cush 000 tons grav forge. Autous grav forge. 200 tons off Besteroe 12 50 cash 13 50 cash 14 50 cash Fotons Ne, 2 foundry, 30 tons No. 1 foundry, 20 tons gray forge.

Railroad have averaged $600,000 a month for the last year. Fine rains are reported in the wheat belt. The country is builtsh for 1892. There seems to be no doubt that the Pleasant Valley will declare a dividend in January. IRON TRADE REVIEW. PASTOR AND PEOPLE. A GOOD FIFTH SANDER. GOOD WILL TO ALL MANKIND. #### No Change at St. Lonia.

Sr. Lorus, Dec.25.-[Special.]-Rogers, Brown & Mencham say: "We do not notice any change in the condition of the iron market charge in the control, or the non-market during the past week. There has been the usual inquiry for carload lots, and a few round lots have been placed at low figures. Indications point for improvement in sales and prices soon after the lst of January."

SPECULATION TAKES A REST.

Turkey Is King in the Local Wall Street

Just at Present. Fourth avenue presented a lonesome as-pect yesterday. Like Tara's hall, it was deserted. Financial institutions were closed, and the merry voice of the broker was still. and the merry voice of the broker was still. Built and bear were at peace. Turkey was king, and the entire speculative fraternity paid him homage. What little talk there was had a builtsh flavor. A further rise in Luster was predicted, but upon what ground was not stated. It was said the first month of the new ver would witness some import-ant movements in the tractions. Philadel-phia Gas found considerable support. An important event to day will be the sale, on account of whom it may cencern, of a big account of whom it may cencern, of a big block of East End Electric Light stock.

Investment Notes,

Two brokers seen yesterday were bullish on Luster and Philadelphia Gas. James W. Drape sold on Thursday 70 acres near Bristow for $4,000, and a block of Pittsburg Bank for Savings at $237 50. A correspondent enters a protest against the destruction of Lafayette Hall. He had better consult the Tradesmen's Bank direc-

An off broker said yesteroay he could see no prospect of an early improvement. The market has no outside support. There is a better inquiry for bonds. This is the precursor of a larger interest in stocks. The city banks will occupy a strong posi-tion at the end of the year.

TWO FIENDS AT SOMERSET. They Express No Regret for a Frightful

Crime and Refuse Explanations. SOMERSET, Dec. 25 -[Special.]-J. M. Bittper, the man who was assaulted and had his mouth cruelly cut open clear back to his ears by two fellow-workmen, is still alive and will probably recover, though he will be terribly disfigured. James Turner and David Solman, the young men who committed the assault, expressed no regret when interviewed in the jail to-day. One of them was sorry Bittner did not die. When Turner and Solman returned from the commission of their crime yesterday they burned their shirts and vests, which were stained with blood. They also suc-ceeded in hiding the knife from the officers. Both men refuse to give any reason for the deed, though it is stated the man Bittner owed them money.

A Besieged Officer Takes Human Life. GETTYSBURG, Dec. 25.-[Special.]-Officer Krouse of Littlestown, last night shot and killed Joseph Shadle and wounded his brother, Frank Shadle. Shadle had raised a disturbance and Krouse tried to arrest Joseph, who resisted. A crowd of their drunken triends assaulted the officer, who
