handsome club house of the Lindens.

The contest was exciting from start to finish and better bowling has not taken place in this city. The first of the three games was, indeed, a remarkable one between the Lindens and the Bellefields. The former headed the score and they rolled as if they were going to carry everything before them. Both totals were wonderful. In the second game also the Lindens did remarkably well, but in the third they collapsed miser-

> YOUNGSTOWN, Dec. 25.-[Special.]-Mike Dugan, of New Castle, and Mike Farraher, residing here, who fought six rounds last residing here, who fonght six rounds last night, when they were collared after a brisk chuse by the police, were held without ball until this afternoon, when ball in each case was fixed at $500, which they secured. Dugan was badly beaten, his face inving the appearance of raw beef, while Farraher escaped without a mark. As the Mayor found it impossible to obtain evidence that any money was up, they will be prosecuted for engaging in a fight, the penalty being a fine and jail imprisonment. Each has en-gaged able counsel, hoping to escape a jail sentence.

LOUISIANA REPUBLICANS SPLIT.

Two Separate State Conventions Ar Likely to Be Held.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 28.-[Special.]-There is every probability that the split begun in the Republican ranks at the late meeting of the FALL RIVER, MASS., Dec. 29 .- The an Republican ranks at the late meeting of the Central Committee will spread over the en-tire State, resulting in two antagonistic State conventions and opposing State tickets. The first parish committee to as-semble, that of Baton Rouge, met today, and the usual quarrel and split followed. There were two factions present: the Her-wig and Warmoth factions. The latter wanted the committee to consider the lottery question, and when it refused to do so, bolted and held a separate meeting. The majority determined to recognize the Herwig side and to send delegates to the convention called by it. There seems to be little chance of healing the difference. oual cloth statement published to-day shows production of 9,985,000 pieces, as against 9,937,000 pieces last year. The stock on hand is 90,000 pieces, as against 583,000 pieces in 1890. The sales of the year were 8,838,000 pieces, as against 8,584,000 pieces in 1890. oure alcohol to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING. Alcohol is good for leather; it is good for the skin. Alcohol is the chief ingredient of Cologne, Florida Water, and Bay Rum the well known face washes. We think there is nothing too costly to use in a good leather preservative. Acme Blacking retails at 20c. and at that price sells readily. Many people are so accustomed to buying a dress-ing or blacking at 5c. and 10c. a bottle that they cannot understand that a blacking can be cheap at 20c. We want to meet them with cheapness if we can, and to accomplish this we offer a reward of $10,000
