

A STORM OF WRATH

Gathering Around the Heads of the Notorious Cooley Gang.

THEY INVADE WEST VIRGINIA.

Congressman Scott's Will Gives Not a Cent to Public Charity.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

"SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH." MORGANTOWN, Dec. 29.—There is no further doubt in the minds of the Cheat Mountain people that the vigorous campaign instituted by Pennsylvanians has driven the desperate Cooley gang over the state line, where they are committing their characteristic depredations. To-day a gentleman from the vicinity of Cheat river came to this city and had a long talk with the authorities here, trying to persuade them to attempt the capture of the gang. The gentleman refuses to have his name mentioned, as he believes he would then be made a mark for the gang.

The secretary of the house of Isaac Blaney, an aged and wealthy farmer of this county, was entered two nights ago and robbed of $200 in cash and a considerable quantity of goods. Mr. Blaney lives on Cheat river, and with his wife and young grandson were in the sitting room, when four robbers entered. They wore masks and were armed. One stood guard over the aged couple with an enormous revolver, while the others ransacked the house from cellar to garret, taking everything of value they could carry away. They then stood prepared by one of the bold gang, and departed.

Identified as the Cooley Boys. Early in the evening the four had been seen ransacking in the neighborhood, and fully identified as the two Cooley brothers, with two pals from Fayette county. This is the second robbery from that quarter in the past few days, and both times leave the men being identified.

The feeling in the district is very strong against the Cooleys, and it is believed they have made a grave mistake in coming into West Virginia to rob. It is generally thought where they evidently had everything their own way. They are now in a community where up to this point they have been treated as they, though more honest. The people of the mountains have made up their minds to form a posse, and if the proper authorities do not take the matter in hand they will run down and kill the robbers, even if they are killed by the dozen themselves.

The authorities of this (Monongalia) county, with those of Preston county, have decided to ask Fayette county to join with them in offering a reward for the capture of the Cooleys, or to defray the expense of organizing a citizens posse to do the work.

A special telegram to THE DISPATCH from Morgantown says: The citizens of Southern Fayette county are excited over the recent exploits of the Cooley gang, and are calling for a posse for the purpose of capturing the lawless men, or for the purpose of their being some sort of protection. Joseph G. Burchinal, a prominent citizen and wealthy farmer of Spring Hill township, is in town this afternoon trying to get the county authorities to do something toward effecting the arrest of the gang. He tried to find Sheriff McCormick, but that official was in Pittsburgh, and when he went to the Commissioner's office he found that the Sheriff was away from work. The Commissioner claims that they have no authority to offer a reward for the capture of the gang, and was backed up in this opinion by their attorney.

Deputy Sheriff Joseph Albaugh says that Sheriff McCormick has spies almost constantly watching the movements of the Cooley gang, but as yet they have not been able to keep their eyes on them long enough to make any arrest. In one of their last exploits every member of the gang died securely hid in the mountains near Cheat river, and it would be almost an impossibility for Sheriff McCormick to go ten times within the past year to capture every member of the gang, but the Commissioner, every member of the gang disappears. They have plenty of friends who warn them, and they disappear as completely as though the earth had swallowed them.

Another of Their Tricks Revealed. In addition to the Blaney outrage the following is vouchsafed by several respected citizens of near Haysdowntown: Two young fellows named Blaney had become involved in a quarrel over a girl living with the sisters. Frank Cooley came into the room and made some remark about the girl. Robinson turned on the fellow and drove him out of the house at the point of the revolver. Cooley swore he would get even, and the next night with his brother, Hanson, and others, armed with Winchester and revolver, surrounded the house. Robinson fled at them, and the gang returned the fire. They then captured Robinson, placed a rope around his neck, and dragged him down the road. They said they intended to hang him. Further up the mountain they gave him a scare by putting a rope around his neck, but after giving the rope a few pulls they let him go with the promise that he would leave the country. He returned and got his goods and his never been seen since.

DYNAMITE NOT IN IT.

A Bad Fire at Tyrone, but No One Tried to Blow Up the Town.

TYRONE, Dec. 29.—(Special.)—An early hour this morning the heavy stable of W. A. Letevre, in the center of the city, was destroyed by fire. The fire soon communicated to adjoining stables and frame houses, and for a time it looked as if the whole block must go. The place occupied by Letevre was owned by J. F. Hilde, and was worth $1,500; insurance, $1,500. Letevre's loss will probably reach $2,500, partly covered by insurance. There also perished in the flames six boxes owned by Letevre, and several boxes owned by Hilde. The loss, however, is not heavy. The fire was caused by a stove, which was placed in a room where it was not intended to be, and was not properly cared for.

SANTA CLAUS ROBBED. A Dinky Thief of an Office Full of Christmas Presents Now in Jail.

ZANESVILLE, Dec. 29.—(Special.)—Detective Linton, (Graham) and Muskingum Valley R. R. has just returned from Clarksville, on the floor of that road. Christmas Eve the office of the station and contents were about $500 worth of presents, and the station was visited by Santa Claus. Linton arrested a colored man named William Johnson, who is now in jail. His confession of having robbed the place, and said he gave all the presents to the dinky boys of that neighborhood, who have never had such an enjoyable Christmas before. Johnson is a modest trader, and has served one term in the penitentiary.

CITIZENS' PLAN FOR CHOICIA. A company of citizens, organized to purchase several good farms underlaid with excellent coal in this vicinity, and it is understood, intend to open an extensive coal and coke plant at once. Drilling for oil and gas has disclosed a deep vein of good coal.

Two Clothing Failures at Scranton. WILKESBARRE, Dec. 29.—(Special.)—Unseasonable weather having had effect on business in the coal regions, two failures have occurred at Scranton, Md. One clothing store closed on nine executions amounting to $25,000. Louis Richard, clothing, on executions of $25,000.

A Bid for Johnston's Natural Gas. JOHNSBURG, Dec. 29.—(Special.)—The organization of a Steam Heating Company is being agitated here, and several Pittsburgh capitalists have promised to invest. This matter is being pushed now, owing to the failure of natural gas. Today the gas was turned off from all churches. The managers of the company have called a public meeting for New Year's day, and propose to see if there is not some way of forcing the gas company to fulfill its contract.

EGGS A LA CONNEMAR.

A Beaver Falls Lad, When His Hens Are Lazy, Makes His Own Stock.

BEAVER FALLS, Dec. 29.—(Special.)—Little Johnnie Bower last night prepared an order as usual for several dozen eggs for a Hungarian boarding house. He didn't have that number of plain eggs on hand, and proceeded to manufacture two dozen. He was an expert turner, and placing a piece of white ash in the lather, guileless Johnnie proceeded to turn out symmetrical, but hardly edible, eggs. These were then chalked and only delivered at the market price with the real articles he had on hand.

The first man at the breakfast table drew a prize, which went the way of all good eggs. The second foreigner tackled a blank in the shape of a deceptive Connecticut hard-boiled egg, but he was not to be taken in with a knife. The blow was cleverly parried. Another, but harder crack; same result. The Han dealt the egg neatly parried the rush, leaped up, countered on the ankle, and then, as if by magic, he landed on the table. He was there joined by several other mourners. The national character little then dropped out, and a terrific rush was made for the cook who was blamed for hatching the oval conspiracy. He was captured and bound with ropes, both real and wooden, and finally thrown to the floor where he was crowded and hit with the sensitivity. The chief's outcries, which preceded his lapse into unconsciousness, were "Help! Help! Help!" The crowd then proceeded to strip the cook, and to search his pockets for anything of value.

POLICEMEN'S BAD BLUNDER.

They Arrest the Constable and Let the Diamond Thief Escape.

DAVTON, Dec. 29.—On preliminary examination of Fritz Dhein before Mayor Ward, on Wednesday, December 29, 1891, Dhein was discharged. Pinkerton's man Tom Farrell had taken precautions against such a contingency by swearing out additional warrants before a magistrate, but the constable was prevented from serving the paper by Dhein's friends crowding around and aiding his escape from the court room. When he was carried to the hospital in a saloon kept by Mose Moore, a colored man, Constable McWilliams, passing the saloon at 6 P. M., detected Dhein leaving the door, and arrested him. While the constable was handcuffing him, Dhein's friends, who were guarding him, rallied and instantly drew revolvers, hissing threats of death to the officers. They then fled in the confusion, and before explanations could be made Dhein had again escaped. This was in the heart of the town, and the police were unable to follow him, close through two saloons, but Dhein's tracks were followed through a back alley and has not since been found.

BRADDOCK'S DAILY BUDGET.

A Child With Concentrated Eye—A Mixed-Up Horse Case—A Venereal Priest. BRADDOCK, Dec. 29.—(Special.)—This afternoon a little child of Owen Hays, of Rankin station, rubbed a lot of concentrated eye in its eyes. The little fellow, in his haste, used ungodly aunts, and even if it lives it will be blind for life.

Some time ago a horse belonging to Charles Kerr was stolen. Constable Wiltcher was put on the case, and to-day he caused the arrest of Conrad Goldstein, a prominent citizen of Brinton, charging him with having stolen the animal, which was found in his possession. Goldstein says he purchased the horse from James Peterson, a horse jockey from Turtle Creek. Goldstein was given a hearing and held, after which Peterson was arrested.

Rev. Father Hickey, of Braddock, who was dangerously ill some time ago, arrived at Citizens this morning, and was immediately conveyed to his home, where he is recovering from his illness. He was placed in a carriage and driven to his farm, several miles from town. The venerable priest was accompanied by his son, who, and started on a long drive to his farm in a cold driving rain, being apparently not afraid of the consequence.

A VENEDITA NEAR HUNTINGTON.

Two Armed Bodies of Farmers Fought Each Other on Opposite Hills. HUNTINGTON, Dec. 29.—(Special.)—After years of legal quibbling over the ownership of a piece of property, John Norris and the Pleasant Brothers in Shade Valley, this county, have come to armed hostilities. For the last week each side, backed by about 15 friends, all armed with rifles, has maintained a fortification on opposite hills overlooking the disputed property.

Norris had been occupying the premises up to Thursday, when the Chitties and their friends forcibly ejected them and demolished the house. Each side then collected a company of armed sympathizers, and for five days they have kept watch for an opportunity for a favorable attack.

Tri-State Brevities.

C. L. GOERING, the Allegheny manufacturer of wood-churning machinery, has applied for license in the State exhibit of the World's Fair.

Two employees of the Gallipolis (O.) Furniture Company fought yesterday for a girl whom they both loved. John Kads wielded a hammer and Harry Boyce a knife. Both will probably die.

James Walker, a farmer near Beaver Falls, has filed information against his wife and son. He claims they bound and gagged him and kept him prisoner in his house from Christmas Eve until Friday night. The trouble arose over the division of the profits of the farm.

THE Week Between Christmas and New Year's is CLEARING-UP WEEK. THE TOSSING UP OF THE STOCK

During the holiday rush of necessity causes a good many goods to become more or less soiled. All such will be placed out on the counters at nominal prices, and will be closed out to each. We also call your attention to such goods as will be wanted for Evening Wear During Holiday Week, including long Kid Gloves, Silk Hosiery, Chiffon, Neck Ruching, Laces by the Yard, Etc., Etc.

We desire to thank our patrons for the LIBERAL PATRONAGE bestowed on us DURING THE HOLIDAY SEASON. We also beg to state that during the month of JANUARY we will have a A GREAT CLEARANCE SALE IN ALL DEPARTMENTS Of our store, as well as a Specially Great Line of Muslim Undergarments, the sale of which we will inaugurate on the OPENING OF THE NEW YEAR.

ARTISTICALLY MADE.

The suit that is not cut right ought to be cut to pieces. It makes all the difference in the world who handles the blades that go through the cloth. If you cannot say of a suit that it is artistically cut, the less you say about it the better. Mr. I. Jackson personally attends to the cutting department, and he knows how the shears are handled. That is one of the reasons why our HOMEMADE SUITS are so superior to others and defy criticism; in the making of our suits it is needless to again call your attention to the fact that every garment is made by our own tailors with the greatest care, with but one object in view, and that is "entire satisfaction."

OUR SPECIAL REDUCTIONS

Will enable you to procure the grandest values you can imagine. Special mentions—our home-made Cheviot Suits at $12 and $15; our handsomely bound Clay Worsted at $14, $15, $16 and $18. The open winter leaves us with rather a large quantity of medium and heavy Overcoats, and before stock-taking (January 1, 1892,) we must and will sell out if a low price will do it. Sweeping reductions, especially in Chinchilla and Vicuna, reduces to $10, $12, $15 and $18. Don't miss this rare chance. You can positively secure a bargain at
