12 hours. Mr. Gledhill will sue the city for hours. Mr. Gledhill will sne the city for destroying smoked starmen.

"Pittsburg to have Scenat fares on the Pittsburg to thave Scenat fares on the Pittsburg to the scenat fares on the Starburg to the U. Schweisen and Schwe

Conter avonue, Birmingham, Kuoxville and Allentown soon to be urought close to Pittsburg, The Finod Correspond-ents' Association visit Johnstown. Colector Morrow says the legislation of the ate General Assembly will give the city

 Ston oce annually.
 M-Mollie Hanken, while trying to escape from two would be abductors, plunges into the Ohio river and is reacted by an old lady and her son

JUNE.

-The Coroner's jury consured George H. Gledhill for not examining the stur, con sold before curing it and held him re-sponsible for the desth of Henry Broge and Thomas Rourke. -Annual meeting of the Iron and Steel men to settle the scale of wages for the coming year. Father Mollinger, of Troy Hull, surrounded by thousands who de-sire to be cured of their ills. Mrs. Nancy Hogan while trying to stop a quarrel is kicked to death.

Hogan while strying to stop a quarrel is kicked to death.
Tary Durarate moved to its permanent home, Sudthfield and Diamond streets. Heavy storn swept over the city, domolishing dwellings and injuring two carpenters. Residents of the Southside complain of the bard state supply.
Allenheny to support $32,000 annually to improve the streets. The Peoples' Bank benefied by Governor Pattison. Connells to be asked by City Attorney Moreland to take action in regard to putting into effect the new street hws. Southside residents trobled by the garbage and fithe of Braddock.
A member of the Society of the Cincinnation in an and string and the society of the Circinnation and string and the continent of the Circinnation and string the or Braddock.
A member of the Society of the Cincinnation and string the manuel David R. Smith is in the hospital department of the Circ Parm, suffering trom maralysis. Mr. Smith is a descendent of General Samuel A. Smith, of the Continental Army; the only member in Pitteburg. Kaufmann Bros, the clothiers, purchase the Central lite.

clothiers, purchase the Central Hotel property for $350,000. The Planing Mill property. Association of Allegheny County such for $10,000. The High School Committee recommend that the teachers be re-

For sacks. The high Second conducts the re-elected next year.
Pfutsbarg promised a river patrol boat. Superintendent Gray, of Leisenring Coke Mine, acquitted of murder in shooting and killing as or ker.
The postal report shows a gratifying in-erance in the population of the city. William Forgey, of Wilkinsburg, while likeane from pain, attempts to commit such the source of hilling, drops dead from Sneart disease.
Striking tradesmen want from and steel workers to aid them. The defense of the seven young E. P. ministers is that yourb is not a crime. The river coal operators broke the record by getting out 15,000 000 bushels of coal yesterday.
The Covenanter ministers again induggs in bitter denunciations of each other. The local conventions of the political pairies in this, ity pass of harmoniously. parties in this ity pass off harmoniously A thief roles the mite box of a Sharp try chapel. he Synod of the Presbyterian Church he synod of the Presbyteman Church becaries against the five ministers who participated in the East End meetings. More remarkable cures by Father Mol-linger at Troy Hill. Many houses in Tarcentum robbed during the absence of Mombers of School Boards must in the future take the oath of office. The build-ing contractors expect a break in the strike next week. The Ladies' Health Association win another victory over the smoke.

 Father Mollinger receives many hundred milerims to the shrine of St. Authony and pilgrims to the shrine of St. Anthony as prescribes for their complaints, O. Milligan, the East End minister, w continue to preach de-pite the action of the Synod. Mayor Gouriey tells why continue to preach despite the action of the Synod. Mayor Gouriey teils why he believes a roomanization of the police and fire bureaus necessary. Strike leaders do not mind machine men working. The taxable property of Allegheny county, according to the Commissioners' report, is $300.000.000.
 39-Father Mollinger celebrates the feast of St. Anthony on Troy Hill, and thousands of pilgrins are lorced to leave the grounds without entering the church. Mayor Gouriey will investigate alleged police miscenduct. A disgraceful riot on the Marflower.
 14-Police raid a fashionable speak-easy on Fourth avenue, much frequented by lemale court clerks. The from workers' fight taken up in carn-est. A calm follows the storm in the R. P. Church. The hottest day in the year musced asveral persons to die of sumstroke. John Wigns, while fighting the finnes in Wolfe, Howard & Co.'s big store, fulls and brenks tis neck.
 18-The dog days cause many persons to be prostrated by the media for the line finnes. store, falls and breaks his neck.
 15—The log days cause many persons to be prostrated by the heat. Rabid cunines killed. Carnezie, Philops & Co. start a new armor nill at Homestead. The strike still on and the condition of affairs unchanged. Activity in the Butler oil deed 16-Four persons die of the heat and many 16—Four persons die of the heat and many fill from its baneful effects. City Attor-ney Manchaid msps out his plan for street improvements. The Junior Order American Mechanics' big day. Pittsburg Female College Trustees pleased with a Shudyside site.
17—Mayor Gourjeey will try to end the car-penters' strike by acting as arbitrator. Father Molinger leaves for a two months' vacation in the East. Mrs. Ma-rie Colling fies a sensational suit against her husband for divorce and alimony. The Tin Plate Manufacturers' Associa-tion meet in this city. The Tin Plate Manufacturers' Association meet in this city.
Mayor Gourley confers with the Master Builders and Carpenter's Union in order to try to end the strike. Clay and Lucy Hogan indicted for killing tackr mother. Iron men meet to discuss the yearly scale. The heat sends the death rate for the week up to 107.
No report made to Coroner McDowell of the stielde of Mathiew Zeidler. Mayor Gourley will again try to reach an understanding with the Carpenters' Laion and the Master Builders. Allegheny Connells by over the Pittsburg and Manchoser inclusion of linkstor the Nature Software Conserved and Pittsburg Traction Companies are noncease. 17. panies are nousense. 20-3 manunoth hotel to be built. Golden 20-A manimath intel to be built. Golden oclouration of the German Catholse Church, of Butler. A prohibition mass meeting held, Judge Sincle fornids children being brought into Court to embarrass justice. An Alleghenv con-stable arrested in a house of all repute.
21-Scalousy canses a murder in McKees-port. Thirty million bushels of corl sent South. Exchand Sunier kills Leonard Hilton over a game of crops. Thirty persons injured while on their way to a plente.
22-All labor organizations in the country to addue the striking carpenters. Three men 20 and the striking carpenters. Three usen overcome by heat fail from roots and are killed. Chief Brown wants an opinion on the remodeled Brooks license bit, Bissiop Pheian may sell Northside prop-erty to the Government for a federal uilding. he annual commencement of both High Be annual commencement of both High Schools many graduates given diplomas, P. J. McGuiru unsuccessful in his attempt to effect a compromise between the enropenders and bunders. The estate of John K. Shoenberger, the millowing regulation of the Boly Ghost.
Be The million day at the College of the Boly Ghost.
Be The million day at the College of the Boly Ghost.
Be The million day at the College of the Boly Ghost.
Be The million of the test of a compromise between the college of the Boly Ghost.
Be The million of the test of the contrast of the Mey Ghost.
Be The million of the test of the contrast of the Mey Ghost.
Be all be the test of the test of the test of the test weaks.
Contrast of the test of the test weaks.
Contrast of the test of the Mey Ghost of the test of the Mey Ghost.
Contrast of the test of the Mey Ghost of the test of the Mey Ghost of the Mey Ghost.
Contrast of the test of the test of the Mey Ghost of the test of the Mey Ghost of the test of the Mey Ghost of the Mey Ghost of the Mey Ghost of the Mey Ghost of the Mey Attorney's to be treated by Connelis. Commencement at St Xavier's, Latrobe. Bishop Pochan nurchases two new church sites.
Be killed by the new hay. The stone innersons return to work after eight weeks of unsuccessful strike. The general strike of unsuccessful strike. 23-Theat traise builders weakening. Swindlers rited out of the city by the police, sting of the Amalgamated Association Journed after new officers were elected, water department is obliged to reoft The water department is obliged to re-form to coal: they say that smoke con-sumers will be used. A member of the Bruish Steel and Iron Institute gives his opinion of Pittshurz. No concessions as yet made to striking carpenters. Judge Single opposed to decor telegrams by detectives. East End Gymnasium grounds dedicated by a grand field day. A young woman floats down the Ohio in a skiff without cars, and is found sleep-ing by two young men; believed to be demented.

- 1

 Servia Cornelia, a counterfeiter, capt-ured with a large quantity of spurious ured with a large quantity of spurious money. Many people crowd the city parks on Sunday. A gambling house and fancy speak-easy closed by the police.

police. Joseph Taper, a contenarian, tries to commit suicide, but is prevented from doing so. Fitzsimmons arraigned for the imreter of Detective Gilkinson. B. Costello in Jail charged with killing an Italian boy named Panaro. Last day for signing the Amalgamated scale. Realty picking up. Many oil wells sunk at McDon.id.

at MeDon.dd. -W. J. Howard asks by what right the -W. J. Howard asks by what right the chiefs of departments exercise their power he attacks the diarter, and calls in Attorney General Hensel. Applicants for promotion to the High School make an excellent showing. The Federal Coarts will accept lower coart paper books. The suspended Covenanter min-isters go into the United Presbyterian Church by permission of the Presbyterian Church by permission of the Presbyterian A compromise scale agreed upon by the Amalgamated Association; both sides make concessions.

JULY.

JULY.
I-The carpenters yield the strike after many weeks ineffectual idleness. They confess the eight-hour movement was a mistake. Nine hours and a half nollday Saturinys will satisfy the men. The ac-tions of a Pre-byterian Church leader described as being exactly like that of a heeler. The city begins an action against the Central Traction Company on the charge that they are destroying the streets. A portion of Center avenue rhyped up. rhpped up. 2-Carrie Duff steals valuable diamonds

-Carrie Did stends valuable damonds that she might purchase a wedding out-fit. The woes of wholesale liquor men under the new law. The late District Attorney Richard Johnson buried at St. Peter's P. E. Church with impressive ceremonies. A number of rapid transit booms break. Thirty-five miles of city traveled in a street car in five hours. The desperate attempt of an Allegieny mother to commit suicide. Residents of Neville Island want an electric railroad.

Neville Island want an electric railroad. Carpenters return to work. A thief jumps from a moving train wearing a pair of handcuffs. The big strike ends with the return of the journeymen carpenters to work. An Allegheny git swallows an ounce of car-bolic acid. There were $7.000,000 glasses of beer sold in Pittsburg during the last fiscal year. The contest between the Silsby and Annoskeag Engine Companies continued before the Master. Schenley Park the scene of a mammoth celebration, over 162,000 people take part in the exercises. Three men drowned in the Monongabela river of Braddook, in the exercises. Three men drowned in the Monongahela river off Braddock, their skiff being upset by the wash of a steamer. A brilliant display of fireworks makes the evening bright. A novel scheme to use compressed air as a mo-tive power introduced. Trouble over the appearance of non-union men at Du-quesne.

quesne. 5-Patrons of the jubilee of vesterday have to foot the bills of the demonstration. A woman in Marietta O., celebrates her 107th birthday. She is still hale and may live several years. -Sumuel Evans resigns his position as Citief of the Fire Department. The County Commissioners are authorized to enlarge the jail which has been found to be too small. Fred C. Fitzsimmons tourd guilty of the Skelly robbery. Two prominent society men, A. T. Doughett and Thomas Porter Brown accused of embezzlement.

and Thomas Porter Brown accused of embezziement. —A frightful accident on the Duquesne line in Oakland causes the city to stop the cars, unless they pay the wages of city flagmen. Mr. bafford will press the fight against the Amoskeag engine to a flaish. The head of the Fire Bureau to be called chief engineer. Building in-spectors enforce the law against creeting unsare buildings.

s-P. H. Laufman & Co.'s new tin plate plant started in this city, making tern plate. The Amalgamated scale signo-by some works. Fred Fitzsimmons i slowly being drawn into the meshes of the law. The bonded indebtedness of the city to be increased. Brushton takes another slice out of Sterritt town E. T. Painter returns from Berili

-Dr. E. T. TRINET returns from Berlin and brands Koch's lymph as a frand; says it kills, not cures. Select Councils send the snoke preventing ordinance back to committee. The affairs of the Amalgamated Association mixed. A worth of Allechary couple slows and camp in the woods, and are arrested by 0.10 police. 10-Dr. Painter tells of his experience with -Dr. Painter tells of his experience with the lymph. Allegheny elopers safe in their homes. The immense plate glass works at Irwin ready for operation. Charles Stevens recovers from the bite of a copperhead snake. -Tulegraph companies are opposed to having their wires placed underground. Four persons were killed on the local milroad lines yesterilay. The Saturday half holiday law went into force; many went to parks or country; the theater matinee receives a boom from the effect of the law. of the law 12-Mrs. Farrel trizs to kill her husband by -Mrs. Farrel tries to kill her husband by putting poison in beer. Guardsmen say that their camp has been used to boom a new town. Fire and traction ordinances to be massed this week. The main line of the Baltimore and Ohio coming through this city will mean millions in improvements. improvements. The National Guard grow more indig nant over the fact that they were used as an advertising scheme. The Annigh-mated scale meets with much more trouble. The Youngstown acts are said to be illegal. The Pittsburg Traction Company are allowed to cross Grant street without stopping. Inspector Mc Aleese cleans out an elegant faro parlor on Diamond street. Four days allowed owners of dogs to take out a license. Mrs. Stratton dies over the days allowed owners of dogs to take out a license. Mrs. Stratton dies over the disgrace of her son. Carpenters want to know now strike money was spent by the officers of the Carpenters' Union. School boards in both cities in trouble over text books. Chief Brown will not he hurried in his appointment of a Chief Engineer for the fire department.
More money missing from the Lawrence Bank. Westinghouse Company fally reorganized. Table ware manufacturers ready to begin operations. The trial of Ex.0fileer Bell for the murder of Joseph Mangello begun in Quarter Sessions.
Four persons meet violent deaths from different causes on one spot in Keating. Aunignmented men want some returns from their strike fund. Bell is acquitted of the murder of Mangello. Traction line ware carried into Allegheny's Councils. The original package law again in

Lynch, a Hagerstown, Md., colored man, loans a stranger at the Baltimore and Ohio denot $30, and never sees him ogain. Puliman builds a novel street car, with steps in the center, for Pitts-burg. President Weihe, of the Amalga-mated Association, has many contests to burg. President Weihe, of the Amalgamated Association, has many contexts to settle. Local armor plate makers comulimented by a Government expert.

THE

Frank Josephs, with his wile, an exenun in a Mexican convent, reached this city. Angry contestants in the Love case fight for their children in the desertion court. A Yankee drummer of a Pittsburg firm a trait to stay in Hayti, and returns to this city. Aglut of insurance agents.
Isaac Moody, of Allegheny, fatally injured by the accidental discharge of a pistol. Secretary McGuire tells the story of the strike. Jacob C. Allegheny and has a hilarious time. Two men brutally beacen by a gang.
O'Brien refuses to give evidence against Stevens. Theodore Gearel's remarks make the ladies angry. They will have him arrested for larcenv. The Vesuvius Eoling Mills will resume. The Brady street sever menaces the safety of the citizens of Soho. A mother and father in Lawrenceville drug their children with beer.

5-Two men leap from the Panhandle bridge on a wager. An expert says he will give Pittsburg an atmosphere free from smoke. A woman attacked in the Li-cense Coart brings suit. Moorhend & Co, fight the Amalgamated Association. -Pittsburg non-union men to go to St. Louis to take the places of Amalgamated Association strikers. A nitroglycerine manzine terrorizes the residents of the East End. Cirizens of the Sixteenth ward want to know why ex-Alderman Doughty does not serve his sentence. "Mid-Summer Night's Dream" and "As You Like It" played in the open air. Mayor Gourley declines to have anything to do with the Straightont party. High street controversy carried to the Supreme Court. President Wiehe de-clares the big Steeitor strike likeral. Tarentum camp still the scene of warring to do with the Straightont party. -Two men leap from the Panhandle bridge clares the big Siecitor strike ilieral. Tarentum camp still the scene of warring factions. The children have their day at Valley Camp. The Love divorce suit still in the courts. —Governor Pattison and Alis staff visit Pittsburg—A picture peddler almost scalped by angry women. A prisoner in the Fourteenth ward station house picks the locks and walke out. The Bu-reau of Health brings suit against 13 well-known doctors for not reporting births. The bricklayers fight still in progress. A prominent Southern negro arrested for larceny. progress. A promine arrested for larceny.

AUGUST.

AUGUST. 1-Competent tin platers found in this coun-try. Horseman Brown done up on a pat-ent. Coroner McDowell buries 31 un-known dead bodies. German printers in Allegheny in trouble over a boycott. 2-Testimony taken in the Love divorce suit. Lively times in the Americus Ciub. Delegates for Dalzell, but the alternates against him. Sharpers bunco an Arkan-sus farmer, and beat him out of $10,00. A war between the plass workers and manufacturers imminent.

A war between the plass workers and manufacturers imminent. —A cutlerv plant to be moved to Alle-gheny. The Straightout President, Hon. George Anderson, resigns. Glass men-sign the scale. An excited woman tries to clean out Alderman McMasters' office. —Judge Ewing says the High street tracks must go. Experts find a shortage of $40,000 in Allegtheny's accounts. A mal-gamated officials appeal direct to Secre-tary Foster against imported tin makers. Louchaus M'Intosh's will contested. Aluminum pulled down to the price of copper.

copper. -Henry M. Stanley has a stepfather living

Henry M. Stanley has a stepfather living in Homestead named Watkins James. He says Stanley's right name is Rowlands, and he was born in Camerthenshire, South Wales. Father Mollinger obliged to leave home owing to the rush. Viewers of realty said to be filegal officials. Green glass bothe makers have a dispute over the Board of Trastees.
A boem in city bonds. A New York heires elopes from Sewickley with an adventurer, who is now in the Tombs, N. J. Business men will ruise a fund to compet the use of smoke consumers. Moorhead & Co., will give their men abother hearing. An Allepheny officer named Shoemaker, goes to Alliance, O., and without warrant or requisition papers brings back a prisoner, who escapes at Beaver. The officer discharged. Execution issued against W. E. Schmertz for §100,000. The Second Brigade N. G. P. go into camp at Kensington. Governor Pattison and staff to review them. Weithe believes the Amalgamated Association will win a victory in St. Louis. Chicago Limited enstbound is wrecked at East Palestine, the engineer and fremma injured. H. H. Kenner, a Pittsburg fugitive from justice captured in Canada.
A soldier in Camp Kensington dies of soldier in Camp Kensington dies of a substead of the camp Heissigned of the solution of the substead of the subst disputes of the Youngstown and Sharps burg mill employes. Peru cannot attack Chile because she is bankrupt. The McKeesport Board of Trade discuss pure politics from a non-partian basis. The open hearth furnaces at Homestead closed. Allegheny Cemetery officials will build a Allegiency cemetery onicals will build a columbarium for the cremated. A dress parade at Kensington. Real Estate Agent Alles heid at Altoona. Sportsmen preparing for the squierel season. An-other wonderful healer found on the combridge other wonderful healer found on the Southside. —Mrs. H. Y. Wilson drops dead from heat; many people prostrated. Governor Pat-tison reviews the troops at Kensington. McKeesport must pay for its paupers. Grasshoppers visit farmers in Western Pennsylvania in hordes. Niedringhaus wants allen laborers in his tin plate works. Chief Brown says he his not named a new chief for the fire depart-ment. Jacob C. Alles arrestred in East Liberty. May Ballou, the balloonist, tries to commit suicide in the Mononga-hela river. hela river. Hundreds of ladies visit Camp Kensing -Hundreds of ladies risit Camp Kensing-ton and wade through the mud. Nothing gained by the conference between the Sharpsburg Company and the men⁴ T. Kent, a former Pittsburger, who saw Lincoln shot, revisits his home. Her-man Friedman's body found floating in the Monoughlela. Policeman Dichl commits suicide, after ruining a pretty waitress. commits snicide, after raining a pretty waitress. -Sardines in a can poison an entire family. The Coroner's jury in the Alba Iron Works accident charges the company with gross carelessness and criminal negligence. Swiss celebrate the six hun-dredth anniversary of their independ-ence. Governor Pattison again reviews the smari and compliments them. ence. Governor Pattison again reviews the gnard and compliments them. HION, Miles Humphreys appointed chief of the fire department. One thousand children sing for sweet charity's sake. Carnegie, Phipps & Co. ready to manu-facture armor plate at Homestend. Sham battle at Camp Kensington. Niedring-haus sends to Wales for tin plate work-ers. Discussion over a bridge causes Al-legheany's Connells to be rent asunder. A Turtle Creek young man stays away from home two years, and when he re-turns is refused admission. Tom home two years, and when he re-turns is refused admission. —The tunnel gang who shot Martin Mis-levy all in jail. Shoebox Miller and Bey-erly Mosby arrive in Pittsburg. Much rotten fruit sold on the streets. Jury-men accused of taking "loans" from law-yers. Amaigamated officers in no hurry to move against imported tin workers. The head of an ante-deluvian reptile found in Allesbery. be nove against imported tin workers. The head of an ante-deluvian reptile found in Alleghenv.

Police on the track of the murderer of old Mr. Reese. He was Eimer Bruner. Eastern creditors of W. E. Schmertz think they were ill used. Officers of the United states Glass Company say key are ready for business. Grand Army men demand an explauation of Colonel W. H. Reed. W. H. Thubron, of Allegheny, arrested for refusing to "move on." He will suc the officers.
Bruner still at large. The new Mangan ese metal to be made at Pittsburg. A wave of morality sweeps over the twin cities. The Tarentum Campmeeting Association holds its fortleth anniverary. The new Mononenhela Iron and Steel Works at Hays will berin operations in the tall, Lieutenaut George Exans, of the Touth Cavairy, arcsident of this city, sentenced to discinture by a court-martial for drunkenness. President Harrison commutes the sentence to suspension for a year and a half.
Bruner banded over to the police by a National Guardisman. Iron companies enter into a combine. K. of L again growing in the East. Turners make as big display at the laying of the corner stone of their new Hall.
Mr. Schmertz replies to his Eastern meditors. President Kliver, of the Brotherhood, visits Pittsburg are bong driven trom the Pittsburg markets. Allegheny's fire alarm system saily out of repair. from the Pittsburg markets. Allegheny's fire alarm system sadiy out of repair. -Selimertz wins the first victory in the suits of his Eastern creditors. Judge Stowe passes an opinion on the new street law. Agent O'Brien after bad bots who torment poor animals. Ar-rangements ready for the Swiss celebra-tion of their six hundredth anniversary of independence. -The price of natural gas takes another big Jump. Rapid transit to be The price of natural gas takes another big jump. Rapid transit to be given to the residents of Believne, General Green B. Baum speaks well of Miller, the man being hounded by Mos-by. James A. Chambers sued three times. President Weihe patches up a pence among Obio iron workers. Typhoid fever in the East End traced to a well.
 A terrible fire raging in the McDonald oil region. The Sheriff's posse called out to fight the finmes. All gas companies follow the lead of the Philadelphia Com pany and advance the price of natural gas. Carpenters' Union officials find a hornet's nest in a Southside Union. East-gas. Curpenter, Union offitials and a horner's nest in Southside Union. Eastern workers refuse to work for ex Congressman Neidringhaus. Chief Murphy says he is being rattacked.

—Pittsburg hanks unite. Daughters of Liberty hold a lively and stormy meeting over their trip to Waterbury. Mrs. McNeal says her husband is stage struck. A borough war raging at McKees Bocks. The straightout primaries cause no excitement in the city. James W. Miller allows himself to be interveiwed on the Mosby matter. Labor combines to form a glass trust.
—Story of Shoe Box Miller told in full in THE DISPATCH. Devotion of Miss Mosby. Pittsburg have a busy day with speakeasies and Chinese gambling house. The County fair opened.
—Miller produces additional evidence to prove his innocence. D. B. Oliver says that tim manfacturers are only delayed from opening plants by doubt. Vesuvins Iron Company's men uneasy. The straightouts, in convention to-day, will be governed by strict party rules. Much money lost in matural gas by heating companies.

companies. Big fair of the Allegheny County Associ

Big fair of the Allecheny County Association opened at Tarentum. The bricklayers' strike over. Plate glass magnates hold a conferece at the Anderson. A warring time in Allegheny's Councils. A number of people from Pittsburg and Allegheny pay a visit to Treves to the shrine of the Holy Coat.
 Miller offers still more evidence to prove his innocence. A postal official says the new office will scon be opened. The new law of secret ballots in force. Window glass men disagree. Inspector McAleese closes some fashionable wine parlors. Rivals of Jesse James appear in Pittsburg and attempt a cool daylight robbery.

Dery. —Pitisburg police capture the leader of the Condry gang, Thomas Condry. Su-perfutendent, Weir receives additional power. The Vesuvius Mill owners suc-seed in getting more work done. Dalzell banqueted in Braddock. A popular cry for public haths boing made. The last horse car ran over the Manchester Trac-tion line. tion line.

Nelson testified against Miller to avoid tion line.

Nelson testified against Miller to avoid prosecution himself. A jeweler on the Southside killed in the North Carolina wreck. Thomas Condry probably proves an alibi. An enormous consignment of tin from New Mexico. Harry D. Brunn brought back to Pittsburg.
Condry proves himself innocent of the Rudert murder in Tarentum. Ex.Mayor Brush getting better. Daizell attends a law fete of the Wilkinsburg firemen. The amount of tin in New Mexico practically inexhaustable. Slavonic societies trying to save the three coademned men in the Pittsburg jail.
An electric line to entry passengers to the West End in 12 minutes. A great showing for the Foundling Hospital. John Stein plunges through flamesait the Standard of fire to save himself. Two important changes made in the Department of Public Safety by Chief Brown.
Swiss celebrate the six-hundreth anniversary of freedom. A type writer company formed here. Window glass men not ready to resume. School ohildren return to their dosks.

SEPTEMBER.

SEFTEMBER.
I-James A. Chambers, the great glass manufacturer, fails. Allegheny's Federal building cunnot exceed the $65,000 appro-priated. Three men stabbed at a Ross Grove picnic. Inspector McCucheon be-gins a war on watered milk. Glass houses still idle. Judge Atcheson to de-cide the rights of a United States Mar-shal

James Chambers may escape the neces--James Chambers may escape the neces-sity of making an assignment. The Philadelphia Company strike more gas in the Washington county field. Samuel Early killed in a caloon fight on Elev-enth street. Serious results to the pic-nickers at Ross Grove because of the murder. The Pittsburg Exposition opened, Factory Inspector Mary O'Reilly finds stannery in Allegheny in such a condition that Americans will not work in it.

in it. -The Philadelphia Company prom plenty of natural gas for the winter. A company, chartered in New Jersey to company, chartered in New Jersey to manufacture iron pipe, secures control of the Pittsburg companies and the market. The need of a fire boat demon-strated at a West End fire. Deputy Factory Inspector Mary O'Reilly enforces the law in several Pittsburg factories. Judge Ewing exonerates the Directors of the PennBank.

of the PennBank. —The County Commissioners expect lots of contests because of the new law. Allegheny Councilmen sure that smoke is not a necessity. Union Building Tradesmen form a co-operative ex-change. The police begin an active war against suit clubs. More teachers and schools needed, Sylvester Kirk must be tried in Butler county. Another judg-ment entered against James Chambers, who does not assign.

window glass manufacturers contel plate importing labor. Harry Good, a kidnaped boy, found to be an heir to a fortune.

PITTSBURG DISPATCH, FRIDAY, JANUARY 1.

klönped boy, found to be an heir to a fortme.
Allegheny reformers start a movement to fill the city trensury. The Western Union Commany gives the city correct time from Washington by electricity. Au epidemic feared among students of the Monroe School. No trace of Fitz-finmons found by the detectives. Bandits spicad terror along the Steubenville pike. Window glass workers return at last year's scale.
A Welsh tin manufacturer decides to move his plant from Swansea to a point mear Pittsburg. The Jall investigators promise to reveal the secrets of that plane. Clitzens of Observatory Hill want a new ward formed. Railway magnates laugh at councilman Gilliford's statement. The Allegheny Heating Company considers Shields' shortare.
Pittsburg Chinamen advertise in San Francisco for a highbinder to counce to the city and murder their enemies. Tho one T. Shields setting company and is allowed to confirm the Allegheny Heating Company and is allowed to confirm the allegheny and the allegheny heating company and is allowed to confirm the city and murder the secretion for the city and murder the secretion for the allegheny Heating Company and is allowed to confirm the city and murder the secretion for the secretion for the city and murder the secretion for the secretion fo

Thomas T. Shields settles with the Alle-gheny Heating Company and is allowed to go free. A horrible accident occurred at the Homestead Iron Works caused by the upsetting of a ladle of molten iron; two men die and four cannot recover. Trades unions will not admit lawyers the upsetting of a tadle of moiten iron; two men die and four cannot recover. Trades unions will not admit hawyers and politicians.

A colored wirl, during the quarrel of two admirers, is stabbed in the back. Rev. Father McDermott, of St. Paul's E. C. Cathedrai, proposes a plan to do away with fairs and pienies. A church and convent to be erected at Thirty-third and Butler streets by the Roman Catholies. An explosion at Jones & Laughlins shakes the Southside. Many speak-easies raided in Pittsburg and Allegheny.
The trial of Mrs. Fitzsiumons for complicity in the Gilkinson murder ready for the attention of the Quarter Sessions, Warden Berlin given 4 hours in which to answer any charges. The Standard Plate Glass Company goes into the lands of a receiver. Carpenters determined to strike. The Philadelphia Company wants the city to pay for the gait is using without any contract.
The Investigating Committee say there are family jobs in the working of the jail. Mrs. Lucy Fitzslamons tells her version of the Gilkinson tragedy. The Homestead mill force quits to attend a funeral and then go on strike. A strike at a Chartlers iron works. Marble workers oppose prison labor. The Moorhead-Mc Cleane Company in better condition.
Kallroad miners in the Pittsburg district as k for an increase in pay to 3% cents a bushel in one week or they will strike 9,000 men involved. Superintendent we must be enforced. Judge Ewing charges the jury in the Exposition: Moore's verses sang. Pittsburg has a mania for divores.
John B. Berlin resigns as Warden of the jail and his resignation is accepted. Moorhead-McCleane creditors grant an extension. A collision are McKim's station on the Pittsburg & Western Railrond miners in the Pittsburg has a mania for divores.
John B. Berlin resigns as Warden of the jail and his resignation is accepted. Moorhead-McCleane credition is accepted. Moorhead-McCleane credition is accepted. Moorhead-McCleane crediters grant an extension. A collision are M

Another false Fitzsimmons arrested in 5-Another false Fitzsimmons arrested in the South and sent to Pittsburg. The Bissell accommodation, on the Baltimore and Ohio Bailroad, goes through an open switch at Linden station, and falls into Second avenue, blocking travel: six men injured. The body of Emma Gross, of McDonald, supposed to have been mur-dered by Albert Catlin, is found under a log. Patients of a Southside female physician tender her a banquet on her birthday. Lives and property placed in jeconrdy by reckless blasting in Schen-lev Park. --Coal operators charge the railroad jeopardy by reckless binsting in Schen-lev Park.

26—Coal operators charge the railroad miners with bad inith. The miners' lenders try to show the justice of their demand. West End people find it diffi-cult to agree upon a route for the elec-tric road. Factory Inspector Mary O'Reilly will complete her work in another week. Nine applications for divorce filed.
27—A mistake in transcribing keeps McKees' Bocks from becoming a boroagh. Pitts-burg and Allegheny schools crowded with pupils. A new motor for street roads invented by a Pittsburg man. But very few street cars left in the city. The week in trade gives confidence to busi-new motor or street or street.

week in trade gives confidence to busi-ness men. Bohemians create a riot on Penn avenue. Carnegie, Phinps & Co. bring suit against -Carnegie, Phirps & Co. bring suit against the Philadelphia Company to compel them to supply gas. Many Councilmen opposed to the tond increase. A large butter warehouse on Water street de-stroyed by fire. Democrats fill the city preparatory to their convention. The United Presbyterian Synod in session. Miners massing their forces for a great strike.

Atiners massing then to many strike back strike. - The Philadelphia Company strike back at Carnezie & Co. by filing a large bill for gas, amounting to $552,000. The Presby-terians want more money to run their elementary institutions. Colored clubs

Hilton. Coal operators claim that the miners are entirely to blame for the present state of affairs. Ordipance for a popular vote on the issue of street bonds masses Connecis passes Councils. A Liberty street flour sack factory and a passes Councils.

1892.

A Liberty street flour sack factory and a crockery warehouse burned. The hotels are all crowded. Prison Congress delegates inspect the county workhouse.
Members of the Prison Congress Visit Morganza. Close of the session.
Effect of the miners' strike beginning to be felt by railroads. A portion of the scale settled at the Edgar Thomson Steel Works. McDonaid field produces 52,00 barrels per day — high water mark. Plans accepted for the Newsboys' Home.
The Keystone Bridge Company Dacked by Carnegie, to build a World's Fair tower to eclipse the Eliffel structure. The Plitsburg Exposition financially falls below last season's record.
The Philadelphia Company promises plenty of cass for five years and no increase of price. Murderer Fitzsinmons writes a letter to THE DISPATCH. Monon-gahela Valley manufacturers emburnassed by want of coal. Oliver & Roberts announce they can pay their indebted.

gahela Valley manufacturers embur-rassed by want of coal. Oliver & Roberts announce they can pay their indebted-ness in five annual irstallments. Mis-sionary convention of the Christian Church opens. Exposition closes.
18-L. C. Hutchinson, of the Allegheny Na-tional Bank, meets death by an accident in Colorado. Pittsburg praised by the street car men 'from the country over. Part of Phillips & Co.'s glass works burned. Movement started to effect a freat tennis organization in Pittsburg.
19-Ex-Market Clerk Hastings, of Allegheny, on trial for emb-zzlement. Great influx of street car and railway men who-come to attend the convention. Mysterious disappearance of Operator Malesberg causes the closing of his mines at Web-ster. Reardon found guilty of second de-gree murder for shooting Mislevy.
20-A heavy cas explosion followed by fire sweeps away George W. Snannan's store in Alleghenr, at a loss of $26,000. Georze C. Leonard, of Beaver Falls, gets a back pension of $22,000.

pension of $22,000. Dr. Cyrus Teed, founder of the Koreshan -Dr. Cyrus Teed, founder of the Koreshan Community in California, is in confer-ence with the Economites, President Costello issues a call for another conven-tion of miners. Bartley Costello found guilty of involuntary manshaughter for causing the death of Constantine Pemora.

20 freight cars are burned, causing a loss of $100,000. The Pittsburg Traction Company makes a good showing for the year. The local bowing season opened in a triangular contest at Bellefield. Mayor Wyman, of Allecheny, denies the jurisdiction of the Auditing Committee, but satisfied to have the charges tried before a Court of Justice. Another Poor Farm site offered the city. Aclen and Morris on trial for the muriler of Young Buckley during the Moorehead mill strike, deny their guilt.
Max Schamberz, Consul from Anstria-Hungary to Pittsburg, becomes interested in the alleged persecution of the Huns by Allegheny's eity officials, and proposes to take action for their defense. A little blizzard comes to town and sends the mercury down to 19°. The amount of coal tied up awaiting rise of the rivers is 17,000,000 bushels. Ex-Priest Shatterly, lecturer against the Romen Catholic relidon, locked up on a charge of selling improper books. The Coorry bank's shoringe figured at $170,000. Allegheny working to scaure the community's millions. Aclen and Morris acquitted of the Buckley murder.
Pittsburg police asked to nid in suppressing Fayette county outlaws. Three men killed by a rallway accident at Mayor Wyman, low and boy of a conservatory in the park. Ex-Lieutenant Governor Latan, of Westmoreland county, onsy in the park. Ex-Lieutenant Governor Latan, of Westmoreland county, onsy in the city tring to procent a partice for the state of the state of the state of the state of the first of the start of the state of Pennora. -Xavier Steffler shot down and almost instantly killed in Oakdale by Thomas McMahon, who is jailed on a charge of murder, but claims he intended only to shoot Steffler's dog. A plan for saving the gas of coke ovens, now wasted by milthe gas of coke ovens, now wasted by mil-lions of feet, is put forward by Engineer M. V. Smith. Coal men urge the taxa-tion, of oil lands at their high values as such, rather than as farming lands. Residents of the Youghiozheny Valley fear violence may arise among the miners. The United Presbyterine Synod refers the Reed case to the Presbytery. The Street Railway Mer's Association banquets at the Monon ahela. —Theodore Doerflinger. Wylle avenue druggist, is short in his accounts as a School Roard Treasurer $7,500, and it is rumored attempted suicide. American Street Railway Association members leaving the city. The Standard Oil Com-pany building large tanks for the South-

Latta, of Weetmoreland county, busy in the city trying to procure a pardon for Silas Gray. Many oil wells shut down by the cold snap. -Many petrified bodies exhumed in Troy Hill Cemeteries. Allegheny Councils abolish the office of Fire Bureau Clerk. Coal famine reports increase from all along the river, and the situation is be-coming desperate. Philadelphia's liquor license system likely to be introduced in Pittsburg. -Dr. Edwin T. Painter, of Oakland dis-trict, Koch cure patient, returns from pany building large tanks for the South-west field.

The bown I. Painter, or outstand dis-trict, Koch cure patient, returns from Germany and pronounces the remedy a failure. Rivermen anxious for a rise of water. City Solicitor Elphinstone, of Allezhony, prepares the cases against officials. The Northsided Protective pany building large tanks for the Southwest field.

24-Jerry Buckley was shot down by negroes at Wilkinsburg and his slayers narrowly escaped lynching. Corner stone of the Brushton school building laid. Solomon Kirk arrested for robbing a woman. The case of Holmes to be, reopened by the carpenters. Corner stone of the Church of the Good Shepherd laid. Mrs. Fitz-simmons is sentenced and causes a dramatic scene.
25-The Wilkinsburg branch of the Duquesne Traction Line opened.
26-Doerflinger, the embezzler, on his way to the West. Miners claim to have been hoodwnked by coal operators and a general strike is now declared.
27-Doerflinger is captured at Omaha. President O'Neill resigns.
28-Alleghenians about equally divided on the matter of issuing bonds and it is to be decided by ballot. News of the death of Cashier Hutchinson from the results of an accident in Colorado. The Modern Building and Loan Association is investigating Doerflinger's methods. Coal operators score a point throughout the district. The Youghogheny Valley the only stronghold of the strikers. Pawnbroker Stern heavily fined for openating without alleense.
30-A $60,000 free wipes out two large workshops on Penn avenue. President Roberts, of the Pennsylvania Railboad, gives Colonel Roberts lectures at Western Uni-versity on modern ship canals. 1-Rev. Carl Weil, ex-pastor of the Evan-gelical Lutheran Church, Sixth avenue and Smithfield, commits suicide by shooting himself on the doorstep of his home, atter acting strangely for several days. Business men protest aminst present Exposition methods. The Cor-oner finds that John H. Orr, the Pitts-burg glassmaker, was murdered by Ital-ians at Jeannette. Arrest of a colored man claiming to be a United States de-tective. The city must pay a big bill for the Carr-Pfeiffer contest. 2-Pittsburg steel men have little faith in the genuineness of the New York non-union shops on Penn avenue. President Rob-erts, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, gives Union station. The final report of Treas urer Thompson, of the Pittsburg Cit-zens' Johnstown Relief Committee, shows that of the $330,788 contributed in the State, this city gave $253,000. Roger O'Mara returns from the West with oerflinger in custody.

Detrilinger in custody. -Startling charges are made against the Mayor and Chief of the Department of Public Safety of Allegheny. Al'egheny citizens are opposed to an increase of bonded indebtedness. The Homestead Steel Works is making electric rails that may supplant the trolley lines. Thomas may supplant the trolley lines. Thomas Gusalch, a Pole, is killed by rolling mill machinery. One person killed and sev-eral injured on the Connellsville and Leisenring electric road the first day it is operated. Cornerstone of McKees-port's nespital is laid.

$1,000,000 fortune. The Allegheny Auditing and Finance Committees are at war.
 Yarious complications arise over the capture of Embezzler Leech, private detectives being arrested on a charge of compliancy. John B. Alexander, in the Contral station on charges of horse stealing, forgery and larceny, makes sensitional charges against his Indiana compty prosecutors. Actor J. K. Emmet, Fr., and others arrested for violating the Sunday statutes, in making an advertising parade. Sewickley residence of R. P. Balley burned. Firs in Lawrenceville district, originating in G. W. Lea's drog store, causes $20,000 loss.
 General commendation for the purchase of the Alexander and Lee properties for Poor Farm purposes. At Ford City a bronze statue unveiled in honor of Capt. J. B. Ford, father of the plate glass in dustry, Congressman John Daizell being of Anarchists to commendate to be sold.
 Tursice John Dues, of the Economite Sacord and the present of the averdame store at the store store.

 sneak thief enters a residence by day-light, and when discovered draws a re-volver and escapes. Amberson arends the new law, Allegheny has another big bill for lighting. Detectives capture three McKeesport thieves.
 The new law, Allegheny has another big bill for lighting. Detectives capture three McKeesport thieves.
 The new law analyzes the city's water supply and predicts an opidemic. Doerflinger is made libuarian of the fait by Warden McAleese. Mayor Gourley sins the ordinance of the West End Fleetrie Kaliroad Company. Allegheny harris' threat with a penknike Chuckey Depaw and a party of New York Central officials visit Pittsburg. All nist cars to run on the Dongene Hine.
 The suit of the Allerbeny National Bank attinist Baron Isadore Lagerfelt will be taken back to West Virginia. Henry Harris, theoli their Lodge of Sorrow at the Alvin preciser. The Pittsburg Lodge of Elik hold their Lodge of Sorrow at the Alvin the fait. I bo he renotated and string the one monormaticate the switch. Trustee John Dust, of the Economite So

-Trustee John Dus-, of the Economite So-clety, denies the various stories to the effect that Dr. Teed would merze the Koreshan Society with theirs. The Pita-burg and Birmingham Traction Com-gany will build an incline plane at Tenth and Bradford streets. Rev. Charles Ed-ward Locke makes causile remarks on divine healers and impostors. -In a Panhandle wreck near Burgetts-town Brakeman George Hardy is roasted to death, several others are injured and 20 freight cars are burned, causing a loss strongthened.
7-Liquor men congratulate themselves on the provisions of the new law. Frank Sweenev, Grand Master of the Switchmen's Brotherhood visits the Pittsburg and Allegheny lodges. Physicians altribute the increased sick roll to the poor water. Councilman Evans says the bond issue can be stopped. A mun who makes a business of marrying for money flads a victim here. More sensational charges to be bronght against Mayor Wyman.
8-Mrs. R. P. Lewis the wife of an inste drummer prefers death to divore. The polluted waters of the Ohio cause an epidemic of two hold fover. The bond increase substitued to deaters on the discharge of Holmes Auderson leaves Allegheny county with abother murier mystery. Flour sack manufacturers hold their annual meeting at the Monogabela House.
9-An all night schedule put into effect by the street car companies innuit g to the East End. Mrs. Lewis makes a forth attempt to commit suicide. Councilman Evans explains whe he will cost in courts.

30 freight cars are burned, causing a los of $100,000. The Pittsburg Traction Con cils. The original package law again in question. Inspector McAleese arrests William J. Donts at the Daquesne for obtaining money under false pretenses. Peter Mc-Clarren dies from the effects of a blow. Peansylvania Steel Company given a week to sign the scale. Another co-operative store fails. A wagon load of ntro-florerine explodes in Washington. nitro-glycerine explodes in Washington, Pa. Braddock and Turtle Creek Railroad begins operation. The West End Street Bailway Company

The West End Street Bailway Company neks for an injunction against the Pitts-burg. Also henry and Manchester Com-pany. An expert invors underground wires. Notiminy offers of Poor Farm sites. Manuneturers worried over fael for the future. A Colorado vietim slowly wending his way honneward with the assistance of the authorities.
A tunnel projected to the Southside suburbs. A number of speak-easies raided. Northsiders want a park to rival schenley. Seven vicious dogs put the police to flight. Brushton and Wilkins-burg fight over a piece of land.
Sheriff McCleary wants additional force at the Daquesue Works. A milroad

Sheriff M-Cleary wants additional force at the Daquesne Works. A milroad president predicts a big year. Father Mollinger very ill after the late great strain upon idin. Two weeks before Chief Bown will appoint a Chief Engineer of the Fire Bureau. Trouble at Steelton over the refusal to sign the scale. Mrs. W. E. Reed commits suicide at Bellevne.
 A policeman vanquished by scap suds. Medical experts say that Pittsburg must have pure water. The danger of traction roads discusse in Concells. The strikes at Daquesne ended, the Am immated Association gives up the fight. Allegheny Valley road will run into New York Contrait's deput at Buffsio.

Valley road will run into New York Cen-trai's denot at Binfaio, -Judge Porter and Detective Lanchorst accused of alding a criminal. The Steel Tubniar Car Company collapses. Mrs. M. D. Watson suing for nine acres of land in Allegheny. Beaver Nall Company signs the Amalgamated scale. Campbell, of Ohio, the star guest at the Randall Club's iete champetre. The heat boiled milk in cans at the railroad depot. A man shot on the Monongabela wharf-heat. -Pitteburg (raternal organization tracts ittsburg fraternal organization trusts. -Pittsburg fraternal organization trusts. Many prominent New Yorkers view the opening of the Irwin Glass Works. Enor-mous taxes turned into the treasury. Scheme for a great arcade killed. Harry Boyd kills John Myford in the prize ring; they quarreled over a sweetheart. -Rowlind and Orlando played under the trees on the Kenmawr lawn. Burrell

bo does not assign

who does not assign. James Chambers at last makes an assign-ment. Father Sheedy explains to Pitts-bury Catholics the encyclical of Pope Leo on the inbor question. Mrs. Love wins in court, and will retain possession of her young children. Councils' Finance Com-mittee recommend an increase of $2,000,-000 in bonded indebtedness. The officials of the Venvins Iron Works will not spend $10,000 building houses for their men.

spend $10,000 building houses for their men.
John Ott stabs and kills his brother George in Allegheny. Postal clerks from all over the country attend the convention here. McKeesport's hospital a model institution. A Pittsburger has a startling experience with road agents. Yellow row free of speak-easies.
Public money both in Allegheny and Sharpsburg missing. Clerk Hastings short in his accounts; $20,000 missing from the market house books. Children enjoy a day at the Exposition. Armand Stevart, a Belgian gentleman. visits Stevart, a Belgian gentleman visits Pittsburg to gather labor statistics for his Government. William C. Schmertz resigns the presidency of the Chamber of his Government. William C. Schmertz resigns the presidency of the Chamber of Commerce.

Allegheny's marketmen say Clerk Hastings is honest. Suspensions at the Pittsburg High School will not be made public. Reckless driving causes Belle Willson to be crushed under the wheels of a buggy. President Rae, of the United Mine Workers, enforces the mining law.
A plot to kill several wealthy Chinamen unearthed. Severary McGuire of the carpenters' union visits Pittsburg. The price of gas 5 cents a thousand makes return to the use of coal unnecessary. School children crowd the Pittsburg Exposition. Allegheny's Sinking Fund Commission considers bond matters. First day of the Children's Fairies' Carmival at the Exposition.
The revenues of Allegheny will exceed that expected by at least $100(0); many improvements will now be made. Smoke consuming railroad engines successfully tried on the Junction road. The city had four sudden deaths yesterday. The Railroad Men's Relief Association pay many large benefits. The new Builders' Exchange get their first big contract.
The Pleasant Valley roads wins the entrance to the Brighton road, shutting the Manchester Company out. Miss Mary O'Reilly and W. W. Baker, F ctory Inspectory law in Pittsburg. Journeymen bricklayers want to call the present Strike off, and they make overtures to the master builders. An unknown insume many stary estimation off and soldier thinks there is too much circumlocution in the Pusion Office. thinks there is too much circ

West Penn Hospital. An old soldier thinks there is too much circumlocation in the Pension Office.
A new electric road will be built to Mansfield and Chartiers. The residents along the proposed road will solvance the money. The Pittsburg Glass Company will build a branch house at Spokane Falls, Wash. Dr. Emmens prepares a new metal for small guns to be known as nichelum metal. Judge White decides that no more gas wells shall be sunk through coal mines.
Cnineso secret societies in this city hire San Francisco thurs to mark the weaking of the Cirist M. E. Church use the Duquesne Theater, will begin operations in Bethany. The worshipers of the Cirist M. E. Church use the Duquesne Theater. The Allegheny Presbytery investigate the Rev. J. H. Bausman. Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers hold a hreeting in town.
The Moorhead McCleane Company is temporarily embartased, and ask for an extension. Miners in the Conclassifier another big strike. Clerk Hastings. The high price of land deters the city from purchasing a Poor Farm. The Junction Railroad to use bituminous coal with smoke consumers. All fint glass works again open. Right of wash coal with smoke consumers. All fint glass works again open. Right of way granted to the West End Electric Company. Frederick C. Fitzsimmons, held in the Frederick C. Fitzsimmons, held in the county jail on the charge of murdering Detective Gilkinson, excapes in a mys-terious manner from the prison. He crawls through the bars which he had sawed sway. No trace of him found. The Moorhead-McCleane Company make a very good showing. Window plass manufacturers and workers again conter. Clerk Hastings said to have left Allegheny. The suspension of the Wales works sends the price of the plate up.

 Fitzsinmons, sithough pursued by an army of detectives, succeeds in keeping his whereabouts a secret. He had 46.000 on his person when he escaped. The Prison Board will investigate the jail's management. The Homeopathic Siste Medical Society meet in Pittaburg; they demand recognition by the State. The

to the number of $5 meet in convention

The Allegbeny Auditing Committee in this city. —The Allegbeny Auditing Committee finds that the stub books, which should show the disposition of certain moneys, are gone. Veterans' Day at the Exposi-tion, and thousands of them attend. Pittsburg Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church begins its Sixty-eighth annual session at Uniontown, and a year of remarkable progress is reported. It is found that many of the State records have been stolen from the Court House. Michael Maioney, placed on trial for the murder of Austin L. Reid, pleads self de-fense.

OCTOBER.

-Fitzsimmons gives up $1,000 to assist his convicted wife in getting a new trial. Allegheny Presbytery holds a special meeting to take action upon the case of Rev. J. H. Bausman, and he is merely admonished to beware of future impru-dence. The United Mine Workers to go out on a strike for the eight-hour day. Pittsburg Conference votes against ad-mission of women delegates: -It transpires that Fitzsimmons' motive mission of women delegates;

It transpires that Fitzsimmons' motive for ascape was largely his love for a woman. Park work stopped for the year. Allegheny's funds are running low. Large accessions to the striking miners' ranks; large meeting of operators held in Fittsburg. The printers' strike grows interesting. Michael Maloney found guilty of murder in the second degree.
A business house and hotel projected for the Point. Inspector Mc Aleese appointed Warden of the jail. Men from seven more coal mines join the strikers. A new reservoir to be built to supply the downtown portion of the city with water.
Police Captain Silvis appointed to the inspectorship. Neither miners nor operators show signs of early giving in. The groat Mevey well surprises the oil world by producing 630 barrels per nour by slight agitation
The Philipsburg Bank succumbs to the miners' panic. Pittsburg in sudden need of a lockup, the Diamond street building being leased to private parties. The police wage war against liquor wholesalers. All the mines along the Monongabela without men, and the general aspect one of a complete strike. Robert Denniston is appointed Police Captain and James Glenn Lientenant. The State Supreme Court convenes for October term and hands down 101 opinions.

lons. Pittsburg Presbytery meets and adopts -Pitisburg Presbytery meets and adopts a report on revision softening the doctrines of election and preterition. A new City Hall proposed, the old to be left exclusively to the police depart-ment. Allegheny's financial affairs in a tangle. An alleged combine of coal operators broken fip by Wheeling gas men backing an operation who pays the advance. The Mevey well at McDonald produces 18 000 barrels in one day. Lamp-thrower James Stewart found guilty of murder in the second degrie for killing his wite.

mirder in the second degrie for killing his wife. — The liquor business is depressed and the first failure occurs, that of the Smithfield street seioon licensed to Frederick Tress, but supposedly kept by Tobias McCurry. Mine workers win and five of the big operators have signed the scale. John Tierney, killer of bis wife, found guilty in the second degree. County Commis-sioner Mercer demands honest as-ess-ment methods. The two cities produce one-third of the oak tanned leatner product of the United States. — The Y. M. C. A. opens its twenty-fourth annual convention at Franklin. George Wilson found guilty of burgiary. An analysis proves the genuineness of the Demier in Pittsburg of a Williamsport criminal who escaped from the Sherif. Oil orolution at McDonald increases criminal who escaped from the Sheriff. Oil production at McDonald increases to 44,000 barrels ner day. National Prison Congress opens in Car-negie Hall, Allegheny, with ex-President Rutherford B. Hayes in the chair, and the hurden of the utterances is mercy, not menace, for criminals. Citizens' and Du-quesne Traction companies are warring over a piece of land on Pena avenue, Window glass makers looking for a boom. Miners' officials send out an appeal for aid

Amers onclass send out in appeal for aid. — An Italian murder in the East End, An-corosa slashing Antonelli to denta for a debt and escaping arrest. A healing mission opened in the eity by Rev. Dr. Dowie, faith curist. Fatal fire in a Penn avenue Polish tenement. — Pittsburg rivermen leave for the water-ways meeting at Evapsville, Ind. The Prison Congress delegates visit Riversidé and think favornbly of it. Verdiet of mansianghter against Richard T. Schooley for the shooting of Leonard

NOVEMBER.

1—The new town of Ellwood baptized with fire to the amount of $40,000 loss. A war begun between rival faith healers.
2—William Wuddle, a Bennett station blacksmith, killed at his lorge by the discharge of two old gun barrels, supposed not to be loaded, which he was heating. Coal operators feeling certain they can resume. Pittsburg not much affected by the Boston bank failure.
3—The coal miners in convention decide to return to work at the old rate.
4—Faith Currer Dowie has large crowds at Carnegie Hall. Detective Braun says he was attacked by an Allepheny official, and is afraid that he will be killed. Fire, water and smoke damage Liberty street -The new town of Ellwood baptized with water and smoke damage Libert street properties to the amount of $40,000. A 12-story building announced for the Na-gee corner of Fifth avenue and Grant street.

street. About 1.000 miners of the Pittsburg dis-Street.
 About 1,000 miners of the Pittsburg district refused to return to work because the operators fail to recognize the miners' union, and another general strike is threatened. Low water in the river makes a coal famine from a little below Pittsburg to Cincinnati. All street improvements, with the exception of those absountely necessary, will await the action of the courts on the new law relating to them. Three and a half millions of taxes collected in Pittsburg during the current year. Laura Hill, accomplice of Fitzshmons, is set free because of her valuable testimory.
 About 100 men quit work at Jones & Langhlins because hours of hore are increase without corresponding increase Laughtins because hours of labor are increased without corresponding increase of pay. Miners troubles breaking out again in the Pittsburg district.

 Dr. Frank Doyle committed suicide. Pittsburgers demand that the City Exposition be open during the World's Fair year. Heavy death rate among children is noted. Reciprocity bringing a heavy Bouth American trade to the city. Draw game of football played in Exposition Park. J. Palmer O'Nell sells 50 shares of baseball stock. A wild steer causes excitement in Allegheny.
 The decline of crime becoming more manifest about the city streets day by day. Evidence of the existence of a local branch of one of the great Chinese secret socie-

General complaint about oil in the waters. Iron manufacturers expecting an improved market. -Fare raised to 5 cents on the Fifth aveence of a local branch of one of the great Chinese secret socie-ties is brought to light. Officials of the Amalgamated Association endeavor to bring about a compromise at Joneş & Laughlins' mill. The Pittsburg Young Men's Christian Association celebrates its quarto centennial and is addressed by Rev. Dr. Theodore L. Cuyler of Brook-lyn. nue line. Mysterious disappearance of James W. Shink, formerly of Harper's Ferry. Vn., from this city, berins to ex-cite als friends. The oil report for No-vember shows a falling off.

DECEMBER. 1-Equalization of fares gives the Daquesne road the advantageover the Fifth ave-nue line. Allegheny's Public Safety Committee pays little attention to the protection of the Huns and tables complaints made in their interests. Frederick Abbott, wealthy farmer, of Ialdwin townshin, commits suicide. Mardoch, Kerr & Co. obtain a decision against striking printers, who will ap-pead, Pour prominent Pittsburgers ar-rested and fined in West Virginia for vio-lating the game law. Conjunct let for Mayor Wyman and Chief Murphy, Allegheny, demand a hearing on the charges made against them. Paston Bausman, of Rochester, is upield by his church against the Allegheny Presby Bausman, of Rochester, is upheld by his church against the Allegheny Presbytery, and many reasons are given why the pastoral relation should not be severed. Mayor Gourley appoints a committee to represent Pittsburg's claims for the Republican National Convention. Sharpsburg badly scourged by speakensies. Rivermen lese heavily by reason of long continued low water. The Supremfe Court decides that the Delamater case must be tried in Clearfield county. The orly sandheaves and allowed to retain his charge, but cautioned by the Allegheny are increased 50 per cent. Southside mill troubles quieted; the men will go to work and their grievance is reterred to the Amiganated National Committee.
Carnegie Library plans to the number of 96 put on exhibition fn the new Forgnson building. The eAmiganated National Committee.
Carnegie Library plans to the number of 96 put on exhibition fn the new Forgnson building. The eAmiganated National Committee.
Carnegie Library plans to the function to be located in the Panlandle yards, opening on Grant and Seventh streets, Suicide of Annexing the County to the eity. "Orange Blossom," Joe Mulhatton, locked up on a charge of rubbery. Homestead citizens won't pay increased price or gas. The Supreme Court fulsiones its session in Pittsburg. peal, Four prominent Fittsburgers mrested and fined in West Virginia for violating the game law. Contract let for constructing the Greenfield avenue branch of the Second avenue line.
Contractors sue the city for money the trenaury is bare and the issuance of bonds is the only means of relief. More arrests of Allegneny official's scheduled by the Reform Association. The Carnegie Library Committee is to make efforts to fill the art gallery. Pennsylvania leads in the number and prominence of Scotch-Irishmen. Claims of dramatic for marder.
Henry Bowmaster killed by James N. Taylor at Duquesue. Ex-Mayor Pearson, of Allegheny, arrested on a charge of embeddiement and writes a hearing. Internal Revenue Collector Warmcastle surprised by the preforment of charges against him by Government agents. The revolution in Allegheny to be further fracteres by the dividing of wards and election districts. Striking printers will make a test case of Victor Williams' damage suit against the Murdoeks. The United Mine Workers are supplanted in the coke region by the new order of Federated Brotherbood of Coke Workers of America.

Soutistical ince manufacturer scews a Soutistic location. Henry Dallmyer dies from injuries received in a fall while waking in his sleep at his Hays-ville residence. Edward A. Keil elected Tressurer of the National Lodge of the Auslgamated Association. Eccontric Mrs. Mary E. Toomey dies and leaves a Federates Distances and the second se

2-Pittsburg steel men have little faith in the genuineness of the New York non-union steel plant scheme. The R & O. R. R to erect a station at Thirty-third street. Prominent Standard Oil men in town. Rev. A. W. Arundel assumes charge of Trinity Episcopal Church and preaches his salutatory sermon. City police again raid speak-casies.
3-The wind plays havoe in the two cities, shattering buildings, blowing down an electric light tower in Allegheny, causing a panic in a school and causing several injuries to person. Allegheny Chief of Public Safety Murphy answers the charges of the Auditing Committee. Dynamice explodes in a trunk on a Pennsylvania Railrond train near Irwin, and the owner, a Hungarian, was arrested. The offener is raise. Sheriff of Clearfield county. Mrs. Cath-rine Schroeder dies alone in a cellar. The fees of Millvale borough officers stopped. Two lines of street rars cet right of way to Homestend. Traction migmates will purchase the Allerheny Valley road for the Pennsylvania Railroad. 5-The grip in this city is rapidly approach-ing the dimensions of an epidemic. Jury Commissioner and State Department Cierk Jiles wants to be returned to the State Committee. Chairman Hendricks says Murphy will not be whitewashed. Sharpsburg, and Lawrencevilla pools want 5-cent fares. Iron men are dis-gusted with the rol tape surrounding the freight schedule adjustment. The Engi-neers' Association of Western Fennsyl-vania hold their meeting. The traction meanstage diverse the combination of the owner, a Hungarian, was arrested.
The river is rising. The Bausman case is not remarded by the Allegheny Prosbytery as settled; the pastor is only given time. The Academy of Sciences is pushing university extension.
24—The water having risen coal goes down vania hold their m vana hold their meeting, the traction magnates discuss the combination of their lines with the Daquesne. —Duquesne men say they are Knights of Labor and will not work for Elkins if the lines unite. Many Indiana people with faith in Father Mollinger visit Troy Hill.

officials. The Northsided Protective Association enters suits for the revoca-tion of wholesale liquor dealers' lice uses. Colonel Roberts lectures as Western Uni-

DECEMBER.

Ing university extension.
The water having risen, coal goes down the river on every available eraft. Poel & Co.'s private bank at Irwin suspends. Rev. Joseph Shechey, chiming to be an army chaplain, locked up on a charge of disorderly conduct. The Mozart Chub Concert opens the music season.
Two Washington county children, aged 20 and 16, elope and are arrested in the city. Suicide of Michael G. Fasani, a cook at the Duquesne. Fred J. Stevens arrested on a charge of aggravated assault and battery. having, it was alleged, attempted to kill his wife because she would not transfer property to him. Fire destroys the car barn of the Second avenue line. 26 cars and five horses, also Bolin's Hotel. Gerade convicted of murdrer in the first degree for the killing of his step child.
Thanksgiving Day variously and very generally observed in both cities. The Duquesne and Pittsburg Traction combine is closed. The audit of the Franklin Intes unite. Many Informa people with faith in Father Mollinger visit Troy Hill. Many shoplifters in the stores; two women thieves in the party. The burntout property of Christ M. E. Church will probably be sold in a few days. Eight people in Allegueny poisoned by nulk. West Bellevne answers the charges of the indigmant citizens.

17—The two traction lines unite, and make all possible promises to the public. Night cars will be retained on the roads. The outlook for organized labor. Gompers says the boycott is a boomering if unfairly used. Mayor Gouriey asks for prompt renorts from the chiefs. Twenty lives lost on the local traction roads during the first 11 months of the year. A hearing in the case of the sanity of John Woods. Magistrates to be asked for in Allegheny.
18—Porter & Donaidson's wholesale trimming i house on Liberty street destroys by firs; the loss over $100,000. Judge Sharel decides to see that juries are properly dense and are not in point. Thanksgiving Day variously and very generally observed in both cities. The Duquesne and Pittsburg Traction combine is closed. The andit of the Franklin School Board's books shows that Doer-flueer's deficient is seized store, etc. Five thighw ymen arrested in the West End. East End Gyms at Liberty Park defeat the Media Football team, by 20 to 12. Pittsburg molders threatened with reduction of pay.
Allegheny Councils try to induce peace among fire officiels. The war between the West Penn Gas Company and the people of Leechburg culminates in the shutting off of the gas, and then Judge Rayburn grants an fujunction against the company and the citizens have a temporary victory. New Jersey lawyers working to get big back pay for Pittsburg cleton supervisors. Fitzshmons said obe in Greene county playing the deaf mute dodge. Liquor wholesalers disobey the law. Betatlers meet and organize to oppose measures they regard offensive.
Mayor Wyman of Allegheny arrested on charges of extortion and embezziement. Seven converts who had dug a tunnet at Riverside buffled in escaping. Cold wave comes, Allan Williams fatally injured by a B. & O. engine. Money flow in the information of the sensit of coal shipments.

house on Liverry stretchestroyming first the loss over slid,000. Judge Starle decides to see that juries are properly drawn and are not in politics. Local companies form a river sand trast. Ex-County Detective Laughurst, of Allegheny, arrested for attempting to defrand his partner and the Second National Bank.
19—The Western Mining Institute meet and discuss the dangers to miners from oil and gas wells. A Pittsburg merchant ends a romance by marrying his early love. Two colored attorneys, the first in the county, admitted to practice at the bar. Boggs & Buhl, Allegheny drygcools merchants, will open a store in Pittsburg. A tremendous explosion of matural gas, followed by a fire, wrocks a Liberty street warehouse. Charles H. Coolman arrested upon word irom Chief Murphy, of Columbus, accusing him of forzery.

the street car companies makes a fourth attempt to commit suicide. Connellman Evans explains why he will test in cours the leave of honds to pay contractors. The Beaver Valley Electric road randy for operation. Washington county forms a scheme for supplying the two ellies with good milk.
Collector of Internal Revenue Warm-castle with good mark the pears in court to claim possession of heronity child. The Committee on Public Safety advise buried wires. Imported Huns not wanted in this locality.
A sensational suit becau against the Philadelphik Company by Lawyer Sterenson. Larry Murray, a burgher, walks out of court at its adjournment and is lost sight of. Nothing gained against Mayor Wyman by the opening of the ballot boxes. Andrew Curnegie will astend the meeting of the State music tenchers. John J. Shoomberser made a ballot boxes. Andrew Carnegie will ar-tend the meeting of the State music teachers. John L Shoenberger made a member of the Parisian Academy of In-ventors and given a gold medal. The site of old Fort Fayette on Pern avenue sold to A. T. Roward for $250,100. The electric light company enters suit against Manager Davis of the Alvin The-ater for a large amount: they want to tear the lights out; Mr. Davis too ill to attend to business. The Legislature to be asked to allow the traction companies to run cars for transferring freight and express goods to remote parts of the city. Delayed and deficient assessments muse much trouble. No more Sunday express coods to remote parts of the city. Delayed and defleient assessments cause much trouble. No more Sunday excursions will be allowed on the rivers. -Milton B. Smith, while temporarity in-sane, hangs himself in the cellar of his residence. Three young Indians, who escaped from the Carlisie Indian solveol, found in this city. Two boys from Oil City reach here on a raft they claim they were kidnaped. Plans discussed to join the railroads of North and South Amer-ica. Two boys arrested for driving a stolen horse. Modjeska, owing to the grip, will be unable to appear in this city. Superintendent Duvis, of the trac-tion company, resides.

clop. Superinternet Davis, of the first tion company, resigns, -Methodist ministers propose church bil-liard rooms to offset the saloon. Charges of forgery and fraud preferred against Theodore Doerflinger. An heir of Ben-jamin Trimble sues for a share of the es-tate. Thomas O'Neill escapes from the Sheriff of Clearfield county. Mrs. Catha-rine Schwaeder dies along in a cellar. The forgery. Pugilists prepare for a Sunday fight on Proglists prepare for a Sunday fight on the Mayflower at Smithfield street wharf. The entire party captured by the police. General Lowell, Chief of the Internal Revenue Acents, will place a deputy in charge of Collector Warmenstle's offica. Chief Bigelow will search the Allecheny as far as Oil City to find the 6il pollating the river. The Arsenal Park likely to be-come a reality. Charles L. Davis, mana-ger of the Alvin, recovers sufficiently to return to the theater.

True bills are found against Mayor Wyman, ex-Mayor Pearson and Cler's Hastings, of Afegheny. More trouble ahead for the participants of the May-flower prize fight. All three Chiefs of the departments re-elected by Connells. The Health Bareau will investigate parochial schools. The fight between Jiles and Clark attracting general at-tention. John Dean, locked up in the Central station, twice trues to hang him.

-Two prisoners in the workhouse start -Two prisoners in the workhouse start writing a book, and are put in selimity confinement on bread and water for of days. Dr. Dowie, the faith currer, calls Rev. Dr. Locke a har. Councils will ry to secure pure water. Members of the Botanical Society exchange Christmas presents. Ye Tong after the great Chi-ness secret societies. The railroads al-ready crowded with home-going tour-ists.

Intermediation of the set of t Traction patrons will pay no fare unless

Pittsburg. An English lace manufacturer seeks