19-Mills is mad and spurns any offer made by Speaker Crisp. Senator-Governor Hill says the South, East and West are his. Dalzell's friends think Robinson means merely to hold himself as a club over the Congressman.

20-Hon, James H. Reed, Judge of the United States District Court, says he will resign January 1; many after the position; Straightout Fetterman said to be in the lead. Peffer and Simpson say Ingalis will not succeed Plumb. Peffer declares himself opposed to the saloon.

21-United States District Attorney Lyon will follow Judge Reed's example and resign. Ingalis will not be chosen by Governor Humphrey. Blaine will accept if reciprocity be made a part of the platform.

22-Mills considered a mite by the present dominant power in the House. St. Paul will build a big auditorium for the Democratic Convention. Dalzell toasted in New York. South Carolina indignant at the refusal of the Legislature to help the World's Fair.

23-All the committees formed in 15 days by Speaker Crisp; lots of big and many of the small fish caught. New York still insists that Blaine must be the candidate.

24-The new Congress to cut down the Government's expenses. New York City wants Blaine, Republicans in Gotham tired of the reign of Tom Platt. Quay smiles at the mention of Dalzell's candidace.

25-Christopher A. Buckley, California's blind boss, gives away the secrets of California politics. The coming Legislature said to contemplate dropping mercantile appraisers. A Syracuse Judge accuses Hill of pardoning a ward heeler, and arraigns the Elimira statesman.

26-Crisp's choice of chairmen about on a par with other Speakers' appointments. Milis getting over his grief, and will fight valiantly in the coming Congress. Springer the acknowledged leader of the new House.

27-The new Congress promises to save 880,-000,000 to the taxpayers. Governor Camp making session.

10—Green acitation in the Third Maire Congressional district and four candidates seeking nomination for Congress, among them Manley, Blaine's lieutenant. Governor Pattison is censured by the K. of L. 8-Mills alone sulks over the action of Congress. Speaker Crisp secures a shower of congratuations. Mills will not go to the Capitol until time for Congress to meet. The new Speaker opposed to Cleveland's radical doctrines.

8-Biaine must speak to stop the rumors circulated by Harrison's energetic boomers. Hoar, of Massachusetts, a new Democratic member of the House, disgusts older members with his affrontery. Mills falls physically, Congressmen ignoratic reading of Harrison's lengthy message.

the reading of Harrison's lengthy message.

10-Crisp promises to work for the best interests of the country and the party. Iowa temperance people urge the Republicans to stand by prohibition. Warmcastle will undoubtedly be dismissed. Biaine still remains silent.

11-Biaine declares himself out of the race, and says he is in favor of Harrison for renomination. Ex-Chairman Jones says Biaine told him so some time ago. The declaration of the Plumed Knight surprises many politicians. Many do not believe it authentic.

12-A correspondent says Biaine has an affeclieve it authentic.

12—A correspondent says Blaine has an affection of the throat and cannot declare publicly his intentions. Senator Quay lelt weak, that is why he did not receive the local politicians. Jones says Andrews saved Logan his seat in the Senate. the local politicians. Jones says Andrews saved Logan his seat in the Senate.

13—Politicians in Washington give up discussing Presidental possibilities to think of the possible war with Chile. South Carolina Prohibitionists willing to make concessions. Callum will be a candidate for President if Blaine refuses to run. A lot of officers' appointments sent to the senate for confirmation.

14—Mills haunts Crisp, and the sullen and silent Texan will not say what chairmanship he will take. Quay says he will not be a candidate for the Senate. Congressment think Crisp will make a better Chairman than Mills. New York Republicans say Blaine alone can carry the State.

15—Quay presents a bill providing for a survey of the Lake Erie Ship Canal. New bills for public buildings at Bradford and Allentown. How Mr. Quay would be Senator again. Reciprocity with British West Indies. McKinley still sick. A new scheme by Alliance men in Kansas.

16—Congressman Dalzell will try to oust Quay from the Senate. Mills and his men will tantalize the Speaker and Democratic majority in the House. Washington crowded with hungry office seckers. South Carolina to have a white man's Republican party.

18—Stephen B. Eikins appointed Secretary of War. Considered a Blaine deal to give Harrison a second term. General Goff a Circuit Court Judge. Quay holds a conference in Philadelphia. Vest still for Cleveland. Clarkson says both Blaine and Harrison are well.

18—Eikins is to deliver a solid West Virginia delecuation to Harrison. Dalzell announces his candidacy for Quay's position. Jack Robinson, his Nemesis, says "me, too." South Carolina's Legislature kills prohibition by tacking on an amendment nullifying the act.
