How the Street Cars Are Operated in the City of Glasgow.

PITTSBURG COULD FIND POINTS

Of Great Advantage in Bonny Scotland, According to A. Leggate.

MANNER OF SECURING PURE WATER

A. Leggate thinks that Pittsburg's model government could get a few valuable points from the municipality of Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. Leggate is a Scotchman, and naturally sees the best in his native land. The attempt to get better street car service in Pittsburg brought up the subject of municipal government, and the statement from Mr. Leggate that Glasgow has determined to take charge of its street rail-

They lease franchises there and do not give them away for nothing, he explained. The first line was built in 1869-70. George Francis Train and other Americans attempted to get control of the streets, but were refused, and finally a compromise was made whereby the city was to build the lines and then lease them. They were all borse lines, and on account of the city being compact, it only required 31 miles to reach the important points. The cost was $1,700,000, all of which was furnished by the city.

The lines were then leased to corporations until 1894. The terms were that a rental of $750 per mile should be paid; that a yearly sinking fund should be created that would cover the entire cost of the roads ($1,700,000) at the end of lease, and that annual interest should be paid the city on its investment. In no case was over I penny per mile to be charged on the street cars, and for workingmen, morning and evening, half penny per mile.

The very important requirement was also made that enough cars should be provided to accommodate the public, and so well has it been complied with that it is very seldom a passenger is required to stand The street car straps are as good as new although they have been used over 20 years, and in that time the people have never had cause to gramble.

Profitable to All Concerned.

The terms of the lease were such that only the boldest capital would take them and until 1880 it took close financiering to pay the city and leave a bonus. Since that time big dividends have been paid and the city rulers, with a vi-w always to advancing the interests of the municipality have determined to reap the harvest, and after the expiration of the present lease, operate the street car lines themselves.

They will cut down fares and attempt only to pay expenses. A continuation of the good service is guaranteed and the ployes have been promised, that regardless of party affiliations, they will be kept in service as long as they give good satisfac-

"This is true in all departments," Mr. Leggate said. "Politics does not enter into an accusation of dishonesty against the city officials. Taxes are low and the public is

Glasgow Has Pure Water, Too.

Another thing which Mr. Leggate thought Pittsburg might copy was the manner of getting the water supply in Glasgow. It was formerly piped from the Clyde by a corporation, but the city wanted better water and at cheaper rates, so they con-cluded to bring it from Loch Katrine in the Highlands. The cost was great, but it is now self-sustaining.

The water is as pure as from a spring, and the pressure is so great that it is seldom necessary to bring out engines to put out a fire. Mr. Leggate thinks it would be a good plan to follow Glasgow's lead by water from either Lake Chautauqua or Lake Conneaut. The undertaking, he thinks, is feasible, and the water supply that would be secured would be as good as there is in any city in the world.

Investigating the Infantile Debauch. Contractor Gallagher, in whose wagon-yard the little Logue and Thompson boys were found drunk, proposes to thoroughly investigate the matter himself and have those responsible fer the lads' condition arrested, if possible. He has a 9-foot fence around the lot, and does not propose to have his place made a rendezvous by the wilder youths of the neighborhood.

A Statement.

A few days since an account appeared in the papers of the city of a suit brought by L. M. Morris against C.A. Balph for $23,000 for materials furnished on the Times building. We are now informed by Mr. Balph that the only amount in dispute between the parties was $470, the dispute being as to the true meaning of the contract between the parties. Mr. Balph had offered and was anxious to pay all moneys claimed by Mr. Morris except the sum in dispute, while Mr. Morris refused to accept anything except the whole amount of his claim, including the disputed items. Yesterday the parties met with their attorneys, and Mr. Morris agreed to accept from Mr. Balph all of his claim except the small amount in dispute, and this, it was agreed, should stand until the court should construe the contract.

THOSE who intend witnessing the big spectacular production of "Sinbad," at the Duquesne Theater to-night, should remember that the curtain ascends promptly at 7:30 to-night. Directly after the performance the company will leave on a special train for Boston, but Manager Henderson has determined, on account of thousands of people being unable to witness the spectacle this week, to come with it again to this city the week of February 22. He anticipates that if he has no other attendance on the re-turn than those who were turned away during the present week, the house will be packed nightly. However, there are few who have witnessed "Sinbad" that will not be eager to see it again.

To the Saloon and Private Trade.

As the season is now at hand for ale and porter, the Straub Brewing Company take pleasure in announcing to the saloon and private trade that they are prepared to fill all orders promptly. We also claim that our celebrated brands of "Pilsener" and "Munich" lager beer cannot be excelled by any brewers of the States. We guarantee our beer to be four and one-half months old and all our goods are made of the very best quality of hops and malt. Ask the saloon trade for it or telephone No. 5038.
