THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH, SATURDAY, JANUARY 9, 1892, ious world is the move to establish a religious paper in the interest of Dr. Briggs. The New York Erangelist, the only paper of the Presbyterian denomination which has stood for Dr. Briggs in the controversy now agitating the Church, is not regarded by some of the more pronounced friends of the heretic as sufficiently radical. And so it is proposed to establish a religious newspaper at Cleveland, O., which will be outspoken in Dr. Briggs' behalf. At the front of the new departure is Rev. Dr. Haydn, long time a very successful pastor of one of the leading Cleveland churches. Though in Western Pennsylvania Dr. Briggs has apparently little following in the Presbyter ian body, it is growing evident tha both West and East he has many staunch and influential adherents, who are ready to share his reproach.

WHY WATKINS WAS HANGED.

He Killed His Negro Wife for the Sake of His White Sweethcart. ROANORE, VA., Jan. 8 .- Charles Watkins was hanged in Salem to-day for the murder of his wife. Watkins, a light mulatto, was head water in the Hotel Felix, in this city. He became enamored of a white woman, Ada Freible, of Milwaukee, and went to live with her at the house of his uncle, three miles east of Salem. His legal wife, Susan, a negress, tollowed the couple there on the evening of April 6 last, and that night Watkins shot at her, inflicting a wound in her hand. On the following morning he took her to the wood nearby and beat her brains out with a stone. Since his conviction, Novem-ber 20, he feigned insanity, pretending to believe that he was Christ, but a jury ad-

WHO WILL BE THE AUTHORITY? In the January number of the Review, vol. iv., No. 1, Mr. John T. Denvir, of Onica-go, Checker Editor of the Review, and the In-ler-Ocean, brings himsel? prominently before his readers as a candidate for the position left vacant by the death of A. J. Dunlap, of the Twrf, Field and Farm, and Editor in Chief of America. In his eard he points out a few of his own qualifications for that posi-tion by his connection with a magazine de-voted to the game. He gives the names of I checker editors who are candidates for that place of authority, and among the number we find that of the Checker Editor of The Disparcie. The editor of this department is not in it. We love the game for Dameth's sake, but we decline to have anything to do with Dameth when she takes the role of a sport. Our sporting editor is one of the leading author-ities of this country on all sporting matters, and if ever we are called upon to make matches for stakes, etc., we will give it into the heads of the sporting calling who we SOLUTIONS. matches for stakes, etc., we will give it into the hands of the sporting editor. When "Dameth" goes into sporting then she be-comes subject to all the laws governing sport for stake money, forfeiture and the like. Mr. J. T. Denvir is the last one I would like. Mr. J. T. Denvir is the last one I would go to as an authority in any of those points, and as to "Dameth" and all that pertains to the game, let each of us show by our depart-ments who is entitled to be the authority. Let it be merit, as in the case of A. J. Dun-lap. He was the means of bringing together the greatest players of the world. Had it not been for him we believe our beloved game would no' have been so well known throughout this great continent. Let those then who aspire to his mantle do as he did, and they will not be without their reward. CHECKEN EDITOR.
