

MR. ACHESON AHEAD.

Two Victories in Committee for the Candidate for Congress.

WASHINGTON COUNTY POLITICS.

A Church Fight in Edinboro and an Erie Society Squabble.

NEWS NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.—WASHINGTON, Pa., Jan. 12.—A largely attended meeting of the Republican County Committee was held here today.

Dr. Denry offered a resolution that the sub-committee on Rules be authorized to arrange with the other counties in the district on a method for nominating a candidate for Congress.

J. F. Taylor, John D. Carson and Edward McDonald were named as candidates for Congress. The committee on Rules was authorized to make arrangements with the other counties for the holding of the Congressional Convention.

It was decided to hold the convention to nominate the candidates for Congress and delegates to the State Convention.

KNIGHTS BY THE EARS.

Two Factions Make Charges and Counter Charges at Erie.

Two factions of the Knights of Malta, a seceding branch of the Knights of Malta, are having a lively time here. While the attempt on the part of J. Blushing, Primate in Arcon, to secure a charter for the institution of a new chapter of a branch of the Knights of Malta, has been successful.

ADVENTISTS AT WAR.

A Dispute Between the Pastor and Superintendent Disrupts the Church.

EDINBORO, Pa., Jan. 12.—(Special.)—There is a large and flourishing branch of the Adventists located here. Their body is not far removed from the pastor, Rev. O. M. Gwynne, and the superintendent, E. A. Sperry.

A Woman on Suicide Bent.

MARLETTA, Jan. 12.—(Special.)—A woman named Smith, wife of a ship carpenter, made a desperate attempt at suicide late last night. Some days ago the husband withdrew from the wife, and she had several hundred dollars, and proceeded to get rid of it as fast as possible.

A Thumb Testered in Scissors Handles.

BEAVER FALLS, Jan. 12.—(Special.)—This morning Besse, the 6-year-old daughter of George Stowe, of this place, was playing with a pair of scissors.

Newly Married but a Murderer.

PANORAMA, Jan. 12.—(Special.)—The trial of Sheridan Wagoner, charged with the murder of William Hill, filled the Court House today.

Tri-State Reviviles.

BEAVER FALLS, Jan. 12.—(Special.)—The morning Besse, the 6-year-old daughter of George Stowe, of this place, was playing with a pair of scissors.

The Riverside Iron and Steel Company.

At Wheeling, has quit striking nails. Wire mill competition was too much for it.

A Cyclist's Head Blew out of the Engine of the Beaver Valley Traction Company's plant.

Yesterday, cars cannot run for several days. The "bummer" train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, ran into several cars of iron at Riverton station Monday night.

By a boiler explosion at a slate quarry near Dora, York county, William Harriott was killed and Richard Hughes perhaps fatally injured.

CHARLES OWENS, confined in the East Liverpool city prison on a charge of attempting to murder his wife, escaped Monday night.

The sale in Kiefer & Keller's flouring mill at Jeannette was blown open Monday night, and its contents, taken on the same night by burglars, failed to crack D. P. Lowe's safe at Elk. President. They took $500 worth of merchandise, however.

The receipts of the Floy Crock Opera Company were attached in Wheeling on a claim of damages from an East Liverpool bank for failure to carry out a contract.

FREDERICK HALLER, the proprietor of the Enterprise brewery of Altoona, has refused to pay a liquor bill due J. Well & Co., of Pittsburgh.
