LANDLORD LOCKED UP

And Tenants Trying to Find Out Just How III He Really Is.

THEY THINK HE IS MISTREATED.

Therefore They Hold a Meeting to Take Action in the Case.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH, 1 NEW YORK, Jan. 13 .- Dr. Gustav Scho-Ier, who was once a deputy coroner, and who lives nearly opposite the house of the "old gentleman" mentioned, distributed copies of this circular all over the neighborhood vesterday

NOTICE.

The tenants and neighbors of the Strobel flats, Nos. 328 to 536 West rorty-eighth street, who are interested in the welfare of the old gentleman, and who feel that his valuable estate should be in the hands of some responsible party during his present illness, are requested to most this evening Tues. are requested to meet this evening, Tues-day, January 12, 1832, 830 r. M., at Mr. Bre-Eighth avenue and Forty-eighth street. HUMANITY.

In response to the invitation 50 men and women appeared at Mr. Bremer's store omptly on time, and seated themselves as infortably as they could on the counters, barrels, boxes and a few chairs. Among them were Police Justice Kelly, County Physician Crosby, Jacob Files, Peter B. Brady, Joseph Hecht, Mrs. Emma Reisz and E. J. Campbell, all well-to-do residents of the neighborhood,

Looking After Their Landlord. The "old gentleman" in whose welfare these people are so much interested is John Strobel, the owner of the Strobel flats, who lies ill at 330 West Forty-eight street. The people who are around him say he is ine and unable to take care of himself, but the neighbors say he is being deprived of his liberty by schemers who want to get some of his money. Things finally reached such a pass that Dr. Scholer decided to call this meeting for the purpose of agreeing upon some plan of action.

John Strobel came to this country from Germany in 1854, and started in as a shoe He saved his money and invested it in real estate. The Strobel flats are estimated at $200,000. There is a mortgage on them of about $83,000, but the owner derives an income of $15,000 from the prop-

Not Allowe | at His Wife's Foneral. Strobel and his wife were content to live on the first floor of one of the flats, without a servant. Shortly after Christmas they were both tuken ill with the grip, and Dr. Laurence Johnson was summoned. Dr. Crosby, of West Forty-eighth street, who Croshy, of West Forty-eighth street, who had attended them for nearly ten years, was not consulted. A few days before New negroes are moving out of the exposed por-Year's Mrs. Strobel died, There was a large funeral, but Mr. Strobel was not Dr. Johnson said he was too ill to eave his bed.

Mr. Strobel has a great many friends, and many of them called at the house, but a man named Sherwood, who said he was a professional nurse, refused to admit anyone, Then all the tenants and neighbors began to talk, and stories were told about what was going on in the Strobel aparta e ats.

Some of the neighbors vent to Dr. Crosby and told him it was time for him to interfere. He wrote a letter to Dr. John-son asking for a consultation, but Dr. Johnson paid no attention to it. Then Dr. Crosby wrote again and said he would see that the proper measures were taken to in estigate the matter. Several days ago Dr. Johnson applied to Justice Barrett, of the Supreme Court, who appointed a commission to inquire into John Strobel's mental Labirs and Gentlemen: We have come together here to protest against one of the greatest outlages that has ever been pernetrated in our midst. You all know John Strebel, and you all like him. Now he lies alone in his room where none of us can see him, kept there by a clique of shrewd schemers. How was it that Dr. Johnson was called in, and not Dr. Crosby, who has always attended them! Mr. Strobel was too sick to go for a doctor himself, and Julius Raymond, one of the tenants, went of his now a secord, and summoned Dr. Johnson. Dr. Johnson at once decided that Mr. Strobel was heave and placed this Irish painter. Sherwood, who is no more a nurse than I am, to watch him. You know that Mr. Strobel speaks very little English. How can be get along with an Irish nurse! Nobedy is allowed to see him. Are they drugging him? What is all this mystery?

Now, hides and gentlemen, it remains for us to bestir ourselves in this matter and probe it to the bottom. If there is any villainy we will uncarth it. At any rate, no one can be wronged by our investigations.

Lawyer Brady said his clients were anxious to show that Strobel was sane. Mr. Arrowsmith, representing Dr. Johnson, opposed Mr. Brady's motion. Betore the hearing on Friday Dr. Elliott will examine Strobel. An Old Priend Gets to See Strobet.

Mr. Weber, an old friend of Mr. Strobel, succeeded in seeing him to-day. According to Dr. Schoier Mr. Strobel said: "My dear friend, who haven't you come before? None of my triends have been to see me. "These people here won't let me go out, and I'm too sick to do anything. I need better care than I am getting here."

Mr. Weber promised to aid him, and came to Dr. Scholer with his story. Re-porters who called at Mr. Strobel's flat were denied admittance.

Treasurer Boyer Sues Jamieson & Co. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 13 .- State Treasurer Henry K. Boyer has entered in court here two assessments of damages against B. K. Jamieson & Co. of $28,962 each. The assessments are on the $50,000 deposited with B. K. Jamieson & Co. before their failure. Boyer held a bond for $100,000, on which he entered judgment in November, Troops Expect to Capture Garza. WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.-General Schofield said to-day the latest reports from General Stanley indicated that Garza's band was hadly scattered and nearly disorganized; that the men were hiding in the chapparel, and United States troops were close on the trail of Garza with reasonable expectations of capturing him.

No Deed Transfers After February 1. After February 1 no deeds can be transferred at the City Assessors' office. The Great Financier's Re-Election Completed-He Speaks for Protection-Kumors of Testimony in Some Aileged Bribery Cases Before a Grand Jury.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 13 .- [Special.]-It is understood on the streets to-night, that three members of the Legislature gave their evidence before the grand jury, today. It is stated Messrs. McConnell, of A PECULIAR CONDITION OF AFFAIRS Lawrence, Workman, of Hardin and Jackson, of Hamilton, testified that they had been offered Government positions to vote for Senator Sherman. These gentlemen could not be found to-night, and it is not known whether the statement is correct.

It was announced vesterday that this evening the details of an attempt by a friend of Mr. Sherman to bribe a member for the sum of $3,500 to vote for the Senator would be made public. The details were not forthcoming, and to-night it was "de-ferred for a few days." The details were not published because the member selected warned the newspaper making the prom-ises that if his name appeared in print he would hold the manager responsible and would wipe up the street with him. "You publish 'that story and I will mash your face," were the words of the disgusted mem-

At noon to-day the Senate and House met in joint session in the Honse to choose a United States Senator. The clerks of the two Honses read the minutes of the separate elections held yesterday. These showing that Senator Sherman had a majority of the votes in both Houses, Lieutenant Governor Harris declared John Sherman duly elected United States Senator from Ohio for the term of six years beginning March 4, 1893. A committee was appointed to escor Senator Sherman to the hall of the House. When the Senator appeared he received an enthusiastic welcome, after which he made an address thanking the legislators for his re-election. He said, among other things: Fortunately, the great issues between the two partles growing out of the Civil War are being settled by the benling hand of time. The people of the South as well as the North The people of the South as well as the North beigh to recognize that the only basis of permanent peace and good will is that all citizens must be protected in the equal enjoyment of civil and political rights, without distinction of race or color, leaving social relations to be determined by each individual citizen. Though we may differ as to details, you will expect me to stand fast to the policy of impartially protecting all American industries from competition with foreign labor, so that capital may be induced to embark in new enterprises and American labor may secure such reasonable wares as are consistent with the dignity and the wants of American workingmen.

ON THE DOWN GRADE.

OHIO'S LEGISLATURE HONORS HIM TO Dominick McCaffrey Says Amateur Boxing Is Going Down.

> SLAVIN THE WORLD'S CHAMPION. President Robison Makes a Manly Statement About His Letter.

Dominick McCaffrey, the boxing instructor of the Manhattan Athletic Club, who has been in this city several days visiting friends said some very interesting things yesterday about amateur boxers and professional fighters. No man in the country is more qualified to express an opinion on the question than McCaffrey, and his views are very pronounced. During a conversation with the writer, he

"Amateur boxing is done for in the Manhattan club and in the East generally. We tongs at each other without any regard to the scientific features of the art. As a result clubs have resolved to have prefessional contests instead of the amateurs. I am, therefore, out securing professionals to box before our club and it is the first time box before our club and it is the first time in the history of the club that professional contests of the kind have been decided on.

Speaking of professionals Dominick said;
'In my opinion F. P. Slavin is the best fighter in the world to-day. I don't think there is any doubt on the matter at all. After Slavin, I think that the Irish champion, Peter Maher, has a chance with anybody. Maher is a tremendous hitter and very quick. He also has good judgment. He will improve. I do not rate Corbett as a fighter; he is a boxer. Slavin, Sullivan and Maher are fighters, but Corbett Sullivan and Maher are fighters, but Corbett is not. If Corbett and Mitchell were to box six rounds under Queensberry rules, of course Corbett would have the best of it, because he could keep his tapping going all over Mitchell, but would never hart him. "But let me add that boxing and pugi-lism are changing materially. Except a few big purses for a very few contests, there is no money in the business for anybody. PITTSBURG GETS FARRELL

Elmer Smith A'so to Play With the Loca

Club This Year. Washington, D. C., Jan. 13 .- [Special.]-President Young to-day issued his first pronunciamiento under the new dispensation in baseball, signing the bulletin as Secretary of the National League and American Asso ciation of Professional Baseball Clubs, Three sets of contracts are promulgated in his communication, those who drew prizes being Elmer E. Smith and Charles A. Farrell with Pitisburg, W. P. Rhines with Cincinnati, and George C. Leakin, C. D. Murphy cinnati, and George C. Leakin, C. D. Murphy and S. M. Dungen with Chicago. Martin Duke has been assigned to the Chicago club in place of T. C. Vickery, the latter player being now eligible to sign with any club desiring his services. Two players have been released by the Messrs. Wagner, who now control the Washington club, Lawrence Patrick Murphy, the famous run-getter and base stealer, being dispensed with together with Center Fielder T. C. Griffin, so that 13 has proven an unlacky number for two of the best of last year's Washington team.

Regarding the prospect for an early assembling of the new association, President Young stated that no necessity existed for calling his colleagues together at present. As far as he was intermed now there would be no meeting until March 12, when a schedule would be arranged at the Fifth Avenue Hotte, New York, for the playing season of 1891. A dicker is in progress between the New York and Washington clubs, by which the former hopes to secure Milligan of last year's Athletics.

ROBISON IS FAIR.

He Says He'il Applogize if He Misquoted

President Robison, of the Cleveland Ball Club, comes out like a gentleman regarding the letter he wrote about the Groom case as the following from the Cleveland Leader

"The attention of President Robison, of the Cleveland Baseball Club, was called last evening to the statements of the Pittsburg officials in regard to the Grimm case. It is asserted there that the conversation in which President Robison took part with Buckenberger, the Pittsburg manager, was in reference to Weaver and not to Grimm. The names of both players had been mentioned and it was possible that they had become incorrectly associated in Mr. Robison's recollection of the conversation. In speaking of the matter Mr. Robison said: 'It is possible that I may be mistaken as to the case of Grimm. I understand that Manager Buckenberger has written a letter to me by which I shall be convinced of my error. I am perfectly frank to acknowledge that I shall rectify any unintentional error as regards an individual player, but I shall not take back one word of the principles I sought to convey in my letter. I want this baseball settlement and future baseball legislation to be perfectly fair and honorable, and when pledges are made they should be lived up to. If Mr. Buckenberger convinces me that I am mistaken in regard to Grimm he will hear of it at once.'" asserted there that the conversation in

The Heir Prespuptive to the English Throne May Not Live to Wed the Princess of Teck-Both Lungs Congested-His Bride Expectant With Him.

LONDON, Jan. 13 .- The Duke of Clarence and Avondale, son of the Prince of Wales, whose approaching marriage has been the talk of all Europe, is a very sick man. His attack of congestion of the lungs assumed a dangerous phase yesterday. A bulletin issued at 8 P. M. said:

There is no abatement in the patients un favorable symptoms. During the day the condition of the Duke has been the cause of grave anxiety, although his strength is maintained.

Private advices communicated from Sand-ringham Hall to intimate friends of the family explain the serious tone of to-day's bulletins. Until yesterday evening only one lung of the Duke was severely affected. Early this morning an examination showed that both lungs were congested. The patient suffers frequently from scute pain, and his breathing is difficult. The doctors' main hope is that the Duke's sound constitution will pull him through, but the family know that he has not the robust vitality of his

The malady from which the Duke is suffering developed so rapidly this morning that his mother remained at his bedside, re-fusing to take any rest throughout the night. The sudden change for the worse in the patient's condition struck the whole house-old with dismay.

The Princess told a friend that this was really the seventh day of the Duke's illness.
On Wednesday last, she said, he was a member of a party shooting over game covers a long distance from Sandringham Hall. At luncheon he complained of not feeling a well as usual, was seen to shiver, and said that he felt that he was taking cold, but after the meal he continued shooting. He insisted on rejoining the party Thursday.

After luncheon he said he felt compelled to return home and left the party, going on

For Catarrh and Dyspepsia, To All Patients Who Apply for Troatment

$5 A MONTH, MEDICINE INCLUDED.

Before February 10. That the suffering public everywhere—at home and abroad—may have an opportunity to thoroughly test the skillful methods of treating disease as used by Drs. Lowe, Grubbs and associates, of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute, 323 Penn avenue, only FIVE DOLLARS A MONTH, including medicine, will be charged patients suffering from Catarrh and Dyspepsia and who apply for treatment before February 10. This offer applies to both new and old patients. All patients who apply for treatment before February 10 will only be charged $5 a month until cured.

wide, and one price,

The Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute was established in 1888. Patients have the advantage of thoroughty educated physicians having had a combined practice of 50 years. Parranung, Jan. 2, 1892.

To the Physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute, 323 Penn avenue:

"You inquire how I have been since I became cured over one year ago. I am glad to state I have remained well, and never enjoyed better health. I had had catarrh for six years. I first noticed my head and nose would feel stuffed up, and a tough, slimy mucus formed in my throat. The discharge from my nose was from my nose was very offensive. I had pain in my forehead and frequent nosebleed. My throat became sore and hurt to swallow. The disease extended from my threat to my lungs. I fel my lungs. I fel my lungs. I felt pain in my chest. I coughed night and day. In the night my cough had no appetite and feit like vomiting what little food Late. I had distress and fullness after cating. I employed several physicians, but grew worse. I became disgusted with doctoring and thought I never would be cared. Through advice of a friend, whose wife had been cared, I called at your institute and began treatment. I improved rapidly from the first. Your price for treatment was more reasonable than any I had received, for you cuted me in much less time than I expected. The best part of all is I have remained cured. I live at No. 219 Pearl street, Pittsburg, and am candoyed at the La Belle Steel Works. Allegheny. You may publish this letter if you desire, for I am willing the whole world should know what has been done for me.

The best treatment is always chempest. Das. Lowe, Greens and associates charge nothing for consultation and examination. Office hours, 10 a. M. to 4 P. N., and 5 to 8 P. M. Sundays, I to 4 P. M.
